By Rev. A. E. Ballard, preached at the Seaville Camp Meeting. Follow peace with all men, and holiness

Нев. 12; 14. The theme of Holiness is one of the most important as well as beautiful doctrines of Holy Writ. It is the grand object of all Christianity, and the central doctrine of all its states. It is the Gospel's splendor-flaming city set upon a hill beautiful for situation, and the joy of the whole earth. A sight of its bread of life excites delightful hunger in the soul -a glance at its living waters produces joyous thirst—a vision of its paradise compels a longing for the fragrance of its roses—the flashes of its glory stimulate a desire for steady noontide currents; and whenever presented to the sincere Christian soul, it appears both one of the most important and beautiful doctrines of the Word of God. mean one and the same thing, and to refer to a state of Christian character attainable by any child of God, at any period of its Christian career. I understand " perfection," in its general application, to mean that maturity of spiritual existence, when the soul has grown through all the phases of its life to of the stature of a man in Christ Jesus.' With this distinction kept in view it is possible that some of the confusion otherwise enveloping this subject will pass

Except in incidental sentences the Scriptures never argue this subject. They discuss Repentance and Justification in elaborate and exhaustive forms, but never holiness. They assume it as a fact whose self-evidence precludes dispute. No argument could make plainer the fact that we exist, and no argument could make plainer the doctrine of holiness. Strike that from its position in the Gospel scheme and there is nothing left to argue, for one who would ignore it must ignore not only particular passages, but the sum of all the Scriptures. Probably one reason why it has been so seldom specialised as a pulpit subject is because it is really the foundation of every pulpit subject. Yet it is a happiness to know, that this delightful experience is a North star among the brilliancies of the approbation when a mistaken deed has atonement, and a sun among the circling orbs of Faith and Hope, by whose power and glory the people may be lighted not only into a higher and more beautiful Christian life, but also a more vigorous and powerful Christian aggressiveness.

Our Methodism has always so accepted it. Upon the necessity of spreading Holiness over these lands, its organization was founded. To that point its literature has always converged. Its ministers of noty name from burning hearts and lips. Infough the foom of that atonement the cording to their development in spiritual all their strands are woven into the robes life. I do not think it a doctrine difficult either of comprehension or experience.-It is not a matter appreciable only by the highest intellects of the church, and to void of mystery that the wayfaring man, though a fool, may understand. All that is actually needed is the plain Bible, illuable to tell the world of its enjoyment. With these or even without this last, any one may both see and feel that the doctrine is of God.

I do not intend to employ these pages in nice distinctions. Whether Holiness is simply justification—whether it is an entirely distinct from justification; are questions which I shall not take your time to argue. If you are living in its enjoypends upon spiritual revealment.

It will show you your guilt in neglecting to remove the evil of your nature long ago, which was the will of God concerning you, and from all these a fresh repentance will come to your soul which is the first step toward the experience of holiness. The second step is a spiritual sorrow over the remains of corruption in your nature. You cannot feel that corruption as a crime chargeable to you, but you can feel it a sorrowful fact that it is there. Sorrow, as you feel it over your crippled child whose misfortune you did not cause, and yet sorrow because he is a crippled child-sorrow deep enough to make you

Besides the fact that holiness is the entire basis of Christ's religion, the scriptures clearly prove it in other forms. God commands it and it is insulting to Him to suppose its execution an impossibility.— He promises to do it and it is a deeper insult still to doubt the performance of a promise. He tells us to pray for it, and t would be cruel triffing to bid us pray in vain. He presents numerous examples of it, and it is putting ourselves above Him to dispute his judgment of these men. Besides this, large numbers of people who have lived without reproach have asserted its experience, and it is a blackening of their characters to deny it. Large numbers profess it still, and while we take their words for every other phase of their experience, it is not consistent to refuse it here. If you can believe the Gospel at all, you can believe in the possibility of

These arof course lay the heaviest taxes on these loans, so that the patriotic States would be obliged to sustain an unequal share of the national burdens, or follow after the evil examples set them by others. If, in order to avoid this, Congress were to allow a uniform rate of taxation for State purposes, the authority to do so would of course be disputed by some States, and if the question were brought before the Supreme Court, it would be difficult now to say what would be the result. States having a dominant majority in favor of repudiation would lay such (taxes as to render the holding of United States loans by their citizens improbable, if not impossible. In the rebel States we are under the impression that this would be done as soon as the States should recover their positions in Congress. It is plain, therefore, that this is a specious disguise which the advocates of repudiation would be very apt to assume because of the odium know that the worst it can do with us is attached to repudiation itself. The Pirate Shenandoah.

