"WURLD OF LIGHT."

There is a beautiful world. Where saints and angels sing, A world where peace and pleasure reigns, And heavenly praises ring. CHORUS.

We'll be there, We'll be there. Palms of Vict'ry, Crowns of glory we shall wear, In that beautiful world on high. There is a beautiful world. Where sorrow never comes;

A world where tears shall never full In sighing for our home. We'll be there, &c. There is a beautiful world.

Unseen to mortal sight: And darkness never enters there: That home is fair and bright. We'll be there, &c.

PAPER IN THIS STATE.

We take pleasure in reminding our readers that the next session of the West Jersey Academy will commence on Wednesday next, the 5th inst. It is unnecessary to add a word in favor of this popular Institution, or its worthy Principal, Mr. John Gosman, A. M., so favorably known in this community.

Pennington Female Institute.

This long established Institute has for several years past been under the management of Mr. A. P. Lasher, whose superior ability and indefatigable perseverance has placed it among the very best Institutions of the kind in this country. It is a well known fact that comparitively few of the higher Institutions of learning in this country are self-sustaining; this, however, is, and is in a very flourishing condition. The terms should be in every family throughout the land. are quite moderate. For particulars, address | Price, $8 per annum. A. P. Lasher, Principal and proprietor.

About three o'clock on Friday morning of last week, a gentleman residing in the lower part of Millville was called to the window by a man, who said he had a package that he was directed to leave there in his care; explanations would be found inside the box, which was left in the shed. On open ing the lid, the gentleman found a child a week or two old, "alive and kicking." The individual who left the child had departed for parts unknown, in a carriage.

On Monday morning last, as Mi Jeremiah Hann was about leaving Pittstown after changing horses, one of the lines dropped, and while reaching for it, the horse sprang, throwing him to the ground. Both wheels passed over him; the stage had five passengers in at the time. He was carried into the Pittstown hotel, where he was re stored to consciousness. A physician was immediately sent for, under whose treatment he is doing as well as could be expected.

Several ribs were broken, besides being otherwise injured. Mr. Hann is one of our oldest and most worthy stagemen, and will guardianship of "a man of vast and general be sympathized with by many friends in this, his sad misfortune.

On Thursday afternoon his recovery was very doubtful, he being in a state of unconeciousness.

One thing is certain, if they cannot raise large Bears about Mauricetown, they can raise handsome sweet potatoes, say nothing about ing, and this reminds us of the fact that Mr. B. is not the only clever and generous person about Mauricetown. We never visit that section of the county without receiving tokens of the generosity and kindness would have informed if there had been of the inhabitants, and for this last, though furious wild cat under the seat upon which not least expression, we return our sincere thanks.

It will be seen by advertisement in another column, that passenger cars will be run on the Millville and Glassboro' Railroad daily, commencing on Monday next. This will be a new era in South Jersey enterprise, when the cars run to and from Philadelphia every day, affording facilities never before offered in this section of the State.

The West Jersey Road from Bridgeton to Philadelphia, via. Woodbury, is progressing rapidly under the skillful management of the contractors, and will be completed about April next, at which time the section from Woodbury to Glassboro' will be completed. and connect with the Millville and Glassboro Road, thus affording railroad facilities to two of the largest and most thriving towns in South Jersey.

We understand that those interested in the extension of the Millville and Glassboro' Road to Cape Island, are making strong efforts to raise the amount requisite to build the road. It is reported that subscriptions have been pledged for the necessary amount the truth of which we cannot vouch for.

Quaker City Hotel.

Some months since we called attention to this Hotel, and would again remind our readers that it is just the place to call at when in the city if you want a good meal, done up in the most approved manner, or anything to gratify the palate of the most fastidious. The house is located in a convenient part of the city, to merchants and others doing business there. It is conducton the European plan, by Mr. Robert M. A fugitive Slave was arrested near this place on Thursday morning last, by the Marshall of this town. He was at work on the farm of Michael Minch. After being arrested, he appear ed to be willing to go with his owner, who came from Delaware after him.

Rev. E. J. Pierce requests us to say that he will give $25 for the recovery of his at Cedarville on the fourth of July last.

SEPTEMBER MAGAZINES.

