For the West Jersey Pioneer. To the Citizens of Bridgeton and Cumberland County.

BRIDGETON, March 1st, 1864. I am happy to inform you that the cloud which has been hauging over my professional reputation for several months has at last been dissipated. Without entering into a detailed history of the causes, manner and person, that affected my removal from the position of First Assistant Surgeon of . Fifth Regiment, New Jersey Volunteers. Suffice it to say that I was removed by the Secretary of War, without a trial or Court Martial, merely by charges expressed on paper, by H. F. Vanderveer, former surgeon of Fif:h New Jersey; and without the knowledge of another officer in the same regiment. The charges, unsustained by a single proof, were put into the hands of E P. Vollom, who, calling himself Medical Inspector of Army of the Potomac, took no neasures to investigate the truth or falsity of the charges - or not even demanded an oath from Vanderveer himself, that the charges were true - but immediately forwarded them to the Secretary of War-and the latter took action upon them by removing me. As soon as official netice of my removal was forwarded to the regiment, all the officers of the regiment, except Vandeveer and two or three others, immediately circular-petitioning my re instatement; and expressing in the petition a perfect satisfaction with my medical and surgical treatment during my connection with the regiment.

Notwithstanding this circular, and the fact that not a single charge was proved against me, according to Dr. Vollom's own acknowledgement. Still, some of the Washington authorities, carrying out to the letter some red tape regulationsrefused either to reinstate, or give me an honorable discharge from the Medical service of the U.S. Army, unless I submitted to an examination, and came off successfully.

To meet this dilemma in which I was placed, I appeared before the Medical Board of Regular Army, convened in the City of New York, last December, between Christmas and New Years'. I appeared before the Board - composed of Doctors Alexander B. Mott, Horace Wurtz and William A. Sprague, Surgeons in regular Army, and I was subjected to a searching examination for several days - and several hours each day. In this circular, issued to me from Surgeon General's Office, you will perceive the result of the examination.

SUBGEON GENERAL'S OFFICE, Washington City, D. C; Jan. 2d, 1864,

Assistant Adjuta nt General Since this letter from the Adjutant General was received, I have exchanged one or two letters with Gov. Parker, declining any commission in connection with any regiment.

CHARACTER OF EXAMINATION AND EX-

GENERAL'S REPORT, The examination was partly oral and partly written, embracing subjects contained in all the seven branches of medicine, and particuembracing larly thorough on some of the intricate subjects contained in branches of Anatomy and Surgery. The oral portion of the examination was conducted in the presence of all the Professors. After one of them had given me a most thorough quizzing on his special subjects-then came the second; then the third putting me through a similar ordeal, without any respite. The questions, at times. coming with such great rapidity, and embracing so many points of medical literaturewould have made any one, less conversant with medical subjects, feel very uncomortable. Of all the examinations, both iterary and medical, to which I have been subjected, there were only two that examination at Princeton Coland final examination on the Theory and Practice of Medicine -- passed before

Doctor George B. Wood, in Philadelphia, for the degree of M. D. Dr. Alexander B. Mot, one of the examining Board, is a son of the great Valentine Mott, in New York city-who has no equal in this country, and very few in Europe. The medical and surgical knowledge of the son is considered to be equal to that of the father-although he does not enjoy quite as wide-spread a reputation. Wurtz and Sprague, the other members of the board, are surgeons in the regular Army, and manifested by their questions as much familiarity with their several branches, and as much keen ness and vigos of intellect as Mott. An examination passed before such men, of the first order of medical and surgical talent, and men who were untrammelled by any political prejudice, and terminating successfully, seemed to indicate some medical worth on my part. The exami-nation was not a mere political sham because out of forty-five candidates who were examined before the same Board, during the past year, only ten of that number were considered professionally qualified, and were offered a commission. All the candidates too, were regular graduates of some medical institutioneither in Philadelphia or New York City. So that when thirty-five, out of forty-five regular graduates are rejected, it would indicate that the standard for medical qualifications, as originated and sustained by this Board, was of an elevated charac-

