Company K., which left Bridgeton on Tues" day last for Camp Stockton was recruited in a short time. From the 2d until the 11th o' this month 90 men came forward and enlisted in this Company, and on Monday and Tuesday last scores more offered their names and had to be rejected, as the company was full. Several went to Camp Stockton and joined other companies. As there is now another company forming at Millville in this county for nine months service, we would advise all who wish to enlist to join it. Governor Olden and Drafting. "Governor Olden, as we are informed, has determined upon a most judicious step with reference to the quota from this State, required to fill up our proportion of the draft ordered by the President. In order to relieve our citizens from the necessary hardships of an indiscriminate draft and to modify some of its harsher features, he proposes to give to all who will volunteer for nine months, before the draft goes into operation, the same State bounty as is paid to those who volunteer

The result is that great numbers throughout the State are offering themselves to fill up the quots of the draft, and will thus materially lessen the number from whom the involuntary enrollment will be made. It is barely possi ble that the grater preparties of the required number may thus to make any in process of formation in different parts of the State, with most encouraging prospects."—Newark Daily.

No mooner had our troops emerged from the timber on the north, and crossed Cedar creek, than a battery of heavy guns, located in the thick timber, half way up the mountain side, opened upon them with shot and shell, and another of smaller guns, from a point of timber about three-eights of a mile to the westward.

Best's battery of Parrott guns was im mediately planted on the crest of the hill. and began replying to the two, while the nfautry was posted in line of battle to the right of the battery.

The enemy kept up a continuous fire from both batteries some half an hour, which was rapidly returned by Capt. Best. when three additional rebel batteries open-

Gen Banks now rode on to the field and directed the operations Gen. Geary's brigade of Gen. Augur's Division had the advance, and maintained it admirably.-Gen. Geary's brigade consisted of the 5th Ohio, 29th Ohio, 28th Pennsylvania, and Knapp's battery.

No sooner had these troops taken their places than the rebels opened musketry fire upon them from two sides and in front aided by the batteries before mentioned The batteries on the mountain also kept up a most d structive fire, but the federal troops never faltered or even winced. At lifthis news is true, and it is on Rebel auartillery replying to artillery and infantry The Association cordially invites its to infantry, and desperation was the order of the day. The fight continued until We trust our appeal will not be in darkness put a stop to the carnage. I have witnessed many battles during this war, but I have seen none where the tenacious obstinacy of the American character was so fully displayed. Our troops fought with the valor of veterans. No sooner did a volley of musketry or a discharge of artillery mow down the ranks of a regiment than the gaps were closed up and a new front presented. Regiment vied with regiment, and brigade with brigade, in deeds of val r; and few instances indeed were there where even in dividuals fattered.

With the setting in of darkness the firupon the mountain kept up a random firing until near midnight. At dark our troops withdrew to a small copse of wood, about half a mile to the rear of their first position, where they were joined soon after by the corps of Generall McDowel and Sigel, who formed in their rear. At nine o'clock in the evening the hungry and wearied troops of General Banks vere relieved by portions of McDowell's command, and fell back a half mile, res ting on their arms in a pl.sant clover The night was unusually lustrous and all prominent objects were as plainly distinguished as in the bright daylight. Thoroughfare Mountain loomed up to the west, a rebel signal light now flashing order is faithfully carried into effect through space, and our long columns standing by, their muskets stretched up and down all the slopes and fields, were dimly descried with their faces towards the Crawford's brigade, which had borne the brunt of the fight, threw themselves almost exhausted, upon the moist grass, and talked over the adventures of the battle. Some of the men incautiously made fires, and thus revealing our position the enemy commenced shelling us. Their firing was generally excellent, the shells bursting among trains, ambulanceand horses, soon compelling our soldiers to move back toward Culpepper. A panic was very nearly occasioned this time, as the regiments took to their heels to get out of range, and seeing so many men retreating, others that had not reached the field also started to run, and the officer who shall make such arrest, soon the roads were crowded with frightened people, who added to the existing

The next morning his whole army was found to be gone. He was pursued by Gen. TO THE NEW COMET. What art thou, mysterious stranger, What thy nature, what thy duty? Through the skies thou art a ranger, Not remarkable for beauty. Rather florid thy complexion
And thy whiskers glow like fire;

I suppose, on close inspection, Few thy features would admire. Tell me, art thou solid matter Or a thing of gas and vapor?