The Atlantic Monthly for September is truly a valuable number. Step by step this magazine advances in literary and scientific merit, and is rapidly and surely winning its way to high estimation among the educated, and to popularity among the masses of the people. Such numbers as the September cannot but add much to its former high reputation. We have "Some Notes on Shakspeare," by Fanny Kemble, an article evincing a deep insight into the poet's plays, and which will delight every lover of the great dranatist. The play selected for the first article s the "Tempest," and the writer thus gives her of Prospero that suggested to me those of my father; and this, perhaps, added to the poignancy with which the representation of his distress afnow, do I turn the magic page that holds that marvelous history, without again seeing the lovely lady, the picture full of sad dismay, and my own six-year old self listening to that earlies Shakspearian love that my mind and heart ever received. It was my first possession in the kingbestowed upon me.

Harper's Magazine for September has been received from the publishers. Its contents, as usual are of the highest order. "The Sewing Bird," by Fitz James O'Brien, is alone worth the price of the book. The burlesque on Excelsior is executed in grand style. This popular magazine

For the West Jersey Pioneor. GOTHAMUS WRONG.

MR. EDITOR: - Your New York corres ondent needs a little candid criticism. He represents Lord Brougham as being in love with an Octoroon Orator, thus making a fool of himself, and shaking the foundations of the American Republic. The facts are as

About a year ago, an accomplished young colored lady went from this country to England to lecture. She applied to Mr. Dallas, the American Minister, for a passport, which he refused upon the plea that her cuticle had "no rights which white men are bound to respect " Lord Brougham, with the eye of a good Samaritan, (not a lover's assisted her, and gave his influence, which is great, in favor of that freedom of thought and speech, without which, Mr. Dallas and his Gotham apologist would soon take a headlong leap into chaos.

How did it happen that audience after audience thronged together to listen to the thrilling words of a feminine approximation towards the Orang Outang, under the misinformation," and in love at that?

We are informed that Broughan had no sooner looked upon the Orator than he decided at once that she was "a woman and a sister;" while Mr. Dallas and Gothamus would probably decide, without looking, Our thanks are due to Mr. Richard | that she was fit subject for a slave and con-Barracliff, of Mauricetown, for a lot of the bine; and moreover, being a slave of great seen this season. They were the genuine Brougham's age of three score and ten, down to fifteen, would boast of having "hearts like tinder."

Recently at the Statistical Congress held held in London, Mr. Dallas was present, other desirable productions. "Handsome and also a negro by the name of Dr. Delais that handsome does" is a very true say- ny, from Canada. Lord Brougham being careful of the safety of Mr. Dallas so far from home, informed him that there was a negro present a member of the Congress; upon the same principle, doubtless, that he he sat. If Mr. Dallas had went away with out knowing that the negro was there, he would not have known to what a Unionsmashing danger he had been exposed.-Gothamus says that Mr. Dallas took no notiec of the love-lorn old gentlemen, Brougham, but quietly left him to his conscience and his Octoroon; (this time a male one), with whom he is also in love, regarding him as a man and a brother. Again we are told that poor Lord Brougham's name is in the mouths of all the gossips, in the sneering way. Likewise John Quincy Adam's name was in the mouths of all the rabble when he battled in Congress for the right of petition. Lord Brougham, a noble philanthropist of the British Monarchy, repudiates, to use his own words, the wild and guilty phantasy that man can hold property in man; while in the American Republic, as Henry Clay said, a hundred years of legislation has legalized and sanctified property in human beings. Such is life. The Evening Post has the following:

At a meeting of the statististical society of London the other day, where were assembled all that was most distinguished in the English world of science and letters, presided over by the man of highest position, socially and politically, in the kingdom, Lord Brougham availed himself of the occasion to go a little out of his way then and there, o make an example of our Minister at the Court of St. James. Just as the exercises closed, the old gentleman arose, and hoped "his friend, Mr. Dallas, would forgive him for reminding him that there was a negro present, a member of Congress." Under any other man in the assembly, such a remark would have had no significance; but addressed to the representative of the American government, which denies to the negro the privilege of citizenship, or the capacity to acquire it; addressed to Mr. Dallas, who refuses colored people, wishing to visit the old world, the protection of his country's flag, the simple testimonial of a passport that Brougham was certainly one of the most humilitating, public rebukes ever administered by one statesman to another.

