A 85 82. 32 A E Of Cumberland County, 3. J.

HE undersigned respectfully informs the citizens of Cumberland County that he has engaged Mr. Thomas H. Paschal, civil cugineer, of Philadelphia, to make a scientific survey of the County. He has already commenced, and if sufficient encouragement is offered, will continue to survey the whole County, for the purpose of constructing a complete Map of it. As this will necessarily be attended with heavy expense, an agent will call on the inhabitant Para substatial expression of their approbation of this great undertaking; and in as much as a good Map of the County, with the location and name of the occupant each form, is of great value to one and all, the publisher feels confident of a liberal patronage.

Written for the West Jersey Pioneer. WHAT MY FRIENDS TELL ME.

BY SNOOKS.

They tell me that in solitude I'll lead an ignorant life. Unless I do at once conclude To put myself aright; They say to read a paper II make One's thinking bright and clear;

They're recommending me to take The West Jersey Pioneer. They tell me if the news I'd know, From any distant port, Or bout the prices, high or low, Of 'taters, corn or pork; Or other things that I want solved

They say I nee in't har, But what they'll be in the columns of The West Jersey Pioneer. They tell me there is comfort too, In those long, dreary nights.
(When we have nothing else to do) To read by candle light,

They say a dellar too will make.

It come workly for a year. They say that I and all should take The West Jersey Pioneer. They tell me it is a shameful sin To borrow a paper too;

With I myself think true. Again t their appeals I can't contend, So a dollar I send you here: You in return, to me must send The West Jersey Pieneer. Port Elizabeth, March 51, 1857.

Away with your fixtions of filmsy romance, Those tissues of falsehood which folly has wove: Give reache wild beam of the soul breathing glance.

Or the raptures which dwell on the first kiss of love have you, ve cold compositions of art, Though prades may condemn me and bigots reprove: count the off isions that spring from the h art Which throbs with delight to the first kiss of love

Ve rhymers whose lessons with phantasy glow, Whose paternal passion sare made for the grove; From what blest inspiration your sonnets would flow Could you ever have tasted the first kiss of love.

O cease to affirm that man since his birth, From Adam till now has with wretehedness strove. me portion of paradise still is on earth

And Eden revives in the first kiss of love When age chills the blood, when our pleasures are past, For years fleet away, with the wings of the dove

The dearest resemblance will still be the last, Our sweetest memorial, the first kiss of Love.

THE HERO WOMAN.

BY GEORGE LIPPARD.

In the shades of the Wissabicken woods. not more than a half a mile from the Schuyl kill, there stood in the time of the Revolution, a quaint old fabric, built of mingled logs and stone and encircled by a palisade wall. It had been erected in the earlier days of William Penn, perhaps some years before the great apostle of peace first trod our shores, as a block house, intended as a defence against

SOUTH JERSEY LOOKING UP.

For many years past, Jersey particularly the southern portion of it, has been looked upon by those residing in other states as the most steril and out-landish portions of the Union. In fact it is a question with many of the outsiders, whether Jersey is in the Union or not. By those who have come to jecture. Surely it is not because Jersey is so much like Spain in a physical aspect. The resemblance of the too are directly opposite. No country in Europe is so mountainous as Spain, except Switzerland, while South Jermey is directly the reverse. There are some features, however predominent both in Spain and Jersey, two of which are their pretty wo-Spanish ladies is celebrated in their romances and histories, their persons are attractive, their manners graceful, and their conversation interesting, yet with all, they "can't shine" with the Jersey girls. The Spanish horses were famous in the time of the Romans, and they are still much esteemed, but they "can't come it" alongside of the Jersey horses.-We heard of one a few days since, belonging to a gentleman at Dividing Creek in the lower part of this County, which travelled from there to Camden, returning the same day, making a distance of one hundred and twonty miles, between sun and sun. This we call but who is too stingy to buy a candle. pretty fast travelling-an exhibition of the speed and endurance of Jersey horses.

We were informed the same day by a gentleman who had left Dividing Creek that morning, that he intended after going to Salem by land, to take the boat to Delaware city, and from thence proceed several miles further in the State of Delaware, and return home to Dividing Creek the same day, soon after sundown, a distance of nearly a hundred and fifty miles.

Mr. Joseph Harris left at our office a few days since, a bunch of very fair large radishes, and a can of those celebrated tomatoes, which for several years past he has been experimenting with, until his motto of "perfection" has almost been attained. He has also a large quantity of sallad, cabbage, cucumber, pepper, and egg plants, the latter of which has taken the premium at the Cumberland Co. Exhibition, for two years in succession.

All the above are for sale by Mr. Harris, in lots to suit purchasers. We speak from palatable demonstration when we say that his tomatoes cannot be surpassed.

BARBER'S NEW JERSEY COMBINED

MOWING AND REAPING MACHINE For the Harvest of 1857. ARBER'S Machine has taken the premium at several of the County Fairs, and has been placed in competition with some of the most cele-brated. It is simple, of light draught, less complicated, and not liable to get out of order, and will cut all kinds of Grain or Grass, equally as well as any Combined Machine ever offered the It is so constructed that all side draught (which is so great in most machines as to require three, and some four horses to do the work of two) has been entirely overcome, and seldom, if ever, requiring but two horses in any kind of grain or

You can mow an acre per hour the whole day through with but two horses, and with the same ease for the team as I-lowing, and at a slower gait than any other Machine ever in this region.

No Real is required in moving any kind of grass. It has been fairly tested by a number of practical farmers, and quite sufficient to prove its complete adventage. practical farmers, and other summers to prace its complete adaptation to moving as well as reaping. I have received many certificrtes from practical farmers and competent judges, establishing ts merits over any other machine ever used in this State.

The following is the award of the Committee of The following is the award of the Committee of the Agricultural So, at the Reaping and Mowing Machine, at Bowentown, July 9, 1856, at which time and place were entered one of Met ornick's with four horses, three of Manny's with two horses each, two Ketcham's with two horses each, two Ketcham's with two horses each, and one of mine with two small Mules:

"Your committee have came to the conclusion after taking all the circumstances into consideration, the clearness of the cut, and least clogging to the knife, that Rarber's Machine, worked by Sanuel M. Sheppard, did the best work."
