OLD IRONSIDES. Com. Stewart and John C. Calhoun.

A Remarkable Reminiscence. BORDENTOWN, May 4th, 1861. My DEAR SIR:-Agreeable to your request, I now furnish you with the reminisences of a conversation that passed between Mr. John C. Calhoun and myself, in the latter part of December, 1812, after the Declaration of War by the Congress of the United States against Great Britain, on the 18th of the June previous. On the assembling of Congress, in the early part of December, I found that an important portion of the leading Democratic members of Congress had taken up their quarters at Mrs. Bushby's boarding house; amongst whom was Mr. Calhoun, a new member from South Carolina-and, I believe, this was his first appearance in the House of Representatives. In consequence of this, I and Lieutenant Ridgley—my confidential officer, and the First Lieutenant of have no disposition to "bury my light under the frigate Constellation, of which vessel I then held the command, and was preparing for sea at the Washington Navy Yard -left our lodgings at Strothers, and obtained board at Mrs. Bushby's with them. Ridgley was a witty and able talker, who could aid me in demonstrating the necessity for, and the high policy of, a formidable naval force wherewith to carry on the war with England, which I considered could only be done with effect through her being victoriously struck at on an element over which she deemed herself sole mistress. This appeared to me to constitute her most tender

By this movement, I found myself judiciously located to enable me to urge upon Congress any patriotic measures which seemed best calculated to meet and discomfit the self-sufficiency and arrogance of our oppressive enemy. Mr. Calhoun's age, I thought, approximated my own, which was then thirty-four, and he being a man of the highest order of talent, and representing a State in our Union which scarcely ever permitted themselves to be represented by inferior ability in the National Councils, I could not have commenced my object with one more fitted for the purery town for marksmanship on the coming pose I had in view. He was also a highminded and honorable man, kind and friendly, as well as open and confiding, to those Agreeing entirely with your correspond- he deemed worthy. With this latter secmedium of war, ought to meet their highest approbation, and call for their greatest ef-

COMMODORE STEWART. Commodore Charles Stewart was born in 778, entered the navy in 1798, and became captain in 1806, his only promotion in 63 years. In 1800, during the French war, he ought three engagements against superior forces, and in each instance captured his adversary. He also re-took four captured American vessels. In 1801, during the war with Tripoli, he took a vessel of 14 guns. A Thrilling Incident.

The Harrisburg Union says that one of the most thrilling incidents connected with the military operations of the day took place at Camp Curtin, on Saturday afternoon. A number of persons were engaged in raising the Stars and Stripes over the main build-1310 ing, used as the headquarters of the officers, From this we see that property in forts and just as everything was in readiness, and ble bird looked down, the cheers of three thousand men rent the air! Never was such ovation paid the "Imperial Bird of Jove." It lingered for a few minutes, apparently not a particle frightened at the terrible noise -then cleaving the air with his pinions he disappeared in the horizon. In the days of the Roman Republic this would have been looked upon as a glorious omen, and we do not see why we should not look upon it as such now. Never was an incident looked upon with more favor. It sent a patriotic thrill through every heart that witnessed it, and every man seemed to be animated with the deepest feeling of patriotism and devotion to the flag of our Union.

The South will now be made to know what the "lawful tap of the drum" means at the North-that it means an uprising, as one man, of 20,000,000 of people, and the outpouring of millions of treasure to maintain A beam of heavenly joy glanced in the and defend constitutional government established by the fathers of the republic, and under which we have lived and prospered for more than seventy years. A person had occasion, recently, for the pain extracting services of a corn doctor, and while the operation was going on, the talk turned on the state of the times. "Business with me is remarkably dull," remarked the Doctor. "You don't say that the Southern troubles affect your business?" said the patient. "Indeed I do," rejoined the Doctor. "But, really, you don't say that people, to avoid paying twenty-five or fifty cents, will suffer the pain of their corns?"— "No," replied the Doctor, "but the times make people wear their old boots and shoes, and they don't have any corns."

A wealthy Quaker merchant in New York has lately had in his employ a stout, healthy. able-bodied young man, without family, who he thought could serve his country to advantage, and he accordingly addressed him thus few days ago:

THE PIONEER HAS A LARGER CIR-CULATION THAN ANY COUNTY

PAPER IN THIS STATE.

Only $1.00 per Year!

