ELEGY

Fair was thy blossom, tender flower, That opened like the rose of May, Though nursed beneath the chilly shower Of fell regret for love's decay !

How oft thy mother heaved the sigh O'er wreaths of honor early shern, Before thy sweet and guittless eye Had open'd on the dawn of morn

How oft above thy lowly bed, When all in silence slumbered low, The fond and filial tear was shed, Thou child of love, of shame, and wo?

Her wrong'd, but gentle bosom burn'd With joy the opening bloom to see, The only breast that o'er thee yearned, The only heart that cared for thee.

Oft her young eye, with tear drops bright, Pleaded with Heaven for her sweet child, When faded dreams of past delight O'er recollection wandered wild.

Fair was thy blossom bonny flower. Fair as the softest wreathe of spring. When late I saw thee seek the bower. In peace thy morning hymn to sing!

Thy little feet across the lawn Scarce from the primrose pressed the dew, I thought the spirit of the dawn

Before me to the greenwood flew. E'en then the shaft was on the wing, Thy spotless soul from earth to sever ; A tear of pity wet the string,

That twang'd and seal'd thy doom forever I saw thee late, the emblem fair Of beauty, innocence, and truth, Start tiptoe on the verge of air. Twixt childhood and unstable youth.

But now I see thee stretch'd at rest, To break that rest shall wake no morrow Pale s the grave-flower on thy breast !-Poor child of love, of shame, and sorrow.

May thy long sleep be sound and sweet, Thy visions fraught with bliss to be; And long the daisy, embler, meet, Shall shed its earliest tear o'er thee.

From the Hagerstown Torch-Light,

Joseph Thompson Hare, The mail robber, who was hung in Baltimore, on Thursday last, was as notorious and successful a robber as has ever brought to punishment in the United States. For fourteen years past his life presents a connected series of extraordinary and successful robberies, committed in Louisiana, Kentucky, Tennessee, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Virginia, Maryland, Massachusetts, New York, and New Jersey, and in Canada and the Spanish provinces, to the amount of about one hundred thousand dollars.

The first robbery in which he was concerned, was in New-Orleans, where he, in company with some others, robbed a sea captain of a watch worth 50 guineas—the second was also in New-Orleans, where they robbed a French officer of a large sum of money—the third and fourth were like, wise in New-Orleans, one of which consisted of 250 dollars, which they took from a countryman, the other of a watch and 17 dollars—the fifth was in the wilderness between the Muscle Shoals and Choclaw nation, where Hare and two others robbed 000 dollars, in gold—the sixth was in the Choctaw nation, where they robbed a gen-tleman from St. Augustine and one from Charleston, South Carolina, of 12 or 13, 000 dollars, in gold—the seventh was also in the Choctaw nation, where he himself robbed a traveller of 2,700 dollars in gold and a bag of silver, a watch and a rifle— the eighth was between Pensacola and Ba-ton Bouge, where they robbed a company of five travellers, of 40 weight of gold and some silver, amounting to upwards of 11,000 dollars—the ninth was also be-tween Pensacola and Baton Rouge wher they robbed a gentleman of about 15,000 dollars, in gold—the tenth was near Nash-ville, Tennessee, where they robbed a faveller of 970 dollars—the eleventh was 1. Franklin County, Virginia, where he h self robbed a drover of 450 dollars and horse, for which he was apprehended he sentenced to eight years confirement in the Penitentiary of Virginia, five of which he served when he was liberated for his good conduct—the twelfth was between New-York and Boston, where they robbed o gentlemen from New-York of 14,700 dollars mostly in English guineas, in New-York, Hare stole a landsome pair of car-riage Horses belonging to the Governor— In Washington city he attempted to sell a horse for a man who had stolen him, for which he was thrown into jail, where he lay for several months when he was released on condition that he would join the army-while in the army be meditated de-twering President Madison to Adm. the army, he hired a horse and gig ! Georgetown, deserted and sold them-The thirteenth was in Chester county, Pa where he entered a tavern room and rob-bed two Germans of 1000 dollars—the fourteenth was near Lancaster, Pennsylvania, where they robbed a drover of the name of Scott, of eighteen hundred dollars the 15th was at a tavern about 3 miles from Boston, where he robbed a man of four hundred dollars—the sixteenth was at Princeton, New Jersey, where he robbed a merchant's trunk of thirty thousand dollars for which he was tried at Sum merville court-house, and sentenced to the state prison for five years, two of which he served, when he was again liberated for his gonduct—the seventeenth and last robbery in which he was concerned, was that of the United States' mail near Havre-de-Grace of meteen thousand nine hundred dollars, for which he was hung, together with John Alexander; it was their intention to have robbed both the northern together with some robbed both the northern America to England, that the distribution to have robbed both mails had to days of the latter country continued in Sheppard Westcott, and southern mails, as both mails had to days of the latter country continued in Sheppard Westcott, those Sneathen, committed within about an hour or two of the same time, but one of the company ma-king way with the ropes intended to the wthe driver and passengers, they permitted the mail to pass unmolested.

