BY GROWLER. Life is like a Summer day, As short and brief, Quickly doth it pass away,

Like Autumn's leaf. Nimbly the hours fly In youths bright morn;

The rose-bud blossoms but to die And bear the thorn. Manhood comes upon us fast,

And childhood dies; The rosy tints of youth are past, And so time flies.

Moving onward still toward death, We crawl along; The signal given, and our breath

Is quickly gone. We die-the body turns to dust; Thus ends the strife;

The spirit mingleth with the just In endless life. Shiloh June, 1855.

THE RAINBOW.

BY MISS AMELIA B. WELBY.

I SOMETIMES have thoughts, in my loneliest hours, That lie on my heart like the dew on the flowers, Of a ramble I took on one bright afternoon, When my heart was as light as a blossom in June. The green earth was moist with the late-fallen The breeze fluttered down and blew open the flow-

While a single white cloud, to its haven of rest,

On the white wing of peace floated off to the west. As I threw back my tresses to catch the cool breeze That scattered the rain-drops and dimpled the

Far up the blue sky a fair rainbow unrolled Its soft-tinted pinions of purple and gold! 'Twas born in a moment, yet, quick as its birth, It had stretched to the uttermost ends of the earth, And, fair as an angel, it floated all free, With a wing on the earth, and a wing on the sea

How calm was the ocean! how gentle its swell; Like a woman's soft bosom it rose and it fell; While its light, sparkling waves, stealing laughingly o'er,

When they saw the fair rainbow, knelt down on the shore,

No sweet hymn ascended, no murmur of prayer, Yet I felt that the spirit of worship was there: And I bent my young head in devotion and love, 'Neath the form of an angel that floated above. How wide was the sweep of its beautiful wings!

How boundless its circle, how radiant its rings! If I looked on the sky, 'twas suspended in air; If I looked on the ocean, the rainbow was there! Thus forming a girdle as brilliant and whole As the thoughts of the rainbow that circled my soul: Like the wing of the Deity, calmly unfurled, It bent from the clouds, and encircled the world.

There are moments in life when the spirit receives Whole volumes of thought on its unwritten leaves; When the folds of the heart in a moment unclose, Like the innermost leaves from the heart of the

And thus, when the rainbow had passed from the

The thoughts it awoke were too deep to pass by; It left my full heart, like the wing of a dove, All fluttering with pleasure and trembling with

I know that each moment of rapture or pain But shortens the links in life's mystical chain; I know that my form; like that bow from the wave, Must pass from the earth, and lie cold in the grave. Yet, oh! when death's shadows my bosom uncloud, When I shrink from the thought of the coffin and

May Hope, like the rainbow, my splrit enfold, In her beautiful pinions of purple and gold.

A REVERIE. BY WILLIE ASHTON.

There are many maladies of the soul which for his most beautiful gift—Live. If we are unable to eradicate our sorriow, there are still means of intigating its pain—means which place us in a condition to enjoy the numerous delights of earth, in the same degree as those whom nature—has sapplied abundantly with may be cured by courage, decision and pru-dence: there are others which defy all human

And, behold, how many there are, who are entirely unadapted to this! And yet they set such narrow limits to mortal action! Here on this carth, are many occupations and unthe cares of every individual. There even lies in the starry heavens above us, in the mmeasurable prospect which its immortality lends to us, a certain something before which our cares and anxieties disappear-there even is a pride in its majestic grandeur, a daily joy to all who may up to its beauty gaze; and in the light and immensity of its expanse, the whole human family may have a companion's