JAMES B. FERGUSON, Editor. Persons wishing advertisements inserted in the Pioneer, will please hand them in as early in the week as convenient. We commence printing on Thursday evenings, and are generally hurried several hours previous in getting up the latest news. Several advertisements are laid over this week, among which is that of Mr. Enoch Hanthorn. Several of our subscribers have lately complained about the Fioneers not being in their proper place, when called for at the stores and other places where they are sent. We can assure any who miss the Pioneer in that way, it is not often our fault. The full number of papers are sent regularly. We do know, however, that there is a class of newspaper borrowers, who never think of returning them. Some would eal, them newspaper thieves. If, when they are detected, some one will send us their names, we will send them a copy regularly free, or publish them in our Black List, which is soon to appear again in the Pioneer with some names not heretofore published.

On Sunday evening last, Rev. Mr. Brown, of the Baptist Church of this town, preached an able and interesting sermon, the Cumberland Greys being present by request. The church was crowded to its utmost capacity.

Rev. Mr. Graw, of the Trinity M. E. Church preached to them on Sunday evening previous. We have heard his sermon spoken of as very interesting and appropriate.

The attention of teachers, and others interested in the cause of education, is called to the notice, in another column, of the Institute for this County, to assemble at Cedarville on the tendance. We can assure our teacher friends who attend the Institute, that they will be well provided for by the people of Ceds wille.

In glancing over the Minutes of the "Cumberland Greys," whie', the Secretary kindly permitted us to do, we noticed the following interesting item, whis n proves that the members of the Company are not wholly lost to the charms of the fair sex:

7½ P. M.—The company met, were formed in to squads, and drilled in the musket exercise till the hour for dismis ing. Several young ladies The distribution had the approbation and co-opgraced the drill room with their presence, which added interest to the occasion."

Last week, by invitation, we visited the head quarters of "Cumberland Greys;" while present, a barrel of Golden Russets was brought in by some of the Company. The head was soon desplaced, and the "Greys" arranged in single file in "less than no time," for the purpose of helping themselves as they marched by the barrel. Before proceeding far, one of them "acci dentally on purpose," we suppose, capsized the pressed gratification. The books will doubtless barrel. In the twinkling of an eye the ranks were I roken, and such a pile of humanity scrambling after apples we never saw. They were lit. in the name of the Bible Society of the County erally liled up without much system. No bones from which each Company came, and which it is last Saturday. She left very quietly at 2 o'clock enter upon regular drill, while carrying on liant contributions to American literature three companies, resulting in the death of with both hands full, which they generously handel around to their friends and companions. We pity the secessionist who falls into the hands of those fellows.

Godey's Lady's Book for June has made its appearance on our table. A steel engraving of "The Disdainful Maiden" is a splendid affair. The double extension colored Fashion Plate is unsurpassable. Other departments of the work are of the highest order.

The Philadelphia and Cape Island Tele graph line has just been put in working order by direction of Governor Olden. It is to remain under control of the State until the first of July, when it passes into the hands of the company .-Mr. B. Miller, of Cape May Co., has supervision of the line, and through his promptness in comready for communication in a few days. Our a credit to the town and State, and, if needed. citizens will be gratified to learn that by next week, probably, the station in this town will be ready for transmitting messages of a public or private character. Mr. G. W. Johnson of this town has been appointed operator, and we can assure the public that it will be faithfully attended to by him. The stations between Philadelphia and Cape Island are as follows: Camden, Woodstown, Salem, Bridgeton, Millville and Dennisville.

On Tuesday evening last, a crowd of about 50, principally boys, assembled around the residence of a citizen of this town, for the purpose of punishing him for making use of (as they understood) treasonable sentiments. We do not pretend to justify treason in any form, but while we profess to be law abiding citizens, let us look to the laws for redress, and not encourage lawless rowdyism.

Flag Raising.

On Saturday afternoon last, a splendid flag 18 feet by 11, was raised on the Millville Public School House. The flag was purchased by the pupils of the school, and made by the teachers, Miss Annie Colvin and Miss Sallie Stratton. 1t was drawn up by Asbury Chester, Esq., one of the trustees of the school, amidst vociferous cheering, and enlivening strains of martial music; after which very able, appropriate, and patriotic addresses were made by Rev. J. Vansant, Rev. N. McConaughy and Dr. E. B. Richmond; the ceremony concluding with singing the Star Spangled Banner, and tremendous cheering for the Union, the Stars and Stripes, &c.