Wilt thou earth's old body batter, Cutting thy fantastic capers? Wilt thou all to shivers Brook us, As the rebels try to do?

Dost thou really mean to shockus,
And to carbonize us to? In thy wanderings through creation,

Meny sights have met thy gaze, Sights to rouse thy admiration. Sights to startle and amaze. But confess, that in thy travels Thou hast not, on roaming star. Seen a placeso faimed for bargains As the Tower AALL BAZAAR!

THE DAY SCHOOL BELL.

THE DAY SCHOOL BELL.

35,000 COPIES ISSUED.

A new Singing Book for Day Schools, called the Day School Bell is now ready. It contains about 200 choice songs rounds, catches, duetts, tios, quartetts and chornases, many of them written expressly for this work, besides 32 pages of the Elements of Music. The Elements are so easy and progressive, that ordinary teachers will find themselves entirely successful in instructing even young scholars to sing correctly and secentifically; while the times and words embrace such a variety of lively, attractive, and soulstiring music and sentiments, that no trouble will be experienced in inducing all begioners to go on with zeal in acquiring skill in one of the most health-giving, beauty-improving, happiness-yielding, and order producing exercises of school life. In simplicity of its elements in variety and adaptation of music, and in excellence and number of its sofigs, original, selected, and adaptate, it claims by much to excel all competitors. It will be found the best ever issued for seminaries, academies, and public schools. A few sample pages of the elements, tumes and songs, are given in a circular; send and get one. It is compiled by Horace Waters, author of "Sabbath School Bell," Nos. I and 2, which have had the enormous sale of 735 000 copies. Prices—paper cover, 20 cents, $15 per 100; cloth bound, 30 cts, $22 per 100; cloth bound, embossed gilt, 40 cents, $30 per 100. 25 copies furnished at the 100 price. The design of this school is education in its widest and best outso,—the care and culture of body, mind and heart. The readlers give themselves to this work with an earnest sense of its importance, and a thorough determination to sparse no paint in its execution.

The Sacred Scriptures will form the basis of all their instructions, and furnish a most important branch of study. Especial attention will be given to the foundation of a good education, and particularly to the study of our own English tongue.

Very superior advantages are offered for the study of the Latin and French languages, and music.

A course of Lectures may be expected during the winter, on History, Physiology and Political Economy. Vocal Music, as a study, will form part of the regular course.

Physiological View of Marriage.

250 PAGES AND 150 ENGRAVINGS.—Price only 25 cents. Sent free of postage to all parts of the Union. Oer the infirmities of youth and maturity, disclosing the secret follies of both sexes of all ages, causing debility, nervousness, depression of spirits, publication of the heart, suicidal maginings, involuntary emissions, blushings, defensive memery, indigestion and lassitude, with confessions of thrilling interest of a Boarding School Miss, a College student and a young Marrich Lady, &c. It is a truthful adviser to the married and those contemplating marriage, who entertain secret doubts of their physical condition, and who are conscious of having lazarded the headth, happiness, and priviledges to which every human being is entitled.

YOUNG MEN who are troubled with weakness, generally caused by a bad habit in youth, the effects of which are dizziness, pains, forgetfulness, sometimes at fringing in the cars, weak eyes, weakness of the back and lower extremities, confusion of ideas, loss of memory, with melancholy, may be cured by the author's new Paris and London treatment.

We have, recently devoted much of our time in visiting the European Hopitals, availing ourselves of the knowledge and researches of the most skilled Physicaus and surgeons in Europe and the Continent. Those who place themselves under our care will now have the full benefit of the unany new and efficacious remedies which we are enabled to introduce two our practice, and the public may rest assured of the same zeal, assidicty, secrecy and attention being paid to their cases, which has so surgeous fully distinguished us heretofore as a Physician in our peculiar department of processional practice for the past iventy-five years.
