One spot on the wall seemed too bright for his vision to endure, but presently, as if emerging from it, came a soft, white figure, that stood by the poor bound boy's bedside. The child shut his eyes; he was a little, only a little, frightened, and his heart beat quickly, but he found breath to murmur: "Tell me, who are you?"

"Look up, be not afraid," said a sweet voice that sounded like the harps of Heaven; "look up, darling - I am your brother Willie, sent down from the angels to speak with you, and tell you to bear all your sorrow patiently, for you will soon be with us." "What, you my brother Willie? Oh, no, no, that cannot be. My brother Willie was very pale, and his clothes were patched and torn; and there was a hump on his back, and he used to go into the muddy streets and pick up bits of wood and chips. But your face is quite too handsome, and your clothing prettier than I ever saw before; and there is no ugly hump on your back. Besides, my brother Willie is dead, long ago."

"I am your brother Willic, your immortal brother; my body with the ugly hump is in range. His reply was so much like I went down and, enjoyed a good dank of died I went up to the great heavens, and a bull-frog's croak that I asked him to spell ice water by poking my head into a suspil saw lights that I cannot tell you about now, it, which I did not suppose he could do; cious hole between a rock and the ice, but they were so very, very beautiful. "And you, you rever forget to say your little prayers that I taught you -if you will keep God's holy commandments, and trust in him always, you shall soon be with me in my sweet heavenly home." Once more the child was left alone, but still the rafters were golden, the walls pearly, the old floor studded with brilliants, and the same soft, mysterious sight over all. A strain of holy music fell faintly upon his enraptured senses; it grew louder and came nearer to the head of his little bed .-And then a voice—oh, far sweeter than ei-chief attractions of the things below, were certain little lumps of yellow clay, on which almost every eye and every heart was fixed. When I saw the variety of uses to which this clay could be converted, and the respect the grass, I thought of two little boys at er father nor mother; so no soft bed awaited home who could appreciate that part of the his tired limbs, but a miscrable pallet with like the most precious gold; but there was did not much wonder at the general desire which was shown to those who could scrape together the greatest number of pieces, I to pick up some of them; but when I beheld the anxiety, the wakefulness, the competibrother, if the second was his father, but not the scuffling, the pushing, the turmoiling, once did he doubt this beautiful being was the kicking, the shoving, the cheating, the circumvention, the envy, the malignity, which was excited by a desire to possess this article; when I saw the general scramble among those who had little, to get much, and of those who had much, to get more, then I could not help applying to these people a proverb in use among us, that gold may be bought too dear, Though I saw that there were various baubles which engaged the hearts of different travelers, such as an ell of red or blue ribbon, for which some were content to forfeit their future inhericlay I found was the grand object for which most hands were scrambling, and most souls were risked. One thing was extraordinary, that the nearer these people were to being turned out of their tenement, the fonder they grew of these pieces of clay; so that I naturally concluded they meant to take the clay with them into the far country, to assist them in their establishment in it; but I soon learned this clay was not current there, the lord having further declared to these pilgrims that as they had brought nothing into this world, they could carry nothing

I observed also that the false judgment of the pilgrims ever kept pace with their wrong practices; for those who kept their eyes fastened on the things below, were ries, were accounted by the bustlers, or heapers, to be either fools or mad.