On the same afternoon a pole, 114 feet high, hickory and cedar, was raised in front of Adams' liotel. West Bridgeton. A large number of per sous were present. Hon J. T. Nixon addressed the crowd in his usual attractive and able manner. This is, perhaps, the tallest pole in the county. The Stars and Stripes waving from it may be seen several miles distant.

At Greenwich, on the same day, a pole was raised, and a speech made by Paul Jones, of Philadelphia. We have not learned the particulars of the occasion, but doubt not they were interesting.

On Monday last, a large pole was raised at Fairton, from which the Stars and Stripes will continue to wave over the patriotic citizens of that village.

Cumberland Co. Courts.

The Courts of Cumberland County con vened on Friday last, at 10 o'clock, A. M. Judge Clawson was unavoidably detained and did not make his appearance until the afternoon session. TESTAMENTS FOR THE TROOPS.

The soldiers who have recently left the State under the command of Brig. Gen. Runyon, four 27th inst. It is hoped there will be a good at Regiments, between three and four thousand in number, were furnished each with a copy of the New Testament. This was mostly done in the city of Trenton, under the direction of the State Superintendent of the Bible Society, just before their departure. The volumes used were of a lished and universally recognized Governneat gilt-edged nocket-book form, and were selected not only for their intrinsic value, but as keepsakes from fellow citizens and Christian friends at home. The provision was made for those who were not otherwise furnished with these books, in a form convenient to carry on the person, and were willing to receive them .eration of the Governor, the Adjutant General, and other officers. In many cases it was made company by company, either in the ranks or by calling each soldier by name and having him step forward and receive the book.

Cel. Johnson's Regiment from Newark, 780 men, were supplied when on parade, an interesting spectacle, not one of the number declining to receive the gift. The whole matter was treated with seriousness by the men, and many exafford employment and solace in the leisure hours of the camp. The presentation was made The new Regiments now forming will be sup plied in Trenton, in the same way.

Cohansey Rifles. This is the name of a military company formed in this town some weeks since, and is being drilled regularly, twice a week, by Mr. Henry Crooks, who has had considerable experience in the American Army. The company numbers ed as profoundly on the real urgency of the upwards of fifty able bodied men, in the prime of life. We hope they may soon be furnished to meditate upon the tremendous consequenby the State with the latest improved equipments, ces, which would be sure to follow the deand that an appropriation from the County may be used in procuring for them handsome uniforms. This company, thus fitted out, would be would be ready to serve in their country's cause. They could do more efficient service in this State than any foreign company, such as has lately been sent into New Jersey. Jerseymen would fight for their own native State, as no foreign soldiers could.

We are informed that Cumberland County furnished more volunteers for the American Army in the war of 1812, than any other county in the State, in proportion to its population. There are no less than four Companies already formed in this county, and others will soon be if the indications of the times seem to demand it.

The Comparative Military Resources of tne North and South.

We condense the following from a series military resources of the country.

The principal countries of Europe, in times of war, have never been able to call more than 1 in 40 of their population into actual service. This was done by England, in 1813, in her war with Napoleon I, and in one year of that war, for the support of this army, the enormous sum of one thousand millions of dollars. The lowest ratio raised by any of these countries was that of Russia, which was 1 to 90 of its population. Now suppose the South can raise one soldier for every 50 of its population, including the slaves, exclusive of Maryland, Missouri and Kentucky, the whole number of the rebel troops would amount to 183,000, while according to the same ratio the total force of the free states would amount to 385,860 soldiers, a difference of more than 200,000 in favor of the North, and if we take into account the nearly 4,000,000 of slaves, and the great numbers of Union men in nearly all the disaffected states, this immense disproportion nearly all are able-bodied-between the ages Jas. Bacon, in Greenwich, sent to State Pris- will be very greatly increased.

