" WHAT THE BIRDS SAY. BY JOHN G. WHITTIEB.

The birds, against the April wind, Flew northward, singing as they flew; They sang, "The land we leave behind Has swords for corn blades blood for dew." "O wild-birds, flying from the South, What saw and heard ye, gazing down?" "We saw the mortar's upturned mouth, The sickened.camp, the blasing town:

Beneath the bivouac's starry lampe, We saw your march w'rn children die; In shrouds of moss, in cypress swampe, We saw your dead ancoffined lie. "We heard the starvish prisoner's sighs; And saw, from line and trench, your sons Follow our flight with home sick eyes Beyond the battery's smoking gens."

"And heard and saw ye only wrong; And pain," I cried, "O wing work flock!" "We beard, they sang, "the Freedman's s The crash of Slavery's byoken locks! "We saw, from new, uprising States, The Treason nursing mischiefspurn'd, As, crowding Freedom's ample gates, The long-estranged and lost return'd.

"O'er dusky faces, seamed and old.
And hands horn hard with unpaid toil,
With hose in every rustling fold,
We saw your star-droy flag uncoil.

"And, struggling up through sounds accurse A grateful murmer clumb the air, A whisper scarcely heard at first." It filled the listening heavens with prayer. "And sweet and far, as from a star, Replied a voice which shall not cease, Till drowning all the noise of war, It sings the blessed songs of peace!"

So to me, in a doubtful day Of chill and slowly-greening Spring, Low stooping from the clondy gray. The wild bird sang or seemed to sing,

They vanished in the misty air,
The song went with them in their flight;
But oh! they left the sunset fair,
And in the evening there was light. DIRGE FOR A SOLDIER. Close his eyes, his work is done, What to him is friend or foeman, Rise of moon or set of sun, Hand of man, or kies of woman?

As man may, he fought his fight, Proved his truth by his endeavor Let him sleep in solemn night, Sleep forever, and forever. Fold him in his country's stars, Roll the drum and fire the volley; What to him are all our wars, What but death bemocking folly? Leave him to God's watching eye.

War Stimulating Cotton Production One of the most obvious results of the war. lying so conspicuously above all others, indeed, as to have attracted universal prophecy when sequences, was the transfer of cotton production to foreign countries, and the destruction of the support of that institution which began the war to insure its support. It was evident when the first blow fell that whether slavery lived or died, its condition would be so disor-dered. Southern society so broken up, industry so paralysed, that the cotton supply could not be kept up, and the enormously remunerative prices would force competition wherever cotton seed would sprout. So it has proved, though many difficulties as yet hinder the full growth and effect of such competition. In the free states, in India, in Egypt, in Algiers, in South America, cotton growing has been introduced and is yielding constantly increasing crops.— Recently Asia has entered the field with its vast inland stretches, as well as those by the seashore and Gulf of Bengal; and the efforts made there have been successful, both with re-gard to quality and quantity. We understand that advices have peen received at the State Department that the amount of cotton cultivarebellion broke out. It is packed in small bales and brought across the Kirghiz Steppes bales and brought across the Kirghiz Steppes to Orenburg on the backs of camels, and from thence to the great market of Nijni-Novogorod. The staple is fine, of good length and well adapted for manufacture. A large order has been sent to this country for cotton seeds for Russia, and American workmen has gone to St. Petersburg to establish a manufactory of cotton gins in the region where the plants can

As the season of bugs approaches, it will be well to bear in mind the advice of the Country Gentleman. Housekeepers not desirous of being carried out of the world by bugs, will be glad to learn that they cannot stand hot alum water. Take two pounds of alum, bruise it, and reduce it to powder; dissolve it in three quarts of water; let it remain in a warm place till the alum is dissolved. The alum water is to be applied hot, by means of a brush, to every joint and crevice. Brush the crevices in the floor, whitewash the ceiling, putting in plenty of alum, and there wil be an end to their dropping thence. It is said that when General Grant was going down from Washington to the front one day last week, the train, having attached to it the special car, stopped at Brandy Station. Some soldiers who were waiting to go down asked if they could not get in the car. "No," was the answer of an officer; "this is Gen. Grant's special car." Gen. Grant, who was sitting by the window, promptly thrust his head out and said, "Gen. Grant occupies only one seat; the soldiers can ride.