To live with nature in her simple habili ments, is restorant to the most obdurate, and isolated heart! If we cannot live in the society of men, live at least with them in their books! It is a glorious thing to think with, and have intercourse with the first spirits of earth; to be able to accompany them through their wanderings in life and on their way to heaven. It is beautiful to illuminate the night of earth by their beams, kindled in their own peculiar light, and to be able to contemplate the world and its besetting iniquities from a higher station! That for which men seek most in possessions, is most illusive in its character. It, like a wooing phantom, evades at each step the eager grasp of the en-chanted pursuer. When man's way in life present beguiles him of the power to see what most becomes him to engage, and he, blinded by his own splendor, is hurried on down to the grave and the mest worful gleom. It is the lot of man to endure sorrow-it is by this means he is enabled to estimate favor and happiness. Go to the great metropolis, gaze upon the scenes of activity and confusion that there present themselves! Look into the hearts of those who wield the mace of wealth principle which they originally were formed possess. To them the beauties of the rising sun or the moontide beam present no

But, turn with us to the sorrowing and the unfortunate; how different the scene that meets the eye. Hearts the conversion of the Heathen, and the exchastened by want and affliction, find in every throb a thousand sympathies for those who like unto themselves, groan under the cruel hand of ruthless fate! To these same beings we turn for solace in the event of the most hopeless sorrow-their hearts can grasp the theme of woe with a peculiar zeal, and teach humanity how the ravages of care may be ameliorated and forgotten. Among this por-tion of our world we behold where virtue dwells-here we see in legible characters how the seekers of happiness in wealth and honor may disappoint themselves-here we may be persuaded that, where the most gaudy glare flashes upon the eye, the greater care is requisite to look behind the screen—to scarch out the dirty ropes that guide the imposing struc-

"SAM" HOUSTON AND HIS SQUAW .- The newspapars have recently made the public familiar with many incidents in the life of Sam Houston, but there is an anecdote so characteristic of a South Western man, as to be worth Mrs. Houston, "Sam's" first wife, took in

"I have need of her" he said. "Zounds, Sir! if you be as much of a man as you are a preacher, you can understand me, so shut up and don't meddle in my log cabin affairs.'

DUTCH SPECULATION.

Once on a time a country Dutchman early he overheard some traders telling each other castern end of Wadsworth's Church, and the how much money they had made that morning by speculation, one of them had made $100, $200, $500, &c. Hans' bump of acquisitiveness was so excited that he without any reflection, forthwith concluded to leave his former business which was labor and try his hand at speculation, and on his return home made his intentions known to his faith-

Early next morning he gathered his wallet containing his funds, amounting to five dol lars, and off he goes post haste and half bent to look up a speculation. He had not pro-ceeded far when he met a wagoner, and accosted him thus:

"Good morning, Mr. Wagoner, I wants to speculate a leetle dish mornin wid you."

"Well," said the wagoner, "how do you want to speculate." "Vell," says the Dutchman, "I will pet fife tollars you can't guess what my tog's name ish." "Call him up till I look at him," rejoined the wagoner. Dutchman-"He-re Va-tch, he-re Va-tch, he-re Va-tch;" the dog trots up, the wagoner eyes him for a moment, and said, and guess his name is Watch." Dutchman—"O besure Mr. Wagoner, you has won him; de monish is yours," and Hans returned to his old occupation perfectly satisfied.

The Farmers & the Forestallers .- Mayor Wood, of New York, has been waited on by deputation of about one hundred farmers, from the interior of the State, and from Long Island, complaining of a class of men in the regard for Evangelical christianity, from the city, technically known as forestallers—men who live by intercepting produce brought baptized, Greely replied, "no, but Ive been there by the farmers before it reaches the re- inoculated, which is of more importance." tailers or the consumers. The Last Mode of Raising the Winds A friend of ours, just returned from Philadelphia, furnishes the following which we give, in advance of the papers of that city.

During the present week a genteel female has whipped the great humbug, that some thoughtless persons would like to see thrown on our citizens at an enormus price.

Let Philadelphia mechanics put their intensity of death, saying that her their west of the latter of th

Upon going in she was shown the corpse of the deceased husband on the "cooling board" arranged for burial. After sympathizing with the widow, and giving her the sum of money mentioned, the visitors departed; but, after having gone but a short distance from the door, one of the ladies missed her pocket-handkerchief, and, thinking she had left it in the room with the dead man, returned for it, and entered the house quietly, without knocking; when lo! upon going into the room of the "deceased" (?) she found him setting bolt-upright, counting the money just given to his disconsolate widow!—Jersey Blue.