Messrs. G. Andre & Co., Music Publishers, No. 1104 Chestnut Street, favored us, some weeks since, with a lot of superior sheet music, among which were "The Nun's Prayer," "Her Bright Smile Haunts Me Still," "If I am all Alone," "Serenade to Ida," and other popular pieces, for which we return our thanks. For the West Jersey Pioneer. MAURICETOWN, Aug. 29th, 1860.

MR. EDITOR:-Our little town was enliat intervals along now and then among us, and which always makes a holiday with the greater part of our people. I allude to the launching of a new schooner, which was which christening, with the accorded honors and ceremonies, was performed after the fashion from time immemorial, by our fellowown first experience and first love of this great townsman, Mr. Charles Haley, who gracefully and successfully broke the bottle, and spilled the liquor over her bows, as a libation to old Neptune with the wish that the old fellow will bear her up on his broad fected my childish imagination; and never, even shoulders for many a succeeding year, a successful adventure and a profitable investment for her enterprising owners, and her worthy commander.

Her captain is Mr. William Ha'ey, of this place, and the name of the vessel is in comdom of unbounded delight which he has since pliment to his amiable better half, and we hope, that as one adds to the comfort and pleasures of his home, the other will as successfullly contribute to his purse enough of the misscalled root of all evil to lift him above all the evils and incidents of life.

We feel under obligations to our Newport friends for honoring us with their company, and cheering us with the strains of their music. while this noble specimen of our mechanical skill, glided gracefully into the element for which she was intended.

The launch was most successfully performed, and she was in a few minutes brought alongside of the wharf, where she sits as gracefully as a swan upon the water, and it is the opinion of all persons with whom the writer conversed on the subject, that she is by considerable, the finest appearing specimen of nautical architecture which has ever been launched at this place, if not upon Maurice River; and she reflects much credit upon the two young and enterprising designers who put through her engineering, Mr. Jos. Vannaman and Mr. Henry Phillips, the latter of whom is not yet out of his apprenticeship, and who bids fair to make his mark in the line of his profession.

She is, we believe, designed principally for the coal trade, but so constructed, that she can be profitably employed, as occasion may require, in the trade to the West Indies and the Gulf, and she will carry, perhaps, about 250 tons of the black diamonds, which bring more thrift and comfort to Jersey households, than the more brilliant diamonds of Golconda, to the sunny homes of Hindoos F. For the West Jersey Pioneer. The Camp Meeting at Porch's.

MR. EDITOR: - We left our "Cumberland Hills" week before last, and paid a visit to old Gloucester, to attend the camp meeting large bells crowded up, and chrew their fists somewhat waning). A goodly number of very neat and comfortable tents had been erected: the ground well adapted to the purpose, with plenty of good water. Rev. W. E. Perry, the learned and indefatigable Presiding Elder of Bridgeton district, rendered very efficient aid, and won the applause of preaching talent. We noticed in and about the preacher's stand. Revs. Summerill, Heisler, King, Duffell, Post, Hugg, Wheeler, Johnston, Corson, Atwood, Waters, Reeves, Morell, Connelly, Daniels, Barnhart, Hudson, Norris, Tucker, and others. The preaching, generally, was "in demonstration of the spirit, and with power." The number of many a shout of praise ascended from happy Bible. hearts and unscaled lips. When we left the encambment, cries for "mercy" were heard. and prayer was being offered, many having them repeatedly; and in this time had furrepaired to the Millville tent, after the clos- nished them by sale with 112,000 volumes, ing exercises at the stand. The number or $14,000 worth, and distributed graduit computed to be present on Friday, was from five to six thousand. May the camp meeting spirit never dic. Yours,

Resuscitation of Hicks the Pirate.

There has been a report published in some papers, stating that Hicks, who was executed on Bedloe's Island on the 13th of July last, for piracy, is still living; that he was only pulled up a distance of two and a half feet, utterly insufficient to break his neck, and that he was allowed bath was restored to a state of consciousness .- Seven colporteurs, during their connection The N. Y. Tribune comments as follows:

"In relation to this report it may be added. heard, or know anything of such a resuscitation. The statement is untrue in regard to the height to which the body was jerked from the ground. The distance was nearly five feet. The time of suspension was thirty minutes. No doubt the story is a shameful hoax."

