WASHINGTON WHIG.

VOL. IV.

BRIDGETON, (N. J.) SATURDAY, JANUARY 24, 1824.

State of pew-Iersey.

Supplement to the act, entitled "An act for the preservation of Clams and Oyst^rs," passed on the 9th tlay of June, 1820.

1. Be it enacted by the Council and Gene al Assembly & this stric, and if is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for tire owner or owners, or any person or persons, having a licence, in writing, from the owner or owners of meadow or other lands, which arc opposite and contiguous to flats which arc at any time bare, or coves, upon or within which flats or coves there have, not been, heretofore any natural oyster beds, along the shores of such parts of the Newark Day and Staten-Island Sound, as lie within the township of Elizabeth, to plant and lay clams, oysters or other shell-fish, upon, within or a bove, such flats and coves, and one chain beyond the same: Provided the clams and oysters thus. planted shall be enclosed and designated by stakes placed beyond them within the prescribed limits not less than six rods apart, and of such length, as to be at least two feet above ordinary high water, and PROVIDED also that this act shall not be so construed as to take a way, or in m y wise impair the common rights of citizens to any natural oyster beds which may be embraced by the boundary in the said act specified.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That any per son or persons, who shall gather or take at the door; the clouds which had been lower. away any oysters or clams, upon, above, or ing all the afternoon, now assumed a more dark within the limits aforesaid, without permission first had and obtained from such owner Or owners, person or persons, occupying under such owner or owners as aforesaid, shall be liable to the same forfeitures and the lite such for dam ages, to be recovered and sued for, in manuel as is directed and provided in the thirteenth section of the act to which this is a supple 'ment

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act shall prevent the Legislature from the repeal, or inodification of the same at their pleasure river.

Passed Dec. 8, 1823. C. & A.

1. Be it enacted &c. That from and after the passing of this act, it shall not be lawful for any person to erect, fasten or fix, any fishwear, hoop-net, seine, or other device for the purpose of catching fish, across any part of Mullica's river so as to prevent a free passage of fish betwaen the mouth of said river, arid a station known by the name of Mappa creek .-And if any person shall offend against this act he or she shall forfeit and pay, for every such offence, ten dollars, to be sued for, aiid recovered, in the name of any person who shall make complaint thereof, and when recovered, to be applied, the one half to the overseers of the Poor of the Township, where ilie said offence shall be committed, for the use of the poor of the said township, and the other half to the person who shall sue for thic same.

C. Passed Dec. 2d, 1823.

An Act respecting the Delaware and Raritan Canal.

1. Be it enacted by the Council and General Assembly of this state, and it is hereby enacled by the authority of the same, That Silas Condit, George Holcombe, and Lucius Q. C. Elme, esons, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners for the purposes of ascertaining the practicability and expediency of a canal to u-nite the tide waters of the Delaware and Raritan Rivers, and to report to the next Session the probable expense and ature. the revenue to be derived thereupon; as also upon any arrangement that may be made with the United States in respect to said Canal ; and upon the ways and means proper to be adopted for executing the same; and generally on every other matter which in their opinion would be useful to be understood by the Legislature in the premises. SEC. 2. Be it enacted, That in case of thir death, refusal or inability of either of the said Commissioners to act, the Governor, for the time being, or the person administering the Government, be, and he is hereby authorised and required, to supply such vacancy; and also to draw upon the Treasurer of ttie State, in favor of said Commissioners to defray the necessary expenses of such Commissioners, for any sum not exceeding four hundred tiollars, and the said Commissioners shall keep and exhibit

The following "Wedding Tale," while it furnishes considerable amusement to the reader, contains a striking illustration of the practical utility of modern romances. Every sensible and reflecting mind will gather instruction from it. It exhibits, in bold relicf, the ludicrous effects which often result from an imperfect education - from intemperance of feeling, and from the overweening and mistaken regard which parents in too many instances manifest towards their fall had awakened the family, and with as children. It may in itself he 3 tale of romance, but much haste as possible. placing her on one then it has its rise as an antidote. [Ed. Whig.

MISCELLANY.

From the Cincinnati Gazette. THE WEDDING.

Some few miles below the village of August ta, on the Kentucky shore, there stands at this landed on this side of Licking River; but for time on the bank of the river a small double the sake of a dollar which I gave the ferrylog cabin. the former proprietor of which uni-iman, he agreed not to set him over for an hour ted for a long time the character of farmer, and thus enable us to escape, and here you see tavern-keeper, magistrate and ferryman, and us, half-starved and as wet as a drowned rat." i my recollection serves me right, he talked seriously of being a candidate for the legislature; he was a jolly fellow, fond of fun, and could never find it in his heart to refuse the kind solicitations of his guests, to partake with them of a cheering glass.—Among the even-ings that I have spent with this jocose landlord, there is one I shall long remember with a smile. It was in the latter part of October, near the close of the day, when it company with two or three fellow travellers I arrived arid threatening aspect; the vivid lightning which played along the verge of the horizon was followed by the loud peals of thunder ; the wind with irresistible force ascended the valley of Ohio, and in a few moments the rain des. cended in torrents. We were offering congratulations to each other upon our comforta. ble situation as we drew near the fire, when the trampling of horses was head, and a voice from without crying "halloo, ferryman." The door was opened and exhibited to view a young couple covered with mud and drenched by the rain, who desired to be ferried over the river without delay, as they were in great haste.-The landlord cast his eyes towards the clouds An Aor to regulate the fisheries in Mullica's from which the rain was still descending with great violence, shook his head and desired tlieni to dismount, declaring that Iiis boat should not cross the river again that night. "Johnny, tell him he must set us over, and be hanged th him," whispered tlic young lady with great ear. nestness, for that plaguy old dad or "mine will surely be here before midnight, and then the jig is all up as the saying is." Johnny bade his dear Sukey, as he pleased to call her, hold her tongue, lest she should be overheard, and again bawling to the landlord proffered him fivedollars if he would ferry hini over - but in vain; the landlord was inexorable, and after some little consultation, they dismounted and approached ttic fire, from which we gladly re. treated in order to avoid the water that drip. ped from their garments in great profusion.

As we walked to the other end of the room, one of my fellow travellers, who readily conjectured the business of the hopeful couple at the fire, tapping me on the shoulder, whispered "there's a runaway match for you, and as our landlord is ex-officio a justice of the peace, he shall marry them this very night, arid rare sport we'll have of it too." So saying he returned and entered into conversation with Johnny, who seemed highly pleased with such a mark of attention. Matters were very soon arranged to thic satisfaction of the parties. and the fair Sukey immediately withdrew to the landlady's apartment in order to exchange her a here bundle of clothes, which so frightened observing his movements. They approached one of my horses that he broke loose and gave tures and all heroincs too, thought I-you had better kilock one's brains out at once-but there was no time to lose, for the noise of our much haste as possible, placing her on one horse aiid mounting the other myself, we left the house just as the man opened the door .-We have travelled almost night and day since we started, but so closely lias the old fellow pursued, that tie was in sight of us when we

At this moment the bride came bouncing into the room quite metamorphosed. At the appointed hour, I found her sitting at the side of and chuckling Johnny under the chin, inform-ing him that she was now ready, and that there was no time to be lost. She was a stout buxom lass. with sandy hair, full face and light complexion. Her dress was striped pink gingbam, bounced with blue silk at the bottom, and ornamented most fantastically with inany colored ribbons around her waste; her neck was partly hid by a stran of large five-sided glass beads, and tier hair profusely decked with artificial flowers.

Our landlord now arose, and taking down an antiquated volume from the shelf over the fireplace, which contained the church of Enggland ceremony, desiring the bridge and groom to rise, and with all imaginable gravity corn. menced reading the service; but ore he had proceeded two pages a loud knocking was heard from without. "Good lack," exclaimed Sukey, with the utmost consternation, "I'll warrant that is my old dad ; do, sir, I pray make haste and finish. The landlord beckon-ed to my officiating fellow traveller to step to the door and prevent its being opened until the proper time, and passing a bowl of punch which he had prepared for thic occasion, to the bride and groom, desired them to be of good cheer, for he would soon be done.

Theceremony was again resumed, as well as cries from without for admittance; and at thir moment when the landlord was pronouncing; them man and wife, the door flew open, and to our great astonishment in hops an elderly little gentleman, exclaiming with a lond shrill voice, • man and vizen, what does all this mean ?

He was about four feet ten or eleven inches in height, had long black hair, tied behind with a leather string, dark keen eyes, sharp aqua-line nose—clad in an old fashioned blue coal and a pair of greasy buckskin breeches that had descended from father to son for several successive generations, sharp pointed shoes fastened by large silver buckles; oile foot ornamented with a rusty spue, and in the right hand a huge riding whip. He advanced with aquick step and indignant look towards tiis daughter, exclaiming 'You good for nothing jade you, I have got you at last, have I' 'Yes dad,' replied Sukey, 'brit Johnny has got me too.'-Johnny,' retorted the old gentleman, curling up his nose and casting at him a look of tile most contemptuous indignation. Oh daddy, what a charming adventure this lias been,' exclaimed the bride, quite transported with the thought. 'So romantic - so like lady Algerona in tire beautiful romance of the mountain-

nearer; at length he saw the Indian bring the rifle to his shoulder-and at that instant the Sukey, plump on my head, screaming out, "catch me, catch me," and away we both tum-bled to the ground. Curse on such vile adven-tures and all heroines too, thought I drawing the bloody scalping knife, (but foigst-ting to re-load his piece,) advanced with hasty strides, thirsting for murder, and anticipating the reward of a scalp. The soldier, motionless, permitted him to approach within ten paces, he then, with the utinost composure, spring upon his fect. The savage stood aghast. The sol-tier, with deliberate aim, put two balls directly through his heart. A hoarse groan was the only sound that issued from the fallen savage. This son of the forests was at least six feet 5 inches in height. The soldier took the Indian's rifle, returned to the camp, and sold it for $25. N. Y. Paper.

No. 161.

Anecdote .- A wag, some time ago advertised a carriage to perform without horses, with only one wheel, and invited the curious in mechanics to see it. Many of the members of the society of arts atttended, and in the ardor of

C.C. From the Salem Observer.

"Thou God seest n2e!"-Reader, believest thou this? Does thy life declare such a belief? A full conviction of the omniscience of God, is equally appalling to the wicked, and com-suring as and good; for, while it convinces the nvinces the former that his evil thoughts, as well as his seand omnipotent Judge, "who will render to every man according to liis deeds," it encour-ages the latter, that the purity of his intentiona, which inay have escaped human obser-vation, and his virtuous deeds, which may have assed without reward or notice, will infallibly receive approbation and recompense from Him "whose favor is life, and whose loving kindness is better than life." "Thou God seest me." If this solemn truth were generally believed, so as to have an influence upon human actions, it would be followed by the happiest consequences both to indivitluals and to society. It would restrain those lusts and passions "whence come wars and fightings," and all the wicked abominations that abound in the world. It would secure individuals from that folly and guilt which often involve them in disgrace and ruin; and secure society against those crimes and excesses which have led some to believe that virtue flourishes better in the bosom of a savage than amidst the refinements of civilization.

Few men are so hardened in wickedness and so totally regardless of themselves, as to violate the laws of society in presence of a court of justice, or civil magistrate, or a number of witnesses competent to attest their guilt, and in view of certain and speedy imprisonment. If the presence of man, whose mightiest arm can inflict but a momentary pang, be a res. traint upon wicked inclinations, how much more effectually would these be restrained by a sense of tire presence of that awful Power "who is able to destroy both soul and body ?"

Though all nicn professedly believe in the existence and ownipresence of God, for speculative atheism can hardly be said to exist, yet how few comparatively speaking, actuniform-ly under the influence of such belief. Were the belief in the divine omniscience strong enough to control and direct human conduct, the passions would seldom gain the ascendancy over reason, or the character be stained with fraud, landlady's apartment in order to exchange her muddy garments for the bridal one which she er, with a sneer. 'I'll disinherit you—I'll actions would never crimson the check with had brought in a handkerchief suspended from ['ll'-love you all the days of my life,' added the landlord approaching the old inan with the shame, or make it pale with' fear; no motive the landlord approaching the old inan with the would seek concealment: fairnees interview. remainder of the punch, and with an air of the utmost non chalance. We all now interceded and violence would mark every action; fraud and violence would be without a name; and hypocrisy would die away. Religion would never be worn as a cloak to hide a multitude of sins; nor the name of patriot assumed as a stepping stone to office. All the duties and requirements of religion would be cheerfully and faithfully obeyed. In civil affairs, every citizen would act with a single eye to the public good; and never suffer the clamors of faction or the narrow prejudices of party spirit, to guide his conduct in the exercise of civil rights. Public offices would be occupied by men of talents and integrity. Civil magistrates would exercise their influence and authority to suppress vice, and promote virtue, and increase public pros-perity and happiness. Laws against drunkenness, profanity, and debauchery, would not be suffered to sleep, because the execution of them might be unpopular. In short, there would be realized that happy state of society, which has hitherto existed only in the poet's brain, or the far distant perspective of prophecy, the approach of which now animates the hopes of the christian believer. Reader, whoever thou art, or whatever thou art doing, or whatever thou art about to do, remember the words of Hagar, "Thou God scest me;" the recollection may save thee from many a blishe many a pang, nay, it may snatch thee from the very brink of endless woe.

with their other proceedings a just and true account of all monies expended by them in pur-suance of this act. 0.00

In the House of Representatives of Kentucky, Mr. Ogleby said, in debate, 4 In proportion to the ignorance of towns, was the disorder and confusion at elections. His county to the house with our horses at the appointed town had generally been opposed to his election, and he was disposed to attribute it to their ig-second story. reading her charming remance norance." If his townsmen have sense enough than he has encountered heretofore.

We all now returned to the fireside, and after some persuasion prevailed upon Johnny, who was a good-natured simple country lad, to give us an account of the singular adventure in which he was acting a conspicuous part .---"We live when at home," said he, " forty miles beyond Lexington ; and about three weeks ago I took it into my head to marry Sukey, who is an only child, and heiress to a snug lit. tle farm and several slaves—but her sulky old dad resolved ai tire same time that I should not, and to work we went, as the saying is. I soon contrived to have several private interviews with Sukey, and without much trouble obtain. ed her consent : as to her father's opposition, she declared she was most heartily glad of it. for she would now have some charming adventures, like lady Al-Algerona, or some such plaguy name, in the romance of the Mountain; and finally, she declared she would never marry me unless I would run off with her to the state of Ohio, and thereby enable her to do something as romantic as the heroine lady Algerona. So in order to please her, and have a little fun to myself, I agreed to start with her the next night at 12 o'clock, and upon going to the house with our horses ut the appointed second story, reading her charming romance by moonlight. I advised her to steal down for the young couple, and having prevailed on him to join us in drinking the remainder of the punch, we soon brought about a reconciliation, and with the greatest glee spent the remainder of the evening.

Anecdote of the late War.- A soldier in the American army, about the time General Brock was killed at the battle of Qucenstown, was on a scouting party one day. Being a man of courage, enterprise and sagacity, he was de-termined, if possible, to obtain an accurate knowledge of the position of the enemy. For this purpose he ventured to separate from his companions. In the course of his reconnoitering alone, in an open field, he approached a wood, the under brush of which was very thick. His watchful eye discovered what he at first supposed to be some animal among the bushes. He immediately saw his mistake; it was an Indian crawling on his hands and feet, with his rifle in his hand and watching the soldier, evidently with the intention of advancing sufficiently near to make a sure mark. For the soldier to treat was impossible; he thought he could not escape ; and he remembered too that his father had told him never to return home with a wound in his back. He pretended not to understand this compliment, we apprehend stairs and come cut at the end door; but no, to see the Indian, and walked slowly towards be will meet with more opposition in future that would riot be like a heroine, and out pops him with his gun cocked by his side carefully duties of Tonnage and Imposts.

Laws of the United States. BY AUTHORITY. [PUBLIC ACTS.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congresss assembled. That, from and after the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four, during the coutinu-ance of this act, and under the limitations hereinafter mentioned, so much of the several acts imposing duties on the tonnage of vessels in the ports of the United States, as imposes a discriminaating duty between foreign vessels and vessels of the United States, is hereby suspended, so far as respects vessels truly and wholly belonging to subjects or citizens of the Kingdom of the Netherlands; of Prussia; of the Imperial Hanseatic Cities of Hamburg, Lubeck, and Bremen; of the Dukedom of Oldenbarg; of the Kingdom of Norway; of the Kingdom of Sardinia, and of the Empire of Russia.

Sec: 2. And be it further enacted, That so much of the several acts impusing duties on goods, wares, and merchandise, imported into the United States, as imposes a discriminating duty between goods imported into the United States in foreign vessels, and in vessels of the United States, be, and the same is hereby, suspended, so far as the same respects the produce of manufacture of the territories in Europe, of any of the above mentioned nations, or such produce and manufactures as can only be, or most usually are, first shipped from a port or place in the said Territories in Europe, of either of them, respectively, the same being imported in vessels truly and whoily belonging to the subjects or ci-izens of each of the said nations, respectively, the vessels of each nation importing its own produce and manu factures as aforesaid.

Sec. S. And be it further enacted That the suspension of the discriminating duties of tonnage and impost, in the two preceding sections of this act prescribed, shall continue, in behalt of each of the above mentioned nations on condition that, and so long as, the vessels of the United States, and truly wholly belonging to the citizens there of, and all goods and merchandise, of the produce and manufacture of the United States, laden therein, and impor-ted into any of the ports of the said ha tions in Europe, respectively, shall be exempted from all and every discriminating duty of impost or tonnage, direct or indirect, whatsoever, other or higher than is levied upon the vessels and merchandise therein imported, belonging to the subjects or citizens of each of the said nations, respectively. But if, in any of the territories in Europe, of either of the said nations, any such discriminating duty shall, at any time, be imposed or levied on vessels wholly-belonging to citizens of the United States, or on the merchandise imported as aforesaid in them, then, and from that time, the said suspen sion herein prescribed shall cease and determine, so far as respects the vessels, and merchandise imported into the United States in them, of such nations: and all the provisions of the acts imposing discriminating foreign ton-nage and imposts duties in the United States, shall revive and be in full force, with regard to the said nations.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That, upon satisfactory evidence being given to the President of the United States, by the government of any foreign nation, that no discriminating duties of tonnage or impost are imposed or levied within the ports of the said vessels wholly belongin to citizens of the United States, or upon merchandise, the produce or manufacture thereof, imported in the same. the President is hereby authorised to issue his proclamation, declaring that the foreign discriminating duties of ton nage and impost, within the United States, are, and shall be, suspended vessels of the said nation, and the mer chandise of its produce or manufacture. imported into the United States in the same: the said suspension to take effect from the time of such notification being given to the President of the Unit ed States, and to continue so long as the reciprocal exemption of vessels, belonging to citizens of the United States. and merchandise as aforesaid, thereon -laden, shall be continued, and no lon-

Judge of the Supreme Court of the JU nited States, or by the District Judge for the District within which such person may be, or by any person or persons commissioned by any Judge of the AN ACT concerning descriminating Supreme Court, or the said District Judge, for that purpose.

Washington, Jan. 7, 1834. JAMES MONROE. Approved:

POENRY

COMMUNICATED FOR THE WHIG. (inserted by particular request.)

On the Death of a much lamented Youth.

Death lingering strikes-at his approach The trembling spirit faints, must die; Pale sickness sits upon his couch, And heaves the painful, parting sigh .

In vain for moments of delay Shall beauty plead with magic power;

Relentless he selects his prey, And grasps the brightest, fairest flower.

The youthful heart with pleasure wild, Elate with mirth, with fancy gay, oon by his icy touch is chili'd,

And life's bright visions flee away. Thus did ELIAS' moments fly. On wings of faith, with prospects fair;

Though clouded was his present sky, Yet hope, fond hope, his guiding star.

From envy's grasp, with malice arm'd, His artless smile its weapon side; With transport strange his virtue warm'd, And waked to love his cheerful soul.

But why, fond memory, why recal Those charms which late such pleasure gave? Since now ELIAS, 'reft of all,

Lies cold the tenant of the grave.

Pale are those cheeks of roseate dye, Their pleasing sincles forever flown; Dim is the brightness of that eye, Which once with sparkling lustre shone.

Mute is that voice whose accents sweet The ear of fond attention drew, Still is that heart which constant beat,

To every gentle virtue true. His mind with science was adorn'd

Anticipating future good ; When Death, the conquerer came, thus arm'd, And nipt the blossom in the bud.

In vain did parents plead and cry, In vain they tried the doctor's skill-With calm composure in ms eye, He bowed to the Almighty's will.

Alas! shall death forever reign Triumphant o'er each scene of bliss-Blast fond desire, turn joy to pain, And riot on such spoil as this ?

Frail mortal cease-no longer mourn,-This vain regret-these murmers still ; The mournful change from nature learn, . To rest on the Almighty's will. M. R.

Fairfield, January 10, 1824.

When we consider that lye made out of the ashes of the prickly tors make a compromise between a conash, has been often used successfully in stitutional right and a political advanmany places to cure the hite of a mad dog, the following notice will receive the reason why lye made as above was successful, depended upon its peculiar strength rather than its virtues.

[Ed. Whig.

From the New York Gazelte. Remedy for the Hydrophobia.-The following interesting notice of the disovery of means to prevent that dreadiul disease so frequently consequent most honorable proceedings. They are upon the bite of a mad bog, is a trans- the models of nations, and if any blemlation from a German paper of the 2d of November last:-" All caustic alkalies have, in consequence of the numerous and repeated experiments of Messis. Von Redi, Fontani, Mederer Von Wuthwehr, and and discontinued, so far as respects the others, been found to possess the propeity of rendering altogether harm-less the poison of the bite of a mad dog. the wound must be well washed, as soon as it can be produced, with lye, tinguish his friends from his enemies, which however must not be stronger than can be horne in the mouth. If it be stronger than this, it has the effect of drawing the edges of the wound together, and preventing the ley from being applied to the bottom of the wound, where it might meet with and neutralise the poison." "It is astonishing," adds the above mentioned paper," that this, so simple a remedy, should not have been before discovered; and were it published in all the schools and academies of medicine, it would have the effect of saving many valuable lives." - ship, in hope, no doubt, of a co-operation with them in their expected contest. Two 74's are here having brought the 12th regiment of Intantry to this place, and will take on board the 27-h for the West Indies-they are said to have fitted out in a great hurry."

THE WHIG

BRIDGETON, SATURDAY, JANUARY 24, 1824.

ST We received a letter from Cape May, containing a "Notice to the Public." for insertion in the whig as an advertisement. There is no name accompanying it, and we will not take the responsibility of its publication on rather decline inserting it in its present form on any conditions; and the writer, by satisfying us of his claim, may have the gollar returned to him which he sent with his Advertisement to pay for its insertion. We do not so much question the truth of the article, as doubt the propriety of its publication.

Presidential Question .- This subject in a greater or less degree occupies the columns of every newspaper which we receive. The conjectures respecting who will be president, appears on all hands to be founded on the predilec tions of those who write on it rather than on any data from which certain conclusions can be drawn. Indeed to calculate on it as things now stand would be a mockery of common sense. Public favour is too variable to authorise it; and the most any man at present can do is to choose his favourite and support him,-speculation being a sub terfuge too vague for any discriminating politician to depend on.

When we mention speculation, in these matters, we allude to the inferences drawn from public sentiment as expressed in the different parts of the United States. We do not, with respect to the candidates, take into consideration either merit intrinsically possessed, or popularity surreptitiously obtained; for we pronounce that to be surreptitious which is extorted from freemen without their being asked, and which they have exclusively in their gift; and we say, that the Presidential candidate who gets into office by any other means than the spontaneous will and suffrage of the sovereign peoplewhen un nfluenced, does so from a consciousness that merit is deficient, and that his political popularity is doubtful. When a man schemes to get into a dignified office, we may doubt much whether he will dignify it. When legislatage, we may sately infer that there is more knavery in their heads than libermore than common attention. Perhaps ty in their hearts. But after all, the great contest will finally rest between merit, standing aloof from all extranebe selected, except by the purest and DOLLARS." ish is found in their manner of being appointed, the cause of republicanism is wounded by its friends. The advocates of legitimacy will rejoice to see that a brauch of despotism-the spirit of intrigue and fiction-raised him to his high station. They will say that, as he is the ruler of faction, he will disand govern for their sakes; that partial support merits exclusive patronage; that exceptions will create enemies and discontents, and that the boasted liberty of America will soon be no longer an object of envy for the slaves of despotism. God of heaven grant that our citizens may ever watch, with the assiduity of a pliestess of Vesta, the sacred fire of republicanism; that its extinguishment may never bring calamity on our country, or cause those despots whom now we pity and despise, to enjoy a triamph at our expense by contemping and deriding us on account of our dereliction from our principles.

are some, however, who approximate more closely than others, all we can reasonably expect in the present age an age, when patriotism can only be distinguished by superficial performances, or doubtful tests - when those taients which are extolled and those who sunshine and calm of peace and quietness-when an accidental circumstance over which the individual may never have had any control, may excite the applause of admiring fools-when that which is genuine is often obscured by that which is plausible and sold for that which is tinsel-when men are ready to overlook actual services for empty professions-when literature offers its ourselves. From its import we would venal tribute in support of ignorance or incompetency-when experience wisdom, and tried patriotism in age is bartered for the facinations of seducing eloquence, or the attractions of exterior politeness and the blandishments of courtly policy; and when men who have never distinguished themselves except by blunders and imputed corruption finds as ready friends as those who stand the firmer and shine the clearer in proportion as attempts are made to oppress or to obscure the lustre of their fame. Our readers will recollect that we are now speaking of presidential candidates. Our own choice will ever be directed to where we can discover most merit-most experiencemost tried patriotism-most industry and attention to public business-in short to him who embraces more of what is useful than of what is ornamenial.

If we desire to be just to ourselves examine the candidates by other tests than the favourites of each would into be tried by their personal merits and services. Party representations are mere freaks of fancy, which we should always suspect. They are actual distortions-the engenderings of foul imaginations. We should keep a steady eye on the acts on which the candidates found their pretensions; the manner in which their claims are supported, and the particular quality and characteristics of their friends. If the people of the United-States will enter into the subject with such views and considerations as these, we have no fear of the result.

As a specimen, let us examine the part relating to our finances with the TREASURER'S REPORT.

