Looking Upwards in a Storm.

God of my life, to thee I call, Afflicted at thy feet I fall: When the great water-floods prevail. Leave not my trembling heart to fail. Friend of the friendless and the faint! Where should I lodge my deep complaint? Where but with thee, whose open door Invites the helpless and the poor. Did over mourner plead with thee. And thou refuse that mourner's plea? Does not the word still fix'd remain. That none shall seek thy face in vain? That were a grief I could not bear. Didst thou not hear and answer prayer; But a prayer hearing, answering, God, Supports me under every load. Fair is the lot that's cast for me. I have an advocate with thee; They whom the world caresses most. Have no such privilege to boast. #### REFORM.

This word has come to be looked upon with somewhat of distrust. It is apt to bring up visions of Women's Rights, which much-talked of reform is so distasteful to the Lords of stand, is to occupy the position vacated by Creation, who having always monopolized Mr. Woodward. the "Rights," think they always should; and of free loveism, that delusion which certainly originated with the Evil Oae himself; and of Spiritualism, that tissue of superstition and credulity; and of a host of lesser isms. which are turning people's wits topsey turvy. and filling the land with discord. All these fanaties call themselves reformers, and condemn all who do not subscribe to their dogma, as enemies of reform, so that to be called a reformer is, in the estimation of some, a sort of covert insult. But to be a true reformer, is to be one of earth's heroes. It is the highest honor to which man can attain; an honor far above that of kings and princes. Who would not rather be a Tyn dale, and give the English Bible to the world, than a Henry the eighth, with his royal power and cringing courtiers; or a Luther, preaching the gospel of the Son of God in periland parsonage property $800; increase in amount that will instill new life into their veins; restore, tribulation, rather than a Charles the Fifth, reigning over half of Europe; or a Howard, rectifying the evils and horrors of prisons, rather than a Napoleon, marching to glory through seas of blood? Such men as these are the grand reformers, shining out through for the purchase of a house for Mrs. R.v. J. the darkness of the past like brilliant stars, K. Shaw. but they are not, by any means, the only ones. Every Christian, hunted like a wild beast among the mountain fastnesses, every martyr who went rejoicingly to the stake, with Bishop Ames in the Chair. A resoluevery student who, amidst the superstition and darkness of the age, discerned a new Mount Holly, for their hospitality in enterray of light from the sun of science, every taining the Conference, and another compli sturdy lover of freedom, who lifted his voice mentary to Bishop Ames, for the kind and against tyranny, was a reformer, whose influencois still felt, and will be felt till time knowledged in a very handsome manner.shall be no more; for no man's influence can The business being through, the Bishop anever die. Aye, the very blood of those who nounced the hymn fell martyrs to the power of evil, has watered and nourished Religion, Liberty, and Science, and we are reaping the harvest.

been reformers, or the world would have pointments, when the Conference adjourned stood still, and our own age has its full share. Knowledge and intelligence have so increased, that instead of a few, as in earlier times, we have tens of thousands all busy in the great work of reforming the world. Indeed, very many who care but little about reforms in general, are, unconciously to themselves, assisting in this good work. For every new idea added to the stock on hand, every good book, written in an earnest, healthy tone, every new invention in any part of mechanical industry, every useful lecture or discussion, every "word in season" dropped by the wayside, every old prejudice broken down, every victory gained over self, every sermon preached in the spirit of Christ, every rood of the beautiful earth God has given us, cultivated and adorned, is so much work done in the cause of reform. It is these little. and apparently insignificant things, which make great reforms; so let no one think "I Bethel and Turnersville-W. W. Christine am but one, and can do nothing," but let | Williamstown-Wm. Margerum. each go bravely to work, and his labors will tell to eternity.

This much abused word reform, is truly Allowaystown -J. I. Corson. the watchword of the world. Each department of religion, morality, education, and politics, has its great teachers actively at work, and the motto of each and all is "Reform!" It is borne to our ears on every Willow Grove-A. Matthews. breeze that sweeps from the Pacific, over the | Port Elizabeth - J. S. Beegle. lofty mountains, the rolling rivers, and the wide stretching prairies. It rings from every manufactory that sends its columns of smoke to the sky; it speaks in "thoughts that glow, and words that burn," in the countless books and newspapers scattered over the land; the iron steed, as he prances away in his might, shouts "Reform!" the steamboat, gliding majestically down the broad river, rchoes it from every cliff and grove; the chained lightning takes up the sound, and sends it flying, like light, to the ends of the earth. 'Tis a noble word; worthy to be a nation's battle cry. It hath power to rouse the energies of our better nature, as no other word can. Let the noble spirits of our country, the great leaders in her moral conflicts, raily their forces around the standard, by this stirring cry "Reform!" Let it ring along the line in trumpet tones, as in the olden time, the inspiring word. "Let God arise; let his enemies be scattered," rang out as the intrepid Cromwell and his brave troops dashed to the battle; and as they waged victorious warfare, through the inspiration of that triumphant war cry, so shall those who battle fearlessly for the right, conquer through the might of that glorious word-Reform!