You can stop a clock, at any moment, but you cannot stop a watch." The same emark my brethern, applies to the stopping the talk of a man, and of a woman. He is a great, coarse, ugly machine, but you can silence him. She is a beautiful fragile, jeweled thing-but she will run on until she stops of herself.

We should always rest satisfied with doing well, and let others talk of us as tney please; for they can do us no injury although they may think they have found a flaw in our proceedings, and are determined to rise on our downfall, or profit by our injury.

The result is, too frequently, that lidies of this class lose what little health they started in life with, becoming fashionable. In this neglect of household cares American ladies stand alone. A German lady, no matter how elevated her rank, never forgets that domestic labors conduce to the health of mind and body alike. An English lady, whatever may be her position in society, does not neglect the affairs of her household, and, even though she has a housery course of this, results in a lassitude of mind often as fatal to health as the neglect of bodily exercise. It turns out that J. Howard, Jr., City Editor of the Brooklyn Eagle, is the person who forged the Proclamation, and procured its insertion in as many of the city newspapers as he succeeded in duping. He has acknowledged the fact, and has been sent to Fort Lafayette. struck Gen. Heckman's brigade, enveloping its flauk and nearly surrounding it. Gen. Heck-man was temporarily missing, having been separated from his command by the enemy, and Col. Zabriskie was wounded. After desperate fighting, in which the 9th acted with heir accustomed gullantry, the right was forced back by overpowering numbers, and the enemy directed their attack upon the whole line of the 18th corps, with feints on the 10th. Finally the enemy forced fhe 18th under Gen. Smith from its position and attacked the 10th under Gen. Gillinore. Thrice they were burled against it with desperate energy and as of-ten repulsed with terrible slaughter. After this success, the fighting having continued from daybreak until two o clock in the atternoon, our entire army fell back, the enemy not venturing to pursue. In the evening, the order to fall back to a new position was given by Gen. Butter, and his column is now believed to be in an attitude to defy the whole power of Lee's army, or to reoccupy its original posiion whenever an advance is ordered. Gen: Beauregard commanded in this battle, in person, assisted by Gens. Hoke and Ransom .-The enemy's losses in this reries of attacks is Butler as still in the posiion to which he had retired after the battle on the 16th. On the 17th, heavy columns of the enemy with large trains were observed passing towards Petersburg, and it was determined to destroy the trains. Accordingly Gen. Foster, was desputched with a force of infanry and cavalry, to cut off the trains, but found the enemy fully on their guard. He tried to pierce several points of their line without sucess, and finally discovering that the woods teemed with the enemy and that Beauregard was in full force before our works, he returned to camp without having accomplished the bject of his errand. The next morning the 18th, the enemy threw out a heavy line of skirmishers and drove in our pickets to within a few hundred yards of our breastworks, when their advance was checked. They are engaged in throwing up works in front of our line, but thether for the purpose of a siege or to cover their railroad communications, is not known. FROM GENERAL BUTLER Moonlight Battle Sunday Nigh on James River.

REPULSE OF GEN. BEAUREGAED From the Washington Republican Extra, Monday evening May 28.

