

Bridgeton, October 15, 1862.

THE PIONEER HAS A LARGER CIRCULATION THAN ANY COUNTY PAPER IN THIS STATE.

Only $2.00 per Year in Advance. JAMES B. FRUGSON, Editor.

REMOVAL.

The Pioneer Office has been removed to Althoff's New Building, opposite its former location. Entrance on Pearl Street.

SIGNS OF THE TIMES.

That the accursed rebellion is now tottering to its downfall is patent to the most casual observer. Jeff Davis, the highest official authority, admits it. The admission is made in impotent wrath.

Apart from such bursts of low abuse, his speeches indicate the despair of the man in his sinking cause. He admits that two-thirds of the army were absent, and as an offset for such defection, prates the silly story of a mother who begs him to keep a place for her eight years old boy in the army!

And yet despite these admissions of weakness and decay, this daring rebel chieftain declares that he finds "the people resolute confident, enthusiastic."

Union County Convention.

The Union County Convention assembled in the Court House, on Monday afternoon last, to nominate candidates for Assembly, Sheriff and Coroners.

The convention was called to order by Hon. Providence Ludlum, President of last convention, and permanently organized by electing Seelye Shute, Esq., of Greenwich, chairman, and John Kandle, Esq., of Landis, secretary.

Both candidates were introduced to the convention by the chairman, and tendered their thanks for the honor conferred on them by their nomination. Their speeches were eloquent and able, and were warmly applauded.

The committee on resolutions, by John S. Mitchell, Esq., reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted with much enthusiasm.

Resolved, That we cordially endorse the nomination of John Kandle and Andrew Johnson for President and Vice President of the United States.

THE STATE ELECTIONS.

The States of Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana cast their votes on Tuesday last. The majority of Gov. Morton, of Indiana, is at least 20,000, and the Unionists in Indiana gain two members of Congress, making the delegation stand six union to five opposition.

The State of Virginia, it is believed the Union majority will be about the same as last year. Democratic gains in some counties, which are offset by Union gains in other localities.

General Grant, in despatches to Secretary Stanton, the latest of which is dated at five o'clock Monday evening last, gives particulars of the engagement on Friday, of last week, between the tenth corps and the rebels.

General Sherman, in a despatch dated at eight o'clock Sunday evening, the 9th, by Atlanta, Ga., gives a brief but satisfactory account of affairs in his department for the previous four days.

General Sheridan has sent to Mr. Stanton his official report of his recent raid from the Shenandoah valley, and was followed by the whole body of the rebel army.

THE SOUTH THEN AND NOW.

The Sunny South! It was another name for a beautiful land, full of sweet fruits and the perfume of a thousand flowers.

Such is the craven spirit of copperheadism which would revive the failing energies of traitorism. But such, blessed be God, is not the spirit of the loyal heart, North, East, West.

The rebellion is bankrupt, hungry and in rags—it burns, and robs, and butchers on, in the hope that a Northern Peace Party will come to its relief.

The numerous friends of Lieut. Frank Riley of this town will be gratified to learn that he has returned home, after imprisonment in Richmond.

JEFF, MAKES A SPEECH.

Jeff, has been down to Macon, and while there, like John B. Gough, he proceeded to "say a few words," and the words he said were full of import to the cause.
