

THE PIONEER HAS A LARGER CIRCULATION THAN ANY COUNTY PAPER IN THIS STATE.

Only $1.00 per Year!

JAMES B. FRERGUSON, Editor.

The PIONEER, it will be noticed, appears this week considerably improved in typographical appearance.

On Tuesday last two hogs were slaughtered in Bridgeton, one weighing 69 1/2 lbs., the other, 631, the largest was raised by Wm. Jones, the other by James Hall.

UNION HARVEST HOME.

The ladies of Trinity M. E. Church, Bridgeton, will hold a Union Harvest Home on Christmas eve, Christmas day and evening, in Grosscup's Hall.

The Annual Missionary Meeting will be held one week from next Sabbath, in the Commerce St. Methodist Church of this town.

Perhaps the most significant item of news within the last week is the passage of a resolution by the rebel Congress removing the Confederate Government from Richmond, Va., to Nashville Tenn.

Another naval expedition is undoubtedly converging upon Fortress Monroe as a place of rendezvous. The departure of a portion of Gen. Butler's expedition from Portland has been followed by that of the United States steamships Boston, Delaware and Commonwealth, which left New York at noon yesterday for Fortress Monroe.

The Richmond Enquirer predicts that the next battle on the Potomac will be in the vicinity of Occoquan and Dumfries. It expects a combined movement from Alexandria, the Potomac and the lower counties of Maryland.

General Blenker resigned his command a despatch to the Tribune says in relation to his action: "Gen. McClellan has addressed a letter to Gen. Blenker containing such expressions of displeasure, as left to the latter no choice but to resign, which he did."

Rebel Reports from Fort Pickens. BALTIMORE, Nov. 26.—Passengers by the Old Point boat report that the Norfolk Day Book has a despatch from Richmond, to the effect that an engagement was going on at Pensacola.

Camp Correspondence.

CAMP NORTH, Nov. 24, 1861.

This evening we are favored with our first snow storm, the frozen drops are falling thick and fast. Many of our men dread to witness what now threatens to be a disagreeable north-easter.

On Wednesday, Nov. 20th, we were privileged to attend the general and grand review of the army of the Potomac. Early in the morning orders came for the men to provide themselves with two days' rations.

Perhaps the most significant item of news within the last week is the passage of a resolution by the rebel Congress removing the Confederate Government from Richmond, Va., to Nashville Tenn.

Another naval expedition is undoubtedly converging upon Fortress Monroe as a place of rendezvous. The departure of a portion of Gen. Butler's expedition from Portland has been followed by that of the United States steamships Boston, Delaware and Commonwealth, which left New York at noon yesterday for Fortress Monroe.

The Richmond Enquirer predicts that the next battle on the Potomac will be in the vicinity of Occoquan and Dumfries. It expects a combined movement from Alexandria, the Potomac and the lower counties of Maryland.

General Blenker resigned his command a despatch to the Tribune says in relation to his action: "Gen. McClellan has addressed a letter to Gen. Blenker containing such expressions of displeasure, as left to the latter no choice but to resign, which he did."

Rebel Reports from Fort Pickens. BALTIMORE, Nov. 26.—Passengers by the Old Point boat report that the Norfolk Day Book has a despatch from Richmond, to the effect that an engagement was going on at Pensacola.

On Saturday afternoon last a handsome silk American flag was presented by the ladies of Dennisville, Cape May county, to Company B, (Capt. Wright). It was presented in behalf of the ladies by the Rev. Mr. Jones, of Dennisville, and received by Capt. Wright, with some very appropriate remarks, after which Col. Wm. Bryan, our worthy commander, in an eloquent speech, thanked the fair donors for the compliment paid the company, and pledged the honor of the corps that every effort should be made to return the present unscathed by a traitor's hand.

I hope they will be successful in their praiseworthy undertaking.

This afternoon we had a grand dress parade through the streets of Beverly, under command of Col. Bryan. The citizens seem to look with an unusual degree of interest on the unprecedented success that has crowned the efforts of their fellow citizen, Col. Bryan.

On Wednesday, Nov. 20th, we were privileged to attend the general and grand review of the army of the Potomac. Early in the morning orders came for the men to provide themselves with two days' rations.

Perhaps the most significant item of news within the last week is the passage of a resolution by the rebel Congress removing the Confederate Government from Richmond, Va., to Nashville Tenn.

