BLACK LIST.

The following named persons are such as have taken the Pionara, and seem disposed not to pay for it. Theyare published for the benefit of others, whom they may wish to trust them. There are a class of persons who take a paper for a number of years, and when called upon to pay, repudiate the debt. Such persons should be known to the public. The name of no person who shows a disposition, or is really unable to pay will be published. Other names will be inserted in addition to the following from week to week. James Crowell.

Post Office Changes.

The Bridgeton and Cedarville Post Offices have been changed. G. W. Johnson has received the appointment for Bridgeton, and R. D. Bateman for Cedarville. The Bridgeton office will be changed this Saturday from its present location to the News Depot and Telegraph Office which has been fitted up in good style. The Cedarville office has been removed to the store of Mr. R. D. Bateman.

Mr. Johnson, our new Postmaster, is a young man, possessing many of the requisite qualiffcations for the position, being polite. obliging, agreeable, prompt and ready to serve the public; reliable and trustworthy, and one in whom confidence may be placed.

Mr. R. D. Bateman, the new Postmaster at Cedarville, is so well and favorably known that no commendation could add to his popularity. Ail he wants to make him a perfect man is a good wife, which we doubt not he capital in the new empire. With the spirit will have (when they get ready).

> We have no hesitation in saying that at the present Fort Delaware is calculated to resist any foe, and the channels of the Delaware are tinaccessible to any hostile crew with the guns of that fortress bearing upon them. The bastions or embrasures of this fort are calculated to sweep into destruction any storming party. At the angle of the fort the bastions protrude beyond the line of walls, so as to command, through the bastion ports, any scaling party along the whole line of flank. Thirty-four guns are already mounted. To assail successfully this fortress of the Delaware, an attacking foe must first sail up the channel, with the terrible guns of the fortress bearing upon them. If the foc should successfully hazard such a gauntlet, the island must be invaded. In five minutes this could be laid under water four feet deep. If even this terrible exigency should be evaded, the solid walls of the fort, encompassed with a deep moat, are next to be scaled. Should ladders be raised to the high parapet of the citadel, the great guns of the bastion are ready to sween the assailants into destruction enter the fort, its foundation can be flooded to the depth of four feet. #### DRATH OF JUDGE CLAWSON.

At the Court of Appeals, held at Trenton on the 17th of June, 1861, Hon. Abraham Browning announced the death of Hon. William Clawson, a Justice of the Supreme Court and Judge of the Court of Appeals, and moved that the Court adjourn out of respect to the memory of the deceased. This being agreed to, a meeting was organized. On motion of Hon. B. Williamson, Chancel-for Green was called to the chair, and J. W. Scudder was appointed secretary.

Hon. Abraham Browning expressed his regret at the death of the deceased, and his sense of the loss sustained by Bar. He alluded to his having before Judge Clawson in that disartet of the State where the Judge held his circuits, and spoke of the satisfactory manner in which the Judge had discharged the duties of his office; that his judicial conduct had been faithful, fair and impartial. Judge Clawson, after his appointment, was compelled to leave the country for a time, on account of ill health, but on his return home. lipored with all diligence in his power in the d scharge of his duties. Ex-Chancellor Williamson feelingly alluded to the virtues and character of the deceased. His kindness and affability of mann w, as well as his faithfulness and integrity. hid endeared him to the public and the profession. After his appointment Judge Cawson become a diligent student, and in this way may have impaired his health.

The following committee was appointed to express the sense of the meeting in reference to the deceased: The Hon. Abraham Browning, Hon. B. Williamson, Hon. John Van Dyke.

The meeting then adjourned till Wednesday morning, when, on re-assembling, the Hon. Abraham Browning offered the following resolution as the report of the committee, which was passed, and a request by resolution was also made that the Supreme Court be asked to enter the resolution on the minutes of the Supreme Court:

Resolve!, That we take the earliest opportunity of testifying our sense of the loss sustained by the early death of Hon. William S. Clawson, who at the bar, combined the probity of a faithful practitioner with the courtesy of a gentleman; and in his brief judicial career so tempered a faithful and honest discharge of the sterner duties of a Judge with kindness to the profession and suiters as to secure their mutual confidence and esteem; and that as an enduring testimony of our respect for his memory, we will ask that the proceedings of this meeting be entered upon the minutes of the Supreme Court, now in session, and a copy to his bereaved widow and family, assuring them of our warmest sympathy.

