For the West Jersey Pioneer. " Be still-make no noise-let me die quietly The dying words of Vice President King.

BY ESTELLA MAURICE .

Be still-the soul is passing Through the dark gloomy vale, Disturb not its last earthly hour By sorrow's mournful wail.

Let not the voice of weeping Fall on the dying ear; Speak not of withered hopes and joys, Of earthly grief or fear.

Be still! for spirit voices Are whispering, "come home, Come to thy Heavenly Father's house, From the world's sorrows, come.

Be still! for low, sweet music Is floating on his car, From harp strings, swept by angel hands, It rings out soft and clear.

Be still! for through the darkness The Eternal City gleams, While o'er its glittering domes and spires, The light of glory beams.

Be still! for white robed angels Are calling, "Brother, come!" The pearly gates are opened wide, Shiloh, April, 1854.

EDUCATION

For the West Jersey Pioncer.

The Public School Exhibition came off at New Port on Saturday evening the 11th ult. with credit to the Teacher, Pupils and Choir. The attendance was large so that all could not find accommodation within the house. The order and attention were good during a period of more than four hours occupied in the recitations which were well performed without a single failure. The whole was enlivened by the singing of appropriate pieces by the choir of the place, which added much to the interest of the occasion.

man happiness. In England our Mother Country it is well are the rich and the poor, the former consistsoil and make all the laws by a perpetual inheritance. Out of a population of some thirty million the soil is possessed by only some thousands of freeholders. It is easily seen that in such a condition of things as this the principal means of education are confined to the few, who are capable of appropriating large sums for educating their sons and daughters who are to inherit their vast estates. But what becomes of this mighty remainder of more than twenty-nine million of population, why they must remain uneducated and in comparative ignorance, only as they can glean it from Sabbath Schools, which were established some years since in that country; for as soon as the son of a Peasant or Mechanic is old enough, he must come under the voke of incessant toil to support himself and family from the limited compensation allowed him. Much credit is due to the land of our ancestors for abolishing the slave trade and affixing a heavy penalty for the violation of her national law. But if she had carried out the same principle at home among her own population by ameliorating their condition by a general system of education, it would have been the brightest page in the era of her history. But thanks to the Supreme Ruler of the universe who has brought forth the genius of liberty on American shores, has given origin to an enlarged and generous policy. The Throne and Nobility govern in England, but the people are invested with that power here, and that they may use the privilege aright, the universal language of her citizens is, "let there be light, the light of general education and knowledge, let it spread from Maine to Florida, from our own native state to the far off land of gold in the west. Let it enter every city, town, village and district, that the whole mass of her twenty-four millions of population shall participate in the benefits of its influence, this is what the Ame rican Free School system proposes to do. It omes as the herald of blessings to every man's dwelling and proclaims to his children, suffer these little ones to come unto me and I will show them the path of knowledge."

Another important object to be secured by this universal system is to perpetuate our paternal freedom, a boon that is as dear to every Patriot as his life; that cost the country passed under a constant sense of fear of losing | the long and dreadful struggles of the revolution, her treasure, and the blood of her sons. England can better stand without general ern there but the many here: to depend upon the influence of private schools alone to answer the wants of our country would be as deficient in idea as for the widow of Zarephath known that the two great classes of society in the days of the Prophet to have depended on her present stock of meal and oil to have ing of the nobility and gentry, own all the | fed him, herself and son for coming days without the multiplying principle, an increase of the stock to answer the demands is as necessary in one case as the other. We are engaged in a great work, one of the greatest of the age and one of the most important to any country where civil and religious freedom are enscribed on her banners. Knowledge has always been deemed necessary to correct judgment and action, hence the more it can be promoted on a large scale the greater will be individual and public safety, prosperity and happinesss. The free school system is common stock and public property, and while it looks to our legislative halls for patronage and support it also invites and solicits the co-operation of every member of the community. AGRICULTURE .- Our attention has been called by the President of the Cumberland Co. Agricultural Society, to its Quarterly Meeting which is to be held in the Court House in this town on Wednesday the 26th inst. at 2 o'clock P. M. He strenuously urges upon his brother farmers and others, the importance of a spirited effort in the cause of improvement, to be manifested by a full attendance on that day. The reports of the Committees of ways and means, informing the Society of the state of its funds and the number of its members, will be interesting. The committee to whom was refferred the subject of Premiums, will also be expected to present a report and schedule of premiums for different objects of interest to be competed for at our Agricultural Exhibition, to be held next Fall.

He very properly observes, that an age has arrived in which the various engagements and pursuits of life have been so much enlarged and are conducted upon principles so much superior to what they were in bygone years, that all intelligent and enterprising individuals are loudly called upon to lend a lielning hand in promoting such associations as shall increase the facilities of the people in procuring the benefits of improvements introduced by the various enterprises of the day.

SIDE WAEKS .- The importance of some systematic arrangement by which regularity tained is being problements walks can be obnotice by some of the improvements or altera- world may be, it cannot withhold upprovements tions now going on in our town—it should be from those whose conduct has been marked to make their way over the artificial hills and Petty enemies we all may have, but the mulvalleys which are making their appearance in titude always wish for, and aid the success of have once acquired the reputation of being

I am informed he has sold this line, and intends soon to run a line of stages regularly between Millville and Phila. Doubtless all who know his obliging qualities and the speed of his capital horses will cheerfully patronize him. A. TRAVELLER.

