BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS a Convention between the United States of America arid His Britannic Majesity was concluded and signed at St. Petersburg, under tire Russias, on the twelfth day of July last, by the respective Plenipotentiaries of the three powers: And whereas the said Convention has been by them duly ratified, and the respective ratifications of the sanie were exchanged at Washingtons on the tenth day of the present month, the tenth day of the present month, by John Quinoy Adams, Secretor! of State of the United States, the Right Honorable Stratford Canning, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of His Britannic Majesty, and Mr. George Receipts. ELLISEN, Charge d'Affairs of His Imperial Majesty the Emperor of all the Russias, on the part of their sev-eral Governments: which Convention is in the words following, tu wit.

In the name of the most holy and invisable Trinity =

The President of the United States of America; and His Majesty rlie King of the United Kingdom of Great Brits ain and Ireland, having agreed in pursuance of the fifth article ":' the Convention concluded at London on the 20th day of October, 1818, to refer the differences which had arisen between the two governments, upon the true construction and meaning of the first article of the Treaty of Peace arid Amity, concluded at Ghent on the 24th day of December, 1814, to the friendly arbitration of His Majesty the Emperor of all the Russia, mutually engaging to consider his desision as final and conclusive. And liis said Imperial Majesty having, after due conaidera tion, giving decision upon these differences in the following terms, to wit :
"Thatthe Wnited States of Ameri

"ca are entitled to claim from Great "Britain a just indemnification for all forces may have carried away; and "as tlie question relates to slaves more "especially, for all the slaves that the 66 British forces may have carried away 67 from places and Territories of which the Treaty stipulates the restitution, in quitting these same places and territories."

"That the United States are entitled st to consider as having been so carried 64 away,, all such slaves an may have " been transferred from the above men-66 tioned territories to British vessels " within the waters of the said territo 66 ries, and who for this reason may not 66 have been restored."

66 But that if their should be any A es merican slaves who, were carried away from territories of which the first article of tha Treaty of Ghent "has not stipulated the restitution to 66 the United States, the United States se are not entitled to claim an indemni-"fication for the said slaves.

Now for the purpose of carrying in to erect this award of His Imperial Majesty, as arbitrator, his good offices best of my judgment, according to have been further invoked to assist in framing-such Convention or Articles of Agreement between the United States of America and His Britannic Majesty, as shall provide the mode of ascertaining and determining the value of slaves and of other private property, which may have been carried away in contra-vention of the Treaty of Ghent, and for which indemnification is to be made to the citizens of the United States, in virtue of His Imperial Majesty's said award, and shall secure compensation io the sufferers for their losses, so ascertained ancl determined. And His Imperial Majesty has consented to lend his mediation for the above purpose, and has constituted and appointed CHARLES ROBERT COUNT NESSEL-RODE, His Imperial Majesty's Privy Counsellor, Meniher'of the Council of State, Secretary of State directing the Imperial Department of Foreign Aftairs, Chamberlain, Knight of the order of Saint Alexander Nevsky, Grand Cross of the order of Saint Vladimir of the first class, Knight of that of the White Eagle of Poland, Grand Cross of the order of St. Stephen of Hungary, of the Black and of the Red Eagle of Prussia, of the Legion of Honor of

And the said Plenipotentiaries, after a reciprocal communication of their respective full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon ilie following articles.:

ARTICLE I.

For the purpose of assertaining and determining the amount of indemnification which may be due to citizens of the United States under the decision of his Imperial Majesty, two Commissioners and two Arbitrators shall be ap-minted in the manner following: That is to say, one commissioner and one arbitrator shall he nominated and appointed by the President of lite United States of America, by, and with the advice and consent of the Senate thereof; and one commissioner and one arbitrator shall be appointed by his Brit. annic Majesty. Arid the two commissioners and the two arbitrators, rhus appointed, shall meet arid hold their sittings as a Board in the city of Washington. They shall have power to appoint a Steretary, and before proceeding to the other business of the commission, they shall, respectively, take the following oath (or affirmation) in the presence of each other. Which oath or affirmation, being to taken, and duly attested, shall be entered on the record of their proceedings; that is to ay: "I, A B, one of the commissioners (or arbitrators, as the case may be,) appointed in pursuance of the "convention concluded at St. Peters-

"burg on the 30th day of June,

"thousand eight hundred and twenty"two, hetween his Majesty the Empe"ror of all the Russias, the U. States of America, and his Brittannic Majesty, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will diligently, impartially, "and carefully examine, and, to the "justice and equity, decideall matters "submitted to me as commissioner (or " arbitrator, as the case may be,) under the said convention.

