For the West Jersey Pioneer. TO THE BIRDS OF PASSAGE. BY MISS SARAH M. BOWELL.

You are pluming for your Southern home, Children of song and light; All thro' these calm, sweet autumn days You are marshalling for your flight!

When the fair springtime opens, smiled, Ye came in twittering throngs, And thro' the summer's brilliant reign Ye cheered us with your songs.

But now, from every grove and tree, Your soft, sweet murmur swells; October's lovely, golden air Is full of your warfowls.

Soon, o'er the spaces of bloody strife, Ye'll sing with rapid wing, And mingling with the cannon's roar, Your parting notes will ring.

But pause one moment in your flight, Bright birds, and gently bear Sweet messages of love from home, To our brave soldiers there.

Sing the glad songs they love to hear Beneath the old roof-tree; 'Twill wake in their lone hearts a thrill Of childhood's careless glee.

Tell them the father bears with pride, Of what they do, and dare; Tell them the mother's loving heart Is poured in constant prayer.

Then speed ye, in your tireless flight, To your far Southern home— May peace and glory crown our land, When ye again shall come.

Camp Correspondence. For the West Jersey Pioneer. 24th Regiment, New Jersey Volunteers. ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, EXECUTIVE CAMP, October 20th, 1862.

MR. EDITOR:—Since my last writing no change has taken place in the position of our Regiment, and but little worthy of record has occurred.

It will be gratifying to a large number of your readers to learn that our worthy Chaplain, Rev. Wm. Stockton, seems destined to prove as successful among us as he is acceptable.

The remnant of the First New Jersey Cavalry came and encamped within two miles of us, on Tuesday last, at a place known as "Upton's Hill."

During the present week our men have been variously employed—some as pickets, others upon a neighboring fortification. The general health of the Regiment has not been so good as it was the week preceding this.

close the graves of two who have joined "the innumerable caravan." The one, I am told, contains all that is earthy of a patriot soldier, who fell while fighting for his country; the other of one who was drowned while attempting to swim across the Potomac for a bottle of rum!

arm to the great windless alternately winds and unwinds the great wire cable by which the cars are let down into, and drawn up from the mine.

Many Railways running in different directions to the several mines, frequently cross each other, or pass along one above another. Here many long trains of cars glistening with coal, stand ready for market.

While one heavy laden train is drawn down the valley railway, another from the lower part of the valley is seen coming up.

Constantly hollowing out the earth by taking out the layers of coal—from two to ten feet thick and for miles in extent, to supply the world with heat—leaves fearful caves beneath so that the vicinity of Pitston is undermined; and notwithstanding the precaution to leave supports all through the mine, yet some places cave in.

MR. EDITOR:—The life of a soldier is as uncertain as the weather. Early yesterday morning, when writing the above, we were at Camp Kearney, where, for all most of us knew to the contrary, we were likely to remain for sometime to come.

MR. EDITOR:—A newly raised body of volunteer cavalry mounted and put through the ordinary movement of a field day.

A BEAUTIFUL ILLUSTRATION.—It is said of the Leclanders, that they scrupulously observe the usage of reading the sacred Scriptures every morning, the whole family joining in the singing and prayers.

ACT FROM PRINCIPLE.—The truly beautiful and good are they who pursue the paths of beauty and justice for the mere love of those attributes, and not because they think of the merit that attaches to such a life, or expect to reap favors and rewards therefor.

Encouragement for Husbandsmen. For many years there have not been so great inducements for farmers all over the country to put forth their best efforts to produce largely of horses, cattle, sheep, swine, and other stock, and grain and vegetables as at present.

Encouragement for Husbandsmen. The stock on hand of these products of the farm was very large when the rebellion broke out, and consequently prices have not as yet been very much increased in the northern and western states.

Such a succession of fruitful seasons has never occurred before. Such an exception from yellow fever and other epidemics, even when Northern troops had to remain South, has not been recorded in our history.

Mormonism and Double Love. Last week a company of Mormon emigrants arrived in Boston, on their way to Utah. Among them was noticed a young man, more distinguished in his appearance than the remainder of the company, and near him two young females, deeply veiled, whose delicate faces and reserve indicated them as belonging to a superior social position.

The Pioneer.

Bridgeton, Nov. 8th, 1862. THE PIONEER HAS A LARGER CIRCULATION THAN ANY COUNTY PAPER IN THIS STATE.

Only $1.00 per Year in Advance! JAMES B. FERGUSON, Editor.

IN MEMORIAM.

One of the saddest, perhaps the saddest of our duties as a journalist, is to chronicle the decease of the brave hearts who go forth to battle for their country.

