BRIDGETON N. J. SATURDAY, JUNE 27, 1857.

VOL. X-NO 486

THE EAST END. Gentlemen and Ladies' Boot & Shoe Store BENJAMIN THOMPSON,

WOULD inform the citizens of Bridgeton and the surrounding country that he is still at the trade that he commenced learning in this place the day after Bridgeton was illuminated for peace, (1815), and has taken of Mr. Samuel Reeves his old established Boot & Shoe Stand, next thoor to Daniel Pithian's store. Being furthest east on Commerge street of any in the track. I name it the East End Boot and Shoe Store, and as the sun rises in the east to enlighten and advance the day, so will I endeavor to enlighten my fellow-citizens where they can buy the cheapest and best Boots & Shoes, such as I made for many of you 27 years ago, while some of you were children, who are now heads of families & strangers to met and feeling an interest in your wefare. I respectfully invite you to call and see me, that we may renew our acquaintance, and if you are in want of either Bloots of Shoes I would like to call you if I have Boots or Shoes, I would like to sell you, if I have the article on hand that will suit you, if not, I can measure and make to suit your fancy, at the shortest notice. My stock on hand consists of men's fine calf skin Boots, good quality, and 20 per ceut. cheaper than I could make for the mo-ney now; fine kip of the same stamp, and others nt a less price, but not so cheap; men's French calf, patent leather, and drab cloth top Gaiters, and a general assertment of men and boy's patent leather and calf skin gaiters. Prince Albert half Gaiters for rien, and Queen Victoria for the and Gaiters of different sizes and colors. Some of my work was made rather farther east than I am, and the brethren of the craft down there understand how to make both good work and poor work, and I understand how to discriminate & inform my customers which to buy. Having had forty-two years' experience, I know what good stock is & when & how it should be made in good Boots or shoes; to prove this try me, & if I should be mistaken, I will make all right.

N. B.—Being a little hard of hearing, you will have to speak louder if you ask for credit, but if eash is talked of, my hearing is better, which makes it more pleasant for both parties, there-fore I have invariably made my terms Cash on delivery of the goods, & I will put the price so as to make the inducement to pay the day taken.

P. S.—Mending and repairing of all kinds done at short notice and as cheap as the price of stock will admit of.

Selected for the West Jersey Pioneer. Farewell of the Soul to the Body.

BY L. H. SIGOURNEY.

Companion dear! the hour draws nigh, The sentence speeds-to die, to die. So long in mystic union held, So close with strong embrace impelled, How canst thou hear the dread decree That strikes thy clasping nerves from me. To Him who on this mortal shore The same encircling vestment wore-To Him I look, to Him I bend. To Him thy shuddering frame commend.

If I have ever caused thee pain, The throbbing breast, the burning brain, With cares and vigils turned thee pale, And scorned when thy strength did fail-Forgive!-Forgive!-thy task doth cease; Friend!-Lover!-let us part in peace. If thou didst sometimes check my force, Or, triffing, stay mine upward course, Or lure from Heaven my wavering trust, Or bow my drooping wing to dust-I blame thee not, the strife is done;-I know thou wert the weaker one, The vase of earth, the trembling clod Constrained to hold the breath of God. Well hast thou in my service wrought; Thy brow hath mirrored forth my thought To wear my smile thy lip hath glowed; Thine car hath borne me rich supplies Of sweetly varied melodies.

Thy hands my prompted deeds have done. Thy feet upon mine errands run-Yes, thou hast marked my bidding well Faithful and true! farewell, farewell! Go to thy rest. A quiet bed Meek mother Earth with flowers shall spread, Where I no more thy sleep may break With fevered dream, nor rudely wake Thy wearied eye.

Oh, quit thy hold, For thou art faint, and chill and cold, And long thy gasp and groan of pain Though angels urge me hence to soar When I shall share thine ills no more, Yet we shall meet. To soothe thy pain Ramember - we shall meet again. Queit with this hope the victor's sting, An interpretain a signer-ring.

A ROMANCE IN ART LIFE.

One of our famous American sculptors, residing in the delightful city of Florence, whither all the genius of England and America seems to tend, was one day scated in his studio, at work on an Apollo-for which, by the way, he might stand as a model himself, when his attention was attracted by a tremendous trampling of horses in his court-yard. He looked out of the window, and beheld magnificent carriage with outriders drawn up before his door. Presently a gentleman claimed admission to his studio, and announ-came to give the sculptor a large commission. His daughter, who had been struck by some statues of the American that she had seen, wished to sit for her bust. She was then below in the carriage. Was the sculptor at leisure? Liberty thus exercised and enjuyed, will render you healthy, blooming and beautiful—as levely as the Graces; prolific as Devera. The buxom, bright-eyed, rosycheeked, full-breasted, bouncing lass-who can darn stockings, mend trowsers, make her own frocks, command a regiment of pots and settles, feed the pigs, milk the cows, and be a lady withal in company, is just the sort of a girl for me or any other young man to marrp. But you, ye pining, lolling, screwed up, wasp wasted, doil-dressed, putty-faced, consumption mortgaged, music-murdering, novel devouring daughters of fashion and idleness -are no more fit for matrimony than a pullet is to look after a family of fourteen chick-

The truth is, my dear girls, you want. generally speaking, more leg exercise, and less sofa; mere pudding and less piano; more frankness and less mock modesty; more corned beef-steak and less bishop. Loosen your-selves a little; enjoy more liberty and less restraint of fashion; breathe the pure atmosphere of freedom; become something nearly as lovely as the God of Nature designed .-

DESPERATE.