WEST JERSEY ACADEMY. The Winter session of this Institution

public exhibition in the old Church on Broad street. At an early hour the Church was densely crowded, hundreds being compelled to remain outside. A commodious platform, handsomely decorated with evergreens, with the stars and stripes waving over it, lent an additional charm to the occasion. The exercises consisted of Orations. Dialogues, instrumental music, &c, which were highly creditable to the performers. The music, under the direction of Professor Neff, received much applause. The exercises in general, passed off in good style. C. C. Stretch, and W. D. Bigler, deserve special notice for the masterly manner in which they performed their respective parts. The worthy teachers connected with this Institution have met with unparalleled success the past term.

It is with much regret we appounce that Mr. J. B. Woodard, who for the past two years has occupied the position of teacher in . this Institution, is not expected to return. During his sojourn in this community, he has formed many happy and lasting friendships, R. Wheat 1 50 "

Exhibition at Newport. The school exhibition came off at Newport, on Saturday evening the 26th inst., (according to previous notice) under the superintendence of Mr. Harris Ogden, who has been engaged as instructor of the youth for the last six months, in the above named place. There was a great variety of pieces spoken in the performance, both entertaining, instructive, and impressive; adapted to the taste, age and capacities of the numerous pupils engaged in it. The deep and unwearied attention of a densely crowded house for nearly four hours, was a sufficient evidence of the manner in which the exercises were appreciated by the audience, and a sufficient encomium upon the mental training the pupils had received from their teacher, and also of the acceptable manner in which both acquitted themselves in the presence of such a large and respectable assembly; and as a further proff that the labors of the instructor will leave behind him a grateful remembrance

At the close of the exercises, the worthy teacher, Mr. Harris Ogden, was presented, closed on Wednesday evening last, with a by the young ladies, with a splendid cake, weighing ten pounds, for which they received his hearty thanks, with a few neat and appropriate remarks.

Mr. Ogden will please accept our thanks for a large quantity of the delicious cake. -Long may be flourish, and the Newport

Gents: I am requested by Mr. T. A. C. Cochrane, of this place, to say to that on the morning of the 4th instant, about 3 o'clock; his store took fire, and the entire stock of goods was destroyed. The heat became so suddenly intense that none of the goods ceuld possibly be saved; but fortunately his books and papers, which were in one of your Champion Safes, were all preserved perfectly—And well they may be called Champion, for during the whole conflagration there was one incassant pouring of flame directly upon the safe which contained them. And still, upon opening it, the inside was found to be scarcedly warm, while the outside was most severely scourched. Yours truly, N. A. McCLURE.

The Waverly Novels.

The well-known firm of T. B. Peterson & Brothers, 306 Chesnut street. Philadelphia, are now engaged in publishing a remarkably cheap edition of these unapproachable works of fiction. The first "Ivanhoe," appeared on Saturday of last week: the next, "Guy Mannering," will issue to day, "Bob Roy," next, and so on, one novel will be published regularly on each and every coming Saturday, until the whole number of volumes—twenty-six—is completed. The low price fixed by the publishers for them are only 23 cents a velume, or the whole twenty-six volumes for five dollars. A complete set will be forwarded, free of postage; by mail, to any part of the United States, to any one by the publishers, on receiving a remittance of five dollars for the twenty-six volumes: or a remittance of three dollars will pay for the first twelve volumes; or a remittance of one dollar will pay for the first four volumes. The novels will be neatly printed, and each volume will contain about 125 pages, printed on fine white paper, and neatly bound with paper cover.—The revised uniform Edinburgh edition, from which this is reprinted, comprises forty-eight volumes, the cost of which is Seventy-twe dollars; and this edition will contain every word of the Edinburgh edition. We commend the determination of this enterprising Philadelphia firm, to furnish the works of an author like Walter Scott, at a price so reasonable, that all persons whatever may possessa full set, and direct the especial attention of our readers to the fact, and would advise them all to make a remittence of Five Dollars at once, per first mail, to the publishers, for the entire set, who will send them com plete to any one, free of postage, on receipt of that sum. THIS being the season of the year when persons are affected with the above complaints, they should in no wise neglect er allow them term into Bronehitis of Pulmonary. Congruption; and that there have been thousands of such cases no one can deny. The very best thing they can do in such cases, is to obtain a bettle of ROB-ERTSON'S PULMONIC ELIXIR, which is not ERTSON'S PULMONIC ELIXIR, which is not recommended for Consumption, Liver Complaint, and the thousand other ills that flesh is heir to. but simply as a remedy for the diseases above mentioned; and that it is a sure, perfect and harmless remedy, certificates from our most respectable citizens abundantly prove.

Salem, March 5th, 1847.

