CUMBERLAND CO. BIBLE SOCIETY. This society held its 43d annual meeting in the Baptist Church at Roadstown, on Tuesday the 14th day of June A. D., 1959, the Hon. L Q C Elmer, the President, in the chair. The meeting was opened by the read ing of the scriptures, and prayer, by the Hev. S. Y. Monroe, after which, the Hon. L. Q. C. Elmer delivered the following Inaugural Address. Meeting you now brethren and friends for the first time, as President of the Cumberland Bible ociety, it may not be deemed inappropriate, if before entering upon the regular exercises of our 43rd anniversary. I call your attention to some of the great truths implied by our support of this

First of all, it is implied that we acknowledge the Triune God, as made known to us by his wonderful works of Creation and Providence, and a God not only of infinite compassion and love but a God of infinite justice; "a consuming fire to the wicked;" the God who has denounced the penalty of temporal and eternal death against eve ry transgressor of his rightcous law, thus reaching every child of Adam, "and who hath so loved the world as to give his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him, shall not perish,

We receive and recommend to others the Bible our thanks for a box of "Transparent with our reason, but because it accords with our reason, but because it comes from the as the infallible truth; not because it accords odoriferous soap." This is one of the God of truth-not as a book containing more handsomest presents we have received lately in the way of soap. Such tokens of light of an internal conscience, but to be received friendship no crasive soap can obliterate. We ance upon the guidance of the Holy Spirit, who wish Mr. Morris abundant success in his is its divine author. We distribute it, not with the vain hope that the doctrines, the warning or the promises therein contained, even if read by hose who receive them, will of themselves change the hearts of a fallen and depraved race of men. those hearts which are by nature "deceitful and lesperately wicked;" but with humble trust in the intercession of that Saviour, who is the author and finisher of our faith, and who, while on earth prayed to the Father, for his followers, Sanctify them through thy truth, thy word is truth." By our support of this society, we declare our protest, against all that heartless deism, revolting socialism, blasphemous pantheism, and withering skepticism, which are at the bottom of those schemes of reform which seek to abolish admitted evils by bitter denunciation and culsing, instead of the winning accents of love, or by utter disregard of consequences, instead of that wisdom which is "first pure, then peaceable, gen-tle and easy to be entreated, full of mercy, and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy. We remember ourselves, and admonish others, that the purpose of this blessed book, is not to emblazon the rights of men or the rights for a few days previous. We were pleased of women; but to convince them of their sins, whereby so many wrongs, and so much misery and in the enjoyment of such good health are produced, and to point to the only sure remarks so generally understood by our readers tifying influence of the Holy Spirit. Its eutward manifestation consists in openly confessing Christ, and in a diligent use of the divinely instituted means of grace, that is to say, the sacrament of the Church, the preaching of the Gospel, the faithful perusal of the revealed will of God, prayer and praise, while its blessed fruits are love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, that history know, that laws are procured to be passed at Washington, and Trenton, and other seats of government, and offices even the highest and most important, are procured by direct bribery and corruption, or by other coraupt influences. Nothing can save us from the common fate of ancient and modern republics—first an unwillingness to be restrained by wholesome and faithfully administered laws; and then an escape from the unbearable evils of anarchy by submis sufficient virtue and honesty to elect honest and incorruptible legislators and magistrates, we shall soon cease to elect them at all. We also imply our acceptance of the common English version, so dear to our fathers and familliar to us from our infancy; not as perfect, but as upon the whole, a safe and satisfactory render ing into our mother torque, of God's revealed will to his creature man; as indeed the best stanother means that could be used to bring be- dard of the Luglish and American language, alum of communicating the sacred truths of the Christian religion, to all people, and of accom-plishing the promise, "After those days saith tne Lord. Another great truth implied in our action, is. that the Bible without note or comment; is a true and sufficient rule of faith and practice, and tend to inspire the people with a love and needs no authorative interpretation, by pope or reverence for those principles calculated to | council, bishop or priest, synod or conferen Reverently received as the word of God, and carefully read with humble and believing prayer to its author, its sacred truths, accompanied by his enlightening and sanctifying influence, are "profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness; that the mun of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works; wisely adapted to all sexes and ages,, and to all classes and conditions, they are a safe guide through all the perplexities of life, and up to that gate over which the Pilgrim saw written in letters of gold, "Blessed are they that do his commandments; that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city." shall hear the glad sound; "Enter ye into the joy of our Lord." There has been during the past year no point of special interest in connection with the doings of this Association, to demand attention by its prominence. Reports from the Secretary and Treasurer, will set the case so fully before your minds, that but few general remarks seem to called for.

