Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President of the United States be, and he is hereby authorized to take possession of, and occupy the territories of East and West Florida, and the appendages and appurtenances thereof; and to remove and transport the officers and soldiers of the King of Spain, being there, to the Havana, agreeably to the stipulations of the Treaty between the United States and Spain, concluded at Washington on the twenty-second day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, providing for the cession of said territories to the United States; and he may, for these purposes, and in order to maintain in said territories the authority of the United States, employ any part of the army and navy of the United States, and the militia of any state or territory, which he may deem necessary.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That, until the end of the first session of the next Congress, unless provision for the temporary government of said territories be sooner made by Congress, all the military, civil and judicial powers exercised by the officers of the existing government of the same territories, shall be vested in such person and persons, and shall be exercised in such manner, as the President of the United States shall direct, for the maintaining the inhabitants of said territories in the free enjoyment of their liberty, property, and religion; and the laws of the United States relating to the revenue and its collection, subject to the modification stipulated by the fifteenth article of the said Treaty, in favor of Spanish vessels and their cargoes, and the laws relating to the importation of persons of color, shall be extended to the said territories. And the President of the United States shall be, and he is hereby authorized, within the term aforesaid, to establish such districts for the collection of the revenue, and, during the recess of Congress, to appoint such officers, whose commissions shall expire at the end of the next session of Congress, to enforce the said laws, as to him shall seem expedient.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That the President of the United States be, and he is hereby authorized to appoint, during the recess of the Senate, a Commissioner and Surveyor, whose commissions shall expire at the end of the next session of Congress, to meet the Commissioner and Surveyor, who may be appointed on the part of Spain, for the purposes stipu-

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That the compensation of the respective officers, for whose appointment provision is made by this act, shall not exceed the following sums:

The Commissioner to be appointed conformably to the fourth article, at the rate, by the year, of three thousand dollars.

To the Surveyor, two thousand dollars.

To each of the three Commissioners to be appointed conformably to the eleventh article of the Treaty, three thousand dollars.

AN ACT

To authorize the President of the United States to borrow a sum not exceeding five millions of dollars.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President of the United States be, and he is hereby empowered to borrow, on the credit of the United States, a sum not exceeding five millions of dollars, at a rate of interest, payable quarter-yearly, not exceeding five per centum per annum, and reimbursable at the will of the government, at any time after the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five; to be applied, in addition to the moneys now in the Treasury, or which may be received therein, from other sources, during the present year, to defray any of the public expenses which are, or may be authorized by law. The stock thereby created shall be transferable in the same manner as is provided by law for the transfer of the public debt.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Bank of the United States to lend the said sum, or any part thereof; and it is hereby further declared, that it shall be deemed a good execution of the said power to borrow, for the Secretary of the Treasury, with the approbation of the President of the United States, to cause to be constituted certificates of stock, signed by the Register of the Treasury, or by a Commissioner of Loans, for the sum to be borrowed, or for any part thereof, bearing an interest of five per centum per annum, transferable and reimbursable as aforesaid, and to cause the said certificates of stock to be sold, provided that no stock be sold under par.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby authorized, with the approbation of the President of the United States, to employ an agent or agents for the purpose of obtaining subscriptions to the loan authorized by this act, or of selling any part of the stock to be created by virtue thereof. A commission of not exceeding one-eighth of one per centum on the amount thus sold, or for which subscriptions shall be obtained, may, by the Secretary of the Treasury, be allowed to such agent or agents; and a sum, not exceeding four thousand dollars, to be paid out of any moneys in the Treasury, not otherwise appropriated, is hereby appropriated for that object, and subscription certificates, and certificates of stock, and other expenses incident to the due execution of this act.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That so much of the funds constituting the annual appropriation of ten millions of dollars for the payment of the principal and interest of the public debt of the United States, as may be sufficient for that purpose, after satisfying the sums necessary for the payment of the interest, and of such part of the principal, of the said debt as the United States are now pledged annually to pay and reimburse, is hereby pledged and appropriated for the payment of the interest, and for the reimbursement of the principal, of the stock which may be created by virtue of this act. It shall, accordingly, be the duty of the Commissioners of the sinking Fund to cause to be applied and paid out of the said fund, yearly, such sum and sums as may annually be necessary to discharge the interest accruing on the said stock, and to reimburse the principal, as the same may become due, and may be discharged in conformity with the terms of the loan. And they are further authorized to apply, from time to time, such sum or sums towards discharging, by purchase, and at a price set above par, the principal of the said stock, or any part thereof; and the faith of the United States is hereby pledged to establish sufficient revenues for making up any deficiency that may hereafter take place in the funds hereby appropriated for paying the said interest, and principal sums, or any of them, in manner aforesaid.