This is to certify that I was seized with a cold in October, which developed itself in severe cough, hoarseness, pain in the breast, and all the concomitants of a Pulmonic affection. I purchased, while I was very ill, a bottle of Robertson's Pulmonic Elixir, which entirely cured me in the short space of 4 days, and I now feel bound to make it known, for the benefit of fellow-sufferers, and in justice to the Proprietors.

GEO. C. MULFORD.

Messrs. Robertson & Lippincott—Gent.: During the sitting of the Musical Convention in this place, (from over-work, I presume,) my throat and breast got very scre. I obtained from you one bottle of your "Robertson's Pulmonic Elixir," which in two or three days entirely restored me. It has had a very beneficial effect on my mother who has a cough of several year's standing. 1 gave some to Prof. Root, who had taken a severe cold; and in every case it acted like a charm. Believing it to be an excellent medicine for the class of diseases for which it is recommended, I cheerfully comply with your request in giving you the above certificate. Theodore E. Perklus. Salem, April 10th, 1856.

This certifies that after having been afflicted with a cough and hoarseness, for a period of two or three months, and finding but little benefit after taking a number of preparations, I took your Pulmonic Elixir, which gave me prompt relief. After this. I procured a dozen bottles, and sold them to my neighbors, to whom the medicine gave entire satisfaction. And I think I may say it is as good a medicine for this class of diseases as can be found. WM. S. CARLL. Salem, June 27, 1858.

During last Spring and Summer, my child was attacked with Whooping Cough. On one occasion, Mr. Charles Gibbon, my neighbor, hearing one of the children whooping very badly, took it in and gave it a dosp of Robentson's Pulmon-ic Elixir, which acted like a charm, relieving it mediately, and doing so much good that I purchased and kept the article on hand, and found it to give relief quicker and surer than any other remidy I tried, and I would cheerfully recommend it to any wanting a medicine for this class of diseases.

JAMES E. LUDWICK. Salem, Jan. 18, 1859.

Salem, Jan. 26, 1859. Mr. Wm. B. Robertson:—My daughter, E. L., has been very much troubled with a cold and cough, &c. On your recommendation, she used several bottles of your celebrated "Pulmonic Elixir," and I hereby certify it has done her more good than any other medicine she took, and is now free from cough, &c., and in good health. Very truly, yours, C. F. BROWN.

Salem, February 19, 1859. Messrs. Robertson & Lippincott:-About four weeks since, having a very severe cold, cough, hoarseness and pain in the breast and back. I purchased a bottle of your "Pulmonic Elixir," and took it, and it immediately gave me relief my daughter also had a severe cough, and it helped her very much, but after the medicine ever made, the 80 springs only weighing eight was gone, we both took cold again, and then being at Bridgeton, I purchased a bottle of Brewsster's Pectoral Mixture; that doing no good, I purchased a bottle of Steelings, at Allowaystown and that proving a failure, I now want six bottles of your medicine, feeling assured that it will effect a cure. JACOB F. MINCH.

Friesburg, Salem County, New Jersey. Salem, 3d mo., 18th, 1859. the past winter my wire was attacked with a very severe Influenza, accompanied with a cry, distressing cough. After trying several, popular remedies without receiving any benefit, she was recommended to try the "Pulmonic Elixir." By the use of half a bottle she was completely relieved. Respectfully, thy friend,

A disease called "Breaking Out," is now afflicting thousands. It first up, ears thou the arms or legs, and if not arrested spreads over the whole body. It is none other than the saves Years' iten. The experience of the past four years proves that the only sure cure for it is Dr. BARNES' ITCH OINTMENT. Many persons have an erroneous idea that fifth produces the Itch. A person may bathe every morning for a year, and during the time daily change their clothing, after the expiration of the year come in contact with the disease and contract it.—
The best proof however, is that the really fifthy are rarely afflicted with it.

It is no new and untried article, but one that has stood the test of a ten year's trial before the American peeple, and its reputation and sale are unrivalled by any similar preparation extant. WILD CHERRY. Point of Rocks, Farperick County, Mb.

Dr. Swanne—Dear Sik—Believing 1 a duty I owe to the public, and in justice to jou, I have thought proper to make known one of the most remarkable cures, in my own case, that has ever been truly recorded. In the month of October last, I was afflicted with a severe gathering in my breast, which formed a large abseess, and also communicated to my lungs and very much afflicted thom and discharged large quantities of corruption, external and internal. My breath could pass through my lungs and o't through the cavity of my breast with apparent ease, attended with a violent couph, day and night, loss of appetic, and extrema debility so that my physician thought my case hopele, s and beyond the power of medicine. I remained in this wretched condition for a long time until I was wasted to a skeleton, and there seemed to be no hope for me: but having read in the public papers of the many wonderful cu.es performed by your Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry I immediately sent to Bal-months.

Please accept my grateful acknowledgments.
Please accept my gratefully,
Yours, very respectfully,
The subscriber is well acquainted with Thomas Dixon, and can testify that he has been afflicted as above represented. I regard his recovery as almost a miracle. He is a worthy member of society.