All vacancies occurring by death or otherwise shall be filled up in the manner of the original appointment. and the new commissioners or arbi trators shall take tlie same oath or affirmation, and perform the same

ARTICLE II.

If, at the first meeting of this board, the governments of the United Slates and of Great Britain shall not have agreed upon an average value, to be allowed as compensation for each slave for whom indemnification may be due: then, and in that case, the commission ers and arbitrators shall conjointly pro coed to examine the testimony which shall be produced under the authority of the President of the Urrited States, together with such other competent tes timony as they maJ see cause to require or allow, going tit prove the true value of slaves at the period of the exchange of the ratifications of the treaty o Ghent; and upon the evidence so ob tained, they shall agree upon and fix the average value. But in case that Reacce, of Charles III, of Spain, of St. the average value. But in case that Rerelinand and of Merit of Naples, of the Annunciation of Sardinia, of the average value. But in case that majority of the board of commission the Annunciation of Sardinia, of the to agree respecting such average value Polar Star of Sweden, of the Elephant to agree respecting such average value of Denmark, of the Golden Eagle of then and in-that care, recourse shall be Wirtemberg, of Fidelity of Baden, of had to the arbitration of the minister

St. Constantine of Parma, aild of or other agent of the mediating power, Guelph of Hanover; and JOHN COUNT & and died to the government of the a condited to the government of the United States. A statement of the evidence produced, and of the proceedings of the board thereupon, shall be communicated to the said minister or agent, and his decision, founded upou such evidence and proceedings, shall de find and conclusive. And the said average value, when fixed and determined by either of the three before mentioned methods, shall in all cases sierve as a rule for the compensation to be awarded for each and every slave, for whom it may afterwards be found that indemnification is due.

ARTICLE III.

When thre average value of slaves shall have been ascertained and fixed the two commissioners shall constitute a board for the examination of the claims which are to be submitted to them, and they shall notify to the Secretary of State of the United States. that they are ready to receive a definitive list of the slaves and other private property, for which the citizens of the United States claim indemnification; it being understood and hereby agreed that the commission shall not take cognizance of, nor receive, and that his Britannic majesty sliall not be requir ed to make compensation for any claims for private property under the first article of the treaty of Ghent, not contained in the said list. And His Britannic majesty hereby engages to cause to be produced before the cornmission, as material towards ascertaining facts, all the evidence of which his majesty's government may be in psession, by returns from his majesty's officers or otherwise, of the number of slaves carried away. But the evidence so produced, or its defectiveness, shall not go in bar of any claim or claims which shall be otherwise satisfactorily authenticated.

ARTICLE IV.

The two Commissioners are hereby empowered and required to go into an examination of all the claims submitted. through the above mentioned list, by the owners of slaves or other property. or by their lawful attorneys, or repre sentatives, and to determine the same, respectively, according to the merits of the several cases, under the rule of the Imperial decision herein above recited. and having reference, if need there be, to the explanatory documents hereunto annexed, marked A and C .- And in considering such claims, the Commissioners are empowered, and required, to examine on oath, or affirmation, all such persons as shall come before them, touching the real number of the slaves, or value of other property, for which indemnification is claimed z and, also, to receive in evidence, according as they may think consistent with equity and justice, written depositious or papers, such depositions or papers being duly authenticated, either according to existing legal forms, or in such other mauner as the said Commissioners shall see cause to require or allow.

ARTICLE V.

In the event of the two commission ers riot agreeing in any particular case under examination, or of their disagreement upon any question which may result from the stipulations of this con vention, then and in that case they shall draw by lot the name of one of the two arbitrators, who, after having given due consideration to the matter contested, shall consult with the commissioners, and a final decision shall he given, conformably to the opinion of the majority of the two commissioners, and of the arbitrator so drawn by lot,-And the arbitrator, when so acting with the two commissioners, shall be bound in all respects by the rules of proceedng enjoined by the fourth article of this convention upon the commissioners, and shall be vested with the same powers, and be deemed, for that case, a commissioner.

ARTICLE VI.

The decision of the two commissioners, or of tlie majority of the board, as constituted by the preceding article, shall in all cases be final and conclusive, whether as to number, the value. or the ownership of the slaves, or other property, for which indemnification is to be made. And his Britannic Ma iesty engages to cause the sun) award. ed to each and every owner in lieu of his slave or slaves, or other property, to be paid in specie, without deduction, at such time or times, and at such place or places, as shall be awarded by th said commissioners, and on condition of such releases or assignments to b given, as they shall direct = provide?
That uo such payments shall be fixe to take place, sooner than twelv months from the day of the exchang of the ratifications to this convention.