Appearances are Deceitful .- Upon the subject of dress and appearances, the New York Times says, "a coat that has the marks of use upon it is a recommendation to people of sense, and a hat with too smooth a nap and too high a lustre, is a derogatory circumstance. The best coats are on the backs of penniless fops, broken down merchants, clerks on pitiful salaries, and men that don't pay up. Portable Baths .- An ingenious Frenchman, a resident of Sanfrancisco, has conceived a novel expedient for earning a livelihood.-He rides around through the outer streets of the city upon a species of water cart to which are attached several zine bathing tubs, the whole being drawn by four stylish looking horses. He knocks at the door of every respectable house, and inquires if any of the inmates wish to bathe. When he receives an affirmative answer he detaches one or more of the tubs, carries them into the house, and fills them with water from his water cart. He then waits until the bath is over, and having received his pay, re-adjusts the tubs, and starts again upon his route."

CIRCULATION 1,300

Only $1 00 per Year?

FRANKLIN FERGUSON, EDITORS.

Notice to Agents and Advertisers WE ARE PREPARED TO SHOW THAT

The West Acreey Pioneer Has a Circulation of at least 300 more than any other paper printed in Cumberland County.

Its Circulation, (in the County,) is nearly double that of any other paper. This notice is called for in self-defence. The 'BRIDGETON CHRONICLE" falsely conveying the impression, that its Circulation is larger than that of the Pioneer.

The proceedings of the Shiloh Temperance Meeting will appear in our next paper. "L. K. E." will also appear.

" Spectator" tends too much to personalities,-although the favorable notice of Mr. Morton and his School is acceptable.

Dedication .- Providence permitting, the new Methodist E. Church at Paulsboro' N. J., will be dedicated to the worship of God clock A. M., and at 3 and 7½ o'clock P. M. Rev. W. Kenney, of Philadelphia, Rev. S. Y. Monroe, of New Brunswick, and Rev. N. Vansant, of Bridgeton, will officiate. An occasion of interest is anticipated.

THE COMING FOURTH.

If no other way of celebrating the Fourth by the citizens of our town be adopted, we would suggest that all the Sabbath Schools of the several Churches, unite in its celebration. We think a good plan will be for them to meet together at some central place, form in procession and march through the principal streets to some grove near by, have the Declaration read, address delivered, &c., return in procession to the place of starting, and disthe Fourth-infinitely more so than that of tent on the part of the Mayor." burning gunpowder and drinking fire-water.

ROWDYISM.

Our town so generally noted for its quietness, good order and morality, has of late given unmistakable evidence of the existence within its borders of that detestable compound of depravity and low breeding called rowdyism. Attention has been called by us to this fact before, but in addition to the evils hitherto complained of, we were pained to observe on Monday last a disgraceful fight between a colored man and a German, much to the disquiet of our usually peaceable town, and the discredit, as we opine, of the civil authorities. It is possible however, that under existing laws and regulations there is no way of meeting these growing evils, and if this be the case it only shows how much we need a borough or city corporation in order promptly to suppress them. Will not our citizens one and all seriously consider this subject?

The late Riot at Portland, Maine.

A great ado has been made by the rum journals of the country, about the liquor riot which occurred at Portland, on Saturday unable, in the present instance, to "come it." They are briefly as follows:

A TRIP TO THE CITY. Last week under the above caption, we gave a few dottings of a recent visit to the city, and intimated that we would report further progress this week. A word of explanation however, before we proceed. The last place noticed in that article, as having been visited in the city on Sunday afternoon, beng Franklin Square, it will be observed that our visit was merely a rest of a few minutes as we passed through, on our way elsewhere. We did not mean to insinuate that friend Jones and friend Brown, whose debate on worldly matters we overheard on that occasion, were members of that worthy sect, the Friends, who are so numerous in the city of Brotherly Love, neither were we anxious to have it understood that they were very intimate friends or acquaintances of ours, but merely friends of each other. We soon left the beautiful Square for the Market Street Ferry. On our way down, along the wharves, our attention was attracted by a crowd listening to a lecture; we were not in time to hear the commencement of the remarks; the speaker soon branched off into Temperance, Morality and evening the 2d inst., the evident design of Law, advocating Prohibition, Religion, and which ado, has been to convict Neal Dow, an observance of the Civil Laws of the land, of an unjustifiable and revengeful haste in and although considered by some, rather fahis attempts to quell the riot, and so cast re- natical, yet there were some very good and proach upon the Maine Law. We arrived at Salem about six o'clock, and started for Bridgeton with a good load. One of our Burlington County Males had taken a cup of tea at the Salem Hotel, which proved a little to strong for his nervous system and caused some stammering.

A passenger for Bridgeton, whose boyhood had been spent on a farm this side of Quintons Bridge, related some interesting circumstances connected with that region; we were shown the house where the British were quartered in time of the Revolution; the point at which the Americans crossed the Creek, single file, over some planks as the enemy mowed them down; an ancient Cemetery in the woods but a few steps from the road, and other interesting incidents. The otherwise long and tedious route through the sand, was rendered quite pleasant by the agreeable company of two of the fair sex, whose sociability and general intelligence were highly appreciated by the passengers. Coming as they did, from another State, we expected to hear (as is too as an out-of-the world territory, inhabited by feasted too often on the luxurious products the Union. There has been two schools formed here very recently; one connected with the Baptist Church and the other with the Methodist, both of which are in a very prosperous condition. And I have been informed that there is another about to be organized, connected with the Reformed Church. The Baptist School is under the superintendence of Mr. Jaggers, a man well qualified for such an important office, and considering the very short length of time since it was organized, which is only about 2 months, it certainly is a very excellent school. It at first numbered about 30 scholars, which number has been slowly but steadily increasing. One distinguished feature in these schools is the active part which is taken in them by people of advanced age. Yours truly

Wedding and other parties to the number of 12 persons will be accommodated with meals, and the use of a splen lid Chien service—50 cents per meal. One g've me time to provide the best the market affords, Young people from Bridgeton and neighboring villages will find my place the very spot to enjoy themselves rationally, and in a respectable manner and it is to be hoped they will all bring their cheerulness with them, and be as merry as grigs, but order y-for order, says the poet Pope, "Is Heaven's first law."

I tolerate neither rum, riot, nor uncouth jests about, my premises, and all who are fortunate enough to have em, are invited to bring their sweethearts, wives and children, and have a frolic in a quiet way.

To WHOM IT MAY CONCERN .-- I desire my friends dis tinetly to know, that no person or persons, directly or indirectly, are in any way interested in my effort. I am determined to maintain the dignity of my business at all bazards, and manage my own affairs. It is my earnin law, John M. Maul, this (Saturday) afternoon have enough to do without attending to those who est desire to be a good citizen and do my duty, and I are vainly trying to blacken my character. My life and character has been and is now, my defence -Fiat justitia, ruat cœlum. CHARLES FITHIAN.

Economy Combined with beauty & Service. SAMUEL L. FITHIAN. AVING purchased the right of making, using and selling, Cyrus Buler's patent paint mixture; would hereby offer it for sale to the citizens of Bridgeton and vicinity, having used and experimented with the mixture, I feel perfectly safe in saying, that it is decidedly to the advantage of any person having painting done to use it. The mixture being a new article to the Public, I do not expect or ask them to use it at their own risk; but am willing in every instance (where it is used according to direction) to warrant it; and if at the end of two years after the paint is put on, the person using it is not satisfied, I will repaint at my own expense, with either Pure Lead or the best Zine, at their own option. Now the advantages, to a person using it are as follows, viz:-First, they save 33 per cent on the first cost. Second, the paint mixture gives the paint a very beautiful gloss, consequently, they have a much handsomer job of work done by using it. Third, it will last from two to three years longer than painting done in the old way of mixing. Fourthly and last they run very little or no risk. All further necessary information will be given by calling at SAMUEL L. FITHIAN'S Drug & Chemical Store, sign of the Big Mortar, nearly opposite E. MEXICAN GUANO.

