From the State Gazette and Republican. THE NEW JERSEY MONUMENT RESPECTIFULLY DEDICATED TO G. C. HAVEN, ESQ.

VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL AGENT. They are not dead-the brave who sleep-The world's great heroes rise at last; A million hearts their memories keep; And as the years go surging past, Their names become our dearest pride. Their noble deeds we cherish well: We know the moment when they died. We know the spot whereon they fell.

Young children by the cottage door, Fair maidens in the moonlit glade; The haughty rich, the humble poor, Men in the busy marts of trade, All learn the story with delight, And learning it, they bless the band Who fought the long and fearful fight, And died to save their native land.

Among all deeds of daring done-All battles to defend the Right-The record bears no braver one Than this of that terrific night, When cold and darkness reigned around, When storm and tempest raged afar, When net a single star was found To light the wintry Delaware.

I see the soldiers on the bank, Ghastly, and pale, and wanting food; I see them gather rank to rank, I see them stem the stormy flood, And in the bleak and bitter dawn Their naked, bloody feet I see, As silently they hasten on To Trenton and to victory.

Now, Ilireling, there is none to save-This patriot band will never yield, They fight for Freedom or a grave. This day shall to the future speak, This deed to every age be known-Now, now, the tyrant's power shall break-

Now, Hessian, there is none to shield-

To-day shall might be overthrown. How rales the star of Marathon, How fades the famed Thermypolac, Beside the deeds of valor done Upon that dark December day.

Henceforth the soil is sacred there. Henceforth its history is sure-A cherished name shall Trenton bear, While Right and Liberty endure.

Build high the BATTLE MONUMENT, Let the proud column greet the morn; So shall the heroic deed be sent Build to the brave immortal band Who here the surge of battle met, And let the shaft forever stand New Jersey's crowning coronet.

AN'ANECDOTE.—JUST IN TIME.

A young physician having tried in vain o get into practice, at last fell upon the following expedient to set the ball rolling: He sprang up on his horse once a day, and ter an absence of an hour he would return and earry with him some of his instruments - thinking if he could impress his neigh bors with the opinion that he had practice. they would begin to place confidence in his ability A wag who more than suspected mined to know the truth. He accordingly kept his horse in readiness, and the next time that the doctor galloped by his door, sprang on his horse and placed himself on he young gentleman's trail. The doctor saw the man following at his heels, but did not at first evince any uneasiness. At length, however, he thought it advisable to turn down a narrow lane. The pursuer followed on, like an evil genius; but the doctor grew impatient to return home. There was no house by the way at which he could afford any pretext for stopping. In the meantime his saddle-bags were with him, and he was otherwise equipped for business, so that he could not return, in the face of of his trade in a most palpable manner. -Every bound carried him farther from his home, and the shades of night began to fall on hill and tower. Still sounds of horse's turned the angle of the wood, he heard a low mean. A man lay prostrate near the fence of a meadow, and blood gushed from doctor sprang from his horse and staunched the wound. Bandages were applied, and his life was saved. The pursuer had also "How lucky. neighbor, that I was able o arrive just in time.

OUR COUNTRY. At sundry times in ages past amid the tumult and commotion of men, victories were won, cities were begun, nations were founded, and dynasties were formed creating great and important erochs in the world's eventful history. So in these latter days, desirous to see the commencement of a new era of superior importance in the wonderful revolutions of time, we behold a new continent suddenly emerge from the bosom of the deep, and upon its vast expanse, States spring into existence, which, in glorious Union, form an empire greater and mightier than any that previously existed. Then, "in the course of human events," we behold the extinction of one great system of Monarchia! power and foreign rule by a direful Revolutionary shock, and the immediate transmutation of its shattered members into ready. vigorous, constituent parts of another well regulated system, ushering into existence this Independent Republic as a dominant and crowning nation. This is felt to be a phenomenon—and is indeed the commencement of an era, the rarest in the annals of the world. On Monday I was met by two of my long absent sons, coming to welcome me to their new home in this distant country. Soon we left St. Joe, on the Atchison and St. Joe Railroad, and arrived at this youthful city in one hour; the road being now completed, and one of the most finished roads we have ever seen. This road, terminating as it does, immediately opposite this town, and connected by the Steam Ferry-boat, gives to its enterprising inhabitants much advantage. Rust in Wheat.

We hear from many quarters complaints of rust in the wheat. Two weeks ago many with whom we conversed were very fearful that the crop would be much shortened by it. The heavy rains has in many instances with all the appliances necessary to extinhad the effect to wash the rust from the stalk, so that we shall probably realize very out here. nearly, if not quite a full average. If the weather should continue favorable, many pieces we should think would be harvested before the fourth.

THE WEATHER.

On Thursday morning of last week the thermometer stood at fifty degrees. Last fourth of July it fell to the same point in the morning, but at noon the weather was quite warm. The season thus far has been cool and very favorable for work. The average temperature for May 1860, varied but half a degree from that of the same month 1859. A coincidence very remarkable and we suppose but seldom occurring.

Fire! Fire!! Fire!!!

On Tuesday night last about 11 o'clock, our citizens were startled by the cry of fire the heavens were lit up as though an extensive fire was raging in the west end of the town. A general rush was made to the spot. The male portion of the citizens turned out en-masse, and soon discovered that it was nothing but a barn, of comparative little value, the property of Mrs. M. The Mighty and Important Results of the

The abundant fruits are seen in the prosperity of the country. Since the announcement of the Declaration of Independence and the establishment of the Constitution, a new era has commenced, the like of which was never known since the world began.-This hour witnesses our fondest and dearest hopes. Now the Western World is destined to be ours. England lost this new risen sun of her glory-the world's dominion has passed from her grasp—the day of retribution has come. "mene tekel" is written upon her Palace as upon all the walls of Tyranny, by the hand of inscrutible destiny, which great and passing events clearly explain .-The voice of Heaven has pronounced the overthrow of Tyranny, and fall it must; purple thrones with all their glory, strength and magnificence, are going down; the fabrics of arbitrary power are crashing and orumbling around us; destiny is on the track; the principle seat of the English race has been removed from Britain's Isle, and though they continue to rule the world, it will be from henceforth from other lands; their genius and arts, their industry and enterprise. their science and literature, are transplanted in a new field and extended upon a larger cale on the banks of other rivers more majestic than the Thames; where they have 'THROWN OFF," and ABOLISHED the forms of Government to which they had been accustomed, and advanced so rapidly to knowledge, improvement, prosperity and happiness as to leave the "rest of mankind" an age behind. This infant nation but of vesterday, compared with some venerated for centuries of antiquity, has become great, rich flourishing and powerful; it stands alone on the globe the most liberal, the most magnanimous; having never yet been equalled in those qualities which demand respect, homage and admiration, and is destined soon to pecome fifty times as strong and populous. No example has ever yet been seen of such mighty and interminable influx of people; the emigration from Europe to the wide. free and illimitable west has been about 500. 000 people annually, bringing a capital of over $3,000,000. The nation doubles its population every twenty-five years-will contain 50,000,000 in less than one generation -and in less than a century from this it will probably contain 300,000,000 people—indeed the country is capable of holding and sustaining 800,000,000 -- more than now people all the other Empires, States and Kingdoms of the world; yet in all these rich wide realms there is no imperial throne or pearly palace; royal Czar or great Autocrat vested in the light of divinity; nor "angels in the form of Kings, to gov an." But the dom ever devised; the offspring of more majestic law-givers and greater intellects than the Solons, the Lycurguses or the Numas of the old world, having incorporated The second is Abraham Lincoln of Illi- in it the sublimest truths of humanity, and

The government is simply the will of the people, whose allegiance is love, who when correctly informed will do right. The multitude of counsellors are not liable to err: the people are the best judges of public policy, protecting all and granting favors to none. Every pulsation, every action of the government is the expression of the will of millions of Freemen-the voice of millions of sovereigns—the voice of a great multititude, like the sound of many waters, as the sound of mighty thunders. What a sublime spectacle is this vast concentration sublime spectacle is this vast concentration

Still the Ship of State moves on over the billows of time, bright and buoyant, bearing at her mast head the proud Emblems of National Glory and Greatness, and presenting to the world the imposing spectacle of the beauty of self-government. Where else on the face of the earth can Nation be found that can look upon such an honorable origin, with men so good and them without for once thinking that he was doing anything very distillation. By reference to snother column, it be seen that the 4th of July will be se years. Yet it has permanence and continuance. Founded on the immutable principles of truth and virtue, and being the result of wisdom, Peace, Union and Liberty, is imperishable, and shall last when the monuments of Egypt fall, greatly and gloriously answering the end of its establishment. It stands safe, no coward hearted prater of dissolution has nerve enough to raise his traitorous aim against the fair proportions of this Heaven-born work of our mighty forc-

