The Pioneer.

Bridgeton, Nov. 10, 1860.

THE PIONEER HAS A LARGER CIRCULATION THAN ANY COUNTY PAPER IN THIS STATE.

ONLY $1.00 PER YEAR!

JAMES B. FERGUSON,
GEORGE E. TOMLINSON, Editors.

Grand Parade and Illumination!!!

The Wide Awakes of Bridgeton will parade in full array, with banners, transparencies, &c. During the march, speeches will be given.

The grand review will be a affair of the campaign.

A general invitation is extended to the surrounding country to be present and participate in celebrating its political birth-day.

It is particularly requested that all persons favoring his cause, will illuminate their houses during the night.

Our brethren, the Wide Awakes of Millville and Union, will be present.

By Order of the Committee.

The rain-storm on Saturday last was one of the heaviest experienced in this part of the country for a long time. Very seldom does such a depth of water fall, in the space of nine hours, as did upon that day. Many farms have suffered a good deal in consequences of the wash, while the roads in many places are gullied so much that quite an amount of labor will have to be performed before they will be restored to their former condition.

New Jersey Sunday School Association.

The Annual Meeting of the New Jersey Sunday School Association will assemble in the First Reformed Dutch Church, Market Street, in the City of Newark, on Wednesday, November 14th, at 2 o'clock, P. M.

Each Evangelical School in the State is requested to send two or more delegates, male or female, to the Annual Meeting.

Pastors, Officers and Teachers, throughout the State, are invited to be present and participate in the deliberations of the Association.

What beautiful Fall Weather we have had.

Our climate in winter, in consequence of the prevalent dampness and chilly winds coincident with a situation so near the sea coast as ours, may not be so pleasant as a more southern or even a more northern latitude; but our Fall are certainly delightful. The genius of Washington Irving has made the pleasant Indian summer days of New York known as far as his works have gone; and, although no poet has sung nor historian recorded the praises of our own Autumn days, still in our humble opinion founded upon experience, there is nothing in the pleasantness of a New York, or New England Autumn that begins to equal the glorious beauty or the genial mildness of Autumn in eastern South Jersey. We do not occasionally enjoy a day or two of fine, m'l weather only to feel the contrast of the succeeding cold the more keenly; as is the case further North, but for day after day and sometimes for a series of weeks we enjoy the mild, beautiful weather such as that with which we have been favored for the last weeks. Again and again have we heard Northerners who were here on a visit express their surprise at and admiration of the climate which brought with Fall not the melancholy days, the sadness of the year, but pleasant, sunny days, when we drink in joy with almost every inspiration, when the heart feels glad and the body strong. But we cannot reasonably expect a much longer continuance of such pleasant weather. Winter will soon be with us. The last lingering leaf will soon fall from the forest tree and join its fallen comrades as they go driven about by the moaning wind. The balmy breeze will return to the warm chambers of the South and the rude North-wind will whistle around our dwellings and drive the whirling snow across the plain. The smoke will no longer go floating out in our hazy atmosphere, but arising from the chimney in beautiful wreaths will curl over frozen hills, while ice-bound ponds and encrusted woods will feel the rigorous sway of winter. In the great laboratory of Nature the most wonderful changes are constantly going on and forms of wonderous beauty continually evolved, unappreciated by us in consequence of our familiarity with them. Very truly has a gifted poet remarked in pursuing this train of thought:

"The leaves fall around our path, but if our watchful eyes can find familiar forms and signs of lively grace."

The Blacksmith that lives out there at Heli Columbia is a great hand at shooting horses. We saw him shooting Jones, horse the other day—the one that Jones the little man bought some time ago, and had to tell all about it in the paper—and he put on four or five shots in less than some time. Now Mr. Smith is not only a good blacksmith, but is a pretty good horse jockey too—a reason we mean—that was a slip of the tongue—but the pin we mean. Seems as if we can't write right anyhow. Well, what we should have said if we hadn't been interrupted was, that Mr. Smith, the blacksmith, being a good horseman, understands the point—the feet we mean—of a horse, and consequently knows just how to put on a shoe. We think he knows all about it, and he thinks he does too, or ought to, for he says he learned it of Mr. George Pierson. The next time Jones wants his horse shod, Mr. Smith, the blacksmith is going to do it for nothing—that is if he don't say anything about it.