Judge Van Dyke seconded the resolution, in an appropriate speech. He regretted that Judge Clawson had not been longer before the public, that his character and virtues might have been better known Prior to his acceptance of a seat on the bench of the Supreme Court, Judge Clawson had faithfully performed the duties of Prosecutor of the Pleas He had a mind that war discarding the property of the Pleas He had a mind that war discarding the property of the Pleas He had a mind that war discarding the property of the Pleas He had a mind that war discarding the property of the Pleas He had a mind that war discarding the property of the Pleas He had a mind that war discarding the property of the Pleas He had a mind that war discarding the property of the Pleas He had a mind that war discarding the property of the Pleas He had a mind that war discarding the property of the Pleas He had a mind that war discarding the property of the Pleas. He had a mind that was discriminating, and was quick in his perceptions He also possessed a keen sense of duty -He was a good practitioner, and had an accurate knowledge of the laws of New Jersey.

The speaker stated that he had acquired a knowledge of the feelings of the people in Judge Clawson's district, by reasan of the fact that he had been in the habit of holding circuits in the neighborhood in which the deceased had resided. The voice of the people in Judge Clawson's district, was that of satisfaction, at the manner in which he had discharged his duties. While in ill health the Judge retained his office, under the hope that his health might be restored, and that he might be enabled to render some service to the State, and build up for himself an honorable name as a Judge. In his private character, the deceased was witnout a stain. He was honest and upright. In his manners he was mild and courteons.

THE WAR NEWS.

Harper's Ferry is now completely deserted by the rebels, who had a skirmish before leaving with the Sharpsburg Home Guard. in which two of the enemy were killed and one wounded.

The agent of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company at Martinsburgh, reports that all the property of the Company at that poin. has been destroyed by the rebels-48 locomotives, and a large number of gondo a and coal cars. They surrounded the proper-ty with piles of wood, and then set it on fire. Upwards of 5.000 rebel troops are reported to be at Martinsburgh.

The rebels at Fairfax Court-House have apparently resorted to a stratagem. They have posted themselves not in the village, but outside, hoping to draw an unwary General down to attack the sleuder guard with a force inadequate to the strength of the body in ambuscade.

The rebels at Manassas Junction are reported to be in a fever of impatience to move on Washington, where they swear they will arrive before next Sunday. Accounts more or less trust worthy state that they have 20.000 at Manaseas and Fairfax Court House 20,000 on the line between the former place and the Potomac, and 20,000 at Aquia Cr'k Stafford, Dumfries, and Occoquan.

In Missouri, since Gen. Lyon's victory at Rooneville, many of those who have been for $1.00. wavering in their fidelity to the Government, are now steadfast in their faith, while those who have been only "moderate Secessionists" are Secessionists no longer. The Mayor of Lexington, following the lead of the Governor. has fled to parts unknown, and for his auscessor a decided Union man has been chosen, who is sustained by the almost unanimons voice of the citizens.

ed cyears, 7 months and 2 days.

Our Callie's gone;

She's gone from friends, from parents dear.

Who've watched with care each passing year,
From those who loved her fond caress,
From those she lived on earth to bless,
From those who taught her lips to sing
The praises of our heavenly King;
From tender friends she's quickly torn,
Their loss they now in sadness mourn;
From all she's gone.

Where has she gone?

Where has she gone?

The angels said, who heard her songs,
"She more to heaven than earth belongs;"
Then came disease and opened the door,
And from our arms our treasure tore;
But near there watched an angel band
Who took our Callie by the hand,
They showed her little feet the way
To realms of joy in endless day.
Now with new songs high heaven rings,
For there our darling Callie sings,
She lives in heaven.

GROSSCUP'S BUILDING,

Commerce Street. BRIDGETON N. J. To Our Readers!

The readers of the Pioneer will se for themselves that our New Printing Press works well. The clear and beautiful impression given by it can-not be surpassed, when we do our part of the work properly. The self-ink-ing fountain requires to be adjusted right, or it will not give out the ink evenly on the sheet. In a few weeks we shall have thorough control of that as well as all other parts of the press. which although somewhat complica-ted, is the most simple cylinder print-ing machine ever invented. It was mnde to order by R. Hoe & Co., of New York, who have the reputation of being the best printing press manufacturers in this country, and perhaps in the world, as they frequently fill orders from Europe. Their ten cylinder presses are unequalled by any in existence. To publishers of county papers, having large circula-tions, we would recommend such a press, as the one lately purchased by press, as the one lately purchased by us is the very thing to give them en-tire satisfection. Instead of being ten or eleven hours working off an edition of two thousand with the old style press, it can be done in three hours with one of the improved cylinder machines; or if the circulation is but one thousand or less, such a priss would be a valuable investment. It will print all kinds of jobs, at the rate of 800 per hour, with ease.