This decision of the Medical Board, in my case, I value, not merely because of the commission which it conferred, the removal of disability which it bringsbut because of its elavating my profes-sional merit to a height which I never hoped to attain. This decision, harmonizing, too, with the opinion that had been formed of me by medical Professors, in the University of Pennsylvania, who not | and bound, with him, to judgment and | then over the market-house, and immedi merely gave me their diploma, but were willing to confer a personal recommendation upon me, because of the character of my final examination, for degree of M. PAYING TOO MUCH FOR MONEY. The passion for making money is uni versal. In all ages, and in all countries, this has been a literal truth, and to-day he desire for gain is, perhaps, more intense and deep rooted than ever before. It is not wrong to desire money, or to labor for it. The Bible does not forbid its acquisition ; on the contrary, it plainly teach es us, both in letter and in spirit, that it is honorable and right to demand some tangible, earthly equivalent for all our labors. The whole idea of the Gospel and its divine Author is, that a recompense or a reward is just, and should be desired to withhold the hire of the laborer, and pays so well for service as God. He constantly holds up to our view the truth that Christian men shall be rewarded for industry, frugality, and thrift in all their carthly labors. A devout laborer, who with heart and soul, does what his hands find to do, in the very nature of things, deserves more than a lazy sentimental idler-and he always gets it. But men sometimes pay too much for money. They give too much of their time, their bodily strength and their thought for it. Dr. Franklin, when a boy, paid too dearly for the desire of his heart, a tin whistle, and he had the honesty to admit it. Rich men, with no Christian motive to stimulate them in all their lobors, are forever paying too dearly for gold .-

Let us see about this Here is a man who devotes all his time and strength, in season and out of season. to making money by manufacturing intoxicating drinks. He knows that his business-while it may be very profitable to daily counsels, watch and care. It costs too much by far to neglect your family -It costs you peace and quiet in your declining years. It costs the ruin of sons and daughters. It costs the health and may be the reason or life of the wife of your youth. Many see these things when it is too late.

Any man who makes money at the exense of all recreation and relaxation. pays too much for it. How many thousands there are in New York who deny them selves the fresh breezes of the country, and that rest of body which is so really necessary, in order to pile ud their gold a little longer. Wife and children are kept in the city, or sent wandering off alone, pressing. Such people say, "we have no time to play now. When we get rich then talk to us." We say to these men. you have no business to spend your best days that way. Money obtained at such sacrifice costs too much—that is certain. Money made by depriving yoursalf of family and home almost always costs too much. Suppose you do find, in California or in Australia, a mountain of gold?what shall it profit you if your family are left to sufler and be scattered, or have none of a husbaud's and father's care? -Will money obtained at such a price do you any real good, think you?

Money made at the expense of moral principle always costs too much. Here is a dexterious gentleman who has made (?) a thousaed dollars by cheating the Government. There is another man who does not pay one-half the amount of taxes which he ought to. Yonder is a third who breaks the Sabbath in a desperate effort to earn a few extra dollars. And again, there is a whole flock of men who will sell all their principles with their goods in order to get rich a little faster. What do you think, reader, about money-making in that direction. Conscience-choking is nearly as neck-breaking, and seldom proves profitable. We have before us a letter from a repected lady friend in Cuba See, in the following extract, what she says about a system of money-making now practiced here, and judge whether we have any

When the great settling day comesif not before-it will be found that the wealth of this "gentleman, who lives in Havana," costs a little too much. O, what a fearful reckoning he will have with the Great Bookkeeper—and his balance-sheet will soon be ready.

While, therefore, it is right, and a duty to make money, in a proper way, with good motives, and with a good object ever in view, it is wrong, in securing it, to do violence to yourself, to your neighbor, to your health, to your family, to your conscience, to moral principle, or to anything which is pure, noble, and good. Domestic Happiness.

Domestic happiness has intrinsic worth; it may be realized in poverty; it is internal; above the control of circumstance Sush happiness is a flower of paradise that has been suffered to stray beyond its walls; and though with us it does not bloom in original perfection, yet its blossoms, as we may gather them, are too lovely to leave us in doubt whether it is worth our culture. Of all earthly goods this is Heaven's best gift to man. Whilst there is no other kind of joy that can compensate for its absence, it may alike gild the mud walls of the cabin, or shed vitality and warmth over the cold state of the palace. There is no condition of life to which it may not because the business of the husband is so add untold price. Monarchs there have been who have heard the exulting shout of victory, have joined it for a moment, then inwardly sighed; rebellious sons were a thorn in the heart whose ranking prick was felt to kill all joy. Merchants may have amassed their millions; their names may have been honored in various parts of the globe; but in a moment, when success and security have attended some favorite scheme of hazardous enterprise, in all the bitterness of anguish, the soul has whispered, "This is but mockery to him who would ask it to atone for the absence of domestic love " Poets have lived whose brows have been wreathed by a fascinated nation, but whose spirits have loathed the laurels, for thorns grew at home. But never monarch, merchant, nor poet found domestic bliss a joy too much. He who has once possessed it would not barter it for

The Burial of Joseph. Through what a land of poetry and peril was the dead body of Joseph brought out of Egypt! What painter is there bold enough to grapple with such a subject? Amid all the plauges of Egypt there stood the coffin ready to be borne away: in the deep darkness which overshadowed the land it was not torgotten: the pillar of fire flashed upon it by night, and by day it moved slowly behind the pillar of cloud; through the Red Sea it was carried, between that high and terrible wall of waters, which, when it had passed, rolled back, and became the grave of the haughty Egyptians. Through the storm and battle, and the perils of the wilderness, and