THE FOUNTAIN HOUSE—This deservedly popular hotel, No. 37 and 39 North Second Street, Philadelphia, is growing in favor with Jerseymen as they become better acquainted with Mr. Fountain, the urban and courteous proprietor, and his affable clerks and attendants. This house is desirable as a place of rest on account of its quiet location, assuring rest to weary country sojourners.

The result of the stay of the Fountain House is good stability, capable of accomodating horses in the best manner, offering additional inducements to those who drive their own teams to the city. A single day at this hotel will satisfy any one of the truths herein contained—Standard.

The Republican Coroners are elected.

In Maurice River, Nixon has 38 majority, Dowdney 41 and Sheppard 40.

THE ELECTION.

Above we give returns of the vote in this County as they were furnished on the night of the election. The official vote will not materially differ with it. It will be seen that all of the Republican candidates have been elected. The vote is much larger than usual.

Considerable enthusiasm prevailed during the day among all parties, and throughout the night, after the returns came in the victorious party had a general jubilee. Hon. Jas' G. Hampton, and John S. Mitchell, Esq., addressed the multitude in front of the Clerk's Office. The cheering was heard two miles distant. On Wednesday morning our town assumed its usual quiet in the evening the cannon was brought out and repeatedly fired in honor of the Republican victory.

DETROIT, Nov. 6 11 o'clock, P. M.—This State is claimed by the Republicans with 22,000 majority.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 6.—Partial returns from about a dozen counties of this State show large Republican gains of from two to three hundred for each county. Lincoln will probably have 30,000 majority.

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—Seven wards of this city give a Lincoln majority of 1,930, being a Republican gain of 1,370.

FOUR towns of Northern Illinois show a Republican gain of 1,200.

DETROIT, Nov. 6.—The Republicans and the Democrats are the Legislature and State by 15,000 majority.

RHODE ISLAND.

Eleven towns give Lincoln 2,473; Douglas 1,691.

Gloucester Co. has gone for Nixon by nearly 500 majority. The whole Republican Ticket is elected.

Cape May Co. has gone for Nixon by about 134 majority. The whole Republican Ticket is elected.

Camden Co. has gone for Leaming with about 270 majority. The Republican Ticket is elected, with the exception of one Assemblyman.

Atlantic Co. gives Nixon about 280 majority. The Republican Ticket is elected.

TRINITY, Nov. 7.—In the Fifth Congressional District, Mr. Pease (Dem.) is supposed to be elected for the Legislature.

The following Congressmen are elected:

1st District.—John T. Nixon, Republican.
2d.—John L. Stratton, Republican.
3d.—Steele, Democrat.
4th.—Cobb, Democrat.
5th.—Perry, Democrat, (a gain).

The following States are undoubtedly carried by Lincoln:

ELECTORAL VOTES.

Maine. 8 | Pennsylvania. 27
New Hampshire. 5 | Ohio. 23
Vermont. 5 | Illinois. 11
Massachusetts. 13 | Indiana. 13
Connecticut. 6 | Iowa. 4
Rhode Is'and. 4 | Michigan. 6
New York. 85 | Minnesota. 4
New Jersey. 7 | Wisconsin. 5

Total. 176

Necessary to a choice, 152.

Mr. Breckinridge has carried Delaware, Maryland and North Carolina, as far as heard from.

Mr. Bell has carried Virginia.

The result in Philadelphia city is a pluralty of 41,662 votes, and a majority of all the combined opposition.

The majority in the State will be much larger for Lincoln than for Curtiss.

NEW YORK.

From present appearances the city gives the Fusion ticket 25,000 majority, and Lincoln carries the State.

Maine and New Hampshire.

