Jones' pelicy which has proved of such great saturation both to his friends and the public, has demonstrated the fact, that ONE PRICE is the proper basis on which to do business. Many persons who are not able to judge of the value of any article, are glad to avail themselves of the opportunity of purchasing where they can scenic what they want at the same price as their neighbors. Others, not liking to ask the dealers to take less, are often obliged to pay too much for an article. To meet this want Jones' one price Store has been established, and having worked well for fitteen years, has gained many trionds. friends.

THE MUSICAL CONVENTION.

The convention of the singers of the county, of which we gave a notice on last week, closed on Friday evening last amid an eclat that rarely attends such assemblages here or anywhere else. The public generally appreciated the judicious efforts of the managers to cater for their benefit and pleasure, and responded to those efforts by a "turn out" which both gladdened the hearts and replenished the pockets of the gratified managers, and we are pleased to learn that they feel encouraged now to proceed when the proper time arrives, with another gathering of the musical talent of Bridgeton and vicinity. Nearly six hundred tickets besides singers checks were sold, and enough was realized to pay all expenses and a trifle over. The concerts were highly appreciated, that of the last evening particularly so. The singers from our own vicinity acquitted themselves with a credit that elicited applause, while those from "Bosting" received an amount of that article which would, we should think satisfy an epicure. The sweet voice of Mrs. Monroe never floated along the senses of the audience without subduing them, and the merry cadences of the beautiful Miss Granger-merry even when they endeavored to be otherwise, always evoked the "life" in the souls of the listeners. The "I gather them in," of the younger Mr. Perkins was most exquisitly rendered, and it would be difficult to tell whether the voice was made for the piece or the piece for the voice. Mr. Perkins the conductor im-Newark has all the great officials of that mortalized himself in connection with Bridgeton, by "the singing lesson," and the selections from "the creation" by the entire convention will linger among the memories like sweet remembrances of pleasant days. DEDICATION.

The new Chapel of the Commerce St. Methodist Episcopal church was dedicated to the worship of Almighty God on Sabbath afternoon last by Rev. Bishop Scott, according to the ritual of the church. The Bishop preached an admirable sermon in the morning in Commerce St. Church on the new covenants of the gospel system as distinguished from the old Jewish one, treating the subject in a manner both clear and comprehensive, and eliciting at the same time the warm sympathies of the hearers. The services of the afternoon in the chapel were conducted by the Bishop assisted by Rev. Mr. Whitecar, Presiding Elder of the District, Rev. Messrs. Given and Stockton of the Central and Trinity churches, and Rev. Mr. Ballard, the pastor of the church. Mr. Whitecar preached in the evening a sermon on "church unity," in connexion with which the gratifying fact was stated by the pastor that so far as he knew from the inception to the completion of the building there had not been the first jar of feeling between the brethren. About $800 were realized during the day in addition to what had been previously secured toward meeting the cost of the enterprise.

PATENTED, SEPTEMBER 11TH, 1866.

THIS is the most successful Washing Machine ever invented, as it entirely overcomes all the objections heretofore made to them. It works quite easy, washes clean, and does not tear off the buttons or wear out the clothes. The manner of its construction is such that it cannot possibly get qut of order, and it will do the washing of a family in, a much shorter time than any machine ever before offered to the public, using less soap and leaving the clothes perfectly white. Please lay aside your prejudice until you have tested or seen it tested. Give it a chance and it will take the prejudice out of yourself, and the dirt out of your clothes. It can be seen at any time at my house, and if you have any dirty article that you wish washed bring it along and we can soon convince you.

SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS
do not produce any nausen, or sickness of the stomach, but when given for dyspepsia, it may be proper to use them in connection with SCHENCK'S SEAWEED TONIC. By this judicious management the digestive faculties are speedily restored to their full vigor, and the worst cases of indigestion may be cured.

When we reflect that the liver is the largest internal organ of the body, that to it is assigned the important-duty of filtering the blood and preparing the bile, that it is subject to many disorders, and that when it is diseased or inactive the whole body suffers sympathetically, it is not surprising that a medicine which can restore the healthy operations of the liver should produce wonderful changes in the general health, and effect cures which may appear to be almost miraculous. Headache of long-continuance, severe pains in the side, breast, and shoulders, aching of the limbs, a feeling of general weakness and wretchedness, and other alarming and distressing symptoms, indicative of imperfect or disordered action of the liver are speedily removed by the use of Schenick's Mandraike Pills.

Dr. schenge.—Dear sir: I take pleasure in sending you a certificate, in addition to many you have already received from suff-ring homanity. I can searcely find language sufficiently strong to express my heartfelt gratification of the wonderful cures your mandrake pills and seaweed tonic have effected in the entire cure of one of the most stubborn cases of the affection of the liver.—For three years I suffered beyond description; all my triends, as well as myself, came to the conclusion that my time in this life was short. such was the terrible condition to which I was reduced that life to me had be come a burther. Aly whole system was in a state of inflammation; I could not eat, I could not sleep; my whole body was filled with pairs; swelling would arise in my wrists and ankles, rendering them totally useless. On several occasions I was attacked with a rush of blood to the head, which would fell me to the ground, and I would be carried away for dead. I applied to several eminent physicians of our city, who administered all the medicines that they thought would reach my case, but of no avail.

One of them said he could do no more for me, and ad-medicines that they thought would reach my case, but of no avail.

One of them said he could do no more for me, and advised me, as a last resort, to drink cod liver oil. Not relishing the horrid trash, I declined to take it. Accident put your advertisement in my hands. I called on you; you examined me, and told me the nature of my disease. You then ordered me the Pills and Tonic, with an observance of diet, pledging your word that in one week I would find myself another man. Ifollowed your advice, and, as you predicted, an astenishing cure was effected. I continued your Pills and Tonic for some time, and now thank God for His goodness, and your valuable medicine, I am once more restored to perfect health. I most earnestly recommend those who are suffering from affection of the liver to give your Pills and tonic a fair trial, and a cure will be effected. I have sent many persons to you, and they have all been cured.