Another naval expedition is undoubtedly converging upon Fortress Monroe as a place of rendezvous. The departure of a portion of Gen. Butler's expedition from Portland has been followed by that of the United States steamships Boston, Delaware and Commonwealth, which left New York at noon yesterday for Fortress Monroe.

The Richmond Enquirer predicts that the next battle on the Potomac will be in the vicinity of Occoquan and Dumfries. It expects a combined movement from Alexandria, the Potomac and the lower counties of Maryland.

General Blenker resigned his command a despatch to the Tribune says in relation to his action: "Gen. McClellan has addressed a letter to Gen. Blenker containing such expressions of displeasure, as left to the latter no choice but to resign, which he did."

Rebel Reports from Fort Pickens. BALTIMORE, Nov. 26.—Passengers by the Old Point boat report that the Norfolk Day Book has a despatch from Richmond, to the effect that an engagement was going on at Pensacola.

On Saturday afternoon last a handsome silk American flag was presented by the ladies of Dennisville, Cape May county, to Company B, (Capt. Wright). It was presented in behalf of the ladies by the Rev. Mr. Jones, of Dennisville, and received by Capt. Wright, with some very appropriate remarks, after which Col. Wm. Bryan, our worthy commander, in an eloquent speech, thanked the fair donors for the compliment paid the company, and pledged the honor of the corps that every effort should be made to return the present unscathed by a traitor's hand.

The sympathy New England showed for Old England (Hear, and cheer!) What was the High Tariff Act, the twenty-five cents a yard duty on cotton goods of 1861 but a Southern institution? All New England voted against Mr. Calhoun's American system.

On Wednesday, Nov. 20th, we were privileged to attend the general and grand review of the army of the Potomac. Early in the morning orders came for the men to provide themselves with two days' rations.

Perhaps the most significant item of news within the last week is the passage of a resolution by the rebel Congress removing the Confederate Government from Richmond, Va., to Nashville Tenn.

Another naval expedition is undoubtedly converging upon Fortress Monroe as a place of rendezvous. The departure of a portion of Gen. Butler's expedition from Portland has been followed by that of the United States steamships Boston, Delaware and Commonwealth, which left New York at noon yesterday for Fortress Monroe.

The Richmond Enquirer predicts that the next battle on the Potomac will be in the vicinity of Occoquan and Dumfries. It expects a combined movement from Alexandria, the Potomac and the lower counties of Maryland.

General Blenker resigned his command a despatch to the Tribune says in relation to his action: "Gen. McClellan has addressed a letter to Gen. Blenker containing such expressions of displeasure, as left to the latter no choice but to resign, which he did."

Rebel Reports from Fort Pickens. BALTIMORE, Nov. 26.—Passengers by the Old Point boat report that the Norfolk Day Book has a despatch from Richmond, to the effect that an engagement was going on at Pensacola.

On Saturday afternoon last a handsome silk American flag was presented by the ladies of Dennisville, Cape May county, to Company B, (Capt. Wright). It was presented in behalf of the ladies by the Rev. Mr. Jones, of Dennisville, and received by Capt. Wright, with some very appropriate remarks, after which Col. Wm. Bryan, our worthy commander, in an eloquent speech, thanked the fair donors for the compliment paid the company, and pledged the honor of the corps that every effort should be made to return the present unscathed by a traitor's hand.

Europe and England to know us better, and another year will best explain our strength. I have a policy of my own.—Away with free trade these distracted days. Let America have her own laws and let America have hers.

On Wednesday, Nov. 20th, we were privileged to attend the general and grand review of the army of the Potomac. Early in the morning orders came for the men to provide themselves with two days' rations.

Perhaps the most significant item of news within the last week is the passage of a resolution by the rebel Congress removing the Confederate Government from Richmond, Va., to Nashville Tenn.

Another naval expedition is undoubtedly converging upon Fortress Monroe as a place of rendezvous. The departure of a portion of Gen. Butler's expedition from Portland has been followed by that of the United States steamships Boston, Delaware and Commonwealth, which left New York at noon yesterday for Fortress Monroe.

The Richmond Enquirer predicts that the next battle on the Potomac will be in the vicinity of Occoquan and Dumfries. It expects a combined movement from Alexandria, the Potomac and the lower counties of Maryland.