Auctioneers.
Last evening, a few minutes before 11 o'clock, a bill was ordered to be transcribed for a third reading, in the H. R. by a majority of more than two to one, which throws open the business of auctioneers, in the city of Philadelphia, to all persons who can give security in two thousand pounds; and pay 2000 dollars a year for licence. It was strenuously opposed by the members from the city, and as warmly supported by the members from the county of Philadelphia.

POETRY.

From the New Monthly Magazine.

To the Rainbow.

BY T. CAMPBELL.

Triumphant arch, that fill'st the sky
When storms prepare to part,
I ask not proud philosophy
To teach me what thou art.

Still seem as to my childhood's sight
A midway station given,
For happy spirits to alight
Betwixt the earth and heaven.

Can all that optics teach unfold
Thy form to please me so,
As when I dream of gems and gold
Hid in thy radiant brow?

When science from Creation's face
Enchantment's veil withdraws,
What lovely visions yield their place
To cold material laws!

And yet, fair bow, no fabled dreams,
But words of the Most High,
Have told why first thy robe of beams
Was woven in the sky.

When o'er the green undeluged earth
Heaven's covenant thou didst shine,
How came the world's grey fathers forth
To watch thy sacred sign?

And when its yellow lustre smiled
O'er mountains yet untrod,
Each mother held aloft her child
To bless the bow of God.

Methinks, thy jubilee to keep,
The first-made anthem rang,
On earth delivered from the deep,
And the first poet sang.

Nor ever shall the Muse's eye
Unraptured greet thy Scam;
Theme of primeval prophecy,
Be still the poet's theme.

The earth to thee its incense yields,
The lark thy welcome sings,
When glittering in the fresher'd fields
The snowy mushroom springs.

How glorious is thy girdle cast
O'er mountain, tower, and town,
Or mirror'd in the ocean's vast
A thousand fathoms down.

As fresh in yon horizon dark,
As young thy beauties seem,
As when the eagle from the Ark
First spotted in thy beam.

For, faithful to its sacred page,
Heaven still rebuilds thy span,
Nor lets the type grow pale with age,
That first spoke peace to man.

Singular Preservation.

An interesting article upon the colony of the Cape of Good Hope, appears in a late English periodical work, in which the emigrants are about to settle—portraying its advantages and disadvantages, with the situation the emigrant is likely to be placed in, on his first arrival. In noticing the unerring skill of the grazier, (or keboor) colonist with his musket—the writer of the article relates the following little narrative—the hero of which was a man of the name of Van Wyck—and the story of his "perilous and fearful shot" is given in his own words:

"It is now," said he, "more than two years, in the very place where we stand, I ventured to take one of the most daring shots that ever was hazarded. My wife was sitting within the house, near the door—the children were playing about her—and I was without near the house, busied in doing something to a wagon, when, suddenly, though at mid-day, an enormous lion appeared, came up and laid her self quietly down in the shade, upon the threshold of the door. My wife either frozen with fear, or aware of the danger of any attempt to fly, remained motionless in her place, while the children took refuge to her lap. The cry they uttered attracted my attention, and I hastened towards the door; but my astonishment may well be conceived when I found the entrance to be barred in such a way. Although the animal had not seen me, unarmed as I was, escape seemed impossible; yet, I glided gently, scarcely knowing what I meant to do, to the side of the house up to the window of my chamber, where I knew my loaded gun was standing. By a most happy chance I had set it in the corner close by the window, so that I could reach it with my hand; the opening being too small to admit of my having got in, and still more to gratefully the door of the room was open, so that I could see the whole danger of the scene. The lion was beginning to move, perhaps with the intention of making a spring. There was no longer any time to think, I called softly to the mother not to be alarmed, and invoking the name of Lord, fired my piece. The ball passed directly over the hair of my boy's head, and lodged in the forehead of the lion immediately above the eyes, which shot forth, as it were, sparks of fire, and stretched him on the ground, so that he never stirred more."

The following amusing article is from the Boston Daily Advertiser.—The manner recommended of handling "brown Bess," is certainly an "exercise" requiring great "manual" dexterity; but we suspect it will be better understood by our "marine" corps, than by our militia or regulars, who have yet to learn the quaint vocabulary of the sons of Neptune.

The Manual Exercise.

My lads, the first thing you have to do, is to answer to your names—when you hear the word "attention," you must bring both the starboard and larboard heels to bear together. Keeping your jib-stays taught bowsed up, and square your shoulders by the lifts and braces, clapping both your fists against your bends, one and all the same moment, till the words "stand at ease," when the hollow of your starboard foot must be smartly backed astern of the heel of the larboard one—you must also clap an over-hand knot upon your fist athwart your bread bag; after coming to attention, at the word "shoulder arms," rouse brown Bess by the middle, and bowse her up from the lower tier of the starboard side, to the larboard bow, keeping a good look out that she don't make a lee lurch and capsizes, otherwise you'll be apt to knock out your shipmate's top-lights; at the word "secure arms," the starboard arm, which is now fast to the starboard bends, must go athwart your bread bag, in order to receive brown Bess by the breech, clapping your larboard fist to her midships; be sure to have her muzzle ahead, so that her breech will come right under your larboard wing, so as to secure the fire-works from squalls, no tarpaulin being allowed. After shouldering, at the word "present arms," you slew Bess half round, and seize her with the starboard fist, then fetch her up betwixt your top-lights, so that your flying jib-boom will be two inches from her midships; be sure to back the hollow of the starboard foot astern of the heel of the larboard one, during this outing; after bringing Bess from the larboard bow, the next is "advance arms," both of the two first motions of which are the same as "present," but at the third, you heave her alongside of the starboard bends, seizing the guard with the starboard fist, so as to secure her alongside—so much for one lesson.

Wonderful Ox.

A celebrated Ox, called Caps-All, of the Durham breed, was lately slaughtered in England. The rough tallow of this animal weighed 266 pounds; when cut down the breast, he measured one foot thickness of solid fat. Owing to the wetness of the weather, which was much against the beef selling, it only averaged 10d. per pound, the price being 1s. In 1819, this noble animal was measured and weighed, and was found to stand full 6 feet high, 11 feet 6 inches round the body, 37 inches across his back, and 10 feet from the tail to his horns, and weighed the unprecedented weight of 310 st. of 14 lbs. or 4340 lbs. weight.—[What a mountain of beef!]

The news from Europe is every day becoming more and more interesting. Every nation and kingdom in Europe, Sweden and Denmark excepted, are in commotion. The rage for reformation is daily increasing, and the enemies of liberty are using their greatest exertions to suppress it.

In Spain every thing is tumult and disorder.—The London Courier of the 19th Feb. states, that a letter from Paris has been received, of which the following is an extract—

“While closing this letter, a note from the Spanish embassy informs me, that yesterday a courier arrived in about six days from Spain, bringing news of a general insurrection at Madrid; the king's guard massacred; his person threatened—in short most terrible catastrophe. This I unfortunately consider as official.”