ARTICLE VII. It is further agreed, that the cam missioners and arbitrators shall be respectively paid in such manner as a!~!! fications of this convention. And all teen thousand dollars. other expenses attending the execution of the commission, shall be defrayed previously ascertaining and allowed by the majority of the board.

ARTICLE VIII.

A certified copy of this convention, whea duly ratified by His Majesty the Emperor of all the Russias, by the President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of their Senate, and by His Britannic Majesty, shall be delivered by each of the contracting parties, respectively, to the minister or other agent of the mediating power, accredited to the government of the United States, as soon as may be after the ratifications shall have tieen exchanged, which lost sliall beeffected at Washington, in six months from the date hereof, or sooner if pos-

THE HOLY ALLIES AND SPAIN. We copy from the Liverpool Mercurv, of January 24th, the following oportant summary. Bince our last publication, which contained the circular from the Allied Sovereigns to the Cabinet of Madrid, Russia, Austria, arid Prussia, have sevvailv addressed notes to their respecive Charges d'Affaires at Madrid, to re communicated to the Spanish Government. "They are more detailed," ays the London Courier, "than M. de Villele's note, and are drawn up with great force." They are from the same naturactory as the former, declara-tions, are clouded with the same amniguity, and appear only to differ inasmuch as they visuperate more importijendy on the institutions of Spain, and reathe a rather more open spirit of resolved oppression. That of Russia is signed the Count de Nesselrode, arid lated 14th Nov. It states with deslaging the object of the Verona assemdy to he that of conciliating more and nore the peace of Europe, and to present whatever might tend to unsettle

They therefore looked to the internal commotions of Spain with apprerension. It ascribes the Spanish revdution to the acts of "perjured soltiers," who in $20, turned their arms igainst their sovereign arid their coun-:ry; and states, that the establishment if new institutions by such means con-secrated unlitary revolt. It asserts hat laws were imposed upon Spain which were stamped with the highest lisapprobation by the public and en-ightened reason of Europe! (What egret," it then asks, must every good Spaniard feel, at the assendency of hose who brought about such a revoluion?" 'Thenare we told, that, before heir deptorable success, all Europe rad offered Fordinand an amicable nfervention, to restore to his firm au-hority the S. American provinces." But, alas! encouraged in the revolution of Spain, these provinces found an asolery be disobedience, and seperated rom the mothercountry! Then came marchy and disorder "religion was lespoiled for her patrimony;" "the oyal dignity was outraged;" that in, Ferdinaud was reminded of his duty, to ahide by the constitution to which ie nad sworn, and from which he shewed frequent inclination to swerve.-The lapse of time, in place of allaying these calamities, we are told, Iris only prought increased violence.. The neutrality of England is still af firmed. — The Courier says, "some of our contemporaries have of late insert ed statements of increased exertions in tile Naval Arsenals, which have a tendency to excite apprehensions hostilities being expected by his Ma iesty's Government twe are authorised distinctly to state, that there has heen no such increase of exertion, and that there has not been the smallest tendency to warlike preparations at any of the dock yards.

Prince Metternich has lately visited Munich, for the purpose of concluding a treaty of alliance between the Austri an and Bayarian governments, in which it is said he has succeeded.

On the 13th and 14th of January, a great number of addresses were pre-sented from different public bodies, corporations, the national militia, and various military corps, in approbation of the answers of the government to the notes of the foreign powers, and the votes of the Cortes on those answers.

An augsburgh article, Jan. 21, says—the last letters received from the frontiers of Russia, continue of a war like character, inasmuch as tile general persuasion is, that the Brittannic Am-

A duel was fought near Camden on the morning of the 5th inst. between lieftenant Beaufort of the navy yard, and a son of Dr. Munges of Phila. delphia. They exchanged one shot, and the man of war came out second, best, having received the ball of his antagonist on the hip bone-it passed round liis abdomen, without entering the viscera, and lodged on the opposite side to that which it struck. It was easily extracted, and is nor con. sidered mortal. The alarm was given on the shots being fired -Mr. M. and his party escaped, but the ileutenanf, his second and surgeon mere secured ; the two former were admitted to bail, to stand their trial at the next Glouces. ter court, arid the latter on his own re cognizance, to appear as a witness, The dispute was occasioned by an accidents! push, given by Mr. Munges in the theatre to the other, for which, on account of its being accidental, he refused to ask pardon, and was challen. ged by the man of war.

