Jones' policy which has proved of such great satisfaction both to his friends and the public, has demonstrated the fact, that ONE PRICE is the proper basis on which to do bussuess. Many persons who are notable to judge of the value of any article, arriglad to avail themselves of the opportunity of purchasing where they can secure what they want at the same price as their neighbors. Others, not liking to ask the dealers to take less, are often obliged to pay too much for an article. To meet this want Jones' one price Store has been established, and having worked well for fifteen years, has gained many friends. riends. By this judicious management the digestive faculties are speedily restored to their full vigor, and the worst cases of indigestion may be cured.

When we reflect that the liver is the largest internal organ of the body, that to it is assigned the important duty of filtering the blood and preparing the bile, that it is subject to many disorders, and that when it is diseased or inactive the whole body suffers sympathetically, it is not surprising that a medicine which can restore the healthy operations of the liver should produce wonders, ful changes in the general health, and effect cures which may appear to be almost miraculous. Headache of long continuance, severe pains in the side, breast, and shoulders, aching of the limbs, a feeling of general weakness and wretchedness, and other alarming and distressing symptoms, indicative of imperfect or disordered action of the livet, are speedily removed by the use of Schenck's Mandrake Phils.

Dr. schenck.—Dear sir: I take pleasure in sending you a certificate, in addition to many you have already received from suffering humanity. I can searcely firm language sufficiently strong to express my heartfelt gradication of the wonderful cures your mandrake pills and seawed tonic have effected in the entire cure of one of the most stubborn cases of the affection of the liver.—For three years I suffered beyond description; all my friends, as well as myself, came to the conclusion that my time in this life was short. such was the terribe condition to which I was reduced that life to me had be come a burthen. My whole system was in a state of inflammation; I could not eat, I could not sleep; my while body was filled with pain; swelling would arise in my wrists and ankles, rendering them totally useless. On several occasions I was attacked with a rush of bloodto the head, which would fell me to the ground, and I would be carried away for dead. I applied to several eminent physicians of our city, who administered all the medicines that they thought would reach my case, but of no avail.

One of them said he could do no more for me, and ad-medicines that they thought would reach my case, bu: of no ayail.

One of them said he could do no more for me, and advised me, as a last resort, to drink cod liver oil. Not relishing the horrid trash, I declined to take it. Accident put your advertisement in my hands. I called on you, you examined me, and told me the nature of my disease. You then ordered me the Pills and Tonic, with an observance of diet, pledging your word that in one week I would find myself another man. I followed your advice, and, as you predicted, an astenishing chre was effected. I continued your Pills and Tonic for some time, and now thank God for His goodness, and your valuable medicine, I am once more restored to perfect health. I most earnestly recommend those who are suffering from affection of the liver to give your Pills and tonic a fair trial, and a cure will be effected. I have sent many persons to you, and they have all bees cured. Any information my fellow citizens may require will be freety given by the subscriber, at his residence, No. 812 Federal street, between 8th street and Passyunk road.

and slowly conquering the night. The two little daughters of the light-house keeper stood by the window of the small sitting-room in the low house, which was the only one on the little island—the island that was but half a mile from end to end, and that stood alone and desolate out in the sea, miles away from the main. So the light-house keeper kissed his children and commended them to the love of God, and went out.

after their night's sleep, and it fell bright and tangled about their faces. It was late in September, and the first great rain and gale of the season had set in the day before; and all through the night, while the little girls were smiling softly amid their dreams, the storm had grown in fierceness and strength; the winds had raged, and raved, and tore up in their fierce wrath the face of the sea, and hurled the great black billows against the island, whose timbers were laid so deep and strong in the sea that no storm nor wind could prevail against it. The blinding rain, too, was dashed about by the furious wind; torn here and hurled there, and the sea seemed suddenly filled with an awful life-heaving, roaring, battling in pain, rage and terror.— The little daughters of the light-house keeper were used to fearful storms in their island home, but they had never witnessed anything like this one, which wakened there at the break of day. MEXICO. The Maximilian rule is becoming so outrazeous in Mexico, that, from representations made to our Government, Mr. Seward has promised to take them into the consideration of our Government. Prominent men on the Mexican side-Don Jose Carlo Ortega and Sthrs-captured in battle, were deliberately shot nality of a trial, for the simple crime of deending their country against a Government which they have never recognized, and all this supported by French bayonets. Our Government has protested against this, and now that these men of prominence have been murdered, in obedience to imperial law, it is probable that something more than protests will be the result. Yet Mr. Seward has a cool and wise head, and if there is any way of settling the difficulty without actual war it will be done; and if the European troubles continue it will be an easy matter to do so.

STRAWBERRY FESTIVALS.

By reference to advertisements in another olumn it will be seen that at least six festivals are announced. Two at Fairton, one at Roadstown, Shiloh, Back Neck and Bridgeton. The ladies of the Commerce street M. E. Church of this city have also decided to hold a festival, the time of which will be announced

These annual festivals have become quite an nstitution in this county, and while they are a source of much pleasue to those who participate in them, affording social gratification to both old and young, they also add materially to the interests of the institutions for which they are gotten up. May they all be well attended and have abundant success.