A most horrible and mysterious murder was perpetrated at Norfolk Va. about the 20th of March. It has been characterised by deeds of blood and horror, equal to any thing which we have ever read.—As we have not at present room for the details of this shocking circumstance, we will briefly state a few of the outlines. Peter Lago, a dealer in Jewelry, was de-ported from Baltimore, where he resided, by two Spaniards, who went by the name of Garcia, but whose proper name, by the subsequent confession of one of them, appears to be Castilanno. They rented a house in Norfolk, to which they brought Lago and his wife. One morning between the hours of 7 and 8 o'clock the latter was attacked in his bed, by Castilanno, who with an axe struck him, and immediately cut his throat.—His head was severed from his body, and thrown into the fire, where it was consumed, after which he was carved by piecemeal for the purpose of burning him, but the affair was discovered by a constable, directed by Mrs. Lester, a lady who lived contiguous to the building, and who from cries and other suspicious symptoms became alarmed. The perpetrators of this horrid transaction had however made their escape, but was pursued by captain Shuster, residing at Bowdoin's ferry, where they had passed, and were made prisoners.

One of the murderers has made a confession, some of the particulars of which we shall give in our next.

AN ACT for the relief of certain persons whose Lands, Bank Stock, &c. have been sold for Taxes.—Approved, February, 1821.

“Sec. 1. That all persons whose lands, &c. have been stricken off to the State for the triple tax, shall be allowed until the first day of January, next, to redeem the same, by paying into the state Treasury the amount of the single tax to which the said land or other property would have been liable under the provisions of the act of 1819, the costs which have accrued on account of such striking off to the state, and interest at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum on said single tax and costs, from the time the said taxes should have been paid, to the time of redemption.”

“Sec. 2. That all persons who have already redeemed their land, by paying the price the same sold for, with 100 per cent. thereon, after there has been deducted from the sum so by them paid, the amount of the single tax to which land or other property was of right liable, the costs of the sale and Sheriff's fees, shall be entitled to a credit for the balance then remaining due; and the sum so credited shall be considered as a deposit, and may be applied to the payment of any taxes which may already have accrued, or which hereafter may accrue on said land.”

“Sec. 3. That where non-residents have paid taxes in the county where the land, &c. is situate, and it has been subsequently sold to the State or individuals for a failure to list the same with the Auditor, it is made his duty upon information to redeem the said land, if the same has been sold to individuals, and it is stricken off to the State, to erase the record thereof, in both cases giving the owner a receipt for the amount of the tax the same was sold for.”

“Sec. 4. That all persons who have redeemed their land, &c. by paying a triple tax, Sheriff's fees, and costs of advertising, shall have a credit for all above the single tax, costs, &c. which may be applied as provided in the second section.”

“Sec. 6. That all residents and non-residents who may heretofore have redeemed, or hereafter shall redeem their lands or other property, for sales to individuals under the provisions of the 11th section of the act of 1819, a credit for so much of the sum paid by them to redeem their land, &c. as shall remain, after deducting therefrom the amount of the single tax or taxes which may or shall have accrued upon such land, with interest at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum, from the time such tax or taxes became due, to the time of redemption, and the costs of sale, the credit to be applied as permitted by the second section of this act.”

“Sec. 7. That in all cases where lands or other property have been charged with, but not yet sold for, a triple tax, in consequence of the owner or owners thereof having failed, neglected or refused to comply with the requisitions of the act of 1819, the owner or owners shall be exonerated from payment of the triple tax, if, at any time before the 1st of January next, he shall pay into the Treasury the amount of the single tax and interest.”

Sir—The foregoing is an extract of the law of the State of Illinois, passed in February last, for the relief of certain persons whose lands, &c. have been sold for taxes, and which we hasten to forward to you for your information. In all the cases where the Bounty

Lands remain the property of the soldier, or his heirs, the tax is payable by them three years after the date of the patent.