An attempt was made on the 9th inst. by the prisoners in Walnut street, Philadelphia, to break prison and escape. Their plan was laid some time previous. On the clergyman's going in to deliver his Sabbath day lecture, the keeper accompanied him, having the p a t keys in his hand. As soon as they presented themselves and the preacher had taken his stand, one of the prisoners stepped up to the keeper, drew a knife, and demanded the keys or he would instantly cut his throat. The keys were delivered, and at the same instant, another in like manner with a a large knife enjoined silence on the clergyman. This done, the negroes commenced singing hymns as loud as they could, while the rest went to work with battering engines at the outer wall, adjoining to which is their chappel. A boy outside was passing, and hearing the noise, called to a man to hear. The man on listening, suspected all was not right, ran to the seepers in front-one of which immediitely entered and demanded the keys from the ruffian who held them. They were preremptorily refused. Then said the keper if you do not I will shoot you down, at the same moment raising liis gun. This had the desired effect. The keys were given up, and the prisoners were ordered to their. :ells, to which they, went one by one, ifter having made a passage almost through the wall with engines so ingenously contrived, that it is said they would have done honor to Vespasian; nimself. Thus ended this second atempt to escape, all within 2 week or two. 'Itis said they are resolved to ireak out it' one of the keepers is not emoved. This keeper is retained by pertain partizans, contrary to the inerests of the institution, and at the isk of the public safety.

Loss of the schooner O. H. Perry, from Barnstable, capt. Benj. Hamlin.

The sch. O H Perry sailed from Jamaica Feb. Sd. On Monday morning the 10th, at 3 o'clock, was ran into by vessel about 100 miles from Cape May, carried away the bowsprit, and rendered the sch. quite unmanageable, so much so that the capt. could not lay her to, it blowing a gale, at the time. She came on shore at Cold Bar, and and struck in about one fathom of water, about 200 yard from land, on tuesday morning about three o'clock.

When she struck she thumped her keel off, the second thump she bilged, the sea then making a fair breach over her. The capt. and crew then clung to the riging to save themselves. Whilst here perishing with cold, they let go their hold and fell into the sea and three of them were drowned. The captain reached the beach, atid expired in a litter of A new work to be called "the Pi-total lotter at ale of the sea. The others have not yet been driven on shore.

The cargo consists of coffee, pimento, logwood, fustic, castor oil, 30 horiels castor oil in bottles-consigned to John Goddait, Esq. merchant, Philadelphia.

It was owing to ttic extraordinary excitions of capt. Aaron Bennet, com-missioner of wiecks, and his crew of picked men that the unfortunate survivors were recued from their perilons situation; the vessel being in a situation which rendered it extremely hazardous to approach her, the sea breaking entirely over her. After great ex ertions for an hour and a half, he was enabled to rescue the mate aid one sea. man, the passengers having lost their hold, about half an hour before, it was possible for the boat to reach the wreck The captain was also taken from the wreck, but did is t survive inore than 15 or 20 minutes after landing, in the thean time every exertion was made use of to restore him to life, but with-quiring and intelligent: readers.

PROPOSALS

From the pages of the first volume, this mature of those resources which are open to us, may be inferred and in some measure appreciated; and we are happy to state, that our means of commanding such a variety a will enable us to present our readers will original and selected matter of a respectable character, are daily increasing. Under these encouraging circumstances, it is not probable that we should be accused of either vani ty or presumption, when our portrons are as sured, that from the known abilities of ou Correspondents, the articles which we shall introduce into our second volume, will no decline in value as they increase in nunibe decline in value as they increase in nunibe and variety.

Certain difficulties which have attended the semi-monthly publication of the first volume, have suggested to the publisher the propriety of new arrangements. It is desirable, for the purpose of presenting a greate variety at one view, to increase the numbe of pages to forty; we also design to obviate the necessity of publishing articles bj continuing them from one Number to its successor; we also design to enlarge the depart Cedarville, sor; we also design to enlarge the depart ment devoted to Religious Intelligence.—Therefore, each number of the second vol ume of the Repository will appear on the first Monday of each month. The price will be reduced to Two Do lars per Annum, exclusive of postage. Ou Dollar to be paid at the time of subscribing and One Dollar on the publication of the sixt Number. With these arrangements, we flat ter ourselves, the patrons of the Repositor will be fully satisfied:' It is intended that the first Number (wor. It shall appear on good medium pape in April next.

Those persons who obtain eight subscribers, and become responsible for the parameter, sliall receive one copy for their trouble.
