By the President: JOHN QUINCY ADAMS, Secretary of State.

JAMES MONROE, President of the United States of America;

To all and singular to whom these presents shall come, greeting.

Whereas a Treaty was made and concluded, between the United States of America and the Great and Little Osage Nation of Indians, at St. Louis, on the twenty-fifth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred & eighteen, by commissioners on the part of the said United States, and certain considerate men, Chiefs and Warriors, of all the several bands of the said nation, on the part and in behalf of the said nation, which Treaty is in the words following, to wit:

A Treaty made and concluded by and between William Clark, Governor of the Missouri territory, superintendent of Indian affairs, and commissioner in behalf of the United States, of the one part; and a full and complete representation of considerate men, chiefs and warriors, of all the several bands, of the Great and Little Osage nation, assembled in behalf of their said nation, of the other part, have agreed to the following articles:

Art. 1. Whereas the Osage nation have been embarrassed by the frequent demands for property taken from the citizens of the United States, by war parties, and other thoughtless men of their several bands; (both before and since their war with the Cherokees,) and as the exertions of their chiefs have been ineffectual in recovering and delivering such property, conformably with the condition of the ninth article of a treaty entered into with the United States, at Fort Clark, the 10th November 1808; and as the deduction from their annuities, in conformity to the said article, would deprive them of any for several years, and being destitute of funds to do that justice to the citizens of the United States, which is calculated to promote a friendly intercourse, they have agreed & do hereby agree, to cede to the United States, and forever quit claim to the tract of country, included within the following bounds, to wit: Beginning at the Arkansas river; at where the present Osage boundary line strikes the river, at Frog Bayou; then up the Arkansas and Verdigris, to the falls of Verdigris river; thence eastwardly, to the said Osage boundary line, at a point twenty leagues north from the Arkansas river; and, with that line, to the place of beginning.

Art. 2. The United States, on their part and in consideration of the above cession, agree, in addition to the amount which the Osage do now receive in money and goods, to pay their own citizens the full value of such property as they can legally prove to have been stolen, or destroyed by the said Osage, since the year 1814: Provided, the same does not exceed the sum of four thousand dollars.

Art. 3. The article now stipulated, will be considered as permanent additions to the treaties, now in force, between the contracting parties, as soon as they shall have been ratified by the President of the United States of America, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate of the said United States.

In witness whereof, the said William Clark, commissioner as aforesaid, and the considerate men and chiefs, aforesaid, have hereunto subscribed their names, and affixed their seals, at St. Louis, this 25th day of September; in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, and of the independence of the United States the forty-third.

Mr. Lake, with leave, presented a bill for the division of the county of Gloucester—read and postponed to next session.

Mr. Kinney reported the surrogate's bill without amendment—passed and sent to Council.

A message from Council informed that they insist on their amendment to the bill supplementary to the act to prohibit the exportation of slaves, &c.—The house insisted on their disagreement; and the clerk was directed to inform Council thereof.

The message further informed that Council had passed the following bills from the house without amendment:—The supplement to the act for the support of government; the bill appropriating unclaimed wreck money; the incidental bill; the bill for procuring a general index to the record of deeds; and the bill for the investment of the annual income of the school fund.

The supplement to the bill for internal improvement was read a 2d and 3d time, passed and sent to Council. Adjourned to half past 6 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Thursday, Feb. 19.

Half past six, the house met.—A message from Council informed that they had passed a bill entitled an act for the relief of persons confined in the state prison; read twice, amended, and ordered a third reading, and subsequently passed.

The re-engrossed bill concerning the estates of persons who die insolvent, was read, compared, passed and sent to Council.

A message from Council informed that they had receded from their amendment to the supplement to the act relative to the exportation of slaves, and passed the same; that they had passed the supplement to the act for the improvement of internal navigation; also, that Council had agreed to the amendments of the house to the bill for the relief of persons confined in the state-prison.

Mr. Kinney moved the following resolution:—Resolved, That the thanks of the house be presented to the hon. David Thompson, jr. for the ability and impartiality with which he has discharged the duties of the chair. Agreed to.

NAVAL ENGAGEMENT.

Capt. Olcott, who arrived here yesterday from Havana in the ship Fox, states that on the 4th inst. a Patriot Brig appeared off Havana, when a Spanish sloop of war went out to capture her; an engagement took place in sight of the town which lasted about two hours. The smoke cleared away the Patriot was seen going off in company with a sloop of war, and as the latter vessel turned to port when Capt. Olcott's days afterwards, there was doubt she had been captured by the sloop.

Feb. 10.

We understand that the rooms are engaged for General Jackson's elegant Boarding House of Market Street, 52 Broadway—and that he is to be in town on Saturday, in company with His Excellency the Vice-President General Swift, Commodore Chauncey, &c. It will be seen by the military orders in the day's Gazette, that General Jackson is to be received in a stifle due to his distinguished rank.

The General and suit left Philadelphia this morning in the Post-Chaise line, and will reach the seat of the Vice-President on Staten-Island this evening.

Some time before the breaking up of the British head quarters at Cambray, an Irish soldier, a private in the 23d regiment of Foot, was convicted of shooting at, and robbing a French peasant, and was in consequence sentenced to be hanged. On arriving at the place of execution, he addressed the spectators in a stentorian voice as follows—"Bad luck to the Duke of Wellington! he's no Irishman's friend any way; I have killed many a score of Frenchmen by his orders, and when I just took it in my head to kill one upon my own account, by the powers he has tuck me up for it!"

As we desire our readers to learn whatever new and strange is going on in the world, we copy, for their information, the following from a Baltimore paper, in which it is inserted as an advertisement.—Nat. Intell.

"TRADESMAN.—A new mode of travelling, combining the advantages of carriage, horse, and foot. It has a saddle as a horse, it has wheels as a carriage, the rider derives his progress from his own feet. It exhibits the principle of skating on land.

This curious, useful, and simple machine, was invented in Germany, by Trace J. Stewart, claims the merit of constructing and introducing them here, with improvements which he has patented, and is ready to execute them to order. These horses are cheap, they are safe, and do not fall without the rider's consent.

In that part of Germany where they are introduced, they are not only possessed by numbers, but hired out as horses are.

The public are informed that the above Trade-smen will be exhibited to-morrow and Saturday, at Concert Hall, South Charles street, from 9 A. M. till 5 P. M. Admittance 25 cents."

Cape May Orphans' Court.

 Present—Elijah Townsend, Ephraim Hildreth, Cresce Townsend and others, esquires, Judges.

WILLIAM CORGIE, administrator of Sophia Stimpson, deceased, having presented to this Court a just and true account of the estate, and of the debts of said deceased, whereby it appears that the personal estate of said deceased is insufficient to pay off her just debts: and the said administrator having also set forth to the court that the said dec. died seized of real estate in the county of Cape May, praying the aid of the court in the premises.

The Court orders that all persons interested in the real estate of said deceased, do appear before this Court on Monday, the twenty-fourth day of May next, at ten o'clock in the morning, to shew cause if any they have, why the real estate of which the said decedent died seized, should not be sold to pay off and discharge her debts.