It will afford us sincere pleasure to act as the agent of yourself and friends, to have deeds recorded, and in the payment of taxes to their Illinois, Missouri and Arkansas, and promise, on our part, to merit the confidence which may be placed in us.

We recommend to those persons who may be pleased to employ us as their Agents, to communicate with us as early as practicable, so that, when necessary, we may refer to the books of the Auditor of the State of Illinois, in time to ensure the payment of the money sent to us into the Treasury of that state, prior to the 1st of January, 1822.

We are, very respectfully, sir, Your obedient servants, VAN ZANDT & ROCKWELL.

Pennsylvania.—It is announced that the Senate of this state has passed a bill, entitled “An act for the improvement of the state,” by a great proportionate majority in that body, as it passed the House of Representatives. The appropriations exceed $800,000, besides a guarantee to pay 6 per cent. interest per annum on $450,000, for twenty five years, as an encouragement to new subscribers to the stock of the Schuylkill and Susquehanna Canal Company, making a grand total for the constitution and improvement of roads and canals equal to 1,250,000 dollars! A happy presage of prosperity to be derived from the enlightened measures of government.

Going to Law.—The Pittsburg Gazette of March 12, contains a list of causes set down for trial at the court or Common Pleas of Alleghany county, Penn. at the April term, 1821, amounting to three hundred and fifty.

Damages.—We understand that fifteen hundred dollars damages were yesterday awarded in the case of a colored man (Jewett) who was barbarously whipped about two years since, in one of our forts. It will be recollected that eight hundred dollars damages were given in the lower court in the same case, from which award the defendant (Col. Eustis) then appealed.—Boston Patriot.

Bishops.—All bishops are not flatterers. In the first division of Poland, in 1775, the bishoprick of Ermland fell to Russia. Bishop Krauskey, a man of great learning and wit, and a severe sufferer on this occasion, had frequently the honor of dining with his majesty. The king one day said pleasantly to the Bishop, “be pleased, when you go to Heaven, to take me under your mantle.” Upon which the Bishop replied, “your majesty has been pleased to curtail so much of my revenue, and, in consequence, much of the length of my cloak, that I fear I shall not be able to cover your majesty's feet, and shall be detected in the act of smuggling contraband goods!”

What can withstand the unerring shafts of death? The young—the old, alike are doom'd to fall.— But those are blessed whose expiring breath, Can, like RUTH ANNE, on their Redeemer call.

Campbell's Magazine.

LARGE editions of the Edinburgh and Quarterly Reviews have long been regularly circulated in the United States, and several other British periodical works of less note have been successfully reprinted in this country, but it is believed that there has never been offered to the American public a work possessing claims to such general patronage as

The New Monthly Magazine.

The advertiser has good authority for saying, that it has long been beyond dispute, at the very head of all publications of the kind. If this opinion should accord with that of the public, it would seem not unreasonable to hope that from its more lively nature and popular character, this magazine will be more generally read than either of the celebrated quarterly journals which sway the sceptre over the literature and politics of Great Britain. A very large class of readers who have neither time nor inclination to study the profound philosophical and political discussions of the Edinburgh and Quarterly, would turn with pleasure and advantage to the sprightly essays, the rational poetry, the entertaining biography, and the vigorous criticism of the New Monthly.

To American women, it is confidently believed that it will be an acceptable acquisition, and it is offered to them without hesitation, as at a time when some of the most popular authors of the age have so far forgotten their duty, and mistaken their interest, as to lend their influence against the cause of virtue—the writers for this magazine have found the art of being easy and cheerful without licentiousness—and have excited the imagination without corrupting the heart. So far as our knowledge of the work extends, it contains

"Not one immoral, or one corrupted thought."
That such will be its character in future, no other assurance need be given, than the name of the author of the Pleasures of Hope, and Gertrude of Wyoming. At the beginning of the present year, a new series commenced under the editorial care of THOMAS CAMPBELL, and is enriched (as may be seen by the following Table of Contents of the January number) by much valuable original matter from this writer.

