EDITOR: - Our boat was at Washington last Thursday, when we received orders to take a load of rebel prisoners to this place, (which is only ten miles from Richmond by land,) so just after twelve o'clock we saw a gang of dirty, yellow, ragged looking creatures coming towards our boat under guard of about twenty Union soldiers nicely uniformed—the contrast was great I assure you. They all came on board and we started for this place, stopping on our way at Acquia Creek, and putting about twenty of secesh civillians ashore, who was taken up for uttering secesh sentiments, and then proceeded to this place, where we arrived about ten o'clock this morning. The board of Freeholders of this County, at a late meeting agreed to appropriate thirty dollars for every man from this County, who will enlist to join company F. 3d Regiment N. J. V. This will be sanctioned by our citizens generally .-The Cumberland Grays were the first Co. that left Bridgeton. They have performed their duty well. Their decimated ranks tell of the hard-fought battles they have been engaged in. From one hundred who left Bridgeton, not 20 are now fit for duty.

On our first page of this week's paper appears an interesting communication from a member of this noble company.

A few days since we were presented with a genuine relic in shape of an oval tobacco box about the size of a dudk's egg. It was found in a rebel camp near Richmon, by Richard C. Levic, one of the Cumbepland Gray's.

At the Democratic Convention of the First Congressional District, held in Salem on Tuesday last, Hon, Nathaniel Stratton, of Millville was elected nominee for Congress in this district.

By reference to advertisement, it will be seen that Mr. G. M. Randolph is prepared to supply Cider by the gallon or barrel, delivered in Bridgeton. Having been presented with a good-supply from Mr R. and tested the quality of it, we can recomnaend it as a first-rate article.

The following from the West Jersey Press of this week, is published by request.

CONGRESSIONAL NOMINEE.

"The momination of John F. Stark for all those who are for supporting the Government in this hour of peril, with great satis-Some twenty years ago, coming to our city, he commenced in a small way-small in proportion with what his energy and capacity have made it-the business of an iron founder. Since that time, Mr. S. has addressed himself almost exclusively to his business, taking little or no active part in politics, though always voting with the eld whig party. An ardent admirer of the glorious and gallant Clay, he has been governed in his political career, by the precepts of that great and good man. The nomination of Mr. S. unsought by him, brings him for the first time minently before the people of this District, and there are few men whose private worth and fitness can better bear a close scrutiny.

Always an earnest and enthusiastic worker, a thorough patriot, and a public spirited citizen, Mr. Starr's prompt and generous conduct in responding to the call of the government for three months Militia, brought our people to an appreciation of his qualities as a man and a tizen. In connection with his brother, Mr. Jesse Starr, and another gentleman of our town whose name we do not feel at liberty to mention, Mr. S. assisted in furnishing the Camden companies for the three months service. The generous and manly course pursued by him at that time has been characteristic of him ever since. He has interested himself deeply in the war, contributing liberally, both in time and money toward the support of the Government, unselfishly devoting himself and his means to the country, and doing as much as any other man toward raising New Jersey to the proud position of being one among the few States to respond promptly and faithfully to her obligations to the general government .-As a business man on the floor of Cogress, or in the Committee rooms, he will have few equals and no superiors, quick to perceive, sound in judgment, determined and prompt in action, the first Congressional District can have no more faithful representative than John F. Starr , the self made man of the people .-A fit associate with the soldiers' friend, Marcus L. Ward, the verdict of our people at the ballot box, will heartily endorse all that we have said of our next Congressman." We learn with deep regret that Charles W. Potter, of Gloucester County, son of J. W. Potter, Esq, of this County, who, when he heard the call for volunteers to go forth in seence of our country s rights, shouldered his musket and went bravely forth to defend our beloved constitution and rights, with the 4th Regiment, N. J. V., while fighting under the gorious Stars and Stripes of his beloved country on the second day of the battle before Richmond, was pierced by a rifle winter in St. Louis. Part of their forces is ball through the breast, and fell a lifeless corpse upon the battle field, after serving his country for ten months. He leaves a beloved wife and three small children to sorrow in deep anguish over the sudden termination of the long deferred hope of his returning home alive. Poor Charley, -he was generous and kind, a loving husband, an affectionate parent, a kind friend, a brave soldier, one that was beloved by all of his fellow soldiers who knew him, and has sacrificed his life upon the altar Bridgeton. of his country. Though we are called to mourn the loss of a loved one. we do not mourn as those who have no hone, for he had made peace with God in the days of his youth. May sweet flowers bloom upon rent his unknown grave.

HEAVY TAXATION.

We recasionally meet with those who are disposed to complain of heavy taxation, as though the government could keep a million of men in the field to subdue the rebellion without the expenditure of vast sums of money. We have become so accustomed to very light taxation that a little increase appears like a great bug bear. To hear some talk, one would infer that a g neral and universal ruin lays at every man's door. For a long series of years no tax has been paid to the general government and the arrangement of transit duties has been such as to relieve us in a great measure of State taxation. There is probably no State in the Union that has been so lightly visited by the collector of taxes. This has aided in giving an impetus to industry, and afforded an ample opportunity to "get a start in the world." With these facts, in mind, no one should complain when called upon to afford substantial aid to the government when in need The rebellion can not be put down without force, and force can not be used without the expenditure of money. These are facts, and facts that have to be faced whether willingly or not.