THE attention of Farmers is requested to the following Analysis and statements of this munble manure. It is the richest Mexican Guano that has been brought to this country in Phosphates. Phosphoric Acid is the valuable element of all manures, and this Guano contains nearly 34 per cent., being much stronger than the Peruvian Guano. The peculiarities of this Guano, are: It is not injured by the sun, and is not wasled out of the soil by the rains, in less than 30 years, It will double the crop of Corn, if Phosphoric Acid is deficient in the soil.

It chear er, more permanent, and more certain han Peruvian Guano. On land already surfeited y too frequent applications of ammonia in Perurian Guano, the Mexican Guano, by its great abundance of Phosphates, will restore health and vig-or. For sale by J. B. A. & S. Dr. Morgridge's Family Medicines.

THE success of the subscriber in the treatment of Diseases of the Bowels, on botanic principles, during the last twenty years, and especially in that of Cholera at Millville in 1849, where more than thirty cases were cured under his direction without a failure, has induced him to prepare a set of medicines from innocent vegetable substances, for the cure of this class of diseases.

These medicines have become exceedingly popular in every section of country where they have been introduced. Within the last two years they have been placed in the hands of hundreds families for the purpose of having them thoroughly tested; and the result has been most satisfactoy. I have called personally on hundreds of those families to ascertain the success of my medicines, and have found that wherever they have been fairly tried they have given entire satisfaction. They seem to not as a specific in Dysentery as well as in all the family of Bowel Complaints. In my travels during the last two Summers, for the ourpose of introducing and testing my medicines, prescribed them in numerous cases of Dysentery with great success; many were cured, and I have not heard of a single failure where my medicines alone were used and persevered in according to

The articles principally relied on in the cure of Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Diarrhea, Dysentery, Bowel Consumption, Cholera Infantum, and the ummer Complaints of Children, are Dr. Mon-GRIDGE'S Anti-Dyspeptic Mixture, Cholera Syrup, Cholera Pills and Anti-Bilious Pills for adults, and his Bowel Corrector, Childrens Cordial and Aperient for Children. These will be sufficient in all ordinary cases, but there are some violent attacks of disease, and some critical cases in which DR. MORGRIDGE'S Emetic Syrup and Carminative Tincture are employed. For further particulars on this subject see bill of directions accompanying each set of the medicines.

For the cure of sundry other forms of disease are the following compounds, viz:—
Dr. Morgridge's Cough Syrup and Pectoral Elixir, for Coughs, and all affections of the throat, breast Dr. Morgridge's Liniment and Elixir, for Rhuma tism, Sprains, Tumors, &c. Dr. Morgridge's Atterative Pills and Elixir, for iffections of the heart, liver, kidneys, &c. Dr. Morgridge's Anti-Dyspeptic Mixture and Pills, for Dyspepsia with all its distressing symptoms. Dr. Morgridge's Hyce Sgrup, for Croup, Asthma, Hooping-cough, &c., in children. Dr. Morgridge's Carminative Tincture. This expels wind, cures pains, Colics, Cramps, &c. Dr. Morgridge's Anti-Spasmodic or Emetic Syrup, for all violent attacks and critical cases of disease. These as well as my Bowel Medicines have been tested for years, and have won for themselves a reputation which will not easily be effaced. For sale, wholesale and retail, at my office in Commerce Street, next door east of the Cumber land Bank, Bridgeton N. J.

Price 25 cents per bottle or box. A liberal discount will be given to wholesale dealers. Merchants would do well to lay in a stock of my Bowel Medicines early in the season, as in-dividuals are already sending for their family supply for the Summer, from every direction where a knowledge of them has gone. All orders accompanying the cash will receive prompt attention.

