TWO-HORSE LEVER POWER. WOULD call the attention of Farmers and others to my TWO-HORSE LEVER POWER, which has been throughly tested and proven to be, I think, a power that must supersede all Endless Chain power or the old Lever. It is of very Light Draught, and can be moved from place to place readily, it being fixed on wheels with tounge &c., complete, and can be placed in position for work in less time than any other kind of power. The exceeding cheapness of the inachine is its greatest recommendation.

Her father fled from the city at the time of its occupation by the United States forces, leaving her in a state of destitution. She wanted to live in one of her father's houses, but her story was not credible, and he determined to investigate it. To his surprise it was found to be well known, and testimony of its truth was obtained from A, B and C, without difficulty. Notwithstanding this fact, widely known as it was, this man could be elected in Louisiana, in the City of New Orleans, a judge of one of the Courts. On one occasion one of his aids brought before him a young woman almost white who had been brutally whipped and turned out of the house of her father. For this outrage the man had been made to pay a fine of $1,000 and give the woman a deed of emancipation. These were the kind of charges which had been brought against him. Among the most attractive features of Van Emburg & Co.'s Menagerie is the celebrated elephant, Hannibal, the lar gest animal ever exhibited in this country or in Europe, and as the old fellow has so frequently furnished newspaper itemizers with maierial for spicy phara graphs that have become familiar to almost every one, a brief sketch of his his tory may be found of interest.

Hannibal was brought to this country in 1824 from the East Indies, and was purchased by a butcher in New York, who exhibited him for a time in that city.— He shortly after fell into the hauds of his present owners, who have retained him ever since and who would not now sell him at any price. He was supposed to be about twenty-five years of age when imported, which wou'd make him sixtythree years old at the present time. Hannibal first distinguished himself at the Zoological Institute in the Bowery, New York, in 1825, when he saved the life of his keeper, Mr. Joseph Martin, And said, "When our ship comes in from the who now resides at Girard in Eric County. A large tiger and tigress had escaped from their cage and fastened upon a lama which was allowed to run wild about the building. Mr. Martin, hearing the noise, entered the apartment without suspecting the extent of his danger, when the tiger immediately crouched to spring upon him. Martin was entirely unarmed, and all resisiance to the infuriated beast would have been useless. At this junc ture Hannibal rushed forward, seized his keeper, and raising him out of danger held him in safety until assistance arrived and the animals were secured.

.The admirable disposition exhibited by Hannibal in the incident just narrated gained him great credit with the public as a humane and well-disposed elephant, of good feelings and generouses impulses; but his subssequent conduct, we are sorry to say, has entirely destroyed that favorable impression; and he is now regarded, and not without reason, as a morose and ncorrigible old rascal, who can only be ment. This regiment has been on this post since the 13th of May last, and since McClellan's Army left the Peninsula, it has been the advance post between Yorktown and Richmond.

Nothing serious has occurred to us since the 9th of September, on which date we were visited by a portion of the Holcom Legion of S. C., and a part of the 7th Va. Cavalry, commanded by Col. FROM NORTH CAROLINA.

NEWBERN N. C., Jan. 21.-Newspapers from the interior indicate that the rebels are greatly exercised about the concentration of U.S. troops in this department. Refugees state that the rebels admit that they cannot much longer maintain their stand without foreign in-

The Progress of the War.

The importance upon the campaign n the West of the capture of Duvall's Bluff and Des Arc, on the White River in Arkansas, which we publish in this week's paper, can scarcely be over estimated. Their effect is to cut off the forces of the enemy in Missouri from those in Arkansas, and by placing in our possession the two principle streams which traverse the latter State, give us the key to its military occupation. Besides this our forces are now almost within striking distance of Little Rock, the Capital of ers to the volunteer fund.

After a spirited debate between Messrs Holsman, Chandler and Crowell the resolutions were referred to the committee on Federal Relations.

Mr. Scovel offered the following: Whereas, The Sixoux Indians have nade frequent incursions on our Western frontier, and the danger of their overrunning the State of New Jersey is regarded as imminent; therefore,

Resolved, That in the third district of the county of Camden a regiment of infantry be raised, to be commanded by -, for the special service of preventing the dangerous "influx" of this copper colored race.

The resolutions was not adopted. Mr. Bateman presented a petition for an act to authorize Richard Stanton and others to dam of Bower's creek, and reclaim lands on its banks.

January 27th. SENATE -Ordered third Reading-Act to incorporate the Eagle Glass Manifacturing Company of Cumberland:

Troops are being sent from Cario to Milliken's bend. Gen. Grant was expected to move on the 27th. Joe Johnston is in commann at Vicksburg, and the rebels have staked all their hopes and strength upon that place. It is reported that the national expedition has reached a point twenty miles above Vicksburg.