JUDGE CLAWSON RETURNED.-We are gratified to be able to inform the many riends of Judge Clawson that he reached his home at Woodstown on Saturday last very much recruited in health. His color has in a measure returned, and he says he feels better. The Judge has been absent about six months, during which time he visited the Southern sca-board States and Cuba, from thence he proceeded to New Orleans and ascended the Mississippi, spend ing some time in the Northwest, and returned by way of Niagara. He was accompanied by his wife throughout the entire trip He will resume the duties of the Judge ship, and preside at the next term of Cape May Courts .- Standard.

As Tom Sayers was recently driving along the Holloway road, near London, the wheel of his chaise came in contact with that of a cart, whose driver put his whip across Tom's shoulders. This was too much for the champion: he alighted and prompty hauled the carman from his cart. The Jarvey rejoined by felling Tom to the ground. Hereuron the bystanders, recognizing Sayers, shouted: "Halloo, Tom, you have got hold of ARRIVAL OF CAMELS. -The schooner Caroline E. Foot has arrived at San Francisco from the Amoor river with fifteen Tartar camels, (two humped) to be used in transporting goods in Utah. Eight'of them are males and seven females. There were thirty-two of them, but seventeen of them died last winter while they were frozen fast in the Amoor. Since getting to sea they have done well. They are large, healthy, hardy animals, capable of carrying one thousand pounds each, and are excellently suited to the business of packing.

John B. Gough gave his last temperence lecture in Liverpool, England, on Friday night, Aug 10th. He is expected to arrive here shortly.

During his stay in England he has delivered 399 addresses, averaging four orations a week and addressed to at least 500,000 hearers, of whom about 12,000 have signed the pledge of total abstinence. At his departure an address was presented to Mr. Gough, signed by divers members of Parliament, and some 280 other gentlemen.

WOLFE'S PURE COGNAC BRANDY. WOLFE'S PURE MADEIRA, SHERRY AND PORT WINE. WOLFE'S PURE JANAICA AND ST. CROIX RUM. Wolfe's Pure Scoron and Irish Whisky.

ALL IN BOTTLES.

No. Fe's Pure Scorch and Irish Whirey.

ALL IN BOTTLES.

I beg leave to call the attention of the citizens of the United States to the above Wines and Liquors, imported by Udolpho Wolfe, of New York, whose dame is familiar in every part of this country for the purity of his celebrated Schiedam Schanpps. Mr. Wolfe, in his lotter to me, speaking of the purity of his Wines and Liquors, says. "I will stake my reputation as a man, my standing as a merchant of thirty years' residence in the City of New York, that all the Brandy and Wines which I bottle are pure as imported, and of the best quality, and can be relied upon by every purchaser." Every bottle has the proprietor's name on the wax, and a fac simile of his signature on the certificate. The public are respectfully invited to cail and examine for themselves. For sale at Retail by all Apothecaries and Grocers in Philadelphia.

Messus, John Wilcox & Co... Your "Inpectine," or "Persian Fever Charm," has done wonders. I was wholly despondent and wretched when I applied it, and in five hours the chills were removed and no fever has ensued. It is the simplest cure imaginable, and a wonder of nature or at. I would not be without this "inpectine," a single hour. By constantly wearing it I seem to be "ague proof.

Yours Very Truly, E. M. STOUT.

Mosile, Alsaama, July 22d, 1860.

Gontlemen:—I have been snatched from the grave by the application of your wonderful "Inpectine," or "Persian Fever Charm." For several years I have suffered every season from fever and ague. Last Spring my life was threatened, but your remedy has destroyed the disease, and I am rapidly gaining an appetite and strength.

Respectfully, Yours,

WE cannot speak too highly of this TAR CORDIAL as a cure for Consumption. Many persons, once poor and emaciated can testify that when everything elso fulled, and they were just feady to step into the grave, a new light sprang up—they heard of the FOREST PINE TAR CORDIAL. and its wonderful cures—and as the strong man, grappling with the mighty-waves, lays hold of every object that offers a shadow of assistance, they took the Tar Cordial, and were restored to perfect health. To the Consumptive, then, we say, take courage; the Forest Pine Tar Cordial has cured as hopeless cases as yours—it may cure you, at least do not despair until you have given it a fair trial.

