GOD KNOWS IT ALL.

In the dim recess of thy spirit's chamber, Is there some hidden grief thou may'st not tel Let not thy heart forsake thee; but remember, His pitying eye, who sees and knows it well, God knows it all!

And art thou tossed on billows of temptation, And would'st do good, but evil oft prevails? O think amid the waves of tribulation When earthly hopes, and earthly refuge fails-

God knows it all!

And dost thou sin, thy deed of shame concealing In some dark spot no human eye can see, Then walk in pride, without one sigh revealing The deep remorse that should disquiet thee? God knows it all!

Art thou oppressed and poor, and heavy hearted, The heavens above thee in thick clouds arrayed, And well nigh crushed; no earthly thought imparted,

No friendly voice to say, "Be not afraid!" God knows it all!

Art thou a mourner; are thy tear drops flowing For one too early lost to earth and thee? The depths of grief no human spirit knowing, Which mean in secret, like the meaning sea? God knows it all!

Dost thou look back upon a life of sinning? Forward, and tremble for thy future lot! There's One who sees the end from the beginning, Thy sear of penitence is unforcot-

God knows it all! Then go to God. Pour out your hearts before him; There is no grief your Father cannot feel! And let your grateful song of praise adore Him-To save, forgive, and every wound to heal. God knows it all-God knows it all !

GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE.

Gentlemen of the Senate and of the General Assembly: mandates of the constitution, to deliberate upon the affairs of state. It affords me great pleasure to congratulate you on the event, attended as it is by circumstances so auspicious to the people of New Jersey.

Let us embrace the occasion to express our vetse for the many favors conferred upon us in a national, state, and individual capacity.

Our state constitution is less careful of prescribing legislative duties to be performed, than of imposing certain restraints upon legislative action. The examples of history and constant experience teach us that there is a tendency in political associations, as well as you and us. Bills Noticed-By Mr. Craig, to suppress tippling houses and beer shops. The Message of the Governor was received, read, parts referred, and the Message ordered to be printed. Mr. Cowperthwait presented the following petition addressed to the President of the

of New Jersey. The petition of Joel Haywood, of the county of Ocean, in the State of New Jersey, respectfully sheweth unto your honor, that your petitioner Rodman M. Price were candidates for the office of Governor of the State of New the second Tuesday of November last, and of the Senate. that your petitioner possessed all the legal and constitutional qualifications required by the law and constitution of the State of New Jersey, and received a larger number of legal votes than any other candidate having the qualifications required by the constitution and laws of this State. And your petitioner further shows that the said Rodman M. Price, who was also a candidate for said office of Governor at said election, was not at the time of the said election legally or constitutionally eligible to the office of Governor of the State of New Jersey, and that your petitioner intends to contest the said election. And your petitioner further shows unto your honor the following facts, charges and specifications as the grounds upon which your petitioner means to rely for the purpose of proving and maintaining the ineligibility of the said Rodman M. Price to the office of Gavernor aforesaid.

CHARGE FIRST. That the said Redman M. Price was not a resident of the State of New Jersey seven years next before his election. Specification first. The said Rodman M. Price during the year of our Lord one thou-sand eight hundred and forty-nine, resided in California, and not in the State of N. Jersey. Sprcification second. That the said Rod; man M. Price acted as a member of the convention which formed the constitution of the State of California in September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred Specification third That the said Rod and forty-nine. man M. Price, previous to the organization of the State of California, and while the same was a territory of the United States, voted in said territory at an election held therein in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred Specification fourth. That after Califorand forty-nine.

nia had organized her State Government, said Rodman M. Price became a candidate for the effice of a member of Congress of the United States for said State, and allowed his name to be used as such candidate and himself to be voted for as such candidate on the ninth of November, A. D. 1849. Specification fifth. That after the said

State of California was admitted as a State into the Union of the United States, the said Rodman M. Price voted at a general election of officers for said State. Specification sixth. That the said Rodman M. Price, while he was a member of the convention which formed the constitution for the State of California, on the ninth of September, A. D. 1849. declared publicly Specification seventh. That the said Rodof New York.

man M. Price, at the time he left California and some time in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty, declared West Jersey Railroad. publicly his intention to return to California Specification eighth. That during the absence of the said Rodman M. Price from the territory, and also while in the state of Calistate of New York, by the arrangement and consent of the said Rodman M. Price; and that the said Rodman M. Price, during that time, considered and understood that his resi dence was in the state of New York, and claimed to be a citizen of said state. Specification ninth. That upon the return of the said Rodman M. Price from California, he went to Long Island, where his wife and family then resided, and contracted for the purchase of property there, and declared publiely that his home was in Long Island. Specification tenth. That the said Rodman

M. Price, since his return from the state of California, has in and by a certain deed of conveyance and mortgage, signed by the said Rodman M. Price, and now on record in the clerk's office of the county of Hudson, in this state declared himself to be a resident of the state of New York. Specification eleventh. That the said Rodman M. Price, while a member of the said constitutional convention of California, allowed his name to be placed on the list of said members as a resident of California.

