WILLIE.

Red blood caught from my own veins. Stained the mountain torrent's tide, Flowing swiftly to the main. From the spot where Willie died.

Tremble, tyrants! for the blood, On our streams for Freedom poured, Lines your shores, a crimson flood, More resistless than the sword.

Mountain shadows dim the sky, Where my Willie fell asleep; But the shadows heavier lie On the hearthstone where we weep.

Bridgeton, March 15, 1862. THE PIONEER HAS A LARGER CIRCULATION THAN ANY COUNTY PAPER IN

THIS STATE.

Only $1.00 per Year in Advance!

JAMES B. FRRGUSON, Editor.

To Our Readers.

It was our intention to have had a large advertisement in the Proneur this week, setting forth some of the advantages gained by patronizing this establishment, but in place of the advertisement we invite the public to read the following announcement.

The PIONEER is the cheapest and best family newspaper in New Jersey, being only ONE DOLLAR per year, in advance, and is as large as most of the two dollar papers. It is the best adverculation than any other paper printed south of Trenton.

The PIONEER has an annual circulat'on of at least 25.000 more than any other newspaper printed in South Jersey. It is the best and cheapest advertising medium in this part of the State. Rates of advertising the same as charged in other papers not having more than half as large a circulation. The large and constantly increasing circulation of the PIONEER compelled us lately to purchase one of Hoe's superior cylinder machines, which prints four times as fast as any other newspaper press south of Trenton. With this improved press we are enabled to defer printing until the latest hour in the week, and thus give our readers the latest news. Nearly 500 new subscribers have been added to our list within the past two years, and still they come. This is sufficient evidence that the PIONEER is appreciated by the inhabitants of this part of the State. It is an Independent Family Journal, free from sectarianism or party politics. The PIONEER will stand by the Government, the Constitution and the Laws, at all hazards, denouncing Secession, Treason, Rebellion and evil in every form.

Having just introduced one of Gordon's Franklin Job Presses, which are unequalled by any other presses manufactured, we are prepared to do all kinds of Job PRINTING, such as Cards, Circulars, Bill best manner at the shortest notice, and as cheap as can be done anywhere, either in the city or country. Our facilities for done, are invited to give us a call and we will do our best to accommodate.

The unusual amount of new advertisements which appear in the Pioneer this week, has compelled us to omit several very interesting articles written expressly for the Pioneer; they shall appear next week. In making up the forms. Mr. Enoch Hanthorn's advertisement was accidentally knocked into "pi," and could not be re-set in time for this week. We advise all in want of harness or anything in his line to remember he is still on hand, and ready to wait on customers.

The grand jury of Hudson county at recent term of the court, made a presentment of the management of the county Poor House. They state that numbers of the paupers of both sexes, white and colored were indiscriminately together in one room. That children of the ages of three, five and eight years were sent there in the Summer and remained there nine weeks without change of clothing, and when reclaimed by their parents were incrusted with scabs and vermin. Some of the paupers were not furnished with a change of garments more than once a year, and wore their clothes till they dropped off. FORTRESS MONROE, March 8.-The trict William R. Thompson, 2d district Levi dullness of Old Point was startled, at 10 o'clock to day, by the announcement that Committee, William Dare, Morton Mills, Jonathan Elmer, A. L. Robeson, William Pogue, Superintendent of Schools, Lewis a mysterious vessel, supposed to be the rebel steamer Merrimac, and looking like a submerged house, with the roof only above the water, was moving down from Norfolk by the channel in front of Sewall's to be made to purchasers accordingly.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take noney on hand be appropriated for enlarging Point. Signal guns were also fired by the U. S. sloop of-war Cumberland and the frigate Congress, to notify the Minnesota, St Lawrence and Roanoke of the approaching danger, and all was excitement in and about Fortress Monroe. There was nothing protruding above the water but the flag-staff, flying the rebel flag, and a short smoke stack. She moved along slowly, and turning into the channel leading to Newport News, steamed direct for the Cumberland and Congress, which were lying at the mouth of the James River. As soon as the Merrimac came within range of the Cumberland, the latter opened on her with her heavy guns, but the balls struck and glanced off. In the meantime, as the Merrimac was approaching the two frigates on the one side, the iron-clad steamers Yorktown and Jamestown came down the James river and engaged our frigates on the other side. The batteries at Newport News opened on the Jamestown and Yorktown and did all in their power to assist the Cumberland and Congress, which, being sailing vessels, were at the mercy of the approaching steamers.