It must be borne in mind, also, that by our command of the sea the South is so exposed to attacks in flank and rear that a large portion of her forces must always be kept at home to guard the Coast States from invaston. A United States fleet at New York, with an army ready to embark at an hour's notice, and steam down to any point the Commander-in Chief thought fit to select on the coast of Virginia, the Carolinas, and Georgia, or even of the Gulf States, would hold the entire South in check, for no State could tell where the blow might fall, and each would feel bound to keep its soldiery at home for self-protection. The North is free from any embarrassment of this sort. It presents to the South but one front, and that protected by deep and broad rivers. Its immense superiority of numbers and of resources, and the homogeneous character of its population, render it secure from invasion to any serious extent, and enable it to exert its full force for offensive purposes of warfare. President Lincoln, too, it must be remembered, when he calls for troops, calls with the prestige and authority of an old-estabment behind him. On the other hand, the authority of Jeff. Davis is lit le more than that of a captain of/pirates or leader of banditti, and will be obeyed only so long as he is prosperous and successful. His requisisitions for men may be largely responded to by the excitable population of the South, but his demands for money to the amount needed to maintain an army, and carry on a Government, will very soon exhaust, if not the patience, at least the pockets of the slaveholders. Neither North nor South can carry on the war, except by borrowing. But the North has unlimited credit, and the South no credit at all. The result of a contest beong be doubtful.

What our Legislature has Done.

When Governor Olden delivered his message to the legislature, lately adjourned, we thought and said that it was a document worthy of the chief Magistrate, and such as the national crisis required. It boldly advised a system of measures probably somewhat in advance at that time of a majorty of both houses, the members of which had not reflectcase as he had. But they only wanted time struction of our national existence, as threatened by the rebels. And they have looked this awful catastrophe in the face, and the result is that they have listened to the counsels of the Governor, and have risen to the lofty standard of his enlightened patriotism - havingpassed laws appropriatins $2,000,000, and a State tax of $100,000; also athorizing four new regiments for State defence; to purchase arms artilery, and munitions of war; to pay the families of volunteers $6, and to vol unteers without families $4 a month extra; to authorize the cities of Trenton, Newark, Camden, Rahway, New Brunswick, Jersey City and Bordentown to borrow money to aid the volunteers, together with other bills to provide for the state and the war. They also requested the United States Government to finish Stevens' Floating Battery, and passed votes of thanks to the Governor and President for their action, and that the war must be continued, till rebellion shall be crushed, and the Union must be preserved. Such is the contribution of this State to the common cause. We will not say we are proud of it, for it is only her duty, and was fully expected. Nor ought it to be a matter of surprise, for what New Jersey is now doing is but a repetition of her devotion to country in the darkest days of our revolution and during the critical discussions on the adoption of the constitution. But we cannot refrain from remarking, that in the excellent troops with which she has reinforced the army, and with the four regiments about to be added by her, little Jersey has shown a heart big enough for the foremost State in in the Union. We think she has done, we will not say her part, but enough - as much as she ought to do. And in her_liberality she has exemplified a truth, which we have frequently remarked, that men, who are frugal and care taking on ordinary occasions, when great crises call for it, are found uncalculating remarkably liberal of their money and their generous assistance. - Newark Ad-

It seems to be a difficult matter to realize that we are in the midst of civil war. Howof able articles in the N. Y. A vast number of people had gathered from the country, thus evincing their love for that flag which has waved so proudly over the land of the free, and the home of the brave. A speech was made by Mr. Mitchell, of Bridgeton. Mr. Crooks then formed the Company, and marched down to the old Academy, where he "put us through" a thorough drill for two hours or more. The people of Tennessee are to vote in July next on the question of Secession. The struggle for the Union promises to be close and desperate, and may end in civil war between the traitors and the true men. There are said to be 5.000 Union men in Western Virginia, ready to fight for the Union. All they want is a nucleus, and they will rally at once. It is probable that they will call on the Government for redress of their wrongs, and protection from the rebels in that State.