CONDITIONS.

Each number will contain about 180 pages, (just double the number in the Analytical Magazine,) making three volumes per year of about 700 pages each. The price will be nine dollars per annum, payable on delivery of the June number; but to those who pay in advance, a deduction of one dollar will be made. Subscribers at a distance from any agent of the publishers, can have them sent by mail at an expense not exceeding the postage of a letter. It is particularly requested that orders for it may not be sent, unless accompanied by a remittance. A compliance with this is so easy to every person who may want the Magazine, and it is so difficult and expensive to collect money from a wide extent of country, that it is presumed no offence can be given by the rule to disregard all applications in which this condition is not attended to. The numbers will be packed up strongly as to go safely to any part of the United States, or of British America, and will be regularly forwarded as soon as published.

The republication will date from the January number, and arrangements have been made, that after April, will enable the advertisers to issue them from their press in less than two months after their appearance in London. It will be necessary to delay the appearance of the first numbers for a while, in order to ascertain the probable extent of patronage that will be given. An early application from all who intend to receive the work, is respectfully requested by the publishers,

In Asthmatic or Consumptive Complaints, hoarseness, wheezing, shortness of breath, and the hooping cough, it will give immediate relief.

DR. ROBERTSON'S
VEGETABLE NERVOUS CORDIAL,
Or, Nature's Grand Restorative,
Price One Dollar and Fifty Cents.
Is confidently recommended, as the most efficacious medicine, for the speedy relief and cure of all Nervous complaints, attended with inward weakness, depression of the spirits, head ache, tremor, faintness, hysterical fits, debility, seminal weakness, gleet, and various complaints resulting from scarce impropriety of youth and dissipated habits, residence in warm climates, the immoderate use of tea, the unskillful or excessive use of Mercury, so often destructive to the human frame, diseases peculiar to females at a certain period of life, Fulur Albus, barrenness, &c. &c.
Under the denomination of Nervous Disorders, are included several diseases of the most dangerous kind, and are so various that a volume would hardly suffice to complete a description of them. It pervades, with doleful influence, the whole nervous system, writhing the heart with inexpressible anguish, and exciting the most dreadful suggestions of horror and despair. To this demon, have thousands fallen a sacrifice, in the dreadful transports of its rage.
The most common symptoms at its commencement are weakness, flatulence, watchfulness, drowsiness after eating, timidity, hickup, difficulty of respiration, and deglutition, nausea, pains in the head, back and loins, hickup, difficulty of respiration, and deglutition, anxiety, dry cough, &c.
The Vegetable Nervous Cordial is also a great antiscorbutic medicine, and is of infinite service for purifying the blood, and curing those foul disorders of the skin which commonly appear in the form of Scurvy, Scurf, Itch, Blotches, Carbuncles, Ulcers, &c. &c. The dose of Dr. Dyott's highly esteemed Anti-Bilious Pills, taken occasionally with this medicine, proves of additional service in the last mentioned cases.