Hare was a man of great strength and courage, and possessed more generally met with among robbers: he always acted as principal in the robberies in which he was concerned. The fol-lowing is the concluding paragraph of his confession, written by himself while in Baltimore jail-

The circumstances of our trial, and our sentence, are already known to the ci tizens of Baltimore. Since then I have been confined in a dreary dungeon, heavily ironed,—without hopes of any mercy here, but looking forward for a crown of everlasting glory in the world to come, through the intercession of my blossed Sa-viour. My offences have been great and For the last fourteen years of my life, I have been a highway robber, and have robbed on a larger scale and been Perpetual Motiou .- John Spencer an ingenious individual residing at Linlith gow, has applied the magnetick power to the production of the perpetual motion.

A wooden beam poised by the centre has a piece of steel attached to one end of more successful than any robber either in it, which is alternately drawn up by a by another placed below it; as the end of non conducting substance, which suspends the attraction of the magnet approached and allows the other to exert its powers. Thus the end of the beam continually as cends and descends betwixt the two magnets, without ever coming into confact with either; the attractive power of each being suspended precisely at the moment of nearest approach. And as the magnetick attraction is a permanently operating power, there appears to be no limit to the continuance of the motion, but the endurance of the machine. - London paper.

FOR THE WASH INGTON WHIG.

IT is truly lamentable, in turning over the historic page, to observe, how great a proportion of the human race have groaned out a wretched existence under the most deplorable bondage. The ancient governments, with few exceptions, were monarchies of the most absolute kind. The patriarchal force of govern-ment, however, was more mild; and the Israelites, so long as they continued unbly to public notice on Wednesday Septice and equity. But, as they were extember 23d, 1818. Ebenezer Elmer, Esq. was appointed ment: They requested a king to rule over them, and Dr. Daniel C. The American Bible Society have ten printing presses constantly in operation, and expect to add one or two to the num-ber as soon as they can be procured. Dur-ing, the last three months ending in August, there have been printed for the socie-ty, eight thousand bibles and five thou. sand testaments, one thousand epistles of John in the Delaware Indian and English fanguages, and one thousand gospels of John in the Mobawk and English. We have seen some conjectures in the newspapers respecting the delivery of the Spanish posts, in Florida, which it has een announced are to be restored to the Spanish government, that have led us to some inquiry into the sunject.

The two posts, we are induced to be lieve, will be surrendered under variant. circumstances.

The post of St. Marks will not be sur-rendered, but to a force competent to hold it. It is a military post, remote from any population, surrounded by hordes of des-perate Indians and negroes; it is the only barrier against their ravages and inchrisions. To evacuate it on the mere demand of any Spanish agent deputed to receive, or to a force incompetent to hold it, would be to evacuate it to the Indians; for, we have the authority of the late Spanish commander of it, for saying, that the Indians controlled him, and not he them. Self-preservation is the first dictate of nature; and there is nothing in the lew of nations, most rigorously construed, which requires a nation to pro-strate any part of its population at the mercy of an infuriated and savage enemy. We have daily accounts that the Seminole Indians remaining undisturbed are embodied in force; this check withdrawn, and they might sweep our borders. On the anpearance of a force adequate to garrison, with respect to Pensacola, that post stands on a different footing. There are not fifty warriors west of the Appalachicola, and the population of the frontier is sufficient to keep them in awe.—The pop-ulation of Pensacola alone is abundantly competent to preserve it from falling into fore, will be surrendered, without condition, to any agent of Spain duly authorised to receive it.

