For the West Jersey Pioneer. HOPE.

Hope, the smiling, prattling infant Breathes beside its mother's knee, As joys unfelt by older sinners Are whispered in its jubilee.

Hope is felt in giddy boyhood, Chasing all our cares away. Teaching that our fortune's all-good, Turning darkness into day.

Hope leads the heart to youthful pleasures, 'Tis whispered in the youthful vow, 'Tis hope that binds young hearts together, And gives our wished for pleasures, now.

Hope leaves us not when age comes on, Nor makes our longing spirits sad, No! then it is that hope is strong, And makes us crave a better land.

Mr. CHAIRMAN: I had the honor to present to the House, a short time since, some joint resolutions of the Legislature of New Jersey, in reference to the better preservation of life and property upon her coast. I will not detain the committee now by discussing all the propositions they contain, but some of them are so important that I trust to be indulged while I briefly allude to them. Sir, I am fully convinced that, by corrying out the view expressed in these extracts in relation to the harbor under Cape May, and by increasing the life-saving apparatus upon the coast in accordance with the resolutions of the Legislature of New Jersey, most of the vessels and lives annually lost upon our shores might be saved. The station-houses have already admirable apparatus which answers every purpose when a wreck lies near the shere; give to them new boats, boat-crews, and the telegraph, and we shall rarely again hear of such fearful losses of

Firing into American Vessels

If the published accounts are correct, the British authorities seem to be amnsing themaclves with firing into our coasting vessels under the estensible plea of suppressing the plave trade. While it cannot be denied that vessels are annually built and fitted out in American ports, particularly in New York and Boston, for the purpose of pursuing the inhuman traffic, that there are men in our midst who openly advocate its re-estab lishment, and that the American Flag is too frequently used to cover the rascality of the vilest of other nations, yet it will hardly comport with ideas of American Indepen dence, to allow of the right of search by any other power. The war of 1812 originated from this cause; the only difference being, that then the British claimed the right to search American Vessels for British subjects. Though we believe they never distinctly gave up the claim, it has since been discontinued on those grounds. The slave trade having been declared piracy, by civilized nations, a strong effort has States has suffered less from the hard times been made to suppress it. Ships of war have than that of the Camden and Amboy line been placed along the coast of Africa for this purpose by the governments of Ameriica and England, with a restricted privilege other Company in the country was losing to each to exercise the right of search. In money, if not falling into bankruptcy, this spite of these precautions, cargoes of slaves continued to make large profits and expenfrom Africa continued to be landed on the sive improvements at the same time. Its acquisition by the United States would most probably terminate the importation of slaves to any considerable extent. But there is another and very different view of these reported high handed measures of the British. It is well known that a party exists in the United States not only favorable to the acquisition of Cuba, but extremely anxious for it. There is also unfortunately both in this country and Eng-

In Sayres Neck, Cumberland County New Jersey, o n Friday the 15th uit., Martha, second daughter of Anse m I Anna Sheppard, in the 28th year of her age. For more than a year she had been laboring under Pulmonary affection, but not until within three or four weeks did there seem any cause for alarm. The taking ssuming so ral it a course. From the first she was unde the impression she should never recover; and ulast to truly. But death found her not unprepared. For her he had no sting; for her, the grave no victory. More than eight years ago, she united with the brick Church, at Ce darvillo, then under the pastoral care of the Rev. T. W Catell, and had christian walk, and duty, filial love, and sisterly affection: been any shiefd against death, then had Martha lived. But she is gone, and we cannot wish her back. In the language of one of the surviving relatives we repeat, "that Martha's place cannot be easily filled."

COMMUNICATED, At Hamburg Pa., on the 19th ult., Mrs. Ruth E. Gurhard, formerly of Deerfield Cumberland County, in the 30th year of her age.

At his father's residence, near Tuckahoe, o the morning of May 9th, Josiah R. Wynn, aged In the unexpected death of this young man a umerous circle of relatives and friends have een most sadly afflicted. In the very prime and vigor of early man lood, in the enjoyment of robust health, with a fair prospect of enjoying a full share of earthly privileges and satisfactions, just as he was about to place the cup of human happiness to his lips, and partake of its mingled gratifications, lo! a voice from the eternal world s heard, saying unto him, "set thy house in order, for thou shalt die and not live;" and we would fain hope, that in the brief period of his illness, he found peace with God, through the Lord Jesus Christ, and was enabled to commit his soul into the hands of that blessed Savior, who is able to save to the uttermost, all who will come unto him. But all human sympathy, and regret is utterly powerless, to minister consolation to the bereaved family and friends, we would mmend them to the sympathy and love of that compassionate One, who is touched with the feeling of our infirmities, and who wept with the sisters of Bethany, while they may find a mournful pleasure in contemplating his many virtues, and recalling his kind and respectful attention to everything that would contribute to the happiness of those he loved. May this dispensation of Divine Providence be sanctified to all his friends and acquaintance, and lead them to feel the importance of being "also ready, for in such an hour as they think not, the Son of Man cometh."

This is a valuable feature, and would of itself give the "Manny" Machine the preference over all others. It is a safe Machine, the seat being back of the Knives, and not directly over, them as in most Mowers. Works well on any ground free from stones or stumps, and in any kind of grass, course or fine, we tor dry. With the recent improvements it is the most perfect Machine ever constructed for Mowing and Reaping.

Frota Prof. McCLOSKEY. oranerly Professor of Theory and Practice of Medicine in the Female Medical College of Pennsylvania, and late Professor of Surgery in the American College of Jedicine, &c.

Philadelphia, Nov. 27th, 1857.

Mr. Jaseph E. Hoven:—A trial of your LiQUID HAIR DYE will convince the most skeptical that it is a safe, olegant, and efficacious preparation. Unlike many others, it has in several instances proved serviceable in the cure of some entaneous cruptions on the head, and I have no lassitation in commending it to those requiring such an application. Very respectfully.

The Hindoo Cintment recommended as effectual for the removal of SPAVIN, RING-BONE, Curb, Windgelle, Thoroughpins and Callous, most of shich complaints horsemen have here generally given up as incurable, except by blistering or burning, which are cruel and troublesome operations, and blemish the horse for life.

This ointment will cause a discharge of matter a few hours, and will remove even bony deposites in a short time, without breaking the skin or bringing off the hoir. No horseowner should be without it, as, used according to directions, no one need despair of effecting a permanent cure. See James H. Flanigan's communication in the Pioneer of January 9th. describing a surprising cure, effected by it upon a valuable horse of his.