The President says, "on the first day of January, (1825) there was a balance in the Treasury of 4,237,427 dollars and 55 cents. From that time to the 30th of September, the receipts amounted to upwards of $16,100,000, gether groundless; for it has been their and the expenses to 11,400,000 dollars. During the 4th quarter of the year, it er should be appointed, and there has is estimated that the receipts will at ous and artificial aids, and the want of least equal the expenditures, and that W. Chard esq.; and besides, there is a main all there will remain in the Treasury, on would not have been a word of dissatit, with all the force of artifice and all there will remain in the Treasury, on the support of faction. A President of the 1st day of January, (1824) a sur- isfaction from the present quarter, if the United States should not, however, plus of nearly NINE MILLIONS OF the expecting but disappointed 'person This information the President certainly received from the Secretary of the Treasury; and that gentleman echoed the statement in the message, by saying at the conclusion of his reportafter stating the receipts and expenditures of the year, that there was left in the Treasury, on the first of January 1824, an estimated balance of $9,364,-055 77,-so far the President and Secretary agree, because the former was instructed by the latter;-but now for the finale. The very next item in the township in his pucket, and could be Report says, "after deducting from stow them on whom he pleased. This this sum certain balances of appropriations, amounting to $2,897,086 47 which are necessary to effect the ob. jects for which they were severally made, or have been deducted from the estimates for the service of the ensuing year, a balance of $6,466,969 SO remains, which, with the receipts into the Treasury during the year 1824, constitutes the means for defraying the current expenses of that year !!!" Now we people of New Jersey understand perfectly well, that an estimated balance on the first day of January candidates who now swell the list, 1824 must be a certain specific sum, in all cases, administered to the person crowned heads of Europe. The Eng there are none to whom some objections and that from this estimated balance entitled to take the same, either by any lish are evidently conting our friend may not legitimately be formed. There all accurations are supposed to have all acductions are supposed to have been made; for if not it is not an estimated balance. But after our Secretarian makes a report to the President, to enable him to inform the whole world in general, and the people of the United States in particular, that we had a bal. ance of nine millions in the treasury, extol them, have only been tried in the and after repeating, and enlarg. ing this splendid balance, he slyly comes in with certain deductions, which make the TRUE estimated bal. ance only $6,466.969 30 !! And this is the man who allows hunself to be a candidate for the presidency ! This is the man who, in the same breath tells the nation two stories of different complexions, and authorised our worthy President to publish officially that one which appears to be widest from the truth, if either of them be near it, which, as in former times, a week may contradict, that has the vanity to think he can govern 12 millions of intelligent freemen! We hope he may come out with an apology, and excuse himself through indisposition to save his credit; but surely we know no instance in which his genius has added lustre to his reputation.

COMMUNICATION. Mr. CLARKE,

A Communication appeared in your pages some time ago, subscribed v a number of the voters in the town, ship of Downe, which under the pretence of laying before the public a state. ment of a supposed intringement of rights and privileges, is proother than an insidious attempt to blast the character of a few individuals, whose un-pardonable offence has been, to vote according to the dictates of conscience. They did not vote for a certain person, who has long appeared as an annual, but unsuccessful Candidate for a seat. on the Presidential question, we will in the Assembly of this state, and they do not intend to vote for him, until he evinces talents and virtue enough to entitle him to that distinction; and this duce us to try them by. They ought is their crime-this is the sum of their corruptions. In order to southe the disappointment of the unsuccessful candidate, he or his friends got up the said statement of grievances, and persuaded a number of our townsmen to subscribe it, making them believe that they had been slighted in the affair of appointing an additional Justice of the peace, and that this was the proper way to obtain redress: but they were not aware that by subscribing that document they were in reality subscribing a libel upon the character of our representatives, accusing them of using the baseness of corruption to obtain the suffrages of their fellow citizens. This slander was no doubt intended to lower them in the public estimation, with the hope that those who might be in this manner induced to desert them, would president's message, and compare that rally under the standard of the disappointed candidate, next election. It is believed that there was one or more individuals looking forward to the appointment of justice of the peace, who shared in the disappointment of their leader; and helped by their undergrowlings to increase the outery.

というなたちの

As to the complaint about the addition to the number of justices, it is altoown wish and expectation that anothbeen no new appointment since the death of the excellent and memorable

The belief expressed in the commu-nication adverted to "that our fall e-ger. Washington, Jan. 7, 1824. Approved: JAMES MONROE.

AN ACT supplementary to the act, entitled "An act for the relief of persons imprisoned for debt."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress account That the oath prescribed by the act. entitled "An act for the relief of persons imprisoned for debt," passed on the sixth day of January, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred, may be, principles which trouble so much the

A letter from an American at Gibraltar, dated Nov. 27, contains the following:

"The Russian Minister at Madrid, is said to talk loud of the United States as the source of all the revolutionary

Among the number of presidential lection was corrupted in this township by some of the candidates, with the understanding that if they were elected, the said appointment of a new justice should be made," appears, to say the best of it, a silly belief-a belief contrary to truth, and inconsistent with the well known character of the representatives. But what makes this belief the more ridiculous is, that " the understanding" was thought to be between the candidates and a certain individual in this township, as if this one individual had carried the votes of the "individual" is certainly much flattered by these gentlemen, when they hint that he has so much power and influence as to lay them "under fearful ap-prehensions," and sway "the new jus-tice in his judgments" as he pleases. But the "communication" is all of a piece; one mass of misrepresentation and falsehood, engendered by malice and disappointment.

We could have been more explicit and personal-but I hate personalities; and should never have thought of stepping forward in this manner, but from a wish to put the public in possession of the truth.

CHARGE IT TO ISAAC GARRISON'S WILLA NEWFORT, Jan. 21, 1824.

CONGRESSIONAL.

Thursday, Jan. 15.

SENATE.

The bill from the House of Representatives, to extend the time for the settlement of private land claims in the territory of Florida, was twice read, and referred.

The bills from the House of Representatives, making a partial appro- the amendment. priation for the support of government, for the year 1824, and for the relief of certain distillers in to, and the name stricken out. Pennsylpania, were read the third time, PASSED, and returned to the mended, and ordered to be engross-House of Representatives

Jun. 16.-Mr. PARROT, presented the petition of Reuben Shapley, of New-Hampshire, the owner of a vessel captured by a British ship of war in 1815, and praying indemnity therefor.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. Mr. BUCHANAN presented the following resolution:

Resolved, That a Committee be appointed, whose duty it shall be to inquire in what manner the resolutions of Congress, passed on the 24th December, 1799, relative to the erec-dian of a Martin Martin Martin and State and Angeod proposal.—A writer in a tion of a Marble Monument in the Capitol, at the City of Washington, to commemorate the great events of the military and political life of Gener-al George Washington, may be best accomplished, and that they have leave to report by bill or otherwise.

On motion of Mr. McLANE, the House resolved itself into a committee of the whole on the State of the Union, (Mr. A. STEVENSON in the chair,) on the blll "authorizing the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund to purchase the 7 per cent. stock of the United States, in the year 1824."

The amendments of the Senate to the partial Appropriation Bill, were considered in the House of Representatives, and concurred in.

The Speaker laid before the House a letter from the Comptroller of the Treasury, transmitting a list of balances on account of the late Internal Revenue on the books of the Register, which have remained unsettled, and appear to have been due more than three years prior to the 30th September, 1823.

Mr. McLane, from the Committee of Ways and Means, reported a bill for the relief of certain persons who have paid duties on certain goods imported into Castine; which was twice read, and committed.

Mr. McLane moved to take up the bill authorising the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund to make purchases in the 7 per cent. stock for 1824.

Mr. McLane went into a series of financial arguments and calculations, with a view to render the bill familiar to the House in all its details and its operations. The bill was then amended in its first section, on motion of Mr. McLane, increasing the premium from 1 75 to $2 per cent. and then the Committee rose, and reported the bill as amended; and the House baying concurred in the same, the bill was ordered to be read a third time tomorrow.

Mr. Hemphill moved to take up the bill providing for tile procurement of surveys, &c. for roads and canals, which had been laid on the table this morning to make way for the preceding bill. This motion was carried — ayes 97, noes 76.

Mr. LITTLE stated, that the Committee had inserted this case on the principle that, if a soldier was wounded in the performance of any lawful order of his commanding officer, he was as much entitled to a pension as if it happened in battle. Mr. TAYLOR assented to this principle, but doubted the fact, and called for the reading of the papers in the case. The papers were read. Mr. ALLEN, of Tenn. opposed

On the question being taken, the motion of Mr. COCKE was agreed The bill was then reported as aed for a third reading.

SUMMARY.

Blucher, it is positively affirmed, died of a broken heart, produced by the king's withdrawing his confi dence from him, and not fulfilling the promises he made of giving free institutions to to Prussia.

Madame de Ruboul, who was instrumental in converting Mr Loveday's daughter to Catholicism in Paris, has been made St Ruboul by his

New York paper, proposes that each member of Congress shall give in aid of the Greeks, the amount of one day's wages. This would in the aggregate be upwards of two thousand dollars! A very pretty sum-and certainly not a burdensome tax upon the contributors. It is also suggested that the President and Heads of Department give one day's pay. Fredunian.