It is thus seen, that the United States do not desire to hold the Spanish posts; one of which is surrendered without condition, and the other without any condition but that it shall not be surrendered to force nominally Spanish, under a control actually Indian. In a word, it is to Spain, and not to the Seminoles, that both the posts are to be surrendered.

We are authorised to state, for the information of those interested, that the number of applicants for pensions under the act of the last session, has been so great that it has not been possible, wita every exertion, to act upon them so fast as they came in. In addition to which, some delay has taken place in order to supply from the records of the several states, the documents in relation to revolutionary services, which were destroyed when the War Office was burnt in 1801; which cause of delay is now almost whelly removed. The applications for peasions are taken up in the order of time in which they were received, and every effort will be made to render the delay as short as possible. When claims to pen-sions are admitted the certificates will be transmitted to the persons by whom the claimants' papers were sent to the War Department. When rejected, they will be returned in the same manner, with the reasons stated for rejection. Mere letters of general enquiry as to the state of particular applications, we are informed, cannot be answered, as it would consume much of the time that ought to be engaged in the investigation of claims. - Nat. Some years since, three men of the name of McGrath, a father and his two sons, were executed at the village of Brashe, in the county of Tipperary, under the following extraordinary circumstan-ces, for robberies committed in that neighborhood. One of the sons was convicted at the Clopmell Assizes, and at his execution his father and brother attended, and received his corpse in their arms from the gallows!—Soon after, the son was con-victed by his father, who also received his body in like manner! It is much to be overtures with disdain. It is much to be desired, by the friends of South Ameri-can independance, that their refractory chieftain, whose efforts in concert with the common cause would be very important, will now accept the conciliatory prepositions which he has hitherto rejected. It is stated in the Intelligencer that the government of Buenos Ayres permitted the Portuguese to send their troops up the river to co-operate with the land forces against Artegas: We are sorry to observe the respectable editors of the Intelligencer lending their paper to statements so insidious, and withal, so absurd. When it is known that the Portuguese have a vastly superior naval force to that of Buenos Av res, and that the river La Plata is more than 30 miles in width higher up than that city, it must be obvious that no permission was necessary, and that none would be asked.

South America. - Several gentlemen charged with being concerned in the fit-ting out of a patriot privateer at Baltimore have been arrested, and given bail to appear at the next court competent to examine the alleged offence.

A Portuguese ship of 1000 tons, deeply laden, a part of her cargo being a million of pounds of sugar, has arrived off the Petapsco river, but must be enlightened before she can jet up to Baltimore. She is armed with 15 or 20 guns, and reported as a prize to a patriot privateer under Artitigas' flag, in distress—is in charge of a revenue officer, and claimed by the Portuguese consul.

We have accounts from Buenos Ayres to the 27th of June. The papers give us full details of several affairs that took place after the battle of Maipu, by which it appears that that splendid victory was completed by the capture of the remnant of the royal army. Since these events, the viceroy of Peru has agreed to a previous proposition of the patriots to adopt the rules of civilized warfare by an exchange of prisoners, &c. These facts are official-ly stated—and the term "rebel" we suppose, will not be so frequently used in South America as heretofore. Capt. CONFLAGRATION.

On the morning of the 24th. inst. between one and two o'clock, a fire broke out in the building occupied by Mr. Tho-mas Hall, as an organ manufactory, situate near the first turnpike gate on the Germantown road, which in a very short time was reduced to ashes. The stock and materials belonging to the establishment were destroyed, together with the greater part of the furniture and wearing apparel belonging to the family. So rapid were the flames, that scarcely a person escaped with more clothes than barely covered them; a little black boy, who lived in the family, unfortunately perished. It is quite uncertain how the fire origi nated; but we are assured that Mr. Hall's loss must be very great; as besides all his stock, an organ for St. James's church in this city, in considerable progress towards completion, was also burnt.

A two story frame house, occupied by Mr. Passmore, on the adjoining lot, was also consumed; but we are happy to say his loss was but small .- Philad. Gaz