About one year and a half ago, we bid farewell to the Cumberland Grays. It was one of those bright Spring days of the eighteen hundred and sixty one.

The first company of volunteers raised in our county, started on their holy mission to rescue the Constitution, with much of the pomp, display and eclat that attended the Crusaders when going forth to deliver from desecration the sepulchre of our Lord.

A man by the name of James Hughes residing about four miles from Centreville, Salem Co. where he voted on Tuesday last, returned home, burned down his house and barn, and then shot himself by placing a musket to his breast, and firing it.

News of the Week.

Headquarters Army of the Potomac, Sunday evening, Nov. 24, 1862. Gen. Pleasanton yesterday came up with the rebel cavalry and artillery, at Phillimon, about 11 o'clock.

Two British rebel steamers, the Angilla and Scotia, were captured on the 27th ultimo, and taken to Port Royal. The two steamers, with their contents, valued at one million of dollars.

Advices from the army in Southeast Missouri say that after the recent success at Pittman's Ferry, Colonels Lazer and Dewey, with their forces combined, pushed on for Zollinger's Mills, five miles from Pocahontas, where they fought a battle.

The rebels have armed seven regiments of negroes in North Carolina to garrison the forts and towns during the sickly season. They have been in camps of instruction for the three months past.

On the afternoon of September 30th, standing on Washington street in Philadelphia, we saw the 24th, with compact ranks, glittering arms and loud cheers, take up their line of march for the South.

On the morning of the 27th, of October, about one month after his departure for the South, his remains were followed by a large concourse of friends to their final resting place, in the Baptist burial ground in this town.

A TREASURER FROGS—A valuable treasure has just been discovered in the palace of the Marquis del Vasto, who recently died at Palermo.

N. J. Election Returns.

We are indebted to Mr. S. Cochew, Ed. of the West Jersey Press, for his kind attention in furnishing us the following:

The election returns, so far as received, indicate the election of Parker, the Democratic candidate for Governor, and four out of the five Democratic Congressmen.

In Gloucester the whole Union ticket is elected. In Atlantic the Democratic Senator is reported elected, and the Union Assemblyman.

Cape May elects the whole Union Ticket. In Salem the Democrats have made a "clean sweep."

Parker carries the State by from 4000 to 5000. New York has gone for Seymour by at least 80,000.

The Pioneer is printed one day earlier than usual, so that our readers may have the election returns at the earliest date.

Now is the time to prepare for cold weather, and those wishing a good buffalo robe, or a comfortable blanket for their horse, would do well to call at Hanthorn's.

Another part of our army took possession of Snicker's Gap to-day. Two British rebel steamers, the Angilla and Scotia, were captured on the 27th ultimo.

We had no fear of meeting the enemy until we reached the mountain. We passed through Dalestown and Smithfield, where we were welcomed by the citizens.

CUMBERLAND COUNTY ELECTION RETURNS, 1862.

Table with columns for Districts (First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth, Ninth, Tenth, Eleventh, Twelfth, Thirteenth, Fourteenth, Fifteenth, Sixteenth, Seventeenth, Eighteenth, Nineteenth, Twentieth) and Candidates (Governor, Congress, Senate, Clerk, Assembly).

The Union candidate for Sheriff, Lewis H. Dowsney, is re-elected.

These were essential to the negotiation of loans. They have not come in the degree predicted or expected; yet it would be far easier for the Government to borrow today than it was a year ago.

The New Five-Twenty Year Six Per Cent Loan is the only one which the Government is now issuing at par, and large subscriptions are daily making in all the principal cities.

PROCLAMATION

BY CHARLES S. OLDEN, Governor of the State of New Jersey. It being eminently right and proper that we, as a people, should at stated periods offer united thanks to Almighty God for his goodness to us, as manifested by suffering us to lie down and rise up in safety, even in these "troubled times."

NATIONAL FINANCES.

The leading article in the Circular of Messrs. Samuel Hallet & Co. for the steamer, Oct. 29, 1862, is on the National Finances. It contains facts of great importance at this crisis, and the figures can be relied upon as correct.

At the close of the known as the 5-20s, $10,571,100 have been issued. The exact amount of deposits with the Sub-Treasurers on call, is about $65,000,000.

The statement, we believe, is approximately correct, taking the figures as they stood on the 22d inst, and making the liabilities of Government considerably less than the current estimate.

Nothing now disturbed the dull monotony of camp life, and we began to wish the rebels would cross into Maryland, or that we would be ordered to Virginia again.