Most of these pilgrims went on in adorning their tenements, adding to their heaps, grasping the things below as if they would them go, shutting their eyes, inhis scant breakfast, there was such a beautiing their title deed, as if it was the parchment of another man's estate, and not of his tenement tumbling about his cars. On! He told his dream; and the hard hearts then what a busy, bustling, anxious, territhat listened were softened; and the mother fying, distracting moment was that! What a deal of business was to be done, and what a strange time was this to do it in! Now, heaper now found would be of no use to himself in shooting the gulf, a transfer which ought to have been made while the tenement was sound. Then there was a consultation between too or three masons at once perhaps, to try to patch up the walls, and strengthen the props, and stop the decays of the tumbling tenement; but not till the masons were forced to declare it was past repairing (a truth they were rather too apt to keep back) did the tenant seriously lected to examine it till their senses were too confused for so weighty a business!-What repreaches, or what exhortations to than they had done. > A LITTLE CORNER OF THE MAP OF LIFE. -We can scarcely believe, even with all the melancholy procrastination we see around us, that there is any one, except he is a decided infidel, who does not consider religion as at least a good reversionary thing; as an object which ought always to occupy a little remote corner of his map of life; the study of which, though it is always to be postponed, is, however, not to be finally rejected; which, though it cannot conveniently come into his present scheme of life, it is intended somehow or other to take before death. This awful deception arises, partly from the bulk which the objects of time and sense acquire in our eyes by their nearness, while the invisible realities of eternity are but faintly discerned by a feeble faith, through a dim and distant medium. It arises also partly from a totally false idea of the nature of Christianity, from a fatal fancy that we can repent at any future period, and that as amendment is a thing which will always be in our power, it will be time enough to think of reforming our life, when we should think only of closing it: - Facts and Feelings.

Do not soothe others in any evil way, through fear of what may be the consequence to ourselves of speaking the truth.

Atlantic Monthly.

We have received the August number of this valuable magazine. The contents shows equal ability with any of its rredecessors. John P. Kennedy's "Legend of Maryland" closes with the present number. The article on "Tobacco" is highly interesting and instructive. Professor Gray's "Darwin on the origin of Species," is conrinued with its former interest. There are two or three fine pieces of poetry, and one in particular which recalls some of those charming verses which used to enrich the pages of this magazine. The Literary reviews of the Atlantic are of a superior order.

By reference to advertisement another column it will be seen that a concert will be given in Grosscup's Hall on Tuesday evening, the 7th of August, by a number of Graduates of the Pennsylvania Institution for the Instruction of the Blind. The Salem papers give a favorable account of the concert given by them in that place a short time since, which was attended by a large audience. This is a benevolent object, and should be responded to by our citizens.

The Lecture and Concert given in this town on Menday evening last, for the benefit of the Salem Cornet Band, reflected much credit upon the speaker, Mr. David W. Wood, of Salem, whose lecture on "the Spirit of enterprise" was an able and polished production. Mr. W. is a very pleasant and interesting speaker, a young man of no ordinary literary attainments.

The performance of the band exceeded the expectations of those present, giving general satisfaction, and demonstrating what the spirit of enterprise own accomplish to short time, with the right kind of material.

Harry Frankinfield, the leader, has succeeded admirably in bringing out the musical talent of the performers, who have not been organized as a band more than three zons that the entertainment was of such an interesting character, there certainly would have been a larger attendance. Instead of losing some fifteen or twenty dollars by the "enterprise," they should have cleared at least double that amount. We hope they may have better luck in the future, as they deserve success.

THE CROPS.

While from nearly every part of our own counry we hear the glad news of bounteons crops: of the barns overflowing with wheat and the 'new nown hav." and the finest prospect of an unparalleled corn crop, the European papers bring the sad intelligence of small harvests, and the almost utter destruction of the summer fruits. In England, Ireland and Scotland, the bad weather continued up to the end of June; and as rainy day followed rainy day, as shower followed shower. the barometer was watched and noted by all lasses of society.