Secretary Stanton has authorized Gov. Andrew of Massachusetts, to raise regiments of Black men to serve for three years, unless sooner discharged. Gen. Foster does not think that a Military Govenor is longer! needed in North Carolina, and Govenor Stanly will soon depart from that scene of his labors. The loyal people are much dissatisfied with him and petitions have been sent to President Lincoln to remove him.

Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln have presented to ex-Govenor Newell, of New-Jersey, a beautiful and costly gold-headed cane, as a testimony of their appreciation of his professional services to their family when suffering from sickness several months since.

Talk About Hard Times AND HIGH PRICES,

(ALL BOSH!) (ALL BOSH!)

Go io Grosscup's, and you will find the largest before the continuous of Goods ever offered in Bridgeton-bough early in the season, and are being sold at so near the OLD PRICES that all are satisfied, and buy at once, as they see their is no use of looking farther. Hence the secret of Grosscup's Store being always crowded, and his large force on hand always hurried WLT: WORE.

He would farther announce, in this connection, that he has secured the services of a few more first class journeymen from Philadelphia, and also an assistant in the Cutting Department, and will, therefore be able to fill all orders with more promptness here after than has been possible heretofere on account of the cons' ant increase of business.

Remember the place for bargains, good fits and superior workmanship is opposite Davis' Hotel.

N. B.—Wanted twenty good hands to make up fine coats, pants and vests, and to save trouble none but good hands need apply, and to such, good prices will be Paid, and constant employment will be given.

BARGAINS In Clothes, Cassimeres, Sattinets, and Vestings at Grosscups. I have on hand a large stock of Goods for men and boys wear. Bought early in the season, before the recent rise in Goods, which I am selling very cheap by the yard, or make to order at very low prices. PHILOSOPHERS.

BY THE BARD OF TOWER HALL.

The Philosophers of old Were in companies enrolled, And each company or "school" Had its own distinctive rule. Thus the Epicurians thought
That Dame wisdom's pupil's ought To avoid melancholy,
And be always brisk and jolly.
The Stoics, meek and humble,
Thought it impious to grumble,
Whatever might betide them; And if tyrants stewed or fried them, And their smoking bodies buttered; No complaints they ever uttered; The Cynice snarled at riches And made their homes in ditches, Or in hogsheads incommodious, Beeming luxury quite odious. But the Gymnosophist packs Wore no garments on their backs; A custom indefensible, Being neither nice nor sensible. I very much suspect
That no member of the sect,
Seeing Tower Hall's attractions,
Had adheren to such queer actions,
But had choson a better rule
And joined Plato's well dressed school.

We have the largest assortment of Ready-made Clothing in Philadelphia, adapted to all occasions, tastes, and pockets.

DR. LA CROIX'S PRIVATE MEDICAL TREATISE Physiological View of Marriage.

Physiological View of Marriage.

250 PAGES/AND 130 ENGRAVINGS.—Price only 25 cents. Sent free of postage to all parts of the Union. On the infirmities of youth and maturity, disclosing the secret follies of both sexes of all ages, causing debility, nervousness, depression of spirits, palpitation of the heart, suicidal imaginings, involuntary emissions, blushings, defective memory, indigestion and lassitude, with confessions of thrilling interest of a Boarding School Miss, a College Student and a young Married Lady, &c. It is a tratiful adviser to the married and those contemplating marriage, who entertain secret doubts of their physical condition, and who are conscious of having hazarded the health, happiness, and priviledges to which every human being is entitled.

YOUNG MEN who are troubled with weakness, generally caused by a bad habit in youth, the effects of which are dizziness, pains, forgetfulness, sometimes a ringing in the ears, weak eyes, weakness of the back and lower extremities, confusion of ideas, loss of memory, with melancholy, may be cured by the author's new Paris and London treatment.

We have, recently devoted much of our time in visiting the European Hospitals, availing ourselves of the knowledge and researches of the most skilled Physicians and Surgeons in Europe and the Continent. Those who place themselves under our care will now have the full benefit of the many new and efficacious remedies which we are enabled to introduce into our practice, and the public may rest assured of the same zeal, assiduity, secrecy and attention being paid to their cases, which has so successfully distinguished us heretofore as a Physician in our peculiar department of professional practice for the past twenty-five years.

Farnch Female Periodical Pills. The only precantion necessary to be observed is, ladies should uct take them it they have reason to believe they are in certain situations (the particulars of which will be found on the wrapper accompanying each box.) though always safe and healthy, so gentl