Be careful brother types !- The editor of a New York paper called the Ballston Spa Gazette, bas been cited to appear before his honor Judge Walworth, one of the Circuit Judges of that state, for a contempt of Court, in pubishing as a communication a harmless query about where the place was to which the said Circuit Court was on a time, adjourned, which place was des ignated as the "United States Hotel, in the town of Saratoga Springs."-For the ignorance of the correspondent Gazette, in not being able to discover the said United States Hotel, the editor of the Gazette could not reasonably be blamed. It is true the editor ought, to have been sufficiently informed of the geography of that part of the country to tell his correspondent where the Ho rel was; but we humbly apprehend his honor was rather barsh in charging up on said editor a contempt of Court.

İb. It appears that one hundred and nine ty members of Congress are against a congressional caucus, and only sixty-eight in favour. Not one of the rep-resentatives of Pennsylvania would support it.

Earthquake.- A slight shock of an earthquake was felt at Philadelphia on Friday morning last, 16th inst. be-tween the hours of 1 and 2 o'clock in the morning. We learn that it was sensibly felt in Norristown.

Prices Current at Bridgeton. Corrected Weekly for the Whis.

Wheat, per bushel, Rye. do Corn, dυ Oars, do Unions, do Potatoes, do Dry. Apples do Beans, do ' Wheat Flour, per cwt. 3 25 to 3 75

NOTICE

Is hereby given. that ISAAC COOP-R and SAMUEL L. COOPER, of he township of Lower Penns Neck, alem county, have this clay made an ssignment of all their Estate, real and ersonal, to the subscriber in trust, for he benefit of their creditors-and their aid creditors are hereby notified to nuke their claims under vath or afficnation, as the law directs. All persons ndebted to the said Isaac and Samuel . Cooper, are requested to make imnediate payinent.

BENJAMIN GRISCOM, Assignee. 161-2m. Jan. 24, 1824.

Notice is Hereby Given,

THAT, on the 15th day of January 1824, William Learning of Cape May County, state of New Jersey, made and executed to the subscriber, an assign-ment of all his Estate both Real and Personal for the general benefit of his creditors, pursuant to an act of the Legislature of the State of New Jersey, eautled " An act to secure the creditors an equal and just division of the estates of debtors, who convey to assignees for the benefit of Creditors,' passed February 23d 1820. The Creditors of the said William Leaming, are therefore notified to present their claims to the Subscriber, under oath or athemation, as the law directs, and persons who are indebted to said William Learning, are requested to pay the same to the Subscriber without de

The Subscriber will attend at the Dwelling House of said William Learn ing, for six or eight weeks next ensuing, the principle part of the time ; and those having demands are requested to present them during that time.

JOHN. HANCE. Jan. 20-24 161 4t

By virtue of a decree of the Or phan's court of the county of Cumber land, will be sold on the premises in the township of Stoe-Creek between the hours of 12 and 5 o'clock; P. M on Thursday the 11th of March (next) A House and Lot of Land said to contain about 10 A CRES in good fence; ALSO,

A Lot of Bush Lend containing about 23 ACRES, late the property of Isaac Reeves, dec. Conditions at Sale.

her

PHEBE × REEVES, Adm'x. mark Jan. 8—24 161 4t g

SIX CENTS REWARD.

Ran away from the Subscriber, residing a Buckshutom, in Cumberland county, on the morning of the 15th inst, an indented garl by the name of NANCY PERSENS; she is by the name of NANCY PERSENS; she is about 17 years old, and has dark hair and complexion. All persons are forbid harbor-ing said girl at their peril Whoever will take up said girl, with the cloathing she took with her, aod will return them to the subscriber shall receive the above reward, but no charges but no charges.

JOHN CAMPBELL. Jan. 16-24 18-4 161 4t

FRUIT TREES. An extensive assortment of Gratted Apple and Innoculated Peach Trees,

ALSO ... a few Plumbs, Pears, and Cherries for sale by the Subscriber in Mannington, Salem county. N. J.

Wanted in barter Cedar-Rails. JOSEPH REEVE. Philada. Jan. 20-24 161 Չա գ

> FOR SALE, 360

Pursuant to 3 decree of the Orphans' court of the county of Cumberland. will be sold at PUBLIC VENDUE.

On Thursday the 1st day of April next, at 2 o'clock, P. M. On the premises, a House and lot in the township of Fairfield, situate on the main road leading from Fairton to the Prosbyterian Meeting House. The house is a frame building, and at present occupied by the widow of col. James Ogden, deceased. The lot contains an acre, more or less Conditions made known at the time cf sale by HENRY AAW, Adm'r.

160 ts

NOTICE.

Jan 17.

For Sale or to Rent, That valuable LOT of LAND, op posite Mrs. M'Clong's Inn, containing about FIFTEEN ACRES, whereon is a good two story HOUSE, with a godd Kitchen attached to it: also, a one story House : also a large BARN built of the best materials, 36 by 40 feet. Payment will be made easy, and possession given on the 25th of March nent. For terms apply to JAMES DIVERTY.

Dennis Creek, Nov. 10-15 151 t

NEW STORE.

The subscriber has opened a Store In the Brick House formerly occupied by Mr. Ephraim Holmes,

NEAR THE COURT HOUSE, Where he will carry on the Tail wing Business In all its branches. He will also keep on hand

Ready Made Clothing Of every discription, together with a handsome assortment of

PLAID CLOAKS

Of the first quality-either ready nade, or will be made by order for ladies and gentlemen at the shortest no-Also a good assortment of tice. seasonable

Dry Goods, Groceries, &c. Which he will sell at the lowest prices for cash or country produce. William Grooks. 159 tł Bridgeton, Jan. 10.

NEW-JERSEY.

City of Burlington, Dec. 30, 1823. Mr. GRIFFITH having, for some time past been obliged, by sickness, to decline professional engagements, ex cept in special cases, thinks proper to mention that, now, in consequence of an improved state of health, he purpos es to resume his attendance in the Courts of New Jersey, and practice the law 25 heretofore. WILLIAM GRIFFITH.

Editors of Newspapers, in the counties of West-Jersey, will please to asert the above, charging the expense 159 4t to Mr: G.

Timber For sale.

Will be sold by the subscriber, the timber standing on about

. 500 Acres of Land,

Situated ahout 23 miles from Dennis Creek Lauding, arid known by the name of the Mount Pleasant property The timber is Pine and Oak, and fully ripe. It contains among it a consider-able quantity of Saw Timber. The payments will be made easy to the purchaser, and from two to three years

STACKHOUSE'S

Complete Body of Divinity,

PROPOSALS,

BUJOUN CLARKE-BRIDGETON, WEST N. JERSET, For publishing by subscription, Stackhouse's Complete Body of Speculative and Practical Divinity.

ADDRESS TO THE PUBLIC.

The work now offered to the public is one with which the literary world in England and America have long been familiar. It is so well known, so generally admired, so uni-vasally sought, and so highly appreciated, that no particular recommendation in its fa-that no particular recommendation in its fayour has been accepted, preferring rather to depend on its established fame and intrinsic merits for success than to attach to our prosmerus for success than to attach to our pros-Pectus tile best written eulogium which the brightest genus in our coulitry could pro-duce. SFACKHOUSE, as an ingenious compi-ler, as a man of learning and research, and as a profound Theologian, ranked in his own day among those who gained the highest lit-erary eminence—the lapse of time has con-tributed exc-edingly to encrease his well earned celebrity.

earned celebrity. The Bour of Divinity which is now pro-posed to be published, was originally compils ed for the Episcopal Church of England: It first ensanated from the Press in the early part of the eighteenth century. Since then, thas stood its ground and sustained a repu-tation beyond which cotemporary writers ne-ver did, and subscenent writers never have been able topass. Several editions of it have been able topass. Several editions of it have b circulated in Great Britain, but it has never yet been published in the United States: Various compilations of systematic. Theolo-gy have been repeatedly committed to tire A-merican Press, each of which has been adapt-ed to the standard of faith of the respective denominations for whom it theor unbliced denominations fur whom it was published.— This work is professedly written on the Armenian Scheme; but notwithstanding 'this, its high character has caused it to be an object of anxious inquiry by every class of, christians. It has heretofare been in the bands of few in the United States escept Divines, and for these it has generally been im-Forted by order, and at great a expense. The Fason why it has never been re-printed in Lis United States is obvious. In matters of futh, monopolies have been sought with no bass avidity, (perhaps not improperly,) than it the mart of the merchant; and those de-commations of christiams whose pretensions ave not been supported by a widely extend and numerous fraternity have been com-telled to coalesce, and reciprocate favours in the Book market, in order to obtain from the book market, in order to obtain from the publishers of books throughout our coun-try that kind of spiritual nutriment which vocald enable them to grow up in the faith and opinions which they delighted to cherish s the foundation of their future hopes-there this advantage was not presented the undent in divinity was compelled to wade through Tomes of ancient authors in the dead languages to satisfy his inquiries; or to collect hose systems of opinions which are laid down by theologians—as founded on, or de aucted from the sacred records—tiom an codless variety of writers, many of whose tentiments they viewed both as absurd and nconsistent.

