THE DREAMER AND THE WORKER. BY MISS ELLEN KNIGHT.

See the Dreamer in his life-boat!

Idle oars are at his side, And his bark is rising, falling, On the deep and silent tide. Venturing not beyond the harbor-Breasting not the storms of life-Shrinking from its care and danger, And its spirit-trying strife.

See the soul bowed low in sadness, Burdened with a weight of woe, Sighing for the dear departed, Or the joys of long ago. During all that Dreamer's lifetime,

Through those years so long and brigh He has never cheered a brother In the path of truth and right.

Days and months are softly gliding While he floats in silence there, And the eventide will follow. Though the day be ne'er so fair. Soon that spirit will go homeward, Summoned by life's vesper chime. Leaving not the faintest impress

On the shining shores of time. See the Worker in his life-boat! Dashing o'er the billowy sea, Hend erect, and form dilateu

With a noble energy. There's a soul within that casket, Radiant from the hand on high; And a brave determination In that glory-lighted eye.

Onward! on he nobly dashes O'er the tide before him spread, Yet not reckless he, nor careless, But by caution's lamp is led. Thus the bright, unwavering radiance

Of his stendy beacon-light, Guides the souls of many wanderers Back into the way of right. When the shadows of the evening Round his pathway cast their gloom, When the day of life is closing,

And the angel whispers "Come!" He will go with joy and gladness; But his light is on the sea, And that light will still grow brighter In the ages yet to be. Dover, Cuyahoga County, Ohio.

HUMOROUS.

A Yankee went out walking, in Virginia, t Wheeling, while to himself a ta'king, experienced a feeling, strange, painful and alarmin', from his caput to his knees; he suddenly discovered he was covered with bees. They rested on his eye-lids, and perchhis ears, they crawled up his "trousers," filled his eyes with tears. Did he yell like a byena? Did he holler like a loon? Was he scart, and did he "cut and run?" or did the critter swoon? Nary onc. He wasn't scared a mite: he never swoons - or hollers; but he hived them in a nail keg tight, and sold them for two dollars.

"So you are going to keep house, are you?" said an elderly maiden to a newly married feminine.

"Yes," she replied "Going to have a girl. I suppose?" was aueried.

The newly made wife colored deeply, and then quietly responded that -she really did not know whether it would be a girl or a

Stewart ceed $800,000, of which he now, and ever the profits exceed $800,000, of which he now exceed $800,000, of which he now exceed $800,000, of wh was in his glory He bought all, conveyed them up to h s little store, and as he was veed upon his nose; they colonized his peaked ry expert in redressing up gloves, laces, hoface, and swarmed upon his clothes. They siery, &c., he would soon make his sample lots equal to the original goods before they had been mussed at the auction sales. . Then followed the patient, humble, little tradesman He could undersell anybody in that trade, of course, and ladies of fashion were not long in finding out that fact. In this modest way he worked along, slowly but surely, from 1822 to 1828. Then he found his business greatly increased. He was the best judge of laces in New York, and he sold the best at the lowest prices.—lower than the great dealers, Fountain & Co., and Vandervelt and Flandan. Stewart, by practicing economy, industry and absolute devotion to his profession and business, son came alongside of his great and sometimes overbearing rivals. He was humble, attentive, sold very cheap, and the best of goods. He neither tried on dodges or gouges. He was regarded as a worthy young beginner, and very soon the tashionable Misses Mason, Jones, Jay, Prime, Hones, Gracie, Crosby, Stuyvesant, and others of their set, became his constant patrons, and he soon kad all

SOUTHERNER AT HOME, Embracing five years experience of a Northern Goversess, in the land of Sugar, Rice, Tobacco and Cotton. Edited by Professor J. H. INGRAHAM, of Miss.

Handsomely bound in one volume, 12 mo., 526 puges Price, $1 25.

Literary notices from the Press throughout the Country. The Sunny Souris.—"This book is composed of a series of letters, written in an interesting style of a narrative, embodying the most romantic features of social life on different kinds of plantations. We can bear testimony, from our own personal observation of similar scenes in the South, to their truthfulness as here depicted. They are portrayed in a vivid. interesting style, and we would like to see the book in the hands of thousands of deceived people, who have up personal knowledge either of Southerners or Southern life, except what they have gained from partizan journals, or those who intentionally have written to deceive."—Daily Republic, Buffalo, New York.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.—"This volume is in the form of letters. They give, so far as we can judge, faithful pictures of Southern life, and are penned without prejudice.—They present scenes quite different from an "Uncle Tom"? Calon". The pictures presented here are quite graphic, and we think the portraits painted are in very nearly natural colors.—Boston Daily Bee.

natural colors.—Boston Daily Bee.

The Sunny South—"We have rarely peeped within the covers of a more appetizing volume. Although not intended as an answer to the foul untruths in the Unele Tom trash of the last ten years, it nevertheless does unmercifully hurl back to their source all lies of such a nature, and we are glad to believe that the book will be read in thousands of northern homes. The South also should take to it benignantly; for independent of its truthfulness and integrity, it is one of the livelicat and most entertaining books of the year."—Times, Grænsboro', N. C.

