Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer

tion for the hair has yet been discovered that will produce the same beneficial results. It is an entirely new scientific discovery, combining many of the most powerful and re-storative agents in the VECETABLE KINGDOM. It restores GRAY HAIR TO ITS ORIGINAL YOUTHFUL COLOR. It makes the scalp white and clean; cures dandruff and humors, and falling out of the hair; and will make it grow upon bald heads, except in very aged persons, as it furnishes the nutri-tive principle by which the hair is nourished and supported. It makes the hair moist, soft, and glossy, and is unsurpassed as a HAIR DRESSING. It is the cheapest preparation ever offered to the pub-lic, as one bottle will accomplish more and last longer than three bottles of any other preparation.
It is recommended and used by the First Medical Authority.

The wonderful results produced by our Sicilian Hair Renewer have induced many to manufacture preparations for the Hair, under various names and in order to inrious names: and, in order to in-duce the trade and the public to purchase their compounds, they have resorted to falsehood, by nave resorted to falsehood, by claiming they were former partners, or had some connection with our Mr. Hall, and their preparation was similar to ours. Do not be deceived by them. Purchase the original: it has never yet been equalled. Our Treatise on the Hair, with certificates, sent free by mail. with certificates, sent free by mail. The elder never recovered from this shock. He sorrowed for his friend, but still more for his sin. He gradually sunk, and in three weeks was laid by the side of his aged minister. "Oh, then, the glory and the bliss, When all that grieved or seemed amiss,

THE WRECKERS OF OUR COAST. In the long years past this class of men possessed a most unenviable reputation. They were the most daring class of men in the world, yet combining that daring with a skill that made the wild serf their plaything, loss of life was not a common thing among them. At that time it was customary in some parts of the state and also in New York to denominate them as Land Pirates, and one occasion at Barnegat a number were arrested and confixed in prison upon this charge, although they were eventually released from the utter want of any evidence against them. But the name clung to them. It was supposed that along the sounds of Cape May, and elsewhere upon the dangerous parts of the coast, false lights were hung out to lure vessels to their ruin, and it was further believed that when these ill-fated vessels had been thus decoved to their ruin by these men, that the miserable passengers and crew were left to perish in the wild swell of the waters, while the wreckers busied themselves with securing the goods of the cargo, which, unless too bulky to conceal, they always appropriated to their own benefit. It was also current in these stories that in cases where a passenger had escaped the waves and lay half dead upon the shore, they did

MAURICETOWN

This beautiful spot sitting prominently upon the high ground bordering Maurice river, may be called, without transgressing the bounds of fact, one of the handsomest towns of the county, and certainly would never be considered by a stranger who looked upon it as one of the "one horse towns" which loom so largely in the visions of some. Its streets have few of the sinuosities of the old cow paths, upon which apparently so many places have laid down their avenues, but are straight and wide, allowing ample space for dust from passing carriages to settle before reaching the cooms of the houses. The buildings are almost without exception neat and some of them quite handsome, and would be creditable to any ordinary city, while their furnishing is in the style of modern improvements. One highly creditable fact in connexion with the place is the almost entire absence of what we may term a class aristocracy. Character alone appears to be the level of equality, a condition of ties around us. There is seemingly also but little real poverty. Many of the people live in a plain and unostentatious manner, but there appears to be plenty of work to do. plenty of people to do it and fair remuneration for what is done, so that the extremes of poverty are avoided and an air of thrift and comfort pervades even the poorest classes of the inhabitants. Improvement and enterprise may also be fairly considered as among the characteristics of its population. As has been noticed in our columns before, a new bridge across the Maurice river is in contemplation with every prospect of a speedy erection .--Enough stock has been taken to ensure its success, and a short time only will probably elapse before this great improvement will be in active operation. The bridge is to be supplied with a draw through which vessels of any size that can navigate the river, can pass without obstruction so that navigation in no not hesitate to hurl him back again and let the waters finish their work of destruction. The church building is not adapted to the present style of houses in the place and it was intended this year to erect a new one which should correspond with the advanced taste and means of the people, but as the bridge appeared to be the most pressing necessity of the moment, it was decided to appropriate the surplus means of the people in that direction and wait two or three years for and beautified so that it may afford a place of elegant accommodation to the worshippers a demand for remuneration beyond that which a building of fair size slightly deficient is The town is without a lawyer, the inhab

The post office of the place is said to be most excellently managed by Mr. Daniel T. Howell, though the larger part of the business is conducted by his accomplished daughter, Miss Emma Howell. There is probably a larger proportion of mail matter transmitted through this office than through that of any other in the section where the village is no larger. The Sunday School of this church is in a very prosperous condition.— Last Sabbath was what is known to Methodiss as their Quarterly Meeting Occasion, and was said to be n unusually good one. Rev. Mr. Ballard, the new Presiding Elder of Bridgeton District, made his first visit to Vineland and was cordially received by the people. He presided at the Love feast, and preached a very able sermon to a large and attentive audience. At the close of the service the Trustees of the church asked the congregation for $2,000 to pay bills contracted in building the church edifice. HORSE FAIR. A Grand National Horse Fair is to come off on the

The cash premiums to be distributed to those who exhibit the best stock are he distributed to those who exhibit the best stock are set down at $7,000, and the names of the gentlemen who act as managers is proof that everything will be conducted in the spirit of fairness. We are glad to see a spirit of healthy competition excited in this matter, for while our horses in this state are objects of just pride, still the stock is capable of greatim-provement and we have no doubt that this fair will tend in that direction.

Stevens alias Clemens, the Salem post office robber has been sentenced to ten years close confinement in the U. S. Penitentiary at Pittsburg. We congratulate the authorities of our sister city of Salem upon this disposition of the case as the "city of peace" will not be put to the necessity of building another mey jail for the purpose of keeping the criminals whom they incarcerate within their bounds. However, we must not hallo before we are out of the woods, for there is a new jail building here also, and it yet remains to be seen how much better we shall do in this matter than our neighbors of Salem.

While in a state of trance, she delineates the very features of the porton you are to marry, and by the aid of an instrument of intense power, known as the Psychomotrope, guarantees to produce a life-like picture of the future husband or wife of the applicant, together with date of marriage, position in life, leading traits of character, &c. This is no humbug, as thousands of testimonials can assert. She will send, when desired, a certified certificate, or written guarantee, that the picture is what it purports to be. #3- A YOUNG LADY returning to her country home, after a sojourn of a few months in the City, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of a coarse, rustic, flushed face, she had a soft ruby complexion of almost marble smoothness, and instead of twenty-three she really appeared but eighteen. Upon mequiry as to the cause of so great a change, she plainly told them that she used the Circassian Balm, and considered itan invaluable acquisition to any lady's tollet. By its useany Lady or Gentleman can improve their personal appearance an hundred fold. It is simple in its combination, as Nature herself is simple, yet unsurpassed in its efficacy in drawing impurities from, also healing, cleansing and beautifying the skin and complexion. By its direct action on the cutiele it draws from it all its impurities, kindly healing the same, and leaving the surface as Nature intended it should be, clear, soft, smooth and beautiful.
