White Men as Laborers at the South. We wish we could remove oue fallacy from the Northern mind, and that is the fallacy that labor performed by negroes on the plantations of the South cannot be done by white men. We say it can; and it can be done cheaper and better. Intelligent and independent Southerners will admit this. Why, the white farmers of the West, in their harvesting seasons, work and are happy and healthy, under a sun quite as oppressive as that of this latitude. The hod carriers of the North, with no wool to shield their heads, work as no negro could work, in a sun quite as broiling as anything experienced in a rice field or a cane brake. We throw these assertions out for the examination of the philosopher and the statesman. And we will anticipate events so far as to say that a sugar plantation will be worked in this State by white men before the year is

Don't then, believe those who tell you that a white man can't do what a negro can. He can do all that a negro can do in the way of lal oring in the sun, and ever so much more.-N. O. Delta.

WHAT IS THE NEWS!

This query is used more frequently now than at any other time in our History .-It is asked at home and in public, and everywhere in the land, where inhabitants can be found. It is asked not with coolness and indifference, but with a burning desire to know events as they transpire in rapid succession. It indicates the longing of the intelligence of our time to fathom, comprehend and understand the dire throes, that perplex and wound our nations life. It shows that every transaction makes its impress upon the popular mind, and is studied in its every tenden-

The stirring events of our day, are not the property of any particular class, but belong to the sovereign people in their largest capacity, and are heard, read and digested by them accordingly. A volunteer army of half a million of men make news very rapidly, its quantity is so voluminous as to rivet the attention of the obtuse and unintelligent, and its quality is of such a nature as to command the countries privileges.

It comes from day to day attended with a thrilling interest, and passes from mouth to mouth with an electric spell, and ever teaches us that "life is real" and gives its work and task to every generation to perform. The news pertaiting to a person becomes important when they relate to his existence or non existence, likewise the uncertainty whether a nation shall continue to exist, strikes a vital cord in the breasts of its subjects, which makes them anxious and wishful, makes them scrutinize every act of their rulers, and weigh everything in the balances of justice and integrity, and thus quaff true necter from every fresh despatch. Almost endless is the conversation that follows the claying or wave sons, that have left their cherished firesides, to learn the minions of rebellion, that their Saxon blood will never bear the lash that has scourged others. ## PROCLAMATION

CHARLES S: OLDEN, Governor of the State of New Jersey.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,

TRENTON. Sept, 23d, 1862. The draft for four thousand men ordered by the War department to fill up the New Jersey first in the field, having been postponed in order to give further opportunity to procure Volunteers, I would earnestly urge upon the people of New Jersey the importance of recruiting those regiments to their maximum number, and of thus relieving the State authorities from the necessity of resorting to a draft. These Regiments have nobly maintained the honor of the State upon every battle-field-they have never been found wanting, whether required to endure unshaken the devastating storm of shot and shell, or the sterner trial of the bayonet-but their numbers are reduced by the casualities of war, and they now call upon their brethern at home to fill their ranks, and aid them to maintain untarn-

ished their hard-won reputation
In behalf of these brave men, still heroically contending with the enemies of our country, I wall upon the people of the state to take active measures to fill up their Regiments with scions of the same noble stock, and I feel confident that this appeal will be prompt-Ball & Winter goods at the West Bridgeton ly answered.

PLOWING. The Plowing Committee submit the following report: That they were united in awarding the first premium for men's plowing to Alfred Stathem; second premium to Edward S. Reeves; third to Ephraim Fisher. To boys under sixteen years of age, they award the first premium to Samuel E. Horner; second to George Rammel; third to Benjamin Frazier.

The committee were much pleased with the plowing of the boys under sixteen their work reflecting great praise upon themselves, and would do credit to older and more experienced hands. They also consider the thanks of the society due to Mr. Jonathan Fithian for the use of his ground on the occasion.

PIETY AND CIDER -A Boston gentleman re cently took a bottle of nice cider on Sunday to deliver to an acquaintance, and attending church on the way the bottle burst in his pocket, his clothes were saturated, the ladies' apparel near by did not escape, the worship pers were excited and the preacher disconcerted. • In this latitude gentlmen do not take cider to church with them, nor are they will-ing to risk damage to their clothes by carry-ing such commodities in their pockets. ## A QUESTION.