Read the following:

CAUTION. The success att-inding the sale of the Forest Pine Tar-Cordial, and the wonderful cures performed by it, have induced others to imitate and make an inferior article, so as to imose upon the public, and induce the unwary to believe that in purchasing said Medicines, they were getting our celebrated and wonderful. Forest Pine Tar Cordial. Therefore, to protect the public against all such spurious articles, they have had the words "FOREST PINE TAR CORDIAL the Great Cure for Consumption, Bronchitis, &c." and their name, "MANDERSON & CO.," blown on each of the bottles, which are of darkgreen glass—mone genuine without those words on.—Remember, we have no confection with any Ppreparation of Tar but this.

BAUGH RAW BONE SUPER-PHOSPHATE OF LIME, Manufactured from Unburnt Bones by BAUGH & SONS.

Wholesale Office and Store.

No. 20 South Wharves, Between Market and Chestnut Streets, PHILADEL PHIA.

A liberal discount made to dealers. A liberal discount made to dealers.

In the preparation of this Valuable Manure, BONES ARE USED IN THEIR RAW STATE ONLY. They have never been boiled on calcined. They are taken as nature has made them, crushed with powerful machinery, and subjected to a process, by which, while all the virtue of the Bone is retained, a Fertilizer is procured, furnishing in a concentrated and soluble form the two indispensable ingredients for the growth of Plants and enriching the soil, viz.: phosphoric acid and amonia. These two ingredients, by the use of "BAUGH'S RAW BONE SUPER-PHOSPHATE," are given to the soil in all their original strength and parity. They assimilate at once with the soil, turnish all the needful Ammonia for the growing crop, giving it ample luxuriance, and leave the land permanently benefitted so that its presence can be traced for years afterwards.

years afterwards. Card. The steadily increasing demand which has followed the introduction of our Raw Bone Super-Phosphate of Lime Raw Bone Super-Phosphate of Lime is a marked proof that the Farmer and Planter are beginning to appreciate the value of such Fertilizers, as not only produce the first crop but also permanently improve the soil; and on this point we have abundant eridence from the set who prefer its use to that of Peruvian Guano. Since the introduction of our article we have continually desired to furnish a Manure combining ALL the important constituents of Raw Bones, and we have accomplished this by a process originating with, and used only by, ourselves.

Boston, March 7th, 1859.

I have made a chemical analysis of commercial samples of Chesnut Grove Whiskey, which proves to be free from the heavy Fusil Oils, and rerfectly pure and unadulterated. The fine flavor of this Whiskey is derived from the Grain used in manufacturing it. Respectfully,

FEATHERS! For sale at ELI SAYRE'S Cabinet Wareroom, West of the Bridge, Scuth side. (Oct. 15, 1859.)

INPECTINE, THE PERSIAN FEVER CHARM.

THE PERSIAN FEVER CHARM.

For the pre-ention and cure of Fever and Ague and Billious Fevers. This wonderful remedy was brought to the knowledge of the present proprietors by a friend who has been a great traveler in Persia and the Holy Land.

While going down the river Euphrates, he experienced a severe attack of Fever and Ague. On discovering his condition, one of the Boatmen took from his person an Amulet, saying, "Wear this and no Fever will touch yeu." Although incredulous as to its virtues, he complied, and experienced immediate relief, and has since always found it an effectual protection from all malarious compliants.

On further investigation he found that the boatman attributed to it miraculous powers, and said that it could only be obtained from the Priests of the Sun. Sometime afterward, the gentlemen in conversing with a Priest, obtained from him the searet of its preparation, and ascertained where the medicinal herbs were found, o' which it was compounded. The wonderful virtues of this switcle have induced a full belief in the minds of the natives in the miraculous healing powers of their Priests.

Since his return to America, it has been tried with the happrest effect by several Ladies and Gentlemen of high character, who have given it the most unqualified praise. This remedy having been a specific in Persia for hundreds of years, for the prevention and cure of Fever and Ague and Blitous Fevers—is now offered to the American people.

It will be sent by mail, prepaid, with full directions for use, on receipt of one dollar.