By the arrival of the steamer City of London at New York, on Wednesday, with European dates to the 9th instant, we learn that the rebel cruiser Shenandoah, which, notwithstanding the close of the American war, had been committing great ravages upon shipping chiefly in the North orn seas, and amongst whalers, arrived in the Mersey on the 6th, and surrendered to Her Majesty's ship "Donegal." Captain Waddell, the commander of the Shenandoah, states that the last vessel he spoke was the Barracoula, from Liverpool to San Francisco, from which he learned that the South was really defeated. On this he at once stowed away his guns and ammunition in the hold, and steered for Liverpool, stepping at no other port. On arriving near the port he took a pilot on board, and finding the news of the defeat of the Confederacy confirmed beyond all M., signed by the most prominent Temper- this he at once stowed away his guns and ance men of the State, has just been issued to ammunition in the hold, and steered for other dwelling on Pine street, near where the people, churches, Sabbath schools, and Liverpool, storping at no other port. OUR DANGER IN INDIAN SUMMER.
In Indian Summer we do ourselves harm
By not wearing clothing sufficiently warm;
tegeting our overcoats, dressing too thin,
We catch grievous colds, which is surely a sin THE INDIANS HAD NO DIG CLOTHING STORE.

With almost no clothing the Indian might go,
Not only in summer, but also through snow.

The Indian could stand it, so rugged and tough,
But we, at Oak Hall, must buy clothing enough. Our stock is extra large and complete, and worth of immediate attention, as the market prices of ma terials are advancing every day, and all goods in ou line becoming scarce—scarcer than has been known for many years. Most all the suits we have on hand we are offering at lower figures than many of the wholesale houses hold them at.

Miller's Antiseptic, A SURE CURE FOR BRONCHITIS, DIPTHERIA,

THIS valuable remedy was accidentally discovered I in the year 1855, by Wm. Miller, at the time suffering with a severe attack of ulcered sore throat, when he happened to partake of a plant common to this latitude, and unexpectedly found in it a permanent cure, after taking two doses, stace which time he has administered it to a great number of persons similarly afflicted, with unbounded success, and now feeln wafe in offering it to the public in the greatest confidence, that it is the long-desired remedy for all diseases of the throat, having no deleterious effects on the system, being pleasant and agreeable to take, and acting like a charm on persons of all ages. It is without an equal among the many remedies for the above diseases. With pleasure we refer to the following well known citizens of Gloucester county, and elsewhere, to attest the virtues of this valuable remedy

THE GREAT Rat, Roach and Mouse Destroyer. In offering this great invention, for destroyer.

In offering this great invention, for destroying Rats, Mice and Roaches, to the public, the subscriber wishes not to be alone in bearing testimony, and could give much insore evidence in its favor if thought requisite, that it not only kills the vermin, but in many cases drives them from the premises, so that they do not die there to give offence. It has been sold for several years, and found to give general satisfaction, as will be proven by the following

TESTIMONIALS: SALEM, N. J., March 31, 1564.

I was very much troubled with rats at my slaughterhouse, and tried both arsonic and strychnine to destroy them, neither of which had any effect, only, as I thought, to increase them. Was advised to try Arab's Bead Shot, which I did, and had no more trouble with them atterward. I consuler it a nist-rate as
ticle. JOSHUA THOMPSON, (Butcher.)

ALLOWAYS-TOWN, N. J., March 25, 1864.
Having several times used Abab's Dead Shot for rats and mice in my mill, (being a miller.) where we had rats by the hundreds before the use of it, I can without hesitation say, it is the best exterminator for rats and mice that I ever used. They will eat it in preference to meal.