This favorite resort of the traveling public is daily adding to its almost world-wide popularity, under the admirable management of its very worthy ed in his efforts to please his numerous guests by Mr. George Freeman, the gentlemanly book-keeper of the establishment. The table is bountifully supplied with all the delicacies the mar kets afford, in season, while a full and efficient corps of polite servants are constantly in attendance to perform the duties devolving upon them. The handsome and pleasant location of "The Union," being situated on one of the most frequented thoroughfares in the City, in the very centre of business, with Passenger Railway Cars running in front of the door, and to all parts of the City, makes it particularly desirable as a stopping place for those visiting Philadelphis either on business or pleasure. "The Ministerial Association of the Methodist Episcopal Church for Bridgeton District," held its quarterly session at the Commerce St. M. E Church, commencing on Tuesday morning the 14th inst. The opening exercises were conduc ted by Rev. S. Vansant. The rain prevented a large attendance in the morning, and in the absence of a bill of assignment, at the request of the Association Mr. Vansant read a sketch of a sermon on Romans VIII, 8, 4. A spirited and interesting discussion, on the subject of ser-monizing, followed, in which Rev. Messrs. Dobbins, Graw and Vausant took part. In the afternoon, Rev. S. Townsend read a Review of The Model Preacher, by Rev. W. Taylor. Remarks were made by Messrs. Perry, S. Vansant, J. Vansant, Summerill, Townsend, King, Dobbins, Lawrence and Hugg, bringing out some excellent thoughts upon the use of the published skeletons elevations of sermons, and similar, so called, "helps to the between. AGNES OF SORENTO is the title of the New Romance which Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe has just written for the AT-LANTIC MONTHLY. The first pages are given in the May number of that work, and the manner in which the story opens assures us that its publication will add to the already brilliant reputation of this most popular of American authors.

The story is and of laws and duty, of joy and trial. Its heroine is a young girl, born joining eminences. in a Catholic country and educated under the influence of Catholic institutions, and in the development of the plot the author has of ten-inch shells ready charged, and some sought to illustrate the influences of that 4000 stand of U. Harrisburg, May 13.—A person employed or pecial service, who visited Harper's Ferry last week, reached Chamsberburg to-day, and reports that there were then about 6000 troops there altogether. About three-fourths of them were armed, and mostly well armed, but the balance were without arms. Only 200 Kentuckians were there, and but one company of South Carolini-ans. The resident militia of Harper's Ferry were very restive under existing circumstances They had only one day's provisions on hand; their supplies expected fr om Western Virginia being cut off by the stand taken by the people of that section of the State. It was thought to arrest Ross Winans the maker of the that the supplies anywhere within reach in the surrounding country must be exhausted within two weeks. It is positive that not more than 1000 stand of arms were got out of the wreck of the arsenal buildings, and some of these were in bad condition. Not more than twelve rifles can be manufactured per day in the shops in operaample arrangements for the reception and tion. There are olny 600 men on the Maryland side of the Potomac; they have not received any batteries on this side of the river, and show no disposition to erect any. HIGHLY IMPORTANT from ST. LOUIS. Surrender of the Missouri Militia to the U. S. Troops.

Sr. Louis, May 10.—Gen. Frost's brigade of Missouri militia, encamped at Camp Jackson, on the western outskirts of the city, surrendered unconditionally, this afternoon, on the demand of Capt. Lyon, Commander of the United States forces in this city. Capt. Lyon marched on Camp Jackson with some thousand volunteers, surrounded it, and planted eight field pieces on the ad-

ST. Louis, May 10 - Midnight. - Just before the troops started for the city, and while the State troops were drawn up between two lines of United States volunteers, several "rocks" were thrown at the volunteers and a few pistol shots fired by excited parties in the surrounding crowd, which was composed of a large number of citizens, including ma-

More Trouble in St. Louis. Another Collision between Soldiers and

Populace-Dreadful Loss of Life. St. Louis, Sunday May 12.—The city was the scene of another terrible tragedy last night. About six o'clock, a large body of the Home Guards entered the city, through Fifteenth, from the Arsenal, where they had been enlisted during the day and furnished with arms. On reaching Walnut street the troops turned westward, a large crowd lining the pavement to witness their progress At the corner of fifth street ladies among the spectators began hooting, hissing, and otherwise abusing the companies as they passed. and a boy about fourteen years old discharged a pistol into their ranks. Part of the rear company immediately hurried and fired upon the crowd, and the whole column was instantly in confusion, breaking their ranks, and discharging their muskets down heir own line and among the people on the side walks. The shower of balls for a few minutes was terrible, the bullets flying in every direction, entering the doors and windows of private residences, breaking railings, and even smashing bricks in the third stories. The utmost confusion and consternation prevailed, spectators fleeing in all directions, and but for the random firing of the troops, scores of people must have been killed. As most of the firing was directed down their own ranks, the troops suffered most severely, four of their number being instantly killed and several wounded.

Privateers Captured. GARDNER'S ISLAND, N. Y, May 13th .-I wo privateers were captured by a frigate between this Island and Montauk on Saturday afternoon, after three hours severe cannonading. They were towed into New London during Saturday night.