Lieutenant-Commander Lowry, of the Navy, left General Butler's head-quarters, on the James River, on Sunday morning, and arrived here about noon to-day. He has had an inter view this afternoon with the President and Secretary of War. He states that General Beauregard made a desperate attack upon Gen eral Butler's centre, commanded by General dillmore, on Saturday night, by moonlight .-Deep ravines protect the works in front of General Butler's right and left; hence the attack was made exclusively upon the centre Beauregard led the assaulting column in per son. His force altogether numbered at least 40,000 men, and they were all massed and thrown into this fight. Commander Lowry describes the attack as the most impetuous and promising, for the ime, in the series of charges made, that could be imagined. The Rebels yelled as they came up, like wild men. Gillmore kept his batteries silent until the enemy massed and was within the best possible distance and range, when the word was given, and the death-dealing cannon opened along the whole centre. In an instant the Rebel shouting ceased; the defiant column advanced no longer. Nothing but a skeleton was left of it to reel and stagger back. Benuregard rallied new men to breach, and again and again Gillmore hurled the defiant Traitofs back. The battle lasted two hours, closing about midnight, and was probably one of the most desperate conflicts, for the time it occupied and the number of men engaged, that has occurred during the war.

There is little doubt that Benuregard was einforced for this occasion, with the hope of verpowering General Butler. Instead of dong so, however, he was most gallantly and ompletely repulsed, with terrible slaughter.

During the battle, the gun-boats on the James and Appomattox Rviers shelled the eneny, doing great execution. General Butler was commanding in person during the entire battle, and at times very much exposed. The position occupied by General Butler's orces, on a neck of land formed by the course the two rivers, is impregnable. It is sure death and defeat to any force, however formidable, that may attempt to take it.

Our loss on Saturday night was comparatively slight, as we were fighting behind works. but the enemy's loss must have been very large from the fact that they were concentrated upon the centre in masses, and were not fired upon until near enough to be moved down with ocr-

Commander Lowry says he saw the enemy's ranks completely swept away one after the The whole effair is a complete success on the part of General Butler, and has proved awfully expensive to Beauregard.

General Warren captured a good number of prisoners, last evening, but has not had time to count them or ascertain his loss. General Huncock, in storming the rifle pits this side of the river last evening, also took between one hundred and two hundred prisoners, and drove many Rebels into the river, where they were drowned.

Heavy Reinforcements Going Forward to Grant. WASHINGTON, May 25 .- We have advices

rom the Army of the Potomac up to noon yesterday. General Sheridan has arrived with his cavalry, and has been ordered to keep open communications between our army and Fredericksburg. He has opened up communication with our gun boats on the James and York River.

General Warren held the advance yesterday beyond the North Anna River. Our troops are all across, and following the enemy closely. No heavy fighting has taken place: the Rebel do not seem to be in a condition to deliver battle, and they have been out manœuvered so often as to be entirely out of spirits.

The impression gains ground that there is considerabled ficulty in getting stores for Lee's army, and the Rebels hope, by crushing Butler, to secure what he has, and undisturbed rail road communication with the South. General Lee is positively falling back upor Richmond, and hopes evidently to get our army into a trap. It is understood that Grant Troops are being pushed forward rapidly yet, and it is the design of the Government to keep up the flow of men southward until the Rebellion is orushed.

U. S.10-40 BONDS

These Bonds are issued under the Act of Congress of March 8th, 1864, which provides that all Bonds issued under this act shall be EXEMPT FROM TAX. ATION by or under any state or municipal authority abscriptions to these Bonds are received in United States notes or notes of National Banks. They are TO BE REDEEMED IN COIN, at the pleasure of the Government, at any period not less than TEN no more than FORTY YEARS from their date, and un'i their redemption Five Per Cent. Interest will be per in COIN, on Bonds of not over one hundred dole annually, and on all other Bonds semi-annually The interest is payable on the first days of March a September in each year.

Sub-cribers will receive either Registered or Con pon Bonds, as they may prefer. Registered Bonds are recorded on the books of the U.S. Treasurer, and can be transferred only on the owner's order. Conpon Bonds are payable to bearer, and are more con venient for commercial uses. Subscribers to this loan will have the option of having their Bonds draw interest from March 1st, by paying the accrued interest in coin-(or in United States notes, or the notes of National Banks, adding fifty per cent for premium,) or receive them drawing interest from the date of the subscription and depos t. As these Bonds are Exempt From Municipal or State Taxation, their value is increased from one to three per centper annum, according to the rate of tax levies in va rious parts of the country.

