For the West Jersey Pioneer. SNARES IN THE TOW-PATH. BY FOWLER.

Chuice Buetry.

This world is all a " muddle." Full of dangers, ills, and cares, Collissions on the Railroads, And the Towpath full of snares. Combustions on the Steamboats, Loss by Bank and Railroad shares:

No trusting anybody, And the Towpath full of snares. When you tell a friend your sorrows, Your wrongs, your ills, and cares, Why very soon you'll find him, In your Towpath, setting snares. If you call to see the Ladies, Why their Mammas, and Pappas, Will be weighing of your pockets While the Girls are setting snares. And when you see the darlings

Putting on such winning airs, Look sharp-or else they'll catch you In their matrimonial spares. The Doctors and the Lawyers, (Though they do not hunt in pairs) Are alweys very busy

In life's Townath-setting snares. One weakens you with physic, Till your very heart dispairs; While the other fills your Townath With all sorts of Legal snares. In Love, in Law, in Physic. In great or small affairs; With friends, with foes, or neighbors.

Why look out for the snares. You may say this talk is "nonsense." Well, - "Who the mischief" cares, If you will not heed my counsel, How oft you fall in snares. Now as all the world is artful, Each one its odium shares; So perchance, both you and I, sir, Are good at setting snares.

A SOCIABLE LETTER. Sept. 12th, 1857. since I lived and moved in the neighborhood where your paper is issued and circulates. yet I still feel a lively interest in the matters upon the subject of "Cattle on the Highways." I am now interested in the minorilook with some anxiety to see how these mowers and reapers make out in the field of letters. Your brisk engagement with your brother Editor (?) down the street, furnished us distant readers of the Pioneer with a weekly entertainment, and I have put away both specimens of controversial literature. But permit me to believe that neither you nor the Chronicle, are the wicked persons that a stranger might have been led to suppose. The language you both indulged in must have been a little strained and extravagant; you never waylaid dogs in Camden, I am sure, and as for Patterson and his "hired writer," (is that the expression?) let us in charity hope they go to bed sober at least one night in the week. But to be candid, my dear Pioneer, though your war of words may have amused me, and perhaps some others, yet I cannot think it added anything to the usefulness of your paper, or to the length of your subscription list. People pare very little for your quarrels with your neighbors, and they have no desire to see a public paper, which they contribute to support, perverted from its legitimate object, into a medium for the expression of the editor's private ill will and spleen. Both your industry and that of the Chronicle man, might have been better employed than in making researches into the history of each other, especially so if you could bring to light facts no more creditable to the parties concerned, than those which were published. But you may wonder by what authority I am reviewing and criticising your editorial conduct, and how I came to be constituted a censor of the Press, so I will drop the subject and speak of other matters which I meant should engage my pen entire ly when I set out. I had the pleasure during the poot Sum absence from it, and it was my purpose when I began this letter, to talk about the change and improvement I noticed there. The hand of innovation has disturbed very much, it is true, the old landmarks, and removed many of those objects about which clustered a host of associations. Those objects were some of them bomely enough, but they were identified in memory with the locality, and were parts of the picture of my native place, still bright and vivid in my mind. Old familiar trees were gone, rotted down or vielded to the axe, hill-tops have been cut off, hollows filled up, ponds and swampy places, (some of these according to our boyish belief, without in tom) converted into dry ground; streets have been laid out over open fields, post-andrails nees have given place to painted pickets, and ment dwellings are standing where but yesterday the cows "at large on highways" browsed on the bare commons. Notwithstanding the shock to the romantic and sentimental part of my nature, I rejoice to see these improvements. The change which is perceptible is not only in the widening and stretching out of the town, it is also in the views and ideas of the people. There is a wonderful advance in good taste. This is evident in many ways, and particularly in the character of the building which is going

Canadian Correspondence Colingwood, Sept. 11th, 1857.

After returning from my tour to St. Clair Lake and channels in Michigan, and remainng a few days at London, our Canadian City, I resolved to travel in another direction and go through the interior North to Owen Sound on Georgian Bay. So you may prepare to hear some particulars of a place which out for the spelling book or gazetteer, its ame would be unknown to a Jerseyman.