The design of the publisher in offering an edition of sTACKHOVSE, Body of Specula-tive and Practical Divinity to the publici-in wo-told; namely, for their good and his dwn. While he wishes to supply a demand for it shear seems now to be particularly called or, he is desirous to obtain a subscription or, he is desirous to obtain a subscription vhicli will defray the expense, and compen-ate him for his labour. More than this is not expected—any other reason than this yould not be the truth, and he hopes the public will appreciate his candour in this a-owal. He believes the work emmently calculated to to good. Truth, and whatever ends to elucidate niid confirm it, are, in the bresent age, objects of research & inquiry.— n this work, all the leading doctrines of the tholy Scriptures are amply discussed and ex-plained. To the pious layman it will super-cede the necessity of a great variety of works on divinity which he may be desirpus to pos-siess, but which he may not have the means to on advinity which he may be desirpus to pos-siess, but which he may not have the means to procure. By purchasing this work true e-conomy may be consulted, as the necessity of procuring many fugitive works which ob-trude themselves on the public with be obviated. There are a number of respectable and prous classes of christians and christian min-isters throughout our country, who will doubtless avail themselves of the opportuni-ty now offered to obtain it upon reasonable terms by encouraging an American edition, Of the Author's style he will only say, that it is plain, but nervous, bold and eloquent.

	The bill then had its third reading.	Rye do. do. 200 to 2 50	Acres of Woodland,	given to cur and carly 1 on.	the work in general evinces the protound	•
		Butter, per pound, $12\frac{1}{2}$ to 15		Richard Thompson, jun.	scholar and the pious chi istian—but he does not wish to incur the charge of exaggerated
	Messrs. Woods and Mallary hav-	Lard, do . 10	Situate in the township of Downe in the	Cape May Court House,	commendation; such an imputation, he pre-	•
	ing delivered at length their senti-	Hams, do 10	county of Cumberland New Jersey conemile and a half form Port-Norrison Maurice Riv-	Dec. 20. 156 3m	sumes, will not be offered by those who have ments upon the bill, Mr. Randolph	Pork, per hundred 4 50 to 5 00	er; two miles from Maurice-Town on said		read the work with impartial attention, an3
-	moved that the bill be recommitted	Wool, per pound, 35 to 371	river; part of it well timbered	Adjournment.	from those who have nut given it a perusal to a committee of the whole. This	Feathers, do 40 to 44	Also 150 Acres	0	it would be premature.
	motion (it is supposed with a view	Candles, do 123		The sale of the lands of Daniel Car-	****
	'to allow the speaker tu take part in	Tallow, do 10	Of first rate banked meadow, situate on Maurice River in the Comparid town hip op-	rall, which was to have been sold this	CONDITIONS.
	the debate) was carried—ayes 106.	Apple Jack, per gallon, 40 to 50	posite Leesburgh:-The bank is in excellent	day is adjourned to Tuesday the 27th	This work will be put to Press as soon as
	Jun. 16.—The SPEAKER laid	Hickory Wood, per cord, 4 50 to 5 00	condition, having been lately thoroughly re-	Bridgeton, between the hours of 12 and	the subscription will defray the expenses of	. **
				5 c'clock in the afternoon of said day.	the edition. It will be printed in the best manuer, with	È.
,	Secretary of the Treasury, transmitt-	do green, do 250 to 275	for tillage and will produce all kinds of gram,	5 o'clock in the afternoon of said day, to be sold by	new type, and on superfine wove paper, extra-ing a statement exhibiting the value	(* Press) ( ( Anny Press, Spins, Spins	hemp &c. A good title will bc made, and a liberal	JOHN LANING, jun. Sheriff.	medium size. of the track which the United States	Wanted Immediately	credit given	Jan. 10. 15.0	It will be published in three volumes, or held with Greece, Asia Minor, and	Wanted Immediately	Apply to Joshua Brick, esq. Port-Eliza-		tavo, each averaging 550 pages ; or in month-
	Egypt, during the years ending on	Choppers & Carters,	beth-to Daniel Elmer esq. at Bridgeton, or	Adjournment.	ly numbers of about 138 pages each. The price will be seven dollars and fifty	. *
	the 30th September 1820, 1821 and		to the subscriber at Dennis' Creek JAMES DIVERTY.	The remainder of the land of John	cents, in boards, or in numbers, the latter cov-
	1822: which was read and laid on the	To Cut and Cart		Carns, which was to have been sold	ered in the usual manner of periodical works;
	table.	1500 Cords of Wood.		this day, is adjourned to Tuesday the	and eight dollars, handsomely bound and let-
	The House went into a Committee	A	FOR SALE OR REST.	27th day of January next between the	tered. [This is half the European price, and is in a more portable size.]	, of the whole, Mr. CONDIC'F in the	Apply to		hours of 12 and 5 o'clock P. M. at	Those who obtain eight subscribers, and	-я ^Г chair, on the bill concerning Invalid	J. L. James.	A farm belonging to Jacob Ridgeway, esq.	1 11 I C tab Damage in Davidge	which excesponal blees delivhave a copyegratis,	7
	Pensioners.	Bridgeton, Jan. 20-24 161 2t	situate on Cohansey creek, one and a half miles below Bridgeton, in the county of Cum-	ton, to be sold by .	same berland New Jersey:-	Win. R. FITHIAN late Sheriff.	form as those ordered, or mads equivalent thoreto—and in proportion ior a greater pro-
	Mr. LITTLE moved an amond-	NOTICE.	Containing 115 Acres,	December 30. 158	less number.	÷.,
•	ment, adding the names of certain in-				All payments to be made when the work is dividuals to the iist of those contained	The Subscriber is about to remove	17 of meadow-50 arabie, and the residue	Cumberland Bank.	delivered, whether in volumes or numbers-in the bill; some conversation took	in the beginning of March next, from this County; those indebted to him are	consist of a two story frame house and	BRIDGETON, Jan. 2, 1824.	and all communications to be post-paid. TAgents to receive the work and deliver place on this amendment which was	equested to make immediate payment	k, coen-spring-house and barn. There is	- proposed have the day dealand	it to subscribers will be appointed in the	1
	at length adopted.	on or before the first day of March or	also an apple orchard-and a wharf to which	a Dividend on the Stock of this Bank for the	principal cities and towns throughout the
	Mr. COCKE moved that the bili	their accounts will be left with a Ma-	a considerable quantity of cord wood is an- nually brought.	that our months of One Dollar per share.	Union, the names of whom will be made pub-
	be further amended, by striking out	gistrate for collection.	For terms of sale, apply to me at Bridge-	which will be payable to the Stockholders or	lic.
	the name of James Royal, [who was	JOSEPH M. GROFF.	ton	their legal Representatives after the 10th inst	The subscribers be forwarded to the publish wounded by an explosion at a feu		DANIEL ELMER.	C. READ, Casher.	er as soon as possible.
	de joie, in celebration of a victory].	J. Seeley's Mill, Jan. 24-161 5t	Nov. 28-29, 1823 153 tf	Jan. 3.—158 St	1
•'
			· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·			:

an a
John I. M'Chesney's	SILAS W. SEXTON,	NOTICE.	Philadelphia Prices Current.	NEW STORE
GRAMMAR,	Fashionable Clothier and	John B. Miller, cabinet maker, of	Connected Weekly
Also his	Merchant Taylor,	Bridgeton, did on the 27th day of August last, by deed of trust. and assign-	Bacon and Flitch, per lb 50 6 to 8 Beans bushel 1 00 scarce	J. L. JAMES,
Introductory Lectures,	No. 28, MARKET STREET, Between Front and Second streets, south	ment convey to us the subscribers, all	Beef, mess barrel 13 13 Brick, run of Kiln, M. 650	Hes just received and is now open,
For sale by	side, two dcors east of Letitia Court,	his estate both rent and personal, in trust, for the benefit of Inis creditors	Do. salt insp. 10	J. B. & R. B. Potter,) a handsome and Potters & Woodruff.	PHILADELPHIA = AS now on hand a general assortment of ready made Clothing, consisting of	and others. Those indebted to the said John B. Miller, on book account	Coffee, W. I. finegr. " 21 22	general assortment of
April 12. 120	L. ready made Clothing, consisting of close Coats, Surtouts, Frocks, New Market and Great Coats, Cloaks, Pantaloons, Vests,	Incotherative are requested to make	Do. 2d quality Do. Java 21 22
For Sale at this Office.	Shirts, Hose, Suspenders, & Handkerchiets;	nave, demands against min are desired	Feathers, American lb. 32 35	Of
Dr. O'Meara's late celebrated work,	Round Jackets, Pea Jackets, Flannel Shirts and Drawers, Cravats, &c and a variety of	Dan Simkins.	Firewood, hickory cord 6 75 7 50	GROCERIES, ing conversations with Bonaparte, on almost every subject connected with	otlier articles too tedious to enumerate,	Linter.	Do. oak " " 3 45 Do. pine " 3 75 Do. gum logs " 6 25	China, Glass & Queens-ware, his history — also, . "The Steam Boat, and "The En	terms for Cash. Also, super super Cloths, Cassimeres and Vestings, made up to order in the most fashionable manner and at the	All persons indebted to the es-	Flour, wheat, barrel 6 00 Do. rve '' 2 75	and Stone-ware, tail" twu works just issued from the	shortest notice. Gentlemen are requested to call and give	tate of Stephen atid Hannah Miller, deceased, are requested to make un-	Do. corn meal " 2 87. Glass, wind	Which he will sell low for Cash or or Country Produce, and hopes by his his establishment a trial, when no doubt they will find it to their advantage to call again.	mediate payment to Dan Simkins, Ad'm.	8 by 10, 100 feet, 10 Grain, wheat bushel 1 15 1 20	attention to business, to merit a share
cations of merit.	All orders will be thankfully received and promptly executed	September 6. 141 tf	do. rye 32 45 50 do. corn 32 45 40	Bridgeton September 87. 144tf
Durquent to an order of the Orphube?	June 21. 130 6m	Full and Winter Goods.	do. oats do. bran double '' 32 33	THE PULPIT,
Court of the county of Cumberland ,	Debate on Christian Baptism,	m	Hams 1b. 10 11 Lard Ib. 0 9 0 10	A Periodical work, published Weekly in will be esposed at PUBLIC VENDUE ,	Between Mr. JOHN WALKER, a minister of the Secession, and ALEXINDER CAMPBELL. TO	Merseilles & M'Calla,	Boards, yel, pine, 1000 Finth 14 00 16	London, and imported by
At the inn of Lewis Riggins, in	which is added a large Appendix; with Stric- tures on Three Letters respecting said De- bate, by Mr. Samuel Ralston, a Presbyterian	Have just received a large and gen- eral assortment of	do do heart, 1 inch 25 30 do white pine, pannel 25 30	S. POTTER & Co. Bocksellers, Philadelphia, to whom all or-
Leesburgh, on Beventh day the 14th day of the Second	minister. This day is received and for sale, by	FALL AND'WINTER GOODS,	Scantling, pine 1000 15 20	Booksellers, Philadelphia, to whom all or- ders for the work may be forwarded. Terms three dollars per annum.
month (February) next. Between the hours of twelve and	S. Potter & Co. Booksellers, opposite the post-office,	Particularly suited to the present and approaching season z such as	do heart do ²³ 25 30 do sap do ²³ 14 scarce	Extract from the first No. of the Pulpit. To the Friends of Religion.
five in the afternoon of that day, the		Flannels, Cloths and Casimeres, Sati-	Lath, oak  8 Oar, rafters  20 25	"The first No is now presented to (the public of a cheap weekly publication, which following described Lots and pieces of Land, situate in the township of Mau-	had at the most reduced prices.	nets, Blankets, Rugs, and	do inchspruce" 12 20	will be exclusively devoted to the best be- cause the eternal interests of mankind. It is rice River, late the property of Levin Chance, deceased, viz.	Ort.35—Sov. 15 151 Received and fur sale ut this office,	DOMESTIC GOUDS , All of which have been purchased at	do oak ?' 22 25 Shingles, cedar 3 ft, ?' 17 21	designed to be the vehicle, not of any par- ticular class of religious opinions, but of such
No. 1, A House and Lot in Leesburgh,	Dr. Miller's letters on Uni	he lowest cash prices, and which with	do cypr.22 inch. 3 50 4 Staves, pipe, w.o. 1200 60	real information and practical instruction, as may be acceptable to all who acknowledge adjoining Joshua Brick and others. No. 2, One other House and Lot, ad-	tarism, a very valuable work.	their usual assortment of goods, will be sold very low for cash or produce.	do do redoak ' 18	our common Redeemer." •• The Pulpit will comprehend, joining the above and Samuel Peter- son, esq.	Tull's Husbandry, a late and	Persnns disposed to buy for cash or trade, will do well to call on them at	dobarrel, w.oak24Heading, oak3860Hoope should25	1. Reports of Sermons delivered in London during each week, accompanied occasion.
No. 3, A House and eight acres more or less, adjoining John Lee and	valuable work. • Rodger's Biographical Dictionary	the first store East of the Bridge, be-	do rough "	ally with critical remarks.
others. No. 4, A House and Lot in Dorches-	of the Departed Heroes, Sades and	flatter themselves, their customers will he supplied with goods at as fair	Mackarel, barrel 4 25 6 12 Molasses, sug.house gall. 0 42 0 45	 Notices of new works in Theology, Mor- als and Eccleaiastical History. Historical and descriptive accounts of ter, adjoining Philip Rice and oth-	together with "The Keligious Trades-	a price and on as good terms as any	Peas bushel 75	Churches and classes. 4. Essays, Precepts, and Maxims.
No. 5, Is about 60 acres of Bush-land,	man," " A Present for an Apprentice," " " An Index tu the Bible," " A Bridle	where in Bridgeton. They continue to keep always on	Rice, new crop cwt. 4 50 4 00	5. Memoirs and Anecdotes of eminent Chris - tians.
adjoining Joshua Brick and others, No. 6, Is about 40 acres of Bush-land,	for Devils," &c. &c.	hand a good supply of	Salt, fine bushel 55	6. Missionary reports.7. Dying hours of great and good characters.
adjoining John Albertson and others. No. 7, Is a tract of 60 acres more or	Cumberland Orphans' Court.	PAINTS and OILS, FRESH	do ground Seed, clover, ³⁹ 5 50 do herd grass ³⁹ 1	13 Exemplary and curious Epitaphs. 9. Gospel melodies; and, generally, every less, adjoining Daniel Hand and oth-	November Term, 1823. On application of Lewis Uavis ad-	Drugs, Medicines, &c. &c.	do timothy '' 2 50 3 09 Spirits, viz.	thing that may be expected from a journal zealous topromote the interests of religion
ers. No. 8. A tract of Cellar Swamp, ad-	ministrator of Elhanon Davis, deceas- ed; Cooper Madden, administrator of	Also, one elegant Mahogany SIDE	Brandy, Peach 4th pf. gall. 75 80 do. Penn'a 1st pf. '' 50 60	and virtue.—The Editor. Nov 22. 152 joining John H. Brinton and others.	William Maddon, deceased, to limit	BOARD at a reduced price. Bridgeton, September 27. 144	Gin, Philad. dist. do Rum, New England 36 38	Cumberland Orphans' Court.
No 9, A piece of Marsh, outside of the bank, adjoining Thomas Hen	and appoint a time within which the creditors of said decedents shall bring	SUBSCRIPTIONS	Whiskey, rye . 32 31 not be divided without great preja-	in their respective debts, claims and demands :		Starch lb. 7 8	Edmund Sheppard and Elizabeth Smith, executors of William Chard, dice to the owners, and will be sold for cash, by	. It is ordered by the court, that the said administrators give notice to the	Are received at this office for the fol- lowing works, viz.	do loaf ib 16 17 do lump 19 19 14	deceased; Levan Chance, administra- 🚳
Isaac Townsend.	creditors of said decedents to bring in their respective claims on or before the	The Museum of Foreign	Fallow, country ³³ 8 Tobacco, Virg. manu. ³³ 9 14	tor of Levan Chance, deceased; hav- ing severally (exhibited to this court,
Hosea Rankins, & John Albertson. Commissioners.	first day of December, 1824, by setting	Science & Literature.	do do caven, " 37 32 do do large " 15	duly attested accounts, by which it ap- pears that the personal estate of said
Commissioners. 12th mo. 11th. 155 2m	up a copy of this order is five of, the most public places in this county for	This work is a selection of the best and most entertaining essays and pieces found in	Bunk Note Exchange.	decedents are insufficient to pay their just debts and expenses, and setting.
	two months, and for publishing the same in one of the newspapers of this	the European periodical publications which are received in this country. The price is	CORRECTED WEEKLY.	forth that said decedents died several. y seized of real estates, situate in the
JUST PUBLISHD,	creditor neglecting to exhibit his or her	s is dollars a yew. It appears monthly.	U. S. Branch Bank Notes, Banks in New Hampsbire,par.2	county of Cumberland aforzsaid, and praying the aid of the court in the pre-
AND FOR SALE AT THIS OFFICE A REPORT	lemand within the time so limited, iuch notice being given, shall be forev-	Christian Advocate, Being a continuation of the Presbyterian	Boston Banks, 2 do. Massachusetts Banks generally, 2 do.	mises
Of a Cause tried in the District Court of	er barred his or her action therefor,	Magazine. Edited by President Green, late cir Nassau Hall College. Price two dollars	Rhode Island Banks do. 2 do. Donnecticut Banks do par	It is therefore ordered that all per- ions interested in the lands, tenements
Philadelphia, April 24, 1822, John Keen vs. Philip Rice,	against said administrators. By the court	and fifty cents, paid in advance. Monthly.	NEW YORK BANK NOTES. All the city Bank Notes, par.	and real estates of said decedents, do appear before the judges of the Or-
Involving the right of NEW JERSEY to the	T. ELMER, Clerk. Jan. 3. 158 2m	The Wesleyan Repository, Published in Philadelphia by William	Albany Hanks, 1 p. c. dis. Troy Banks, - I do	bans' court, at Bridgeton, on the third monday in February nest, at two
OYSTER BEDS	Sheriff's Sale,	Stockton. This is an interesting and cheap religious work, and we would strongly re-	Mohawk Bank in Sbeoectady, 1 do. Lansingburg Bank, 1 do.	o'clock, P. M. and shew cause, if any they have, why so much of the real es-
IN MAURICE RIVER COVE.		commend it. The price is two dollars, paid in advance—monthly.	Newburg Brankch, at Ithica 1 do.	tates of said decedents, situate in the Price 123 Cents. August 26.	out of the Inferior Court of Chancery of New Jersey, to me directed, will be ex-	Woodward's stereotype edition of Scott's Family Bibie. This edition	Orange county Bank, • 1 do. Catskill Bank, • 1 do.	should not be sold as will be sufficient
To be sold at	posed to sale, it public Vendue, on Tuesday the third day of Februa-	will be published in 5 volumes, at five dollars each, and delivered as printed.	Bank of Columbia at Hudson, 1 do. Utica Bank, • • 1 do.	to satisfy the debts and expenses which remain unpaid.
PUBLIC VENDUE,	ry 1824.	To the first volume will be prefixed the	Ontario Bankat Utica, • I do. NEW JERSEY NOTES.	By the court, T. ELMER, Clerk .
On Saturday the 28th day & February next,	the afternoon of said day, in the county of	life of the Aulhor, Those who wish may have Butterworth's Concordance,	Pew Brunswick Bank - par State Bank at Trenton - 1 do.	Jan. 3. 158 6w
At three o'clock in the afternoon of	Cumberland, at the Inn of Smith Bowen, in Bridgeton,	with Dr. Scott's Six Scriptural Maps at the additional price of six dollars.	911 others par. PENNSYLVANIA XOTES.	Christian Almanac.
said day, on tlie Premises: A new Frame Building,	The following described real estate situate in the township of Millville.	Stackhouse's Body of Divinity. Medical Journal.		Just received and for sale, by 5 . Potter & Co. the Christian Almanac for the year 1824 ,
	1st. A tract with the improvements there.	New Monthly Magazine. Philadelphia Recorder, a weekly re-	Farmers Batik at Lancaster - 1 Lancaster Bank, Easton, do par Germantown, Northampton, - par.	In addition to the useful information generally found in Almanacs, it comprises in 52 pa.
Pine Mount on the road lead	315 Acres	I Innaucipina Accorder, a weekly re-	part part part part part part part part	1. J realize in ramanaes, it comprises in or pa town of Greenwich, and near	Jn , containing	New Monthly Magazine.	Lancaster Bank, Easton, do par	In addition to the useful information general-	.