At the present rate of premium on gold they pay OVER EIGHT PER CENT INTEREST in currency, and are of equal convenience as a pernament or temporary investment. It is believed that no securities offer so great in ducements to lenders as the various descriptions of U. S. Bonds. In all other forms of indebtedness, the faith or ability of private parties or stock companies or separate communities only is pledged for payment, while for the debts of the United States, the whole property of the country is holden to secure the pay-nent of both principal and interest in coin. These Bonds may be subscribed to from 50 dollars up to any magnitude, on the same terms, and are thus made equally available to the smallest lender and the largest capitalist. They can be converted in to money at any moment, and the holder will have the benefit of the interest.

It may be useful to state in this connection that the otal Funded Debt of the United States on which in terest is payable in gold, on the 3t day of March 1864, was $708,065.000. The interest on this debt for the coming fiscal year will be $45,937,126, while the customs revenue in gold for the current fiscal year, ending June 30th, 1864, has been $100,000,000 per an-

It will be seen that even the present gold revenue of the Government are largely in excess of the wants of the Treasury for the payment of gold interests while the recent increase of the tariff will doubtleraise the annual receipts from customs on the same mount of importations, to $150,0:0,000 per annum. Instructions to the National Banks acting as low gents were not issued from the United States Trea. su y until March 26, but in the first three weeks of April the subscriptions averaged more than TEN MILLIONS A WEEK. Subscriptions will be received by the First National Bank of Newark, N. J. First National Bank of Jersey City, N. J.

First National Bank of Trenton, N. J. AND BY ALL NATIONAL BANKS which are depositaries of Public money, and all RESPECTABLE BANKS AND BANKERS throughout the country, (acting as agents of the Natianal Depositary Banks,) will furnish further information on application and AFFORD EVERY FACILITY TO SUBSCRIBERS. May 13 2mifp&co.

DR. WISHART'S PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL

Consumption has destroyed more of the human family than any other disease, and the best physicians for many years have despaired of a cure, or as remedy that would heal the lungs, but for more than two hundred years the whole medical world has been impressed that there was a mysterious power and efficienoy in the Pine Tree Tar to heal the lungs therefore they have recommended the use Tar Water, which in many cases had a good effect; but how to combine its medical proper ties so as to heal the lungs, has ever been mystery until it was discovered by Dr. L. Q. C. WISHART, of Philadelphia, Pa., the proprietor of Wishart's Pine Tree Tar Cordial, and has been put in bottles, patented by the United States government. We say to the afflicted that Dr. Wishart's Pine Tree Tar Cordial will produce the INVIGORATION OF THE DIGES. TIVE ORGANS, THE STRENGTHENING OF THE DEBILITATED SYSTEM, THE PURI-FIGATION AND ENRICHMENT OF THE B. OOD, which must expel from the system the corruption which scrofula breeds. While this is effected by the powerful alterative (changing from disease to health) properties of the Tar Cordial, its healing and renovating principle is also acting upon the irritated surface of the lungs and throat, penetrating to each diseased part, relieving the pain, subduing inflamation and restoring a healthful tendency. Let this tow-fold power, the healing and the strengthening, continue to act in conjunction with nature's constant recuperative tendency, and the patient is saved, if he has not too long delayed a resort to the means of cure. PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL

I ask an oreal and women of unquestionable worth and reputation:

Dr. Wishar:

Dear Sim—I had a very dreadful cough and sore throat for one year, and my whole system was fast giving way, and I was prostated on my bed, with but little hope of recovering. My disease haffied the power of all medicines, and in a short time I must have gone to my grave; but, thank God, my daughter-inlaw would not rest until she went to your store, No. 10 North Second street, and related my case to you, purchased one bottle of your Pine Tree Tar Cordial, and I commenced to use it, and in one week I was much better; and, after using three bottles, I am perfectly well; a wonder to all my friends, for they all pronounced me past cure. Publish my case if you think proper.