Here is a land, (the first on the list of existing Republics,) where Liberty, Independence and Equality triumph. Peace now reigns in all our borders; tranquility throughout the land; the world presents not another such a transcendant, rare and pleasing spectacle. Religion of every kind enjoyed, property secured, and individual prosperity almost miraculous, all restraint removed from human powers. Science and the Arts speed swiftly on to perfection. Kowledge is radiant in the minds of all; American literature attracts the attention of Europe. The mighty progress of this Republic is now acknowledged throughout the civilized world. Nothing unattempted, nothing unsurmounted. In invention we take the lead. An honest man has no superior; "the post of honor is a private station:" all have an equal claim to those rich, desirable excellent blessings of every kind scattered around. In need of no physical gifts to create a Millenial erjoyment, how happy here in conscious security the peaceful sons of men may dwell. Who eightyfour years ago, when our father's with brave and noble hearts declared our National Independence, would have anticipated so glorious, such wonderful results? Happy art thou, Free Nation of America! Ten thousand cottages now smile more beautiful. ten thousand hearts grow more bright, milions now rejoice in this Heeven-born Libertv: millions vet unborn may yet rejoice in this most glorious emancipation! "The far removed sons of oppression begin to feel those blessings of Independence in the rapturous prospect of a redeemed, regenerated

I have tried a great variety of patent medicines with a similar result—Through the kindness of my physician, I received last March, half a dozen bottles of the OXYGENATED BITTERS. Since then I have gradually improved in health till I am entirely free-from neidity of the stomach, and from the consequent flatulency, and the awful and almost distracting sick headache, which often, for days together, has wholly unfitted me for study and for all other ministerial duties, and rendered life a burden. I feel that I owe it, as an expression of gratitude to Mesers. Having suffered so long, and tried so many different remedies with no good result, I can recommend the Oxygenated Bitters with a confidence few others can. If any of the readers of the Mirror are suffering, I beg of them to make trial of these Bitters without delay.

Bridgeton, June, 1860. Clerk of Board. HO! FOR FORTESCUE.

THIS celebrated watering place, so famous tor its delicious oysters and splendid bathing ground, is now open for the reception of visitors. No pains will be spared to render it all that it should be, for the confort, convenience and enjoyment of all that may come.—
The establishment is at all times supplied with Oysters and Fish of a superior quality, fresh from the water, as well as fresh garden vegetables.

Sportsmea will be furnished with the necessary apparatus for Gunning and Fishing at any time of the year.
There are attached a large ball room, and a first rate ten-pin alley, where visitors cau enjoy themselves to their heart's content.

The bathing ground cannot be surpassed anywhere.—
It is easy of access, with a good road and pathway leading there again luxuriate.

Fortescue is located on the Delaware Bay, in Cumber and County, 15 miles below Bridgeton, accessible to visitors by stages from Philadelphia to Newport, when hacks will be ready to convey them to the Island for 371 cents.

INPECTINE. THE PERSIAN FEVER CHARM. For the prevention and cure of Fever and Ague and Billious Fevers. This wonderful remedy was brough who has been a great traveler in Persia and the Holy Land.

While going down the river Euphrates, he experienced a severe attack of Fever and Ague. On discovering his condition, one of the Boatmen took from his person an Amulet, saying, "Wear this and no Fever will touch yeu," Although incredulous as to its virtues, he complied, and experienced immediate relief, and has since always found it an effectual protection from all malarious complaints.

On further investigation he found that the boatman attributed to it miraculous powers, and said that it could only be chained from the Paests of the Sun. Sometime afterward, the gentlemen in conversing with a Priest, obtained from him the secret of its preparation, and ascertained where the medicinal herbs were found, of which it was compounded. The wonderful virtues of this article have induced a full belief in the minds of the natives in the miraculous healing powers of their Priests.

the natives in the miraculous heating powers of the Priests.
Since his return to America, it has been tried with the happiest effect by several Ladies and Gentlemen of high character, who have given it the most unqualified praise. This remedy having been a specific in Persia for hundreds of years, for the prevention and cure of Fever and Ague and Bilious Fevers—is now offered to the American people.