The following paragraph, from a letter to the Camden Democrat, dated May 8th, from a member of the 4th regiment, speaks well for New Jersey. Our journey has been a perfect ovation so contact is concerned, though from the beginning our boys have had to experience the hardships of a soldier's life. It rained nearly all the time after we started in the propellers, and the accomodations both for officers and men were of the poorest character, and the commissary department most miserably managed. The boys bore up against all these disadvantages, however like Spartans. The New Jersey Brigade is admitted to be the finest body of troops yet arrived in Washington, not even except the famous Seventh Regiment of New York, a large number of whom are men of quite diminutive stature. Our parade yesterday, numbering Thirty-one Hundred and Twenty men, was admitted to be the finest display of troops ever seen in Wooden Ware, Queensware, Washington. President Lincoln stated yesterday that New Jersey was entitled to more credit than any State in the Union, for she was not only the first to fill up the complement allotted her, but she had also sent them all equipped.

PROCLAMATION

Wierels, an extended rebellion exists against the Government of the United States, making it imperative that all the people of this State be vigilant to do all in their power to suppress and destroy the same; and whereas, from constantly accumulating evidence, it is manifest that this rebellion has been deliberately planned, and is most insideus in its workings, and may even attempt to obtain strength by endeavoring to obtain means, or men, or munitions, within the borders of New Jersey.

Now, therefore, I, Charles S. Olden, Governor of the State of New Jersey, for the purpose of maintaining the Federal Government, and to preserve untarnished the honor of this State, do hereby command all persons holding efficial position by authority of this State, and all the citizens of this State, to be on the alert for the detection of suy violation of the laws of this State against Treapon or Misprison of Treason, and to take measures to bring to justice any person who shall be concerned in emissing men, or providing arms or munition for the enemies of the country; and I call on all good citizens, by their own strict observance of the laws, and by their discouraging any violation thereof in others, to maintain the peace and dignity of this State.

Drugs and Medicines.

The undersigned, having purchased the stock and fix three of the old firm of Brewster & Co., are now prepared to deal out to the citizens of Bridgeton and vicinity, at the old stand, Drugs, Medicines, Chemicals, Fancy Articles, Books and Stationery, Paints and Oils, Glass, Fluid, Camphine, Kerosene Oil, and all other articles necessary to make a complete stock in the Drug and Variety line. All of which goods are respectfully offered to the numerous friends of the old firm with the assurance that they will receive the same kind attention as heretofore. Our goods have been selected with care and attention; all of which we warrant to be fresh, pure and genuine, and will be offered at prices equally as low as they can be obtained elsewhere.

be offered at prices equality as low as tney can be obtained elsewhere.

We would call the attention of Parsicians and others to our Drugs and Chemicals. This department is under the charge of Mr. Kennedy, who has served an apprenticeship in one of the first class Prescription Stores in the city of Philadelphia, and is a Graduate of the College of Pharmacy, and feels himself competent.

Mr. Brewster, from his long standing acquaintance with the public, and their numerous wants in our business, is sufficient guarante that he will use all honest endeavors to please them in selecting from our large stock of goods.

One of the largest and most complete Galleries in the United States, where the best Pictures, known to the Photographic art, are taken at prices no higher than are paid for miscrable caricatures.

The Proprictor, a practical Photographer, attends personally every sitting—and allows no picture to leave the Gallery unless it gives perfect satisfaction.

Daguerreotypes and Ambrotypes of absent or deceased friends, photographed to any required size, or taken on Canvass, life size, and painted in Oil by the best Artists. At this Gallery pictures can be taken in any weather—as perfect in cloudy days as when the sun shines.

Persons visiting the city are respectfully invited to examine our specimens, which for price and quality defy competition.

COMMENDATIONS:

From Hon. Lewis D. CAMPBELL, M. C., of Ohio.

My famity and friends all concur in the opinion that the (Newell) Picture is more life like than any thing they ever saw. My likeness has been repeatedly taken by different Artists in various ways, but I have never yet had one which presents so true to nature, all the features and expressious of countenance as this.

From E. Jor Morris, late Minister to Italy.

Art.

Having occasion for a portrait, I procured one from Mr. Robert Newell, of the city of Philadelphia, a ministure in Oil Colors, under the new process discovered by him, and take great pleasure in expressing the satisfaction given me, not only by the accuracy of the likeness, but its artistic finish in all respects, and recommend him to the patronage of those disposed to encourage the Leantiful art.