This is a long route mostly by stage.-Travelling in stage is a very wearisome emoloy. Often, things transpire very provokng as well as suggestive. From Maryland o Canada I have scarce found such careful tage-men as we have been used to in our part Jersey, where the proprietor himself is lriver. Hireling drivers are often roughcast, vulgar and reckless, and we must trust our lives to their careless and merciless hands. Since having had much experience in this, and having been several times overturned in stage, your correspondent feels as risking his life whenever he gets in a stage. As it is not fine and delicious. Men'ssummer wages are bins, Jr. Thomas Robbins, Eli Tullis, Richconsidered polite or proper for a passenger to profess to be inspector, to examine axle, per day. This weather they call hot—it is Charles Fagan, Charles D. Now and then I see 'Store' bruised with a stone-the best thing at hand. As we go on, it is made the passengers' busi' ness to watch the wheel, and give the driver notice of its tendency. Finding it again tol. laterally inclined from true position, all must alight, and the shaft undergoes another like operation of the machanician. plans, or somtimes depending entirely on the stage in urgency, it comes with full load, and though the road be bad. I am left to get on as best I can. So, when there is a good road, the stage finds itself left, for I do not wait With an early start and quick step, I can keep ahead; for on a stage route where there is no opposition, the time of stoppage is equal to their gain in running. I can arrive first at the end of the journey, and have the advantage of earning a handsome sum, for the bill of fair is surely paid, while the money remains in my own purse.

Since I suppose no individual from that quarter ever crossed the baskwoods in this part of Canada. I may be able to impart to the studious reader of the Pioneer, more information than can be found in the school book or gazetteer.

Well, what of Owen Sound? At a point of the great bay which tapers up 20 miles between fingers of land, is situated the town. Stages seldom go at the hour to suit my It has nothing very magnificent or attractive. It is of considerable size and in a state of improvement. There are several small churches without a steeple. There is a good court house, the prominent residences of the Judge, Treasurer, Sheriff, and Barister as common to a county seat, and the number of hotels and stores necessary to a lake port.

First I met some rough, disrespectful, disputatious men; some seemed as though ny of sober Indians, in usual garb, with packs the cause of prohibition, which doctrine they are now agitating in the Province.

PREMIUMS ON FAST HORSES.

MR. EDITOR:-I observed an article in your paper of September 12th in reference to an adjacent county offering premiums for the best cultivated farm, and the fastest horse. I have heard the same opinion advanced by a number of persons before, but it has invariably come from some old farmer who is far behind the times, and has no hope of ever catching up; or from some clergyman, merchant, or printer, who knews but little or nothing about the nature of sound , uninjured horses. My knowledge of farming and herses is practical, and I only write what I know. and not what I surmise. They tell us we abuse our poor brutes by driving them under the whips. This, in nine cases out of ten athey could not walk straight; next a compa- mong farmers, is untrue. Many people are mistaken about the nature of horses, and take them to be as slow as the old plow, physicians', lawyers' or nedlers' horses, which have been stiffened by long continued travel; but on the contrary, thorough-bred young horses are of a fly-away nature; this we know, because we have frequently turned them out in our fields, and their head and tails would soar aloft, and they go round and round the field at the rate of a mile in two minutes, and if we were in a carriage behind them, people would say, Oh I have a mare that often makes very un-

PREMIUMS ON FAST HORSES.

As one of our correspondents over the signature of "Grazier" comes down on us some this week by taking exceptions to our editorial on "Horse Racing vs. Farming," we give a few more general remarks on the subject this week, hoping to hear from "Grazier" again soon, as we desire to discuss the subject in opinion, even so much as to assert that "Clergymen, Merchants and Printers, know but little or nothing about the nature of sound, uninjured horses," but to the question of awarding premiums, &c., here are our views.

In the award of premiums for any object, it is but fair to presume that some advantage is to be obtained. But what benefit is conor premium in the community, whilst the sged 15, daughter of Hon. SALEM COUNTY EXHIBITION.

The Salem County Agricultural Exhibition was held on Thursday last. The display of Agricultural and Manufacturing products was decidedly very inferior to former years, at least in quantity. Except a very fine lot of potatoes, and a small number of hand some egg plants, the display of vegetables was extremely meager, and inferior to what the Bowentown Club annually display at their festival. But few samples of grain were exhibited, which, though of good quality, was not particularly remarkable for one of the richest agricultural counties in the with him, or any one who may differ with us State. A small quantity of excellent fruit of different kinds, was on exhibition. The fancy work, though highly creditable to the exhibitors, did not exhibit much more than half the usual variety.

Seldom does the cry of fire startle the in habitants of our quiet town, which for some years past, has been so highly favored by the comparitive absence of the destructive ele ment. Mr. Hopkins, former pastor, gave an interesting history of the Church and to do the will of Him who sent me, and finish his work.". The sermon by the Rev.Mr. Wilman was not only eloquent, but marifested much research and ability on the part of the speaker. Rev. Dr. Spratt, first pastor of the Church, presched on Thursday evening to a large an attentive congregation.

"OLD QUARTERS."