It will be sent by mail, propaid, with full directions for use, on receipt of one dollar.

First Annual Excursion to WILMING TON.

Steamer Patuxent,

CAPT. DAVID BLEW,

To make an excursion to Wilmington, on SATURDAY,
JULY 7th, 1860, leaving the wharf at 7 in the morning, stopping at Fairton and Greenwich going and returning.
Capt. Blew, her commander, is a native of this place, and experienced in navigating the Delaware waters. The fare has been placed exceedingly low, so as to afford alf an opportunity to indulge in this pleasant and popular excursion. A favorable opportunity it offers to those having friends in that city, to visit them, as the party will remain several hours. A first rate Brass & String Band has been engaged expressly for the excursion, and will discourse delightful music, both going and returning—No exertion will be started to make this the most pleasant excursion ever made from Bridgeton. All should make it convenient to go. Good order will be maintished.
Ice Cream. Confectionery. &c., provided on the fare for the Excursion;

MANDERSON & CO., Proprietors, No. 58 South Third street, above Chestnut, Philad's

WE cannot speak too highly of this TAR CORDIAL as a cure for Consumption. Many persons, once poor and emaciated, can testify that when everything else failed, and they were just ready to step into the grave, a new light sprang up—they heard of the FOREST PINE TAR CORDIAL, and its wonderful eures; and as the strong man, grappling with the mighty waves, lays hold of every object that offers a shadow of assistance, they took the Tar Cordial, and were restored to perfect health. To the Consumptive, then, we say, take courage; the Forest Pine Tar Cordial has cured as hopeless cases as yours—it may cure you, at least do not despair until you have given it a fair trial.

Read the following:

CAUTION.

The success attending the sale of the Forest Pine Tar Cordial, and the wonderful cures performed by it, have induced others to imitate and make an infierior article, so as to impose upon the public, and induce the unwary to believe that in purchasing said Medicines, they were getting our celebrated and wonderful Forcest Pine Tar Cordial. Therefore, to protect the public against all such spurious articles, they have had the words "FOR-EST PINE TAR CORDIAL the Great Cure for Consumption, Bronchitis, &c.," and their name, "MANDERSON & CO.," blown on each of the bottles, which are of darkgreen glass—none genuine without those words on.—Remember, we have no connection with any Ppreparation of Tar butthis

Analytical Chemists.

New York, Sept. 5d, 1858.

I have analyzed a sample of Chemnt Grove Whiskey, received from Mr. Charles Whinton, Jr., of Philadelphia, and having carefully tested it. I am pleased to state that it is entirely free from poisonous or deleterious substances. It is an unusually pure and fine flavored quality of whiskey.

JAMES R. CHILTON,
Analytical Chemist.

Rostox, March 7th, 1859.

I have made a chemical analysis of commercial samples of Chesaut Grove Whiskey, which proves to be free from the heavy Fusil Oils, and refrectly pure and unadulterated. The fine flavor of this Whiskey is derived from the Grain used in manufacturing it. Respectfully, CONSUMPTION has destroyed more of the luman family than any other disease, and the lost physicians for many years have despaired of furth shing a cure, or remedy that would heal the lengs, yet for more than two hundred years the whole medical world has been convinced that there is a mysterious power and efficacy in the Pine Tree lat to heal the Lungs: therefore, they have recommended the use of the water, which in many cases had a good effect, but how to combine its medical properties so as to heal the Lungs, has ever been a mystery, until it was discovered by L. Q. C. Wishart, the propriector of Wishart's Pine Tree Tar Cordial, and has been put in bottles patented by the U. S. Government. We say to the sick it cleanses the blood of its gross impurities, touches every nerve, and restores the whole system to health and vigor. Many have been cured in a short time, that have singered for years without relief, and could you but stand at the courter of the store, No. 56 South Third Street, for one week, and hear the afflicted tell of the wondrous and healing power of the Pine Tree Tar Cordial, Street, for one week, and hear the afflicted tell of the wondrous and healing power of the Pine Tree Tar Cordial, you would be satisfied that it does all that is claimed for it. This Cordial will cure Consumption. Inflammation of the Lungs, Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat and Breast. Bronchitis, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Weak Stomach, Asthma, Gravel, Diseases of the Kidney, Blind and Bleeding Piles, Nervous Debility, Propsy. Palpitation of the Heart, &c.