The Merrimac kept steadily on her course, and slowly approaching the Cumberland, when the latter, as well as the Congress, at the distance of one hundred yards, rained full broadsides on the ironclad monster. The shots took no effect. glancing upwards and flying off, having only the effect of checking her progress for a moment.

After receiving the first broadsides of the two frigates she ran into the Cumberland, striking her about mid-ships and literally laying open her side. She then drew off, fired a broadside into the disabled ship, and again dashed against her with her iron clad prow, and knocking in her side, left her to sink, while she engaged the Congress, which laid about a quarter of a mile distant. The Congress had kent up a sharp engagement with the Yorktown and Jameslowed the crew to escape in the boats. -The vessel being thus cleared it was fired by the Rebels, when the Merrimac and her two iron clad companions opened with shell and shot on the Newport News batteries. The firsng was briskly returned. The Minnesota having got up steam was taken to the relief of our two firigates .-She engaged the three rebel steamers at about a mile distance. With only her two bow guns.

Despatch to the Secretary of the Navy. FORTBESS MONROE, March 9.-To G. Welles, Secretary of the Navy:-The steamer Monitor arrived at 10 o'clock last night, and went immediately to the protection of the Minnesota lying aground iust below Newport News. At seven 'clock A. M., the Merrimac, accompanied by two wooden steamers and several tugs, stood out towards the Minnesota and open-

The Monitor met them at once, and opened her fire, when all the enemy's vessels retired excepting the Merrimac. -These two iron-clad vessels fought part of the time touching each other, from eight o'clock A. M. till noon, when the Merrimac retired. Whether she is injured or not it is impossible to say. Lieut J. S. Worden, who commanded the Monitor, handled her with great skill, assisted by Chief Engineer Stemers. The Minnesota kept up a continuous, fire, and is herself. somewhat injured. The Monitor is uninjured, and ready at any moment to repel another attack.

G. V. Fox. (Signed) Assistant Secretary of the Navy.

MANASSAS EVACUATED WASHINGTON, March 11 - Manassas has been evacuated by the rebels, and our forces have taken peaceful possession.

The rebels had all fled precipitately before our forces took possession, abandoning their fortifications at Centreville, as well as those on the lower Potomac. It is believed that they are in full retreat, and will not stop short of Richmond.

CENTREVILLE, March 11 - Yesterday morning the United States forces, amounting to upwards of 2000 men, proceeded to Centreville, and occupied the village about 4 o'el ck in the afternoon. It was altogether deserted.

The entire command thence proceeded to Manassas, where they arrived in the evening. The rebels had destroyed all the property they could not carry away by fire and otherwise. The bridges, railroad track and depot in that vicinity were extensively damaged. Nothing but wreck and desolation were apparent.

It is supposed from what information could be gathered, and making a fair average for the number the huts could contain, that the rebel troops at Manassas did not at any time exceed 60,000 men, and not more than 30,000 have occupied that section within the last two months.

aged 49 years. The estimation of those who have had the most favorable opportunities of realizing personal worth, is what friends and relations look to with confidence and consolation, when death has left them no longer the privilege o returning their affection and respect. this the memory of Mrs. Green is soothing to her bereaved companion and sorrowing children, though by her death a husband's home is made desolute, and his household filled with grief. Her death has brought unaffected sorrow to many hearts. So soon perish all human hopes—so soon are blasted our fondest expectations! But her memory will not moulder with her ashes. The remembrance of her kind and benevolent disposition will never be forgotten, for it is but simple justice to say, that by those who knew her intimately, she was deservedly respected and But she has gone the way of all the earth, and while we record this tribute to the departed, we fully sympathize with her sorrowing companion and motherless children in the blank silence of their lonely home In this brief notice of the deceased, many a distant acquaintance may recognize their friend: and while they can no more meet her gentle welcome and pleasant society, will add their offering for the loss.