WESLEY G. FRANKLIN. PITTSGROVE, N. J., March 1, 1863.

I was very much annoyed by rats in my potato cellar at the barn, and was induced to try Arab's Dead Shot for their destruction, after which I found twenty-two dead rats. I think it a first-class article.

Undeniable Evidence of the Efficiency o Zollickoffer's Anti-Rhenmatic Cordial. ONE of the reporters of the Philadelphia Sunday Mercury, and a former war correspondent of the New York Herald, testified in a late number of the New York Herald, testified in a late number of the former paper concerning the miraculous cure performed upon him when prostrated from Rheumatism, begotten by exposure upon the battle-field of Gettysburg. He certifies that his sufferings were of so acute a nature that he could neither eat nor sleep, nor rest. His mental agony, arising from the intensity of his bodily pain, was distressing. In a few weeks he had worn to a skeleton. One bottle of Zollickoffer's Cordial returned his appetite and er abled him to walk upon crutches, and in three weeks was entirely well. Last year he traveled thirty thousand miles and never suffered from fatigue, nor felt any symptoms of the return of the disease.

Not the military draft but the draft of the stoves you buy. Our new stove, the Excelsior, has the largest flues, and consequently must have the strongest draft, and will not fail to perform to the entire satisfaction of all. The ovens are very large and high under the ash pit, giving you baking surface over the entire bottom. The design is neat, and no deed carvings, which are so troublesome to black. The castings are heavy, and the stoves are put together in a manner superior to any, thus making it the most desirable stove in the market. AGRICULTURAL CHEMICAL COMPANY'S CHEAP Fertilizers!

The fertilizers prepared by the Agricultural Chemical Co., (a Company chartered by the Legislature of Pennsylvania with a capital of $250,000.) have been proved in practice to be the cheapest, most profitable and best for the firmer, gardener and fruit grower, of all concentrated manuscinow offered in any market. The Company's list embraces the following: PABULETTE.

This fertilizer is composed of night soil and the fertilizing elements of urine, combined chemically and mechanically with other valuable fertilizing agents and absorbents. COMPOSITE FERTILIZER This highly phosphatic fertilizer is particularly adapted for the cultivation of trees, fruits, lawns and flow. Bridgeton, tedfor the cultivation of trees, fruits, lawns and flow. Bridgeton, ers. It will promote a very vigorous and healthy Sakim, growth of wood and fruit, and largely increase the maturity of the fruit. For hot-house and household plants and flowers, it will be found an indespensable article to scenre their greatest perfection. It will prevent and cure diseased conditions of the peach and grape, and is excellent for grass and lawns.

It is composed of such elements as make it adapted to the growth of all kinds of crops in all kinds of Sakim, soils.

WM. H. GATZMER. Agent. BRIDGETON FOUNDRY

We would call the attention of the public to our establishment, and our various manufactures. We are building a SORGHUM CRUSHER AND CANE Which for simplicity, effective power, strength of material and workmanship, cannot be surpassed, and we are offering them at prices that we know to be less than a machine of the same strength and capacity can be bought for elsewhere. We are building three sizes. For a more extended description send for circular. Evaporators farnished to order. We are also manufacturing Circular Saw Mills, for sawing either large or small logs, to which we would invite the attention of mill owners and lumbermen.—They are built under the supervision of one who has had many years' experience in building and running mills, and lumbering generally, and he flatters himself that he knows what millers want. We also furnish to order MILL.

Irons for the Gate Saw Mill! Millirons, gearing, shafting, pulleys, hangers, &c.—We continue to make iron ience, verandahs, balconies, which for taste, durability and economy cannot be surpa ... Iron hitching posts at low rates.—Screws for elder and other presses of any dimensions made to order. Patterns made when desired. CORN SHELLERS AND LARD PRESSES always on hand. Plow castings of the various patterns used in this section. JOBBING AND REPAIRING omptly attended to. Persons in want of cane crush ers should not fail to order arily as we intend to fill orders in the order in which they are received.