Buckeye Premium Mower. WITH FLEXIBLE FOLDING BAR. WITH FLEXIBLE FOLDING BAR.

The imprecedented success of this Machine is a convicing proof of its excellence. It has never failed, wherever introduced, to take procedence over all other Mowers, and the important principles embraced in its construction, and covered by its patents, are now universally conceded to be indispensable to a Perfect Mower. This concession is in the strengest manner attested by the fact that so many Mowing Machine manufacturers, abandoning their own patterns, are now modelling after the Bucker in all points where they think it possible to evade its patents; the popularity of their machines is found to be in exact proportion to the extent of their imitations and infringements.

The farmer, who contemplates purchasing a Mower for the harvest of 1861, will, in selecting the Buckers, secure the only Machine which combines all the requisites of a perfect Mower, including strength, simplicity, durability, lightness of draft, freedom from side draft, perability, ightness of draft, freedom from side draft, perability, convenience, perfect adaptation to uneven surface, ease in backing, turning, safety to the driver, ease to the team, and capacity of doing good work on any description of land, and in any variety or condition of grass. Farmers wishing to avoid disappointment, must give their orders early in the season.

The Buckeye as a Reaper The important advantages of the Ruckeye as a Mow-er are retained in the Resper. The two driving wheels and flexible bar make it the ONLY Resper perfectly adapted to uneven ground.

The Platform is very readily adjusted to any required The Francism is very readily adjusted to any required height of cut.

passages.

The grain is delivered at the B CR OF THE MACHINE, entirely out of the way of the team on the next round.

The out-side wheel, which sustains the platform, is in a direct line with the driving wheels. This is a great advantage in turning corners, as the wheels all work together, obviating all straining and cramping.

WEST JERSEY WOOLEN FACTORIES. WEST JERSEY WOOLEN FACTORIES.

THE subscribers would direct the attention of farmers and others to their increased fuelities for mantheturing superior WOOLEN GOODS, such as Saturetts, Cloths, Blankets, Horse Blankets, Flancels, Stocking and Carpet Yarn. We manufacture a dirable article, of the best quality, and at low prices. We guarantee our goods not only to be equal to the imported in texture, but to stand hard wear much better. Mechanics and laboring men generally would find it to their advantage to purchase of us, instead of wearing foreign goods which will do them no adequate service.

We vill pay the highest market prices for WOOL, which an besent to our Factory at Bridgeton, or Alloway sown, and there manufactured to order, or eash paid. Also, all wool left with Loniel Sheppard, agent at Greenwich, will be promptly attended to.

We do not buy up this staple on speculation, and therefore, which paying

Cash for Wool, the highest rates, we insist that a preference should be freely extended to home manufacturers, and claim that, since no loss is incarred, we should have a priority among wool growers, or those who have wool to sell, may?

COMMENDATIONS:
From Hon. Lewis D. Cantrell, M. C., of Ohio.
My family and friends all concur in the opinion that the (Newell) Picture is more life like than any thing they ever saw. My likeness has been repeatedly taken by different Artists in various ways, but I have never yet had one which presents so true to nature, all the features and expressions of countenance as this.

Frame F. Los Monne, late Minister 12 12 12

Having occasion for a portrait. I procured one from Mr. Robert Newell, of the city of Philadelphia, a miniature in Oil Colors, under the new process discovered by him, and take great pleasure in expressing the satisfaction given me, not only by the accuracy of the likeness, but its artistic finish in all respects, and recommend him the prevention of these disposed to encourage the beautiful process.

From E. Jor Morris, late Minister to Italy.

The exquisite finish, beauty and soffness of you traits, conjoined with their durability of color and funness as likenesses, cannot fail to commend the the attention and patronage of all who appreciate

I have now on hand, and am constantly making up. a good stock of ready-made clothing, which is made of good strong material, and manufactured in a superior manner. As the times are hard, and there are many persons out of work, I have concluded, in order to give employment to as many as possible, in our toan, to buy no city made goods I can sell; thereby retaining that much more money in our own town. As I pay particular attention to the manner in which these goods are made up, my customers may depend on getting good goods, and at less prices than city made goods of the same quality can be sold.
