

Bridgeton, Jan. 25, 1862.

THE PIONEER HAS A LARGER CIRCULATION THAN ANY COUNTY PAPER IN THIS STATE.

Only $1.00 per Year in Advance!

JAMES B. FRUGSON, Editor.

The annual meeting of the Com. Co. Agricultural Society was held at the Court House, on Wednesday afternoon last.

Mr. Henry B. Harker will please accept our thanks for a superior axe, of his own manufacture, left at our office lately.

DEATH OF JOHN TYLER.

As announced by our telegraphic despatches yesterday, ex-President Tyler died at Richmond, on Friday last, at the age of seventy-two.

The facts which led to his accidental elevation to the Presidency of the Nation are well known. It was occasioned by the death of Gen. Harrison, one month after his inauguration.

Of late years Mr. Tyler has not added to his reputation by his public course. One of the most intemperate and exciting of the States Rights party of the South.

FROM WASHINGTON.

In the Senate on Tuesday, the 21st instant, the bill to prevent the detention of fugitives slaves in the prison of the district of Columbia, was passed by a vote of thirty-one to four.

In the House, the principal feature of the day's proceedings was the discussion of a resolution from the committee on Ways and Means.

Senator Trumbull's Confiscation bill enacts that all property belonging to those who shall be found in arms against the United States or aiding or abetting the rebellion shall forfeit all claims to the labor of persons held to service, and that such persons shall be at once declared free forever.

The intelligence of the Government is to the effect, that the rebels will have great difficulty in inducing their twelve months men to remain in the service, after the periods of their enlistments, which expire in February and March.

THE YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.

The 3d annual meeting of the above association was held at its room in Commerce St., on Monday evening the 20th inst.

It becomes my duty as Presiding Officer of the Bridgeton Young Men's Christian Association, to make this, my record and report, of its doings and condition.

The room has been kept open of week-day evenings throughout the year, and has been well attended. The Association has received valuable accessions to its Library the past year.

A person can become a member of the Association by the payment, annually, of one dollar; and a life-member by the payment at one time of twenty dollars.

After the transaction of the ordinary business, and the consideration of various matters relating to the association, an election of officers for the ensuing year was held resulting as follows:

President, James J. Reeves; Vice Presidents, First Presbyterian Church, John M. Lanning; Second, Truman Chapman; Baptist, William D. Shepard; Commerce St., M. E., Joseph D. Flanagan; Trinity, Enoch Hanthorn; Episcopal, Percival Nichols.

Board of Managers—First Presbyterian Church, Robt. DuBois and R. M. Roop; Second, Geo. F. Nixon and E. F. Brewster; Baptist, Charles Schnyder and Oberlin Smith; Episcopal, R. C. Nichols and Stephen Cox; Commerce St., M. E., Morton Mills and A. R. Garrison; Trinity, Charles Godfrey and William Isard.

Associate members, Jas. L. Whitaker, Dr. N. R. Newkirk, Jos. S. Minor and Henry C. Swain.

The bill, which passed the House, makes the following appropriations for the year ending June, 1862, for New York harbor and for other defenses in that city.

Camp Correspondence.

Mr. Editor:—Having a little time at my disposal, which is by no means a common thing for a non-commissioned officer in the army to have, I will improve the opportunity to write a few lines for the Pioneer.

So far, there is every indication that the season will be an economical one. The potatoes will probably be cut down from four or five thousand dollars to a very few hundred.

On Friday last your correspondent and a Corporal were sent to Washington on special duty, and while there had an opportunity of seeing and conversing with those released Union prisoners from Richmond.

A quorum of members were present in both houses this afternoon. In the House the Speaker announced the standing and joint committees, which are considered to be well arranged.

Great Victory in Kentucky.

ENGAGEMENT FOR AN ENTIRE DAY. Gen. Schoeff Defeats the Rebel Gen. Zollicoffer.

Gen. Zollicoffer and Bailie Peyton Killed. THE REBELS IN FULL RETREAT.

A BATTLE AT SOMERSET, KY.

Cincinnati, Jan. 20.—A battle was fought at Somerset, Ky., on Saturday, between the Union troops under General Schoeff and the rebels under Gen. Zollicoffer.

The engagement was commenced in the morning, and lasted till nightfall. Gen. Zollicoffer was killed, and his army entirely defeated. The loss is heavy on both sides.

THE FEDERAL VICTORY CONFIRMED.

Louisville, Jan. 20.—General Thomas telegraphs to headquarters that on Friday night Gen. Zollicoffer came up to his camp, and attacked him at 1 o'clock on Saturday morning, near Webb's cross-roads, in the vicinity of Somerset.

At half past three o'clock, on Saturday afternoon, Zollicoffer and Bailie Peyton, Jr., had both been killed, and the rebels were in full retreat to their entrenchments at Mill Springs.

A Second Great Victory.

The Enemy's Entrenchments Attacked and Forced. The Stars and Stripes Waving over the Rebel Fortifications.

THE REBELS DRIVEN TO THE RIVER.

Large Number of Prisoners and Heavy Loss.

GENERAL AZOLICOFFERS BODY IN OUR POSSESSION.

Cincinnati, Jan. 20.—A combined attack was made today on Gen. Zollicoffer's entrenchments, by Gen. Schoeff and Gen. Thomas, resulting in a complete victory.

The stars and stripes now wave over the rebel fortifications.

Our troops captured all the camp property and a large number of prisoners.

The loss of the rebels is heavy. Zollicoffer's dead body is in the possession of the Federal troops.

Considering the boasted impregnable of Zollicoffer's entrenchments, this is one of the most signal victories of the war.

Particulars of Saturday's Battle. Cincinnati, Jan. 20.—The Lexington (Ky.) correspondents of the Commercial of this city give the following account of the battle fought on Saturday:

The city of Charleston has suffered more severely from fire than any other city of its size in the world. In 1778 there were 262 houses consumed; in 1796, nearly a third of the city was destroyed, involving loss of property to the value of $2,500,000.

From Trenton.

The Trenton Correspondent of the Standard writes: There has as yet been but little business in either House. The Senate was not fully organized until Wednesday afternoon.

The rebels, in dispersing, had crossed the Cumberland river in a steamboat and nine barges, at White Oak creek, opposite their encampment at Mill Springs.

General Thomas new reports the Federal loss at 39 killed and 127 wounded. Of the rebels, 115 were killed, 116 wounded, and 43 taken prisoners.

Accused of Conspiracy.

DISTRICT COURT—Quarter Sessions. The following case was tried in Philadelphia this week.

On the 14th inst., Francis S., son of Seffrin and the late Elizabeth Henoyer, aged 7 years, 5 months and 21 days.

I had a little Francis once, He was my only pride; I loved him, ah! perhaps, too well, For soon he slept and died.

Go, little loved one, go! Your father's heart can tell, (And none but he can fully know) How hard to say Farewell.

ODE TO THE NORTH WIND.

BY THE BARD OF TOWER HALL. Where the ice king keeps his court, Circle his arms and walrus's sport, Where the seal and walrus's court, O'er the arctic travellers' graves, There thou hast thy gelid home, For us wanderers of the sky; From thy sparkling crystal dome 'Tis thy mission now to fly, Hither, raging tyrant, come, We thy chilling blasts defy, Though wherever thou dost roam, All the summer blossoms die; Though thy bleak and angry breath Strips the groves and forests bare, And faded leaves are scattered there, Whirlwinds of decay and death, We thy fury still defy, We from Tower Hall have borne, Proper nature for defence; Thus, with armor of crystal duff, All thy tyrant rage we scorn.

The best assortment in the city of Winter Clothing, the greater part of which is made to order, still on hand and closing out at reduced prices. Military uniforms made to order at short notice.