BY THE BARD OF TOWER HALL. Come, schoolboys, all, your skill to try, I'll give you an equation; Not hard enough to make you sigh With trouble or vexation.

Iwo gentlemen, named Smith and Brown, To Tower Hall came lately, To see the finest stock in town And they admired it greatly. Both garments bought, but Smith bought more Than Brown-this point remember;

(The clothes were excellent I'm sure, And suited to September.) The number each one brought, from ten Subtracted, leaves a sum Which multipled by the number's self To twenty one does come.

How many garments, now declare, How many, too, did Mr. Brown, Now, lads, if you, these things to tell,

Dear Sir—We some time since informed you of our purpose te so organise our system of agencies in all agricultural counties that you could devote your works to the exclusive manufacture of Rhodes' Super-Phosphate. Phosphate.
This we have successfully accomplished, and are now prepared to engage your full capacity for Rhodes standard. Manure, in accordance with our arrange-

Standard Manure in accordance with our arrangements.

As we find great mistrust prevails in the minds of the farming community of the Eastern States—indeed, an utter want of confidence—in special manures, permit us in this connection to suggest to you to extend, in your capacity as manufacturing chemists, such guerantees of purity, etc., as in your good indgment will enable us to satisfy the minds of intelligent agriculturists.

To the large planting sections, where Rhedes' Manure has been used for many y ars, there is no occasion for such assurance; but from all we gather during extended visits among Eastern farmers, find they have ample ground for fears—owing, doubtiess, to ignorance and want of manufacturing skill on the part of those who have been farnishing these sections.

Yours, truly,

LOOK AT THIS!

The Menageric has just been to Bridgeton and exhibited both atternoon and evening, and a dense crowd of people went to see the animals. One of the elephants refused to cross one of the bridges at Elmer's pond, and consequently had to wade around, but notwithstanding this, he came out all right. The idea has gone out that Thompson sells goods a little higher than others. That idea must an in the be changed, it selling goods still cheaper will do it. I am bound to SELL AS CHEAP OR CHEAPER New and Beautiful Stock of Goods just call and examine for yourselves, and if you don't say they are cheap I will not ask you to purchase.— My stock consists, in part, of CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VESTINGS, Suspenders, Neck-Ties, Shirt Collars, turndowns and chokers, from 1 to 15 cents. Also chokers, from 1 to 15 cents. Also

Hats and Caps of the very Latest Styles.

My prices have always been uniform, just a fair living profit, taking from one man what I do from another, (which I have always thought was the golden rule), and not taking two profits from one, and a-half profit from another.

DR. LA CROIX'S PRIVATE MEDICAL TREATISE Physiological View of Marriage.

Physiological View of Marriage.

230 PAGES AND 130 ENGRAVINGS.—Price only 25 cents. Sent free of postage to all parts of the Union. On the infirmities of youth and maturity, disclosing the secret follies of both sexes of all ages, causing debility, nervousness, depression of spirits, palpitation of the heart, suicidal imaginings, involuntary emissions, blushings, defective memory, indigestion and lassitude, with confessions of thrilling interest of a Boarding School Miss, a Coilege Student and a young Married Lady, &c. It is a truthful advisor to the married and those contemplating marriage, who entertain secret doubts of their physical condition, and who are conscious of having hazarded the health, happiness, and priviledges to which every human being is entitled.

YOUNG MEN who are troubled with weakness, generally caused by a bad habit in youth, the effects of which are dizziness, pains, forgetulness, sometimes a ringing in the ears, weak eyes, weakness of the back and lower extremities, confusion of ideas, loss of memory, with melancholy, may be cured by the author's new Paris and Losdon treatment.

We have, recently devoted much of our time in visiting the European Hospitals, availing ourselves of the knowledge and researches of the most skilled Physicians and Surgeons in Europe and the Continent. Those who place themselves under our care will now have the full benefit of the many new and efficacious remedies which we are enabled to introduce into our practice, and the public may rest assured of the same zoal, assiduity, secrecy, and attention benefit of their cases, which has so successfully distinguished us herefore as a Physician in our peculiar department of professional practice for the past twenty-five years.