The pasturage which, in England, is usually bundant, is so scanty that thousands of animals have perished from starvation. In the north of England, in Scotland and Ireland, the sheep and lambs have died by thousands for want of food. The season has been, in England, a calamitous about. The consequence of this scarcity of hay and grass is, that beef is scarce, and very high. Large meetings have been held to form associaits use. The price of fiesh meats in England, is very high; but in France it is still higher, ranging from 48 cents per lb for fillet, to 20 cents per lb for inferior beef, for making soup (bone included); joints of veal and mutton sell for 25 cents of Europe have more to fear from the scarcity and consequent high price of food, than from perhaps any other cause. Sir Archibald Alison when he declares famine to have been the "immediate' cause, is undoubtedly correct. The re enacting of the sanguinary deeds of that "reign of terror," may be the ultimate consequence of another famine; and we can but sincerely hope and believe the United States, with its overflowing graparies, with its abundant harvests, may be able to supply the hungry millions, and effectually prevent those riots and revolutions so revolting to the better feelings of mankind. After viewing and considering the state of Europe, what a relief to turn to our own country, and witness the bounties of Providence so profusely scattered around. No gloomy forebodings of famine, but the songs of plenty; no to sing the songs of Harvest-home:

"Come, ye thankful people, come,

Raise the song of Harvest-home!" A private letter from the Land Office of the Central Railroad, thus portrays the state of things in Illinois. The writer says:

There is no State where all the conditions of soil and climate so admirably concur to produce this cereal as Illinois, and the product will be greater than ever before known -reaching no less than 100,000,000 bushels. The Railroad Record thus predicts of Ohio:-

"In the year 1860 we may safely predict that Ohio will produce 140,000,000 bushels of grain and roots, which will be distributed nearly as

For the West Jersey Pioneer.

New York, July 16th, 1869. New York is a city of excitement, New Yorkers glory in the fact, and speak very condescendingly of sister cities, in the ceins of whose citizens the blood runs with nore even flow. New York journalists are very fond of speaking of Philadelphia and Boston as "suburbs of New York"-"very pleasant villages"-"good places for retirement and meditation"-and they promise their "country cousins," as the Herald styles the residents of the above named "villages," that whenever they come to the City to see the sights thereof, they shall always have some fresh excitement that shall prove fully satisfactory.

Another murder was lately committed.-

A mother and child were butchered by a burglar in the early morning, after the huscan be but little doubt as to his guilt, if he should be convicted, which is extremely iustice. The pirate Hicks who was executed on Friday the 13th, four months after the commission of the deed, on the sloop E. A. Johnson, would more than likely have escaped had the deed come within the jurisdiction of the New York laws. He allowed to stand, generations to come will was executed on Bedlee's Island, in the presence of at least ten thousand persons. The bay in front of the Island was completely covered with craft, while all the opposite shore was lined with spectators. Directly in front of the gallows at the water's edge, was the sloop on board of which the triple murder was committed—the only witness of deed, and now the witness of the retaliation. Hicks himself, to all appearance, was the least excited person in the crowd. He made no speech, coolly did his part, and died with but few struggles. The appearance of the multitude was that of a gala day. For days previous the papers were filled with advertisements headed " Ho for the excursion," exhibiting a brutality, which united with the evident enjoyment of the crowd on the occasion was a disgrace to humanity. The next morning pamphlet "confessions" were every where for sale, exhibiting his complicity in a hundred murders. &c. &c.; the work doubtless showing as much invention as works of imagination usually do.

First, that the tomato s one of the most powerful aperients of the liver and other organs; where calomel is indicated, it is probably one of the most effective and least harmful remedial agents known to the profession. Second, that a chemical extract will be obtained from it that will supersede the use of calomel in the cure of Fourth, that when used as an article of diet, it is an almost sovereign remedy for dyspepsia and indigestion. Fifth, that it should be constantly used for daily food, either cooked or raw, or in the form of catsup; it is the most healthy article now in use.

Excelsior Sunday School Army.

The Agricultural Society, having kindly granted the use of their admirably adapted grounds, Tents, &c., afford the friends of the Sunday School enterprise an opportunitv of holding their second Annual Social Gathering, on Wednesday the 22d of August, next. The recollections of the past are stimulants to the future, and it is confidently expected, the day being favorable, that a much larger number will be in attendance than on the first meeting. All the Schools in the County, and such as may desire, in the adjoining counties are cordially invited to participate. Eminent speakers instrumental and vocal music of the first order, and every other arrangement, to make the day profitable and agreeable, will be secured. We observe by our exchanges, that an increased interest is being had in this good cause, and that Monmouth, Salem, and other counties are arranging for these annual gatherings. When the arrangements of the day are completed a programme will be published. - Burlington Dollar Paner.