When Moses held up his wearied arn and conquered Amalek, it was there. On the waves of war it was washed to the Promised Land; it followed the ark of God when Jordan was divided, and was at last buried in the field of Sbechem, in the ground which Jacob had long before purchased of the sons of Mamre. In the whole annals of time there is no funeral procession on record that comes near in sublimity and grandeur to his, who, when young, was sold as a slave to the Egypt-

GOOD ADVICE. - Be frank with the world. Frankness is the field of honesty and courage. Say on every occasion just what you mean to do, and let your intention be to do what is right, whether the world is pleased or mad. Never do a wrong thing either to make a friend or keep one. Never buy friendship or abuse it. Deal kindly but firmly with all. Eschew hypocrisy. Do not be one thing to a man's face, and another behind his back. If you have a complaint against any one, tell him, and not others of it.

The Confederacy.

The brilliant movements of General' Kilpatrick and Custer, in their great raid through Virginia-from Culpepper to Yorktown-bave developed a condition of things, in the very heart of the rebel territory-we had long surmised-"the Confederacy" is rotten to the core. With five thousand men, Kilpatrick galloped to the very gates of Richmond-threw shells into the city, and defied its defenders .-Nothing more magnificent has occurred during the war. But its good results are not measured by the bridges he destroyed, burned. It has shown us that the only strength of the rebellion is on the surface Its armies - which have been their boast -and, to fill whose ranks, they have sent their best blood - have been to them what the tillandsia, or Spanish moss, has been to their live oaks-looking beautiful and the blood and destroying the very elements of life within.

Those armies have been great mael stroms-swollowing up and forever engulphing thousands of the sons of the South. Day by day they have been grow- heavy set; black hair and whiskers. ing weaker in men and means. Their arsuch a flourish of trumpets, and with the family of the deceased. boasts, perfectly tropical in their magnitude, have been defeated in nearly every fairly contested field. Clothed with rags, and scantily supplied with food, they are wasting away by a destroyer more terrible than the leaden hail of battle. They cannot supply the places of the fallen .-Nearly every able-bodied man has long since been driven to the army by a remorseless conscription—which left only home; and now, as if to bid defiance to the laws of God himsel, they compel the river. young and the old to proceed to the front. This last order is an open avowel of their weakness. They have been compelled to force into the ranks of their armies those who are exempt, by the laws of all civilized nations, from military duty. The inhuman butchers at Richmond are mad with blood, and like their phototypes of the French Revolution, the more suffering and bloodshed they cause, the more sanguinary they become. "Whom the Gods wish to destroy they first make mad." How thoroughly is this being exemplified in our own day and country.

A rebellion-instigated by pride, by an unholy ambition, and by a people so infatuated and conceited, that the dictates least, the beginning of the end is at hand, we can begin to realize somewhat of its results. It has destroyed what a century stroyed; and a circulating medium, as worthless as the cause which it weakly sustains. Where and what the end will be, we cannot fully anticipate; but the angel of death has now spread his wings over the land, and is scattering pestilence and famine and death; and does it need any stretch of the imagination to realize the desolation and mourning that must follow. It seems to us that an eternity of these results, will be too short.

New Jersey Conference.

The New Jersey Conference Education Society, to aid young men who contemplate cutoring the ministry, held its first annual meeting on Thursday afternoon. Interesting addresses were delivered by Bishop Simpson, Rev. D. W. Bartine, D. D. of Philadelphia, A. K. Street of this Bethesda, Conference, by the President, and S. Y. Freehold, Monroe. A liberal collection was taken. Englishtown, and the Society starts on its career with prospects of great usefulness.

This morning, at the early hour of f o'clock Bishop Simpson addressed the young men of the Conference on the importance of the Christian ministry. The address occupied about forty minutes, and was one of a series of familiar morning lectures which he is presenting for the consideration of young ministers through. out the country This morning the Bish. op's theme was the call to the ministry, and the importance of preparation for and steadiness of purpose in prosecuting its duties. It was listened to with profound attention, not only by young men, but by many who have been more than a score of is second lecture to-morrow morning.

The Conference business was resumed at the usual hour. Bishop Simpson in the Windsor & Sharon, chair. The devotional exercises were conducted by A. Owen. The annual missionary sermon was delivered Friday afternoon by Rev. S Y. Monroe, and was equal to the best performance of that able minister.

In the evening the church was densely crowded on the occasion of the anniversary of the Mission Society of the New Jersey Conference. There were several speakers. and amongst them C. Walsh, Esq., of Newton, Newark. The meeting lasted until ten Gloucester City, o'clock, and was one of much interest .-The missionary collection for the year amounted to about $13 000, being about $4,000 in advance of last year.

We offer this article to farmers with the assurance that it is what we say it is, viz: an excellent and reliaable application for all crops requiring a stimulating and permanent manure. The demand for it during the past 5 years shows a steady and large increase in its consumption, taxing our ability to keep pace with the orders during the planting season. We have been constantly engaged in manufacturing since last fall, and trust the supply will be equal to the demand—We suggest however, that orders be sent in with as little delay as possible.

AMERICAN WATCHES AFTER A THOROUGH TRIAL OF MORE THAN TEN YEARS, the time-pieces manufactured by the America a Watch Co., of Waltham, Mass., have gained a firm hold upon the favor of the public, and now, no less chan 75,000 of them are speaking for themselves in the pockets of the people. From a very insignificant beginning the business has increased until we are justified in stating that WE MAKE MORE THAN ONE HALF of all the watches sold in the United States. Repeated enlargement of our factory builting

ONE HALF of all the watches sold in the United States. Repeated enlargement of our factory buildings, and the labor of 500 operatives, still find us unequal to supply the constantly increasing demand.—And we may here observe that notwithstanding the high price of labor and watchield and materials. high price of labor and materials, we actually sell our products at less prices than those current five years We refer to these facts only for the purpose of pro

We refer to these facts only for the purpose of properly introducing another subject relative to our manufacture of watches. Hitherto our chief object has been to make GOOD watches for the million at the lowest possible price—something to take the place of the make-believe watches called "Ancres," "Lepines," "English Patent Levers," &c., annually thrown upon this market in countless numbers, by European workshops—watches which are the refuse of their factories, unsaleable at home, and perfectly worthless everywhere.

This object we have accomplished, and now we have to announce, that we have commenced the manufacture of watches of the very HIGHEST GRADE KNOWN TO CHRONOMETRY

HIGHEST GRADE KNOWN TO CHRONOMETRY unequalled by anything hitherto made by ourselves and unsurpass d by anything made in the world—for this we have the amplest facilities. We have erected an addition to our main buildings expressly for this branch of our business, and have filled it with the best workmen in our service. Profiting by our long experience, we have remodelled the form of our watches, introducing such improvements as have been suggested and proved to be good from time to time and have instituted new and severe tests of isochronism, adjustment and compensation. New machines and appliances have been constructed, which perform their work with consumate delicacy and exactitude, and the choicest and most approved materials only are used. Nothing in fact is wanting either in mechanical principles, Material or workmanship to ensure perfection in the result.

We continue to manufacture our other well known qualities under the following names
"APPLETON, TRACY & Co.." qualities under the ionowing

"APPLETON, TRACY & Co.," P. S. BARTLETT,"
And the "Soldier's Watch,"

"WM. ELLERY."

The latter, the lowest priced watch we make, is a substantial, reliable time-piece, cased in sterling silver—hunting pattern, and is not liable to get out of order either in marching, riding, or fighting. All the above described watches, including the finest, which is named "AMERICAN WATCH COMPANY," are sold by statch dealers generally the pulpout the country. atch dealers generally throghout the country.

TICKINGS,

A Watch for 30 Cents. HORSE AND HIS BY DR. MC.

Dr. Mott has overcome the great dimentity of doctoring Horses successfully, by learning to locate a Horses disease or lameness as necurately as if the Horse could speak and tell you himself. This information will be found in this work; it is a plain common sense work, using no terms but what are intelligible to any person that can read; it treats on every disease or lameness the Horse is heir to, with their symptoms, remedies and cures.

PRICE FIFTY CENTS. I will mail the above Book on receipt of price to any address, which is the publisher's lowest retail price, with the following inducement to purchasers, with every Twenty Books sold I will give away a SPLENDID HUNTING-CASE SILVER WATCH,

NYLEMBID RUNTIME-CAME MINER WATCH,
In the following manner, commencing at one, and when the 20th book is sold the purchaser will receive a Watch. Achibof twenty will be sure of a Watch, or any person sending the Fifty Cents, and it be the 20th book since the last watch was given, will receive a Watch and Book. I have distributed over 500 watches in this way the last year, and have a written certificate from every person receiving one. This is no gift enterprise or brass Jewelry humbing. The Watches will surely be given as above. The Book is more than worth the money to any person, and the chance of getting a beautiful Watch for nothing.

I would refer to the undersigned parties who have received a Book and Watch for 50 cents:

H. F. HOOVER respectfully informs his friends and the public generally of West and South Jersey, in want of FURNITURE, that they will find it greatly to their advantage to purchase at his Warehouse, where they will find a large stock of the modern styles to select from.

The subscriber begs to say that his facilities for manufacturing, and buying his materials for cashhaving no apprentices, but employing the best workmen—enables him to offer great inducements to those in want of really good Furniture at low prices, as he much prefers the "nimble sixpence" to the "slow shilting."

All goods bought at his Warehouse will be warranted, and if intended for the country will be packed with care and dispatched.