RECOMMENDATIONS: TTE the undersigned, having used Dr. Morless in our families within the last few years, have found them exceedingly efficacious in the cure of the different forms of disease for which they are recommended, and decidedly the best we have ever used. ' And believing as we do, that they are the best medicines now in use, and that their general use would prove a great tlessing to the community, we cordially give the above testimonial for the benefit of our friends and the public. JOHN S. SWAIM, Pastor of the Com. st. M. E. Church, Bridgeton N. J SAMUEL E. POST, COMMERCE STREET, BRIDGETON: S now constantly receiving and opening a full and complete assortment of new and desirable goods for Spring and Summer wear, to which he would respectfully solicit the citizens of Bridgeton and surrounding country. And though I may regret I have said it; I am going to sell for cash, barter or short approved credit. Thus insuring my customers that they may always depend on what goods they buy of me shall be of the very lowest prices, knowing that persons who give long long credits must necessarily get higher prices for their goods besides losing a great deal by bad debts. (and as all trades must pay or there could be no trade,) good paying customers must pay for the losses by bad ones. Or in other words, if Mr. A. fails to pay his bill, you must charge Mr. B. increased prices for the goods he buys; so you see, Mr. B. has to redouble his efforts to make up for the fraud of Mr. A., which are the evils of the long credit system.

THE NEW JERSEY Renper and Mower!

HICH took 1st Premium after two trials with two of the most celebrated Machines now in use, one for Reaping and the other for Mowing, it having reaped as well as either, and also moved equal to the best, and faster. One of the Proprietors has been in the business for two years and has superintended the putting up of all the Machines made here, and has carefully improved them, so that we believe they stand head on the list of combined Reaping and Mowing Machines, especially for New Jersey; they are well made, of light draught, and without side-draught and a limber tongue, and have never failed t give entire satisfaction to our knowledge Warranted to work well in any kind of grain grass, whether standing or lodged.

BARBER'S New Jersey Combined Mowing and Reaping MACHINE

THIS Machine is simple, of light draught and not liable to get out of order and will cut all inds of Grain and Grass equally as well as any other Combined machine ever in this region. It is so constructed, that all side draught, (which is so great in most Machines as to require three, and ome machines four horses to do the work of two) is entirely overcome and soldem, if ever requiring but two horses in any kind of grain or grass An Extra Platform is so constructed, that the gavels can be laid at the side, eatirely clear, when the Machine comes around and obviates the necessity of binding after it.

This Machine has been tested the last harvest, by a number of practical Farmers and quite sufficient to prove its complete adaptation to Mowing as well as Reaping. It is so constructed, that it can be changed in twenty minutes into a Mowing Machine, and then again altered back for Reaping, in the same time. It leaves the stubble from twelve to fourteen inches high. With this Machine you can mow an acre per hour, the whole day, though with but two horses, and with the same case for the team, as ploughng: is warranted to cut Salt Grass equally as well as Fresh, and work as well in the Salt Marsh as n upland. These Machines are Manufactured at Brige on, by the subscriber, where all Repairs can be done at Short Notice. An extra knife, with each Persons wishing to purchase, can apply

ATCHES having become an indispensable article in housekeeping, the subscriber, afer a great sacrifice of time and money, is enabled to offer to the public an article at once combining Utility and Cheapness. The inventor knowing the danger apprehended on account of the flimsy manner in which Matches are generally packed in paper, has by the aid of new steam machinery of his own invention, succeeded in getting up a Safety Patent Square Upright Wood Box; this box is far preferrable, inasmuch that it occupies no more room than the old round wood box, and contains it least Two Hundred per cent more matches, which, o Shippers, is considerable advantage. It is entirely new, and secure against moisture and spontaneous combustion, and dispels all danger on transportation by means of railroad, steamboat or iny other mode of conveyance. These matches are packed so that one gress of more may be shipped to any part of the world with perfect safety. They are the most desirable aricle for home consumption, and the Southern and Western markets, that have ever been invented. Dealers and Shippers will do well to call and examine for themselves. These Matches are WARRANTED to be superior to anything heretofore offered to the public.
