

BRIDGETON
Saturday Morning, July 23.
The Pioneer has a LARGER Circulation than any weekly Paper in this State!

JAMES B. FERGUSON—Editor.

NIGHT BOAT.

In looking over our file of the Pioneer of 1856, we notice a leading editorial on the above subject, which we reprint this week, being appropriate to the present time.

Jersey Horses. We notice by the Bordentown Register, that on Thursday last week, another spirited and closely contested match of trotting took place on the Union Course, L. I., between Patchen, Brown Dick, and Miller's Damel.

Steamboat Stage. Messrs. Langley & Clark have commenced running a stage from Mauricestown by way of Dividing Creek, Newport and Cedarville, to Tindall's wharf, to meet the Steamer Patuxent.

Dividing Creek Again. It appears that our reference, in last week's Pioneer, to the "Dividing Creek Controversy" has been construed, or rather mis-construed, in various ways.

Body Found. The body of a man supposed to have been drowned, was discovered last week by Mr. F. Bevan, on the beach between the wharf of Mad Horse and Bacon's cabin.

For the West Jersey Pioneer. Mr. Editor:—I herewith send you an imperfect sketch of the disastrous storm that occurred last evening.

Excursions. The excursions made from Bridgeton the present season have all, thus far, passed off in good style. The steamer Patuxent is well adapted for such trips, and Captain Blow is just the man to command such expeditions.

New York Waverly. We have received a copy of the Waverly, from the publishers, Messrs. Jones & Smith, Boston Mass. This popular weekly Journal is one of the best in the country.

Italy and the War of 1859. Giving a history of the causes of the War, with biographical sketches and finely engraved portraits of the heroes, together with the official despatches of the various states.

For the West Jersey Pioneer. Mr. Editor:—I herewith send you an imperfect sketch of the disastrous storm that occurred last evening.

Importance of Sabbath Schools. An essay by Daniel Harris. Read at the Celebration in Millville, July 4th, 1859. The motive which has caused us to assemble here to-day, is of a two fold character.