We learn by the Ocean Wave that con siderable improvements are taking place at Cape Island. Some twenty-five new cottages have been and are now in progress of construction, mostly owned by citizens of Philadelphia. Important and extensive additions are being made to cottages and hotels. Friend Leach, who amassed a fortune in the printing business a few years since, is increasing his facilities for accommodationg the public with groceries, provisions, &c. The present owner of the Wave office, Mayor Magonagle, has lately erected a spacious building which the increase of business demanded, and in which the worthy Post Master, Mr. Leach, and his honor, about sixteen daily.

The attenteon of our readers is directed the the advertisement of A. D. Maul, which appears in another column. It will be seen fendants entered into recognizance on Monday that Mr. Maul is on hand at his old stand east of the bridge, where he is prepaced to make to order, in the best style, anything in his line of business. With many years experience and employing the best of workmen, and using superior material, he feels competent to give entire satisfaction. In addition to goods of his own manufacture he has constantly on hand a large stock of city made boots and shoes which he is disposing of on the most reasona ble terms.

It is a little singular that the first decision under this law was upon a contest for the ordinary privileges of the Christian religion.

NEW MUSIC.

Through the politeness of our young friend Wm. N. In the meantime the merchant obtained an injunction from the Court of Chancery, which was served on the Collector on Thursday afternoon last, and which he obeyed, not having received any further instructions from the Department.— He also entered a civil suit against the Government officers in the Supreme Court, for damages in the sum of $20,000. On Saturday evening last, the special officer who nad made the first investigation, returned to Salem and directed Mr Sharp to again close the establishment, which he attempted to de but was resisted and the attempt abandoned and the facts reported to Washington. The case is now assuming a very serious aspect, and we suppose will be prosecuted and resisted to the utmost extent, all compromise being effectually barred. If there has been no fraud, of course the merchant will have the spmpathy of the public and redress from the Government. But if the latter can substantiate its charge of false returns, for the purpose of evading the payment of revenue, the utmost penalty of the law will doubtless be enforced, which is a fine of not less than $500 for each offense, and an addition of 50 per centum on the estimated evaded returns, or a confiscation of the stock and property, with a further liahility of criminal prosecution for perjury.

Great energy and decision of purpose and execution was a leading feature of his mind, and imparted an earnestness and efficiency to all his labors. Death found him at his post. For fifty-five years he was a member of the Baptist church at Dividing Creek.—Having for a great many years professed his faith in the Saviour, and having proved its genuineness by a consistent life, he was ready when the summons came. With sweet submission to the Divine will, and perfect confidence in the merits of his Redeemer, and hope of eternal life, he gently breathed his spirit unto God, and rests in Jesus. The end of that man was neace. eace. The funeral was attended on the 22d by a large con-The funeral was attended on the 22d by a large concourse of people. The discourse was preached by Rev. E. H. Barker, assisted by Revs. H. W. Webber, Dr. Bacon and J. C. Chew, after which his remains were laid in the cemetery of said church, to await the trumpet's call that is to awaken the sleeping dead Sure, the last end of the good man is peace. How calm his exit. Night dews fall not more gently to the ground, nor weary, worn out winds expire so soft.

THE SILVER SKIRT.

MORE DURARLE.

MORE ELASTIC. MORE GRACEFUL! And will keep its Shape and retain its Place better than any other Skirt.

This new and beautiful style of Skirt (Patented March 7, 1865,) was awarded by the Great American Institute Fair, held in New York, October 1865, a SILVER MEDAL.

The highest premium ever given for a Hoop Skirt. The Steel Springs are wound with a fine plaed wire (in place of a cotton covering) which whole Skirt may be washed without injury or fear of rusting, and will be as good as new.

The Combination Silver Skirt. This invention combines with the ordinary cotton Skirt the advantages of our SILVER SKIRT; the bottom hoops are the same as those used in the Silver Skirt, the covering of which cannot wear off, while the upper bnes worn one of our Skirts will be willing to war any other, as the lower hoops of all other kinds are soon injured and soiled. The best materials are used in their so-ruction, and, from their durability and neaness, they are destined to become F AVORITESKIRT ! Manufactured solely by the Silver Skirl an Wire Manufacturing Company,

Keep it Before the People, Meep it Before the People,

THAT GROSSCUP'S is still, and it has been for years, the leading Cloth and Clothing House of Bridgeton; and notwithstanding the great popularity of this establishment heretofore, the great increase of business bears witness to the still increasing popularity of this place of business. It is sometimes asked how it is that this establishment is favored with so large a share of public patronage; but the question is easily answered. The immense amount of goods sold at this place, together with the light expenses of this establishment, enable the proprietors to sell goods at such low prices as to defy competition. We have now on hand a lot of very cheap Goods, for Men and Boys' wear, which we are selling very low by the yard, or making to order, at the lowest prices, Remember, C. C.