The Sunny South.—The enterprising publisher, G. G. Evans, Philadelphin, of Giff Book. Notoriety, is weekly issuing new works of interest, and spreading them over the country, and his system of transacting business may be looked upon'as an institution, for diffusing knowledge, unequalled by any in the country. We commend this book to all."—Daily News.

The Sunny South.—This is a captivating volume.

The Sunry Sourh.—This is a captivating volume strongly illustrative of Southern life. The heart of the authoress is with her theme, and she carries the interest of the reader along with her, as she, in her amusing off hand style, delineates the peculiarities of a Southern home."—Press. home."—Press.

The Sunny South —"Whatever hears the name of Prof Ingraham, is sure to involve the elements of atriking effect and a wide popular currency; and this is just the case with "The Siunny South, or the Southerner at Home," which appears from the press of G. Evans, under the editorship of the graphic Professor. It is vivid in style keenly observant, interesting in plot, and in purpose and manner it obviously, springs from a warm heart, and will be as warmly welcomed by a host of readers."—The New Yorker.

H. F. HOOVER respectfully informs his customers of Bridgeton, and the people of Camberland county, in want of Furniture, that they will find it greatly to their advantage to purchase at his Warchouse, where they will find a large stock of the modern styles to select from. The subscriber begs to say that his facilities for manufacturing, and buying his materials for each—and having no apprentices, but employing the best workmen—enables but to offer great inducements to those in want of really good Furniture at low pieces, as he much prefers the "muchle sixpence" to the "slow shilling." All goods bought at his Warchouse will be warranted, and if intended for the country, will be packed with care and dispatched.

WEST JERSEY WOOLEN FACTORIES.

THE subscribers would direct the attention of farmers and others to their increased facilities for manufacturing superior WOOLEN GOODS, such as Satinetts, Cloths, Blankets, Horse Blankets, Flannels, Stocking and Carpet Yarn. We manufacture a durable article, of the best quality, and at low prices. We guarantee our goods not only to be equal to the imported in texture, but to stand hard wear much better. Mechanics and laboring men generally would find it to their advantage to purchase of us, instead of wearing foreign goods which will do them no adequate service.

We will pay the highest market prices for WOOL, which can be sent to our Factory at Bridgeton, or Allowaystown, and there manufactured to order, or cashpaid. Also, all wool left with Daniel Sheppard, agent at Greenwich, will be promptly attended to.

We do not buy up this staple on speculation, and therefore, whilst paying

Cash for Wool, at the highest rates, we insist that a preference should be freely extended to home manufacturers, and claim that, since no loss is incurred, we should have a priority among wool growers, or those who have averaged to sell. FARMERS LOOK TO YOUR INTEREST: C. ALBERTSON'S NEW STORE.

ALL IN BOTTLES.

I beg leave to call the attention of the citizens of the United States to the above Wixes and Liquous, imported by Udolpho Wolfe, of New York, whose name is familiar in every part of this country for the purity of his celebrated Schiedum Schnapps. Mr. Wolfe, in his letter to me, speaking of the purity of his Wines and Liquors, says. "I will stake my reputation as a man, my standing as a merchant of thirty years' residence in the City of New York, that all the Brandy and Wines which I bottle are pure as imported, and of the best quality, and can be relied upon by every purchaser." Every bottle has the proprietor's name on the wax, and a fao simile of his signature on the certificate. The public are respectfully insided to call and examine for themselves. INPECTINE, THE PERSIAN FEVER CHARM.

THE PERSIAN FEVER CHARM.

For the presention and cure of Fever and Ague and Billious Fevers. This wonderful remedy was brought to the knowledge of the present proprietors by a friend who has been a great traveler in Persia and the Holy Land.

While going down the riger Euphrates, he experienced a severe attack of Fever and Ague. On discovering his condition. One of the Boatmen took from his person an Amulet, saying, "Wear this and no Fever will touch you." Although incredulous as to its virtues, he complied, and experienced immediate relief, and has since always found it an effectual protection from all malarious complaints.

On further investigation he found that the boatman attributed to it miraculous powers, and said that it could only be obtained from the Priests of the Sun. Sometime afterward, the gontlemen in cenversing with a Priest, obtained from him the secret of its preparation, and ascertained where the medicinal herbs were found, o which it was compounded. The wonderful virtues of this ritcle have induced a full belief in the minds of the natives in the miraculous healing powers of their Priests.

Since his return to America: it has been tried with Priests.

Since his return to America: it has been tried with the happiest effect by several Ladies and Gontlemen of high character, who have given it the most unqualified praise. This remedy having been a specific in Persia for hundreds of yespe for the prevention and cure of Fever and Ague and Bilious Fevers—is now offered to the American people.

It will be sent by mail, prepaid, with full directions for use, on receipt of one dollar.