April 5 .- The foreign news has had little or no effect on the Flour market; there is very little inquiry for export, but the smallness of the stock on sale has a tendency to strengthen the views of holders, and good shipping brands are firmly held at $7,25 per barrel, the sales however are only in small lots for home use at from $7,25 to $7,75, and $8 per barrel, for common retailing to extra and fancy family brands. In the bright future destiny of our country, it is pleasing to reflect that under the Providence which alike directs the fate of Jews and Gentiles, we may be made the humble instrument of offering that protection to its "chosen people," which may end to the reunion of the scattered tribes; that America may be the typical land of which Jacob prophecied; "thy brethren shall praise; thy hand shall be in the neck of thy enemies; thy father's children shall bow before thee' -the "lions' whelp"-the land from whence unto him shall the gathering of the people be." The general subject of securing religious freedom to American citizens when abroad, should be early disposed of by Congress, and the world made to know that to be an American, is to be entitled to the full eni wment of all those rights abroad, which are so lavishly conceded to the citizens of all foreign countries, when residing temporarily under the protection of our laws at home.

Buried Alive-Miraculous Escape. About 11 o'clock yesterday morning, man named Frank Hughes, was buried in a well at the corner of Broad and Crane streets (into which he had descended for the purpose of getting a bucket,) by the caving in of the sides. The well was 26 feet deep, and from the quantity of dirt which had fallen upon him it is supposed he was smothered. A number of hands, however, immediately set about the removal of the carth, and after five hours hard labor, Hughes was found in an creet position, having sustained no material injury except a few bruises, caused by the falling stones. After reaching the top of the well; he walked to his residence in Warren street, without the least difficulty. He was buried under 21 feet of earth, and his escape with his life must be regarded as somewhat of a miracle. - Newark Mercury. Mr. Christy, agent of the Colonization Society, has been offered a group of slaves in one of the Southern states, valued at $15,000. The owner cannot emancipate them where he lives, and must remove them to some other state to effect his purpose. He has educated ing his purpose. Mr. C. has written to the owner, that he will accept the offer, as he feels confident the citizens of Ohio will enable him to send these slaves to Liberia.

The following resolution we copy from the Journal of the first Continental Congress, for the information of those who consider the Maine Liquor Law as a new "invasion of their fireside rights." It was passed in 1774:

The interest money having paid all expenses Assuming as heretofore, that a cash payment equal to the five per ct. upon premium note, had been annually paid by the members, the amount saved by this Company, would now reach the sum of $86,400, and as the five per ct. paid is less than usual charges made for insurance upon similar property, by any responsible Stock Company, it may be fairly stated at the round sum of $100,000, which is increasing at the round sum of $100,000,1 which is increasing at the rate of nearly $18,000. As an evidence of strength existing in the Company, they would call attention to the fact that, if an assessment were made of but five per at upon the pressure of the contraction to the second of the contraction of the cont an assessment were made of our five per at upon the premium notes, an amount which would scarce-ly be noticed by any one paying it, the funds of the Company would at once be raised to $24,000, and if ten per et. were made, which would not be

They cannot but feel a just pride, that an Insti-tution so successful in its operations and of so es-sential benefit to the community, has thus far been nder their direction, and would offer to extend ts protection on terms as heretofere.

Proceeded to Election of Directors, when the Executive Committee.—David P. Elmer, Isaac A.

Sheppard, Jonathan Elmer, Lawis MoBride.

The subject of renewal of Policies, which now are about to expire, was taken up, and it was deemed not advisable that any part of the present fund should be divided in such renewals. It was resolved, that masmuch as those who were first insured, had incurred greater hazard than was found after the second or third year, and as a rate of premium was charged upon the first issued poli cies, less than was found expedient afterward, that; such new applications that might be made and new policies issued upon property heretofore insured, the risk to the property being the same, should be charged at the rates originally taken, and as almost every policy would at the end of the ten vers, be found to have changed its form, or applicant might desire to make additions to or alerations in his insurance, it was thought best for all parties, thateach policy should at its expiration be entirely closed. And as each new one issued would be free from assessment for one year from its date, and a fund already on hand would pro-They beleive such a course best calculated to strengthen the Compuny and equitably dispose of the funds to all concerned. Make it Profitable to Sell at Very Low Prices. MASON BROTHERS, 23 Park Row, opposite the Astor House,

NEW YORK, Offer one of the most extensive Stocks and complete asssortments in the country of BOOKS & STATIONERY

FOR CASH ONLY. The amount of goods in our line purchased by country merchants is usually quite small compared with their dry goods, hardware, and other bills; and this very circumstance absolutely compels jobbers in the book Susiness, who sell on time, to get larger profits in order to make up for the losses and extra expenses necessarily involved in a credit business of small amounts. It is also eas for the merchant to make arrangements to buy his book bill for cash; though it might not be so con-venient for him to purchase his larger bills in this way.

These considerations have led us to adopt in our business, from this date, January, 1854, the following principles, viz: SMALL PROFITS, UNVARYING

Being ourselves the sole publishers of of a number of the leading and most extensively-selling School Books in this country, as well as works in other departments, our facilities are unsurpassed Call upon us, or send an order, and judge for yourselves, if the saving you can make by buying of us for cash is worth while. Our location is very central, and easily found. Stand on the Astor House steps, and look straight forward across the corner of the Park, and you cannot avoid seeing our signs. Remember, the MASON BROTHERS.