Mr. Ward says:

Da. WISHART.

Sin—I had bronchitis inflamation of the lungs, shortness of breath and palpitation of the heart in their worst forms. I had been treated by several of the most eminent physicians in Philadelphia; but they could not stop the rapid course of my disease, and I had despaired of ever being restored to health. I was truly on the verge of the grave. Your Pine Tree Tar Cordial was highly recommended to me by a friend. I tried it, and am thankful to say that, after using four large and one small bottles, I was restored to perfect health. You can give reference to my house, No. 938 North Second street, or at my Office of Receiver of Taxes, from 9 A. M. to 2 P. M., corner of Chestnut and Sixth streets.

SCULL'S

CONTINENTAL COFFEE. This Coffee has been in the market

TWO YEARS,

And is giving universal SATISFACTION. Physicians using it pronounce it the most HEALTHRUL COFFEE

IN THE MARKET.

SOULL'S CONTINENTAL COFFEE.—THE HOUSEKEPFE'S FRIEND.—The general complaint of every good house keeper at present, is the ruinous prices asked for an inferior quality of coffee. Various remedies have been resorted to without avail. Chemists have here toore tried their arts in vain to produce a palatable, wholesome substitute for the national drink.—Housekeeper. will rejoice to learn that the Continental Coffee prepared by Wm. S. Scull, and for sale at his depot, No. 132 Arch street, is an article of Coffee that is entirely free from injurious ingredients, and is highly recommended by eminent physicians. We have tried it, and found it to be the most delightful drink we have tasted since Coffee has become worth its weight in gold. Be sure to give this Coffee a trial—it is equal to the best Java. It is now being used by most of the hotels, and in thousands of private families.—Episcopal Recorder.

The Popular Buyerage Once More.—No one has any

The Popular Beverage Once More.—No one has any cause to complain of unsatisfactory Coffee. That complains has been remedied, and it is within the power of every one now to drink their favorite beverage without the dread of fearing that it is adulterated poison. The coffee to which we refer we have used, still use, and intend to use, and therefore we speak knowingly. We refer now to the celebrated Continental Coffee, manufactured by Scull, and fir sale everywhere. This Coffee is pleasant and pulatable, is exhibitating, and leaves no depressing effects behind. It is used by our principal hotels, private boarding houses, and many of our most respectable families. We have had occasion to recommend it to a good number of our friends whilst travelling in the interior, and they, acting apon our advice, have tried it, and their verdict agrees with our own. The central depot for the sale of this coffee is at No. 132 Arch street, but you can buy it of your family grocer. The price is much lower than that asked for other manufactures of not half its worth. Try the Continental.—

Try it because it is the cheapest and the best, and when you flave tried it you will not regret it. It comes in convenient packages, and may be sent by express to any part of the country. We mention this for the particular benefit of our readers at a distance.—Sunday Mercury. . THE POPULAR BEVERAGE ONCE MORE .-- No one has any

THACKARA DUNN, SUCCESSOR TO ISAAC DARFORD. FASHIONABLE HATTER.

The above is a correct likeness of Pr. Schenck taken many years ago, after he had recovered from Consumption, by a course of his "Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup." The likeness, although it is does not represent him anything like as bad as he was at the worst, yet it is in strong contrast with the hale and vigorous looks of the portrait below, which is the true likeness of him at the present time. The contrast between these two portraits is so great that many would not believe them to be the same person. Yet there are hundreds of persons in and around Philadelphia, who will recognize both portraits to be true representations. When the first was taken he weighed 167 pounds; at the present time his weight is 220 pounds.