For the West Jersey Pioneer. A LARGE FAMILY.

MR. EDITOR:-As the census men are about, and are taking a great deal of pains to obtain full and minute statistics of all matters appertaining to our prosperity as a portion of this great nation, I wish, through the columns of your paper, to call their attention to a large and growing family in our community, and ascertain, if possible, the ratio of their increase. Inasmuch as they do not all bear the same name, I will attempt to describe them, and suggest that the census man set apart in his report a space for them, under the name of the Saywell

They are persons of pleasant speech and smooth tongues, and hence I think the name of Saywell appropriate. If they owe the Merchant, or Printer, or Miller, or Groceryman, or even the Doctor, they never doubt the justice of the debt, and say they will pay to-morrow, or as soon as they can.

Another mark is that they move often finding it cheaper to move than to pay rent. They will cross the street a great many times in a day, to avoid meeting those they owe orirather those they have robbed. Many of them belong to church, and mostly fill their places there, and in this respect do well, were it not that their refusal to pay an honest debt gives the lie to their profession.

With regard to their origin, we are in clined to think they are the descendants of the Phasisees, as they have been known to nor honest livelihood, than that of cultivating strain at a gnat, and swallow a camel. We X.

"There are lessons of deep, abiding interest, and of inestimable value, to be learned in studying the lives of the men who perilled their all to secure the blessed inheritance of free institutions which we now enjoy. We do not learn merely the dignity and sacredness of pure patriotism, by following them in their career amid the sterms of the Revolution, but all the virtues which adorn humanity are presented in such bold relief, in the private and public actions of that venerated company, thus when we rise from a portisal of a narrative of their lives, we feel as if all the noble qualities of our common manhood had been passing before us in review, and challenging our profound reverence.

The biography of a great man, is an history of his own times; and when we have perused the record of the actions of the men of our Revolution we have imbibed a general knowledge of the great events of that struggle for Freedom. If this proposition is true, then we feel that this volume has a claim to the public regard, for the author has endeavored to comprise within as small a compass as a perspicuous view of the subject would allow, the chief events in the lives of the men who stood spousors at the baptism in blood of our Infant Republic.

The memoirs are illustrated by copious notes explanatery of events alluded to in the course of the biographical narrative, and these will be found a highly useful feature of the work."

HO! FOR FORTESCUE.

This celebrated watering place, so famous for its delicious oysters and splendid bathing ground, is now open for the reception of visitors. No pains will be spared to render it all that it should be, for the comfort, convenience and enjeyment of all that may come.

The establishment is at all times supplied with Toysters and Fish of a superior quality, fresh from the water, as well as fresh garden vegetables.

Sportsmen will be furnished with the necessary apparatus for Gunning and Fishing at any time of the year.

There are attached a large ball room, and a first rate ten-pin alley, where visitors can enjoy themselves to their heart's content.

The bathing ground cannot be surpassed anywhere.—It is easy of access, with a good road and pathway leading to it; a beautiful sand beach, without undertow, sting-rays or sharks as drawbacks. All, indeed, who have visited it long for a return for the bathing season that they may there again luxuriate.

Fortescue is located on the Delaware Bay, in Cumberland County, 15 miles below Bridgeton, accessible to visitors by stages from Philadelphia to Newport, where hacks will be ready to convey them to the Island for 37½ cents.

BAUGH'S RAW BONE SUPER-PHOSPHATE OF LIME. Manufactured from Unburnt Bones by BAUGH & SONS.

Wholesale Office and Stor No. 20 South Wharves PHILADEL PHIA.