The Republicans have swept Maine, New Hampshire and Connecticut.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

130 towns give Lincoln 27,443; Douglas, 18,314; Breckinridge, 1,511; Bell, 809.—Lincoln's plurality will reach 10,000.

VERMONT.

MONTPELIER, VT.—Vermont has gone for Lincoln from 25,000 to 30,000 majority.

MASSACHUSETTS.

BOSTON, Nov. 6.—In the fifth Congressional District, Burlingame (Rep) for Congress, is defeated by Appleton, the Union candidate.

The Fourth District, Rice (Rep) is elected.

The Republicans have carried every Congressional District in Massachusetts, except the Fifth, in which Burlingame is defeated.

One hundred towns in Massachusetts give 14,000 Republican majority over all.

One hundred and forty-nine towns not including Boston, give Lincoln 53,299, Douglas, 16,724; Breckinridge, 3,107.

Lincoln's plurality is probably 70,000.

The Republican candidates for Governor and Auditor are elected.

The Legislature is largely Republican.

Hartford city gives Lincoln 276 majority.

In six towns, including Hartford, there is a Republican gain over last Spring, of 1015.

Lincoln's majority in the State will be several thousand.

Norwich gives Lincoln 1,257; Douglas, 805; Breckinridge, 72; Bell, 35.

Connecticut seven towns give Lincoln 2100; Breckinridge 1,237; Douglas, 542; Bell, 71.

INDIANA.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 7, 1 A. M.—The indications are that Lincoln's plurality is from 25,000 to 30,000, to 1,000.

MARYLAND.

It is now rendered probable that Bell has carried the State.

cation answered that very question satisfactorily to every comprehensive mind.

My explanation is this; that while admitting the system of Slavery to be inhuman, unchristian and barbarous, as a national evil it can properly be the subject of national legislation only. Unhappily the efforts of the wisest and best of our nation are unavailable in its eradication, and therefore we are bound to accord constitutional rights to an institution recognized as national. One of the rights guaranteed the South is that of the Fugitive Slave Law, and I am not aware that any responsible Republican organization have ever repudiated that fact. Now for the evidence, the central clause of the 3d section of the Republican platform, endorsed by the Republicans at Chicago, reads as follows: "That as our Republican Fathers, when they had abolished slavery in all our National territory, ordained that no person should be deprived of Life, Liberty or property without due process of Law," it becomes our duty by legislation, whenever such legislation is necessary, to maintain this provision of the Constitution against all attempts to violate it." &c. This much clearly proves that by a "due process of Law," an individual may be deprived of Liberty, &c. Again, in a speech delivered at Freeport, in 1858, by Mr. Lincoln, he said: "I have never hesitated to say, and I do not now hesitate to say that I think, under the Constitution of the United States, the people of the Southern States are entitled to a Congressional Fugitive Slave Law." Having said that I have nothing further to say in regard to the existing Fugitive Slave Law, further than I think it should have been framed so as to be free from some of the objections which pertain to it without lessening its efficiency."—Compare this and the following with Mr. Sheppard's idiotism when he says "those who prize above all else, the right of self-government, will be compelled to submit to a blackguard like Bell, and to a scoundrel like Breckinridge."

MISSOURI.

Douglas has probably carried the State.

DELAWARE.

WILMINGTON, Nov. 6.—The city will be Republican by about 200 majority and the State for Breckinridge by 1,500 majority.

KENTUCKY.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 6.—The Bell and Douglass men give Kentucky to Bell by from 10,000 to 15,000 majority.

MICHIGAN.

DETROIT, Nov. 6 11 o'clock, P. M.—This State is claimed by the Republicans with 22,000 majority.

OHIO.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 6.—Partial returns from about a dozen counties of this State show large Republican gains of from two to three hundred for each county. Lincoln will probably have 30,000 majority.

ILLINOIS.

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—Seven wards of this city give a Lincoln majority of 1,930, being a Republican gain of 1,370.

ILLINOIS.

SPRINGFIELD, Nov. 6.—The Republicans and the Democrats are the Legislature and State by 15,000 majority.