CHARGE TECOND. That the said Redman M. Price, during the seven years next before the last election for Governor of the state of New Jersey, resided out of the state of New Jersey when not absent from said state on the public business of the United States or of this Specification first. That the said Rodman M. Price, during a portion of the seven years next preceeding his election as Governor of New Jersey, was a resident of the territory, and also of the state of California, and that he was chosen and acted as a member of the convention which formed the constitution for said state of California, and while acting as a member of said body he was not absent from New Jersey on the business of the United States or of the state of New Jersey, but was either attending to his own business or the business of his constituents, the inhabitants Specification second. That the said Rodof California. man M. Price, while he was resident in the state of California and while he was canvassthat state as aforesaid, was not on the business of the United States, or of the state of New Jersey, but was during that period absent from the state of New Jersey on his own til he had bitten several dogs in the vicinity. business, and was not during that portion of the seven years next preceding his said election as Governor of New Jersey a resident of

And your petitioner shows that he expects to be able fully to prove the truth of the foregoing charges, specifications and facts, and he prays that a joint committee of the two houses of the legislature of the state of New Jersey may be appointed to try the same.

And as in duty bound he will ever pray.

Bills Noticed .- By Mr. Howell, to renew the charter of Cumberland Bank.

A resolution for appointing a committee to try the question of eligibility of Governor, was, after considerable debate referred to the Judiciary Committee, Messrs. Sitgreaves, Congar, and Mulford, to enquire whether the matters alleged in the petition of Joel Haywood are sufficient to authorize the appointment of a committee to try the same. The vote stood 12 to 6, a party vote. Adj. In the House a number of petitions in favor of renewing different Bank charters were

Monday, Jan. 16. In the Senate the joint committee to make preparations for the inauguration of the Governor reported that the inauguration shall take place on Tuesday noon, in presence of the members of both houses. Mr. Sitgreaves from the Judiciary committee to whom the contested election of Governor was referred, reported that the legislature had power only in cases of contested elections and returns, them personally for CASH, he feels assured they and that the Supreme Court was the proper tribunal to try the question. The report was accepted by a vote of 10 to 3. In the House the business was of an unimportant character.

Refitting.—The Camden and Amboy Hams, Shoulders and Pork Railroad are now having their large steamboats repaired and elegantly fitted up, so that they will be ready for use at the opening of Spring. The Trenton is to be thoroughly repaired, repainted, and refitted from be-ginning to end, and is to be employed next Summer on this end of the line as a river boat. The Richard Stockton is to be repainted and otherwise fitted up in a gorgeous manner. This beautiful boat has given all the satisfaction expected of it from its owners, builders and superintendent.

Bridgeton, Dec. 21, 1853. FOR THE LADIES. NFLUENCED by the prevailing law of Fashion the subscriber continues as heretofore, to present new fashions at the opening of the various Scasons. Taste demands that these fashions shall ossess new combinations and exhibit aspiration after new forms and embodiments of the useful an heautiful. The increase of his business afford the most gratifying evidence of the kind apprecia-tion in which his previous efforts have been held. His present offering is a DRESS GAITER, for Fall or Winter, in the first style of elegance and distinction—being composed of rich and durable materials. While his principal fashion will undoubtedly be acceptable to the general taste, yet in erder to gratify all, the subscriber has prepared a variety of styles, so that every one, old and young, plain or gay, can select that most becoming for themselve: Nhe Paris style of Guiter will commend itself for its dress appearance, it being decidedly the Gaiter for the promenade.

The subscriber therefore can confidently invite the attention of his friends and the public, to his establishment, giving them the assurance that he is fully enabled to offer articles of his own manufacture, at lower prices and of better quality, than are usually met with. It will ever be his aim to maintain for his goods the distinguished mark of superiority and relative Cheapness, which alone render them worthy of commendation and appro-

A Great and Important Change!

MANGES of all kinds are of such very common occurrence at the present day, that little or no notice is taken of them, unless they are of a very extraordinary nature. A change of this kind took place in this town a few days since, and the inhabitants of this place and vicinity, were sur-prised when they heard the intelligence, that Samuel II. Withiam,

Had taken the Old Stand, at the N. East corner of Laurel and Washington streets, formerly occupied by John Salkeld, where he intends keeping a full Stock of Dry Goods, Groceries, Provisions, Queensware, Earthenware, &c., which he will offer to the inspection of the public and will dispose of, on as fair terms, as can be ranged in the most conspicuous manner, and if required circulars will be sent, giving notice on that day the sales will take place. to visit him, to find out the truth of the above as-SAMUEL R. The One Idea,

B beginning to prevail that to make sure of a neat and comfortable suit of clothes, you should see them all made up, before you purchase them. Hence, arises the establishment of Clothing Stores and the decline of Tailor Shops. The people want to be certain of what they are going to have and they wish to make good use of their money. In this country provisions are high and it becomes us to economise, and I would advise you to buy at my store; where owing to certain advantages, I can afford to sell at lower prices than you can get clothing elsewhere. My stock consists of Over Costs just received. Over Coats just received. Sack, Dress and Frock Coats; Vests, Pantaloons, under clothing; Hats, Caps, Trunks, Carpet-Bags and Umbrellas.