It will be seen by another part of our paper that our citizens have at last put the quictus on the old Spanish coin. This is a commendable movement, and we hope the time is not far distant when they will all be superceded by good American "dimes and dollars, dollars and dimes," &c. Some of the business firms of Bridgeton deserve much credit for having been active in doing away with the old coin, by taking it in at par value, and sending it off to the mint, notwithstanding In Bridgeton N. J., invite Farmers and others to they sacrificed in so doing. Should it appear that any person or persons receive the coin in at the new rates, and pass it out at full value, we have no doubt a rumpus will be kicked up which will throw the "Cattle on Highways." "Reaping and Mowing Machines." "Dividing Creek Public School," and "Fast Horses" questions entirely in the shade.

Doing it up Right.

The complimentary tickets of the Cumberland County Agricultural Society, which are to be sent to delegates of other counties. Editors and others who are supposed to accompa ny ladies, sometimes, on such occasions, have line printed on them as follows: "Admit the bearer and Ladies." This we look upon as doing the thing up about right, and hope our brethren of the press, who may receive such tickets, will make a good use of them for the benefit of the Fair. Our neighbors of the Camden and Gloucester County Society, have overlooked that item on their tickets the present season, not with the intention, however, of doing things by half, as the complimentary tickets which they sent, admitted as many of the fair sex as any single man could take care of in such a crowd.

The Old Currency.

URSUANT to previous notice, a large numbe of citizens and Business men of Bridgeton convened at Sheppard's Town Hall on Monday evening, the 21st inst., to adopt some measures in regard to Spanish currency.

The meeting was called to order by appointing Dayton B. Whitaker chairman, and Samuel E.

M'Gear, Secretary.

The object of the meeting was briefly stated by the Chairman, when, on motion, it was unani-mously resolved that we, the citizens and business men of Bridgeton, do pledge ourselves that we will only take the Spanish coin for the following rates: Quarters for 20 cents, Levies for 10 cents, Fips for 5 cents.

Resolved, That the above take effect immedi-

The inhalation of a ammonia will rouse the system when fainting or apparently dead. The odor of many of the medicines is perceptible in the skin a few minutes after boing subaled, and may be immediately dotected in the blood. A convincing proof of the constitutional effects of inhalation, is the fact that sickness is always produced by breathing foul air. Is not this positive evidence that proper remedies, carefully prepared and judiciously administered through the lungs, should produce the most happy results? During eighteen years practice, many thousands, suffering from diseases of the lungs and throat, have been under my care, and I have effected many remarkable cures, even after the sufferers had been pronounced in the last stages, which fully satisfies me that consumition is no longer a fatal disease. My treatment of consumption is orginal, and founded on long experience and thorough investigation. My perfect acquaintance with the nature of tubercless are, enables me to distinguish, readily, the various forms of disease that simulate consumption, and apply the proper remedies rarely being mistaken even in a single cuss.—This familiarity in connection with certain pathological and microscopic discoveries, enables me to relieve the lungs from the effects of contracted classes to cularge the chest, purify the blood, impart to it renewed vitality, giving energy and tone to the entire system.

Medicines with full directions sent to any part of the United States and Canadas by patients communicating their symptoms by letter. But the cure would be more certain if the patient should pay me a visit, which would give me an opportunity to examine the lungs and emble me to prescribe with much greater certainty, and then the cure could be effected without my seeing the patient should perfected certain the patient hould read to the present of the patient and the presents certainty, and then the

More Goods! Better Goods, and CHEAPER GOODS.

Having procured the services of a first rate set of hands, and made arrangements for manufacturing the most of the ready made clothing that I sell, I have now on hands a large and splendid stock of clothing, manufactured under my own supervision, of the most dumble materials by the best workmen made equal to customer work, and warranted to give satisfaction to all that try them, and at the same time are enabled to sell cheaper than any other house in Bridgeton, as there is but one small profit on my goods, whilst those goods that are manufactured in the city must have two profits; the manufacturer must have a profit, and the retailer must have his; so it must be obvious to all that I have the advantage over those who sell city-made work—All I ask is a call before you purchase elsewhere, and if you are not satisfied that my goods are better made, and cheaper than you can buy elsewhere. I do not ask you to buy, nor do I consider it any trouble to show you my goods.

JACOB KANDLE. Bridgeton March, 28, '57. THE Lotteries of Samuel Swam' & Co., are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superinted their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair 'opportunity for investment, the interests of the parties at a distance being as well protected as though they were present. The Managers would respectfully will attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co., are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are 10 dollars; halves, 5, quarters, 250. No ticket sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from 40 to 50, thousand dollars; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount that each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Democrat Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to S. SWAN & Co., Augusta, Georgia.