General Blenker resigned his command a despatch to the Tribune says in relation to his action: "Gen. McClellan has addressed a letter to Gen. Blenker containing such expressions of displeasure, as left to the latter no choice but to resign, which he did."

Rebel Reports from Fort Pickens. BALTIMORE, Nov. 26.—Passengers by the Old Point boat report that the Norfolk Day Book has a despatch from Richmond, to the effect that an engagement was going on at Pensacola.

On Saturday afternoon last a handsome silk American flag was presented by the ladies of Dennisville, Cape May county, to Company B, (Capt. Wright). It was presented in behalf of the ladies by the Rev. Mr. Jones, of Dennisville, and received by Capt. Wright, with some very appropriate remarks, after which Col. Wm. Bryan, our worthy commander, in an eloquent speech, thanked the fair donors for the compliment paid the company, and pledged the honor of the corps that every effort should be made to return the present unscathed by a traitor's hand.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—It is rumored here among commercial men and financiers, that Secretary Chase intends to recommend in his report an increased duty on various articles, and especially on sugar.

On Wednesday, Nov. 20th, we were privileged to attend the general and grand review of the army of the Potomac. Early in the morning orders came for the men to provide themselves with two days' rations.

Perhaps the most significant item of news within the last week is the passage of a resolution by the rebel Congress removing the Confederate Government from Richmond, Va., to Nashville Tenn.

Another naval expedition is undoubtedly converging upon Fortress Monroe as a place of rendezvous. The departure of a portion of Gen. Butler's expedition from Portland has been followed by that of the United States steamships Boston, Delaware and Commonwealth, which left New York at noon yesterday for Fortress Monroe.

The Richmond Enquirer predicts that the next battle on the Potomac will be in the vicinity of Occoquan and Dumfries. It expects a combined movement from Alexandria, the Potomac and the lower counties of Maryland.

General Blenker resigned his command a despatch to the Tribune says in relation to his action: "Gen. McClellan has addressed a letter to Gen. Blenker containing such expressions of displeasure, as left to the latter no choice but to resign, which he did."

Rebel Reports from Fort Pickens. BALTIMORE, Nov. 26.—Passengers by the Old Point boat report that the Norfolk Day Book has a despatch from Richmond, to the effect that an engagement was going on at Pensacola.

On Saturday afternoon last a handsome silk American flag was presented by the ladies of Dennisville, Cape May county, to Company B, (Capt. Wright). It was presented in behalf of the ladies by the Rev. Mr. Jones, of Dennisville, and received by Capt. Wright, with some very appropriate remarks, after which Col. Wm. Bryan, our worthy commander, in an eloquent speech, thanked the fair donors for the compliment paid the company, and pledged the honor of the corps that every effort should be made to return the present unscathed by a traitor's hand.

On Saturday afternoon last a handsome silk American flag was presented by the ladies of Dennisville, Cape May county, to Company B, (Capt. Wright). It was presented in behalf of the ladies by the Rev. Mr. Jones, of Dennisville, and received by Capt. Wright, with some very appropriate remarks, after which Col. Wm. Bryan, our worthy commander, in an eloquent speech, thanked the fair donors for the compliment paid the company, and pledged the honor of the corps that every effort should be made to return the present unscathed by a traitor's hand.

ATTENTION!

TO GET A GOOD, CHEAP article for making Cold Cream, use BROWN'S LIQUID KENNEDY. Sold at Brewster & Kennedy's Drug Store.

On Wednesday, Nov. 20th, we were privileged to attend the general and grand review of the army of the Potomac. Early in the morning orders came for the men to provide themselves with two days' rations.

Perhaps the most significant item of news within the last week is the passage of a resolution by the rebel Congress removing the Confederate Government from Richmond, Va., to Nashville Tenn.

Another naval expedition is undoubtedly converging upon Fortress Monroe as a place of rendezvous. The departure of a portion of Gen. Butler's expedition from Portland has been followed by that of the United States steamships Boston, Delaware and Commonwealth, which left New York at noon yesterday for Fortress Monroe.

The Richmond Enquirer predicts that the next battle on the Potomac will be in the vicinity of Occoquan and Dumfries. It expects a combined movement from Alexandria, the Potomac and the lower counties of Maryland.