Dr. Dyott's Anti-Bilious Pills.
WHICH PREVENT & CURE ALL BILIOUS COMPLAINTS, MALIGNANT FEVERS, &c.
The numerous known cures performed by these pills, has induced the inventor, at the solicitation of many respectable citizens, who have all experienced their beneficial and salutary effects, to make them public for the good of mankind in general.
If timely administered, they will surely counteract the causes which commonly produce the Yellow or the Bilious Fever, the ague and fever, bilious cholera, pleurisy, dysentery, worms, bilious vomiting, sick and foul stomach, loss of appetite, flatulency, epileptic fits, hypochondria and hysterical complaints, indigestion, habitual costiveness, colds and coughs, asthma, strangury, gravel, rheumatism and gout. Also, an effectual cure for the scurvy, surfeit, scurbitic blotches, and for carbuncles and all impurities in the blood, yield to their happy effects, whether proceeding from constitutional ailment, or arising from indiscreet intemperance.
This is an infallible medicine for female complaints generally, and especially for removing those obstructions which are the source of their ailments at certain periods; they possess the eminent advantage over most other purgatives, and while they operate gently, they produce neither costiveness, debility, or two great excitements.
And whenever there is a predisposition to receive disease from marsh effluvia, or from a too copious use of ardent spirits, or from a vitiated state of the bile, these pills will assuredly counteract it.
They are highly recommended to travellers by sea or land, and may be made use of with safety, without change of diet, and in situations where no exercise can be used. They will be found particularly valuable for preventing diseases incidental to hot climates; they deterge and cleanse viscid humours, open obstructions, and promote the secretion of good bile, operate as an easy cathartic, as a powerful diuretic, and as a diaphoretic.
DR. DYOTT here, under the strong conviction of the power of his pills to relieve the afflicted, when other medicines have failed, recommends the use of them, (at least once a fortnight) during the spring and summer months, in which he feels assured that those who attend to his advice will find the benefit they seek.
A bill of directions accompany each box of pills, small boxes 25 cents, large boxes 50 cents. Liberal allowance made to those who purchase to sell again.

Mahy's Approved Plaster Cloth.

RECOMMENDED BY Dr. RUSH, Dr. P. S. PHYSIC, AND THE MOST EMINENT OF THE FACULTY IN THE UNITED STATES.

This Plaster Cloth, so well known throughout the United States, and more generally in the city of Philadelphia, where its beneficial effects and surprising cures, have procured for it the approbation and recommendation of the most eminent of the faculty.
It is a sure and safe remedy for Ulcers and Sores either fresh or of long duration; it stays and prevents Gangrenes, and by a timely application, will preserve many a valuable life & limb.
In cases of inveteracy of Ulcers, or a proneness of the affected parts to mortify (or Gangrene) it will be advisable for the unfortunate sufferer to resort to the use of some gentle purgative for a few days previous to using the plaster, and continue the same till a cure is completed, which may be confidently expected in a reasonable time. No purgative more proper than Dr. Dyott's well known Anti-Bilious Pills.
The Meleagers of the Negroes, is ranked under the denomination of Ulcers; this valuable Plaster is also a certain cure for it, if the same treatment as above made, be observed.
Cancers, Erysipelas, Wens, Fistula, White Swelling, Sore Breasts, Felons, Whitlows, and Boils, are removed and cures happily produced, by the use of this valuable Plaster.
It removes Abscesses and dissipates collected humors, it also cures Sprains, Bruises, Anthrax, Scalds, Burns, and all Sores and wounds, tending to suppurate; it draws cancerized sores or issues very successfully and without pain. It dissipates distressing pain from Gout or Rheumatism in a very short time, and is a safe and certain cure for Rheumatism and flying Rheumatic Pains, if the Plaster is constantly applied to the affected part for six or eight months; by the application, the parts affected become invigorated, and a cure seldom fails to be completed; it is also successfully used for the cure of corns.
Those useful men, Mariners, should never be without Mahy's valuable Plaster Cloth; it keeps any length of time, equally good, and is particularly calculated to dry sores arising from green wounds, after they are suppurated, which it much aids. It is necessary it should be kept dry.

Dr. Robertson's Patent Stomachic Bitters.

PRICE ONE DOLLAR.

These celebrated and well-known Bitters are composed purely of vegetable, of the most innocent, yet specific virtues, and are particularly recommended for restoring weak constitutions, cleansing and strengthening the stomach, and increasing the appetite; they expel worms in all ages, but from their simplicity and safety, are a most natural and effectual vermifuge, when administered to children; they are gratefully warm, and pungently aromatic; they are extremely serviceable in all seasons, but particularly so on the approach of warm weather, when bilious habits experience such a total loss of appetite; they are also a certain preventative against those complaints so common in the spring, and fall seasons, such as Intermittent Fevers and Agues, long Autumnal Fevers, dysenteries, &c.