As a newly married couple from away lown East, were one night lying in bed, talkng over matters and things, a heavy thunder storm arose. The loud peals of thunder and vivid flashes of lightning filled them with terror and fearful apprehensions. Suddenly tremendous crash caused the loving couple to start as though they had received an electric shock. Jonahtan, throwing his arms around his dear, exclaimed-"Hug up to me Liz, lets, die like men."

A Reverend sportsman in Wiltshire, seeing a Quaker on the road, as he was returning home at night, laid a wager that he would get a direct answer from him. "Well, friend," said he as they mat, "did you see the fox ?"

"If I had seen it," was the reply, "I would have told it to go where thou wouldst never find it."

"Why, where's that?" "Into thy study."

BRIDGETON Saturday Morning, June 27.

The Pioneer has a LARGER Circulation than any weekly Paper in this state!

Only $1 00 per Year!

JAMES B. FERGUSON,-EDITOR.

THE BRIDGETON CHRONICLE. The Chronicle of last week in an article of a dozen lines, makes no less than three assertions, all of which are positively false. It says:-1st, "The report of the Bible Society was published and read in the Chronicle all through the town and country, before the Pioneer was published." We would inform the truthy editor of that infamous sheet, that the Pioneer was printed before seven o'clock, the morning referred to by them. and distributed over the county several hours before a copy of the Chronicle was printed. Our carriers had their papers distributed over town before the Chronicle, (notwithstanding our list is much larger than theirs.) Upwards of three hundred copies of our papers were sent to Shiloh, Greenwich, Fairton and Cedarville, by express, we earnestly rejoice in the production of any in advance of the mails, while a few copies of the Chronicle made their appearance several hours later, to the surprise of their readers, who were astonished to see the Chronicle a day earlier in the week than it had appeared for a long time previous in those villages. Again the Chronicle says:--" As soon as they read it in the Chronicle, they put on an extra force and circulated it some time after our papers were gone."

How does the Chronicle man's assertions agree with what we have stated above and can prove by many witnesses. Their other assertion, that the Proneer is not usually in advance of the Chronicle with the news, is so evidently false, that refu- opinions. Strong proof however has been tation would be superfluous.

The people of Bridge realized, it must produce a competition ton seldom are permitted to enjoy an orchestral Concert, such as are frequently given in lower price. In addition to the yield of moour large cities, by the "Germania," "Dods- lasses, the seed and refuse are both valuable worth's," "Bailey's" and other brass and for feeding stock. The Amateur Philharmonia is an association of gentlemen of the city, formed about five years ago for the purpose of practising together the musical productions of the great masters Mozart, Rossini, Beethoven and others, purely for their own improvement and gratification. They number altogether 24. arranged about as follows: 6 violing, 2 double bass, 1 violincello, 3 flutes, 2 tenor instruments, 2 French horns, 1 set flageletts, 1 trombone, 1 oboe, 1 bugle trumpet, 1 pair of kettle drums, 1 pair cymbols, and one or two other instruments.

The chorus will consist of from 15 to 20 ladies and gentlemen, the most of whom will be from the city, and we believe a few from

It was anticipated that the Concert would have been given in the audience room of the new Baptist Church, that being the only room large enough for such a purpose, but it is not sufficiently completed, the painters and carpenters being still at work there; and Mr. Sheppard having kindly offered his Hall, the Committee have arranged that it shall be given there. The services of the Orchestra and Chorus are entirely gratuitous on their part; they came at the invitation of personal friends here. The price of single tickets has been fixed at 50 cents. both because the expenses are large and the Hall will hold but a limited number, and the proceeds, above the extenses, will go to the new meeting house.

All who appreciate the best style of music, will doubtless avail themselves of this oppostunity.

SUMMER RESORTS.

It will be seen by reference to our advertising columns, that the Hotels at Cape Island are being opened for the present season .-The United States is a large and handsomely fourth, where all who visit the city, have an furnished Hotel, capable of accommodating four hundred guests.

The Philadelphia House will be conducted the present season by the proprieters, Messrs. G. G. Evans, No 335 Chestnut Street, Phila-Stewart and Springer, who we are informed delphia. from reliable authority, are everyway worthy of a liberal patronage from the public .-Their house is located in the central part of the Island, and is in prime order.