Cash Price 845 per 2,000 lbs. (2½ cts. per lb.) A liberal discount made to dealers. In the preparation of this Valuable Manure, BONES ARE USED IN THEIR RAW STATE ONLY. They have never been BOLED OR CALCINED. They are taken as nature has made them, cru-hed with powerful machinery, and subjected to a process, by which, while all the virtue of the Bone is retained, a Fertilizer is procured, furnishing in a concentrated and soluble form the two indispensable ingredients for the growth of Plants and enriching the soil, viz. Phosphora actor ADA MANOVA. These two loags. soil, viz.: Phosphoka actin And Ammonia. These two ingressionly viz.: Phosphoka actin And Ammonia. These two ingredients, by the use of "BAUGH'S RAW BONE SUPER-PHOSPHATE," are given to the soil in all their original strength and purity. They assimilate at oneo with the soil, furnish all the needful Ammonia for the growing crop, giving it ample luxuriance, and leave the land permanently benefitted so that its prosence can be traced for years afterwards.

Card. The steadily increasing demand which has followed the Raw Bone Super-Phosphate of Lime Raw Bone Super-Phosphate of Lime is a marked proof that the Farmer and Planter are beginning to appreciate the value of such Fertilizers, as not only produce the first crop but also permanently improve the soil; and on this point we have abundant eridence from the we who prefer its use to that of Peruvian Guano.
Since the introduction of our article we have continually desired to farmish a Manure combining ALL the important constituents of Raw Bones, and we have accomplished this by a process originating with and used only by, ourselves.

who has been a great traveler in Persia and the July Land.

While going down the river Euphrates, he experienced a severe attack of Fever and Ague. On discovering his condition, one of the Boatmen took from his person an Amulet, saying, "Wear this and no Fever will touch yeu." Although incredulous as to its virtues, he complied, and experienced immediate relief, and has since always found it an effectual protection from all majarious complaints.

On further investigation he found that the beauman attributed to it miraculous powers, and said that it could only be obtained from the Priests of the Sau. force time afterward, the gentlemen in conversing with a Priest, obtained from him the secret of its preparation, and ascertained where the medicinal heries wele found, of which it was compounded. The wonderful virtues of this article have induced a full belief in the minds of the natives in the miraculous healing powers of their natives in the miraculous healing powers of their legts. Since his return to America, it has been tried with Since his return to America, it has been tried with the happest effect by several Ladies and Gentlemen of high character, who have given it the most unqualified praise. This remedy having been a specific in Persia for hundreds of vert, for the prevention and cure of Fever and Ague and Bhious Fevers—is now offered to the American people.

It will be sent by mail, prepaid, with fell directions for use, or receipt of one dollar.

CONSUMPTION has destroyed more of the human famuly than any other disease, and the liest physicians for many years have deepaired of furnishing a cure, or remedy that would heal the lungs; yet for more than two hundred years the whole medical world has been convinced that there is a mysterious power and efficacy in the Pine Tree Tar to heal the Lungs; their fore, they have recommended the use of tar water, which it many cases had a good effect, but how to combine its medical properties so as to heal the Lungs, has ever been a mystery, until it was discovered by L. Q. C. Wishart, the proprietor of Wishart's Pine Tree Tar Cordial, and has been put in bottles patented by the U. S. Government. We say to the sick it cleanses the blood of its gross impurities, touches every nerve, and restores the whole system to health and vigor. Many have been cured in a short time, that have lingered for years without relief, and could you but stand at the counter of the store, No. 16 South. Third Street, for one week, and hear the afflicted toll of the wondrous and healing power of the Pine Tree Tar Cordial, you would be satisfied that it does all that is claimed for it. This Cordial will cure Consumption, Inflammation of the Lungs. Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat and Breast, Bronchitis, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Weak Stomach, Asthma, Gravel. Dissasses of the Kidney. Blind and Bleeding Piles, Nervous Debility, Propsy, Palpitation of the Heart, &c. Sold by the Proprietor.