But, after paying all excises, imposts, internal duties and the armies of tax gatherers collected, we are still probably the lightest taxed government, that is really worthy the name, and that affords the same kindly protection to the life and property of its subjects, in the world. It might be a useful exercise for those who fiel so sensitively the burden of taxation to compare notes with our rebel neighbors in "Jeff's dominions." The tax bill now before the rebel Congress, provides that for the support of the Confederate government, tax shall be laid on each resident as follows: - "one fifth the value of all the flax, peas, beans, barley, hay, wood, rosin year." To this is added one fifth of the value of the increase of horses, asses, cattle, sheep and swine, one fifth of the profi's made by the feeding swine, sheep, cattle or mules, and one fifth of "each person's yearly income." A person having a farm of 100 acres, and planting and sowing 20 acres of corn, and 10 each of good land produce about 500 bushels of such as are too badly injured to be removed potatoes, worth $250-200 bushels of to either of the towns in the neighborhood. wheat, worth $300-800 bushels or corn worth $400-250 bushels of oats, worth $60-corn, $80 oats, $15 hay, $25-total two hundred and thirty dollars. This pendent of State or local taxas. Here, taxes in agricultural districts probably exceeds fifty cents in the hundred dol-Congress, in this District has been hailed by lars. The assessors valuation of such a a farm would be about $7500. The tax faction. Mr. Starr is essentially a se'f-made at fifty cents would amount to the enormous sum of thirtu-seven dollars and fifti cents. Behold the contrast, who after

A Visit to the Antietam Hospitals.

On taking up the morning paper of Thursday last and seeing that another great battle had been fought, it occurred to me that while the army was pursuing the flying foe the wounded were likely to be neglected, and that humanity and patriotism alike demanded that those who could should go to their assistance Provided with a certificate from "the Christain Commission." which I found to be an open sesame with which I entered the ines of our armies at all points, and which secured me all desirable facilities in prosecuting the object of my mission, I left that CUMB. CO. S. S. ASSOCIATION. The annual meeting of the Cumberland County Sabbath School Association was held in Bridgeton on Wednesday, the 17th ult.

The morning session was held in the Baptist Church. The Rev. Dr. Jones, President of the Association, in the chair. After the usual devotional exercises, Dr. Jones delivered an address, showing the great importance of family instruction, and its relation to the Sabbath Schoo. He dwelt very happily on the important truth that the Sabbath School was not intended to supercede, but was to be considered as an adjunct to aid parents in the better ed-or 60 bound weight, the matter assumes altogether a different aspect. All day Sunday we were busy in preperation - trying on knapsacks, selecting accoutrements, &c. Ah, the experience of that Sabbath; the thoughtful weighed down none the less, perhaps, by the no particular effort made by the schools thought of the omnious future, than by the aching weight that oppressed our backs. The less considerate were chattering away like parrots Thus, with slight variations, Sunday passed. Monday was settled as moving day, and every preparation for that completed, but for some unaccountable reason, the order given them. This duty was also alluded was deferred until Tuesday; when we started. Dust, heat, and sweat, were knapsacks. The boys began cheering, first for Gen Robertson, then Col Robeson, then somebody else, not omitting the great importance of the Sabbath The evening session was held in the Trinity M. D. Church, and was opened with prayer. Rev. Dr. Baird, of Woodbury, delivéred an address, chaste in style, and containing a fund of thought. He started the query, why were we born in the helpless state of infancy? wny continue so long in childhood? and then the truth was elicited, that character was to be formed in great part by instruction, and hence the necessity of early religious instruction in order to develop, under God's blessing and the renewing of the Holy Rev. O. T. Walker took for his them the motto "Go Forward" This was urged in a very pleasing and agrecable manner.

Dear Sir—We some time since informed you of our purpose to so organise our system of agencies in all agricultural counties that you could devote your works to the exclusive manufacture of Rhodes' Super Phosphare.

Phosphate.

This we have successfully accomplished, and are now prepared to edg go your full capacity for Rhodes Standard Manure in accordance with our arrangements.

As we find great mistrust prevails in the minds of the farming community of the Eastern States—in deed, an utter want of confidence—in special manures, permit us in this connection to suggest to you to extend, in your capacity as manufacturing chemical. stalench guarantees of purity, etc. as in your good adjoinent will enable us to satisfy the minds of intelsent aggiculturists.

In the large planning sections, where Rh des Mato the large planting sections, where Kn des anamure has been used for many y are, there is no occasion for such assurance; but from all we gather during extended visits among Eastern furners, find they have ample ground for fears—cwing, doubtless, to ignorance and want of manufacturing skill on the part of those who have been furnishing these sections, Yeurs, truly, B. M. Rhodes & Co.

Years, truly,

Camden, N. J. April 1, 1862.

Messrs, B. M. Rhodes & Co.:

Gentlemen—Yours of 20th alt duly received. We hereby accept your proposition to confine our works to the execusive manufacture of Rhodes' Super-Phosphare—the Standard Manure. In reply to your request for a guarantee of purity, to satisfy the incredulous, we would state that if the uniform quality maintained during the last ten years while watched by opponents and tested by chemists (without our knowledge) all over the United States, England and Cuia, together with our guarantee of $1000, legally drawn up and signed, also certified to by the Mayor of our chy—if these are not sufficient security, we know of mose other that can satisfy:
