

The Pioneer.

Bridgeton, Feb. 8, 1862.

THE PIONEER HAS A LARGER CIRCULATION THAN ANY COUNTY PAPER IN THIS STATE.

Only $1.00 per Year in Advance!

JAMES B. FRUGSON, Editor.

BLACK LIST.

One of our most reliable subscribers at Marlborough, writes that he was going to call us mean, because we have not put his name on the "Black List." He encloses two dollars, which pays his paper nearly a year in advance...

An Old-Fashioned Snow Storm.

Early on Monday morning last snow commenced falling in this region, and continued until Tuesday morning, when it was about six inches deep...

Sleighting parties were quite numerous; many visited the neighboring country towns and had "jolly times," and some who "smiled" too often, or in other words "imbibed" to freely, returned the worse for wear.

A New Dodge.

In London the "fancy" have introduced a new and ingenious scheme for relieving pockets and purses of their contents. According to a late English paper, a lady was promenading leisurely along in one of the less crowded parts of London...

Down on Training.

Our Gloucester county neighbors are down on military trainings. A large meeting of the citizens was held the other day at which the training as conducted in olden times, were denounced, as demoralizing to the people, while they do not aid to acquiring correct military knowledge.

The Rush for Office.

It is said that sixty applicants are to be made by the collector of New York, to officers in the custom house at that city. The list of appointments has not yet been made out, but it is stated that the last applicant put down his name the last on a list of 4,500.

Landlords, Look Out.

In a case before the Passaic county court a few days ago, Judge Ogden decided that landlords were responsible in law for the character of the houses they rent to disorderly persons, if they know of their bad character and still allow the occupants to remain.

Greenwich Township Ahead.

A few days since, Mr. Ercarius Ethington of Greenwich township, had a hog his name and which weighed 41 1/2 hundred pounds and which weighed 41 1/2 hundred pounds.

THE PREVALENCE OF PROFANITY.

In passing through our streets and around corners where young America most congregates, one must become painfully impressed with the idea that if profanity is not sadly on the increase it is not at least on the decline. We scarcely know how to account for the apparent fact that man's vices are the first thing to be imitated by the young as evidences of manhood.

THE DIFFERENCE.

No event, in the prosecution of the present war, has shown in a more marked degree, the difference between the two warring sections of the Union, than the treatment of prisoners, whilst those taken from them have been uniformly treated with kindness, our men taken by them have in many instances been treated with rudeness and inhumanity.

A WORD FOR THE CAMP CORRESPONDENTS.

Gentlemen, I am a paper that bears the impress of your thoughts, are above all others interesting. News from camp attract the attention of every grade of society. None can be found so obtuse as not to read your productions with interest, and feel a profound sympathy for your welfare.

THE $5,000 CONSPIRACY CASE.

The jury in this remarkable case have at last agreed upon a verdict of guilty. In the meantime the Bowen family, consisting of the widow and five daughters, are absolutely penniless, depending upon the hardest labor for a scanty living.

We would call the attention of our readers, to a course of lectures, about to be given under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association of this town.

The introductory lecture will be delivered on Thursday evening next, at Grosvenor's Hall, by Paul T. Jones Esq. Subject, "Saul of Tarsus and Paul the Apostle of the Gentiles."

THE REMAINS OF COL. ALLEN.

The Legislature has requested the Governor to have the remains of Col. Allen and Surgeon Weller, brought to Trenton to remain in State one day, and then be delivered to their friends.

The Expulsion of Bright.

The Senate has finally struck a decisive blow at that modified form of treason in which Mr. Bright, as long as he was Senator, insisted on indulging. More than the requisite two-thirds—thirty-two to fourteen—declared that the author of the letter written to Jeff Davis in March last, is unworthy of a seat in a loyal Senate.

The Stone Blockade.

The English press having failed to embroil Great Britain and America on the Trent question, are now incubating upon the subject of the Stone Blockade, in the evident hope that they may produce from it a cockatrice to sting the peace of the two nations.

edge of human governments, which you possess are amply sufficient for the present emergency, provided your veneration for things past, does not cloud and obscure the bright and genial promise of the future.

We have all been taught from our childhood, that it was folly for the Medes and Persians to decree that their laws should never be changed, and why should we hug old usages, when the times demand change and reform. It is impossible to stop the march of events.

Camp Correspondence.

MR. EDITOR:—Again I seize the opportunity to communicate with you, and inform you, and your readers generally, that affairs are going on "swimmingly" with us. For the last fifteen days we have been nearly swimming in mud and clay, and we began to think that the sun was not going to show his smiling face soon again.

Company G. Cameron Dragoons.

MR. EDITOR:—As I have not seen any copies of your paper in our camp (which to me would be a valuable treasure), I embrace the present leisure moments to scribble a few lines which, should you deem worthy of space in your columns, would perhaps be interesting to some of your numerous readers.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—We are yet without any confirmation of the supposed attack by Gen. Burnside upon Beaufort and Roanoke. The rumored running of the Mississippi blockade by the rebel steamer Vanderbilt is confirmed. She left the port of Havana the latter part of December, and after a run of about one week landed her cargo, passengers and mail in New Orleans.