•	Pine Mount, on the road lead	315 Acres	Philadelphia Recorder, a weekly re-	Germantown, Northampton, - par.	ly found in Almanacs, it comprises in 52 pa.
	ing from Greenwich to Roadstown. It		ligious and miscellaneous Newspaper.	Montgomery County, par.	ges 3 summary of Religious intelligence, es-
		• • •	Natural 'rheology, or evidences of	Harrisburg, par.	pecially that which pertains to the spread of was erected about the year 1820, and	2d. A tract containing	the existence and attributes of the De-	Detaware county at Chester, Dat.	the Gospel 2nd the benevolent efforts of the	1
	was never occupied except for a short	267 Acres		Chester county at West Chester, par.	day.	9
	period as a Methodist Meeting House	bounding on the Cumberland and Gloucester	ity.	Newhope Bridge Company, 35	This Almanac was first published by the	1%
	It is constructed of the very best mate.	County line.	Miscelleneous Magazine.	Farmers Bank of Reading, L	American Tract Society, in Boston, and its
	. rials, and remains uninjured. Its di-	3d. A tract containing		Busquehannah Bridge do. 11 dis.	he extensive sale, it met with there, near	14
-	mensions not recollected.	686 Acres	NOTICE.	Farmers Bank of Bucks count., 1		-0
	George Bacon.	of land and swamp adjoining lands of Joshua		fork Bank, - 1 do.	10,000 copies having been sold the last year.	×.
		Coords Philip Souden and others	The creditors of Seth Hand, an in-	Chambersburg, · · ·	work will be appropriated for the advance-
	Isaac Elwell.	Seized as the property of Samuel Darnell,	solvent debtor, are hereby informed,	Bettysburg, 1 do. Carlisle Bank,	work will be appropriated for the advance- ment of Sunday Schools, it is hoped the pub-	1
	Samuel Tomlinson.	John Moore White an t others defendants,	that the subscriber will attend at the	Jarnisie Balik, • • J	lic will encourage it.	1
	N. B. Conditions made known at	taken in execution at the suit of Joseph G.	inn of Joseph Hand, in the Middle	Bwatara at Harrisburg. do.	Editors of Country papers in Pennsylvania,	0
	the time of sale.	shippen, complainant, and to be sold by	Township, in the county of Cape May,	heensburg, and Brownsville, 5 do.	New Jersey and Delaware, friendly to the ob-
		JOHN LANING, jun. Sheriff.	on Wednesday the 4th day of Februa.	DELAWARE NOTES.	ject will please to give the above one or troo
	December 13. 155 12t	Dec. 1, 1823-Jan. 10 1824 159.	ry next, to make distribution of all the		insertions.
:	TO DENUD	S DOTTED & C.	noney which hatb come to his hands.	Sank of Def. at winnington, a	Philadelphia Nov. 12. 151
	TO RENT.	S. POTTER & Co.		in thing con and Drandy write, par	a performa tenun tenun tenun tenun di ten della mala mala mala fisikani perta dalam tenun tenun tenun tenun ten
	The subscriber offers to Rent for one	Booksellers & Stationers,	of the estate of the said Seth Hand.	Commercial Bank of Delaware, 🔒		10 or more years the TAVERN with its	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	Jeremiah Hand ,	Branch of do. at Milford, - par	PRINTED @ PUBLISHED WEEKLT BO	÷.
			Assignee.	farmers Bank of Delaware, par.	JOHN CLARKE,	k -
	a partenances, Dow occupied by Isaac	115, Chesnut-street, Philadelphia,		Laurel Bank, 25	FIRST HOUSE EAST OF THE BRIDGE.
	Surion, situate near the county line, on	A few doors below Fourth-street, and dia		MARYLAND NOTES.
14	the main road from Salem to Bridge-	"ectly opposite the post office, where Books in		Baltimore Banks, - 3 d. Baltimore City Uank, - 1 dis	CONDITIONS OF PUBLICATION.	E g
	ton.—Also For a term of years,	every department of Literature and Science	•	Baltimore City Uank, 1 dis	THE WASHINGTON WHIG is published
	The Stoc-Creek Factory,	nay be purchased at the most reduced pri-		Havre de Grace, 1 do.	every Saturday evening, at Two Dollars a
		ces. Orders from Library companies, Cound	· • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • •		y'ear, one half payable in advanceAn addi-
:	. Which contains the usual machine-	ry Merchants and Teachers, respectfully so.	A FEW COPIES OF	Annapolis, - 1 do.	tional 50 cents will be demanded, if not paid	1
	ry for manufacturing all kinds of wool-	licited, with the assurance that they will	THE	Branches of do.	within the year.
	eo cloth, in complete order, together	meet prompt attention and liberal discount.	InL	Hagerstown bank, - do.	The Ware will be forwarded by Stage cr with one or more dwelling houses for	Nov. 15. 151	TTOTANT	Bank of Caroline, - 15 do.	Mail, as directed by Subscribers, they pay.	1
	the accommodation of workmen.		VISION	VIRGINIA NOTES,	ing the expense of carriage.	10
	The above property will be let on	NOTICE.	0.P	Richmond and Branches, 1 do.	No Subscriber taken for a shorter period the most reasonable terms, to such as	The subscriber will aftend at Bridge-	30	N, W. bank of Va. at Wheeling, 5 do.	than six months, and a failure to notify a
	Can provide a activity of the second as	the subscriber will attend at bridger	BUTLER NEWCOMB,		discontinuance at the expiration of the time	臣
	can produce satisfactory, recommenda-	ton on fuesday and Friday of each	OF Fairfield "township Cumberland	Columbia District Banks, generally, 1	will be considered as a new engagement, and	i.
ł	tinos: for further particulars applica	week, for the convenience of those who	of Faitheid, township, Cumbertand	North Carolina, • 4 dis.	ttie paper forwarded accordingly.
	tion may be made to the subscriber, re-	tlave business to do with him in the	county, New Jersey, and Deacon of		Advertisements inserted three weeks for	1
	siding near the premises.	Sheriff's Office.	the Baptist Church at Dividing	Georgia, generally - 3 do.	one dollar when not exceeding one square,	1
) (JOHN S. WOOD.	JOHN LAKING, jun,	Стеек.	Bank of Kentucky and branches 70	and continued weekly for twenty five cents	14
	Stee-Creek, Dec. 8. 155 2m	April 12. 190	Price 123 Cents.	OHIO-Chillicothe . 5 dis	Larger advortisement at the same rate.	1000
	the second s					巖
Į	and the second secon	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·			S. 1997	1
•			· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·			ALC: N