Those who cannot spare time to go to the Island and spend a few weeks, are reminded that the Fortescue property about sixteen miles below Bridgeton, has been purchased by Mr. Samuel Poscock, who will preside over it the present season. From the personal acquaintance we have with him, and the reputation he has for being qualified for keeping the right kind of a house, we hesitate not to say, that those who visit there this season, will have reason to be highly gratified, and return there as often as possible.-The present proprietor is certainly a clever fellow, and will do all that lies in his power to accommodate and make comfortable his

THE NEW SUGAR CANE. We notice by our exchanges that the new sugar cane is about to be extensively tried in all quarters of the Union. In South Carolina one gentleman is said to have planted one hundred and ten acres, and in several of the outhren States numbers of individuals have each planted from eight to ten acres, and upwards. In Cumberland county, it is estimated that about one hundred acros are planted. The greatest quantity put in by any one person in this county, that we have heard of, is ten acres. We have read a great many flags hoisted. various and contradictory estimates as to the value of the plant for producing sugar .-Americans are particularly noted for their speculating dispositions; a disposition which inclines to look on the bright side of things. and not unfrequently to overlook the other. But from some cause, then unseen by many, these premisory manufactures did not thrive as successful as was earnestly predicted. While commodity which will add to our national prosperity, we cannot suppress a feeling of hesitation at crediting all the favorable accounts we hear of the productiveness of this new plant. Eurnest assertions of the ready and cheap conversion of its juice into sugar of a good quality, are met by others equally entitled to credit, that it cannot be converted into good sugar at anything like a remunerative price. "CATTLE ON HIGHWAYS"-Reply. MR. EDITOR:-I see by your last paper, that "Alfred Holmes" has spit out his spite on us poor people, by giving his views on cattle running at large. Well, we all know that "Alf" (beg pardon, Mr. Holmes) is a good writer, and "some pumpkins" in his own opinion, and no doubt it will be considered the greatest presumption in me, a poor day-laborer, to attempt to cross swords (pens | may favor him with their custom. Drop do. but it may be well enough to let him know Jumbles, Rusk, and &c. &c., fresh every in the start, that I was "not born in the woods to be scared at an owl."

One point (though a dull one) is that it is "illegal" for a poor man to turn his cow on the roads. Talk about the illegality of a thing which practice has made lawful ever since our forefathers first began to raise cows! The public highway is the poor man's pasture field, and he who would wish to deprive him of the use of that pasture, shows a beartless, aristocratic avarice which would grudge a

More Goods! Better Goods, and CHEAPER GOODS.

Having procured the services of a first rate set of hands, and made arrangements for manufacturing the most of the ready made clothing that I sell, I have now on hand a large and splendid stock of clothing, manufactured under my own supervision, of the most durable materials by the best workmen made equal to customer work, and warranted to give satisfaction to all that try them, and at the same time are enabled to sell cheaper than any other house in Bridgeton, as there is but one small profit on my goods, whilst those goods that are manufactured in the city must have two profits; the manufacturer must have a profit, and the retailer must have his; so it must be obvious to all that I have the advantage over those who sell city-made work.—All I ask is a call before you purchase elsewhere, and if you are not satisfied that my goods are better made, and cheaper than you can buy elsewhere. I do not ask you to buy, nor do I consider it any trauble to show you my goods.

BARBER'S NEW JERSEY COMBINED MOWING AND REAPING MACHINE!

For the Harvest of 1857. ARBER'S Machine has taken the premium in Barber's Machine has taken the prematar and several of the County Fairs, and has been placed in competition with some of the most celebrated. It is simple, of light draught, less complicated, and not liable to get out of order, and plicated, and not liable to get out of order, and will cut all kinds of Grain or Grass, equally as well as any Combined Machine ever offered the

It is so constructed that all side draught (which s so great in most machines as to require three, and some four horses to do the work of two) has been entirely overcome, and seidem, if ever, requiring but two berses in any kind of grain or

You can mow an acre per hour the whole day through with but two horses, and with the same ease for the team as plowing, and at a slower gait than any other Machine ever in this region.

No Real is required in mowing any kind of grass. It has been fairly tested by a number of practical farmers, and quite sufficient to prove its complete adaptation to mowing as well as reaping. I have received many certificrtes from practical farmers and competent judges, establishing its merits over any other machine ever used in this State.

The following is the award of the Committee of the Agricultural So. at the Reaping and Mowing Machine, at Bowentown, July 9, 1856, at which time and place were entered one of McCormick's with four horses, three of Manny's with two horses each, two Ketchum's with two horses each, and one of mine with two small Mules: "Your committee have came to the conclusion, after taking all the circumstances into consideration, the clearness of the cut, and least clogging to the knife, that Rarber's Machine, worked by Samuel M. Sheppard, did the best work."

The above michine will be made to cut any desired length of swath, from 4,42 to 5 feet, as may be ordered. An extra knife accompanies each machine. They are manufactured and for sale by the subscriber at Bridgeton.