General Blenker resigned his command a despatch to the Tribune says in relation to his action: "Gen. McClellan has addressed a letter to Gen. Blenker containing such expressions of displeasure, as left to the latter no choice but to resign, which he did."

Rebel Reports from Fort Pickens. BALTIMORE, Nov. 26.—Passengers by the Old Point boat report that the Norfolk Day Book has a despatch from Richmond, to the effect that an engagement was going on at Pensacola.

On Saturday afternoon last a handsome silk American flag was presented by the ladies of Dennisville, Cape May county, to Company B, (Capt. Wright). It was presented in behalf of the ladies by the Rev. Mr. Jones, of Dennisville, and received by Capt. Wright, with some very appropriate remarks, after which Col. Wm. Bryan, our worthy commander, in an eloquent speech, thanked the fair donors for the compliment paid the company, and pledged the honor of the corps that every effort should be made to return the present unscathed by a traitor's hand.

On Saturday afternoon last a handsome silk American flag was presented by the ladies of Dennisville, Cape May county, to Company B, (Capt. Wright). It was presented in behalf of the ladies by the Rev. Mr. Jones, of Dennisville, and received by Capt. Wright, with some very appropriate remarks, after which Col. Wm. Bryan, our worthy commander, in an eloquent speech, thanked the fair donors for the compliment paid the company, and pledged the honor of the corps that every effort should be made to return the present unscathed by a traitor's hand.

On Saturday afternoon last a handsome silk American flag was presented by the ladies of Dennisville, Cape May county, to Company B, (Capt. Wright). It was presented in behalf of the ladies by the Rev. Mr. Jones, of Dennisville, and received by Capt. Wright, with some very appropriate remarks, after which Col. Wm. Bryan, our worthy commander, in an eloquent speech, thanked the fair donors for the compliment paid the company, and pledged the honor of the corps that every effort should be made to return the present unscathed by a traitor's hand.

On Saturday afternoon last a handsome silk American flag was presented by the ladies of Dennisville, Cape May county, to Company B, (Capt. Wright). It was presented in behalf of the ladies by the Rev. Mr. Jones, of Dennisville, and received by Capt. Wright, with some very appropriate remarks, after which Col. Wm. Bryan, our worthy commander, in an eloquent speech, thanked the fair donors for the compliment paid the company, and pledged the honor of the corps that every effort should be made to return the present unscathed by a traitor's hand.

On Saturday afternoon last a handsome silk American flag was presented by the ladies of Dennisville, Cape May county, to Company B, (Capt. Wright). It was presented in behalf of the ladies by the Rev. Mr. Jones, of Dennisville, and received by Capt. Wright, with some very appropriate remarks, after which Col. Wm. Bryan, our worthy commander, in an eloquent speech, thanked the fair donors for the compliment paid the company, and pledged the honor of the corps that every effort should be made to return the present unscathed by a traitor's hand.

On Saturday afternoon last a handsome silk American flag was presented by the ladies of Dennisville, Cape May county, to Company B, (Capt. Wright). It was presented in behalf of the ladies by the Rev. Mr. Jones, of Dennisville, and received by Capt. Wright, with some very appropriate remarks, after which Col. Wm. Bryan, our worthy commander, in an eloquent speech, thanked the fair donors for the compliment paid the company, and pledged the honor of the corps that every effort should be made to return the present unscathed by a traitor's hand.

On Saturday afternoon last a handsome silk American flag was presented by the ladies of Dennisville, Cape May county, to Company B, (Capt. Wright). It was presented in behalf of the ladies by the Rev. Mr. Jones, of Dennisville, and received by Capt. Wright, with some very appropriate remarks, after which Col. Wm. Bryan, our worthy commander, in an eloquent speech, thanked the fair donors for the compliment paid the company, and pledged the honor of the corps that every effort should be made to return the present unscathed by a traitor's hand.

On Saturday afternoon last a handsome silk American flag was presented by the ladies of Dennisville, Cape May county, to Company B, (Capt. Wright). It was presented in behalf of the ladies by the Rev. Mr. Jones, of Dennisville, and received by Capt. Wright, with some very appropriate remarks, after which Col. Wm. Bryan, our worthy commander, in an eloquent speech, thanked the fair donors for the compliment paid the company, and pledged the honor of the corps that every effort should be made to return the present unscathed by a traitor's hand.