The operations of the Society are of two kinds: oscasional thorough exploration, and regular stated work. Some two or three years ago the County was canvassed in every part, and Mr. Hurris the agent, presented a very interesting report of the result of his labors. Of course this enterprise while it was in progress, stimulated all connected with it to increased activity, and as a consequence, large contributions were made to the cause. The very thoroughness of that work operates perhaps to some extent, to decrease the interest felt in the matter at present. If this be the case, it must result from a some what narrow view of the great object the American Bible Society proposes, and of the responsibility we bear in the case. It is evident that our first duty is to our own community, since no others can so efficiently do the work, but it does not find its limit here. As long as there are fields of labor opening before as there are urgent motives to the Christian heart. Wherever we turn, there meets us the cloud of larkness, and the ominous silence of spiritual death, and to change all this, the Life and Light set forth in the Word of Revention, alone can

While nations are lest in falsehood and error. those who are set to dispense the truth, cannot lack incentives to an all-absorbing interest. The constant changes in population, require our careful observation of the ground; with a view to relieve any destitution that may thus be rought to our notice. Our responsibility does not end with giving money even liberally. The object we seek, is that all should be plied with the Word of God, and if the whole Church should resolve itself into a working committee in this behalf, the supply would be more seasonable, and the Influence of the Society more

Our Christian character has already commited us to the great interests here represented. His graphic pen never tires, and in this new volume we perceive that he is still successfully laboring to benefit while he pleases, and while he cuchains with master hand the attention of men, to make them better. SATINETS, BLANKETS, FLANNELS, Cloths, Horse-Blankets, Stocking Yarn and Carpet Yarr We feel confident that those who will try having their wool manufactured will find it will answer them better than the present store Satinets which are manufactured out of flocks and old Clothes, and will full to pieces as soon as they are worn. To accommodate our old customers we have purchased the machinery, and rented the Factory of the late George Remster, near Allowaystown, Salem County, in connection with the old stand in Bridgeton, we hope to give satisfaction to all who may favor us with their custom. Mechanics will find these goods just the kind for hard service.

Wool sent by any of the stages will be manufactured to order and returned.

Satinets, Blankets, Stocking Yann, &c., on hand and for Sale wholesale and retail or exchanged for Wool.

N.B.—The highest cash price pad for wool, as we shall want more wool this year than before and do not buy it for speculation—only to keep the Factories running. We would ask farmers to give us a call before parting with their wool, and encourage home manufactories and industry, for we will pay as much as any one for the wool, in eash.

Jares, feels it due to his numerous patrons, to render them his thanks for their liberal patronage for the past year. Notwithstanding the extraordinary revulsions in the monetary achiers of the country, our business has steadily progressed, showing that the style, price and kind of Clothing we manufacturd, is just what is needed, and that the course we have pursued for years of warranting all we sell to prove as represented, and incely exchanging garments that do not suit, has secured to us, we think, the large patronage we have received. We shall endeavor to confine our business as near to Cash as possible, at the same time we are willing to grant to those of our customers who have heretofore paid us promptly, the usual credit at Cash prices.

CUSTOMER DEPARTMENT. We have now on hand a very large and complete a sortirent of Cloth's, suitable for Overcoats, also fine good for Under Coats, Bissitess Coats, &c. We have been enabled to take advantage of the depressed state of the market and secure a full and complete asortment at greatly reduced prices, we now think no house in the trule can offer greater inducements than we can to those who desire to purchase good and well made goods, for there is no economy in purchasing an inferior quality of Ready Made Clothing.
