SOMETHING NEW
Worthy of All Farmers Attention!
BROWNING'S
EXCELSIOR
PHOSPHATE
Made Upon Strictly Scientific Principles.
This article is entirely different from any other ever offered to the public. Its composition will vary, and contain such ingredients only as the tree, fruit, plant or crop for which it is intended requires, thereby enabling the buyer to avoid purchasing a large quantity of what he really does not want, in order to get a small quantity of what he really does want, which I know, from experience, is true with many, if not all of the phosphates that are in the market. No fertilizer can be good and cheap at the same price, for two crops whose constituents are entirely different; it may be good for both, but must be dear for one or the other. For example, if a phosphate should contain ingredients that would be cheap for wheat, at any given price, it is absurd to think that the same phosphate would be equally cheap, at the same price, for another crop, whose constituents are entirely different. It cannot contain ingredients for two articles of an entirely different nature in such proportions as to be equally cheap for one as the other. I am confident that there is a great deal of money thrown away for phosphates of all kinds, from the fact that they did not contain what the desired crop needed; and in many cases the crop would have been better without it, while if the same article had been used for other crops, of a different nature, it would have doubly paid for its cost. I have been carefully experimenting for several years, and any one who will take the trouble to visit my farm, near Ellisburg, N. J., five miles from Camden, where I am constantly experimenting, may see where I produce a growth upon Peach and Pear trees of SIX FEET SIX INCHES in one season, and fruit upon the same, usually large and fine while trees right alongside, equally good in every respect, not having the phosphate on them, did not grow one foot in the same time, and produced no fruit at all. I will be prepared to furnish, at short notice, a phosphate for any kind of fruit, vine or tree fruit, and all ordinary plants or crops that are grown in this country, such as wheat, rye, corn, grass, and all kinds of vegetables.
The reader will please bear in mind that in sending orders, the article for which it is intended to be used must be mentioned, and kind of soil also, if you wish the worth of your money. As I have said before, two articles of an entirely different nature must not be furnished with the same kind of food; the article I prepare for grains, would be dear at half its cost, for fruit, and vice versa.
Price of the Prepared Phosphate for Grape Vines and Fruit Trees, $65 00 per ton. For all other crops, $60 per ton.
Barrels containing from 275 to 325 lbs. each.
Orders for one ton and upwards delivered in Philadelphia, or at either of the Camden depots, free of charge. On orders for a less quantity, a reasonable charge for delivery will be made.
All orders must be addressed to the manufacturer.
ALSO FOR SALE
PERUVIAN GUANO
AND
BONE DUST.
Warranted strictly Pure.
Such as I use in manufacturing my Phosphate This Bone Dust is made from bones direct from the slaughter houses, containing all the virtues that bones possess. It is seldom you can get bone dust of this quality. Sample will be sent by mail on receipt of P. O. stamp. It is as fine as flour and will act quickly.
Bone Dust put up in bags of 200 pounds each.
PRICE, $60 PER TON.

INTRODUCED INTO AMERICA
FROM GERMANY, in 1835.
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,
and
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,
PREPARED BY DR. C. M. JACKSON,
PHILADELPHIA, PA.
The greatest known remedies for
Liver Complaint,
DYSPEPSIA,
Nervous Debility,
JAUNDICE,
Diseases of the Kidneys,
ERUPTIONS of the SKIN, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.
Read the following symptoms, and if you find that your system is affected by any of them, you may rest assured that disease has commenced its attack on the most important organs of your body, and unless soon checked by the use of powerful remedies, a miserable life, soon terminating in death, will be the result.
Constip[illegible]ness, Flat[illegible]ence, Pain in the Head, Acidity of the [illegible]ach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust [illegible]or Vomiting, Weakness of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Flutterings at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.
All these indicate disease of the Liver or Digestive Organs, combined with impure blood.

Hoofland's German Bitters
is entirely vegetable, and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts. The Roots, Herbs, and Barks from which these extracts are made are gathered in Germany. All the medicinal virtues are extracted from them by a scientific chemist. These extracts are then forwarded to this country to be used expressly for the manufacture of these Bitters. There is no alcoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters, hence it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable.

Hoofland's German Tonic
is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with pure Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in cases where some pure alcoholic stimulus is required. You will bear in mind that these remedies are entirely different from any others advertised for the cure of the diseases named, these being scientific preparations of medicinal extracts, while the others are mere decoctions of rum in some form. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Its taste is exquisite. It is a pleasure to take it, while its digesting, exhilarating, and medicinal qualities have caused it to be known as the greatest of all tonics.

CONSUMPTION.
Thousands of cases, when the patient supposed he was afflicted with this terrible disease, have been cured, by the use of these remedies. Extreme emaciation, debility, and cough are the usual attendants upon severe cases of dyspepsia or disease of the digestive organs. Even in cases of genuine Consumption, these remedies will be found of the greatest benefit, strengthening and invigorating

DEBILITY.
There is no medicine equal to Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic in cases of Debility. They impart a tone and vigor to the whole system, strengthen the appetite, cause an enjoyment of the food, enable the stomach to digest it, purify the blood, give a good, sound, healthy complexion, eradicate the yellow tinge from the eye, impart a bloom to the cheeks, and change the patient from a short-breathed, emaciated, weak and nervous invalid, to a full-faced, stout, and vigorous person.

Weak and Delicate Children are made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. In fact, they are Family Medicines. They can be administered with perfect safety to a child three months old, the most delicate female, or a man of ninety.
These Remedies are the best Blood Purifiers
ever known, and will cure all diseases resulting from bad blood.
Keep your blood pure; keep your Liver in order; keep your digestive organs in a sound, healthy condition, by the use of these remedies, and no disease will ever assail you.

THE COMPLEXION.
Ladies who wish a fair skin and good complexion, free from a yellow ish tinge and all other disfigurement, should use these remedies occasionally. The Bitters in particular, and the blood pure, will result in sparkling eyes and blooming cheeks.

CAUTION.
Hoofland's German Remedies are counterfeited. The genuine have the signature of C. M. Jackson on the front of the outside wrapper of each bottle, and the name of the article blown in each bottle. All others are counterfeit.

Thousands of letters have been received, testifying to the virtue of these remedies.

READ THE RECOMMENDATIONS.
FROM HON. GEO W. WOODWARD,
Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.
PHILADELPHIA, MARCH 16th, 1867.
I find "Hoofland's German Bitters" is not an intoxicating beverage, but is a good tonic, useful in disorders of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility and want of nervous action in the system.
Yours truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD.

FROM HON. JAMES THOMPSON,
Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.
PHILADELPHIA, APRIL 28th, 1866.
I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect,
JAMES THOMPSON.

From REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D.D.,
Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.
DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.
Yours, very respectfully,
J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates St.

Price of the Bitters, $1.00 per bottle;
Or, a half dozen for $5.00.
Price of the Tonic, $1.50 per bottle;
Or, a half dozen for $7.50.

Recollect that it is Dr. Hoofland's German Remedies that are so universally used and so highly recommended; and do not allow the Druggist to induce you to take any thing else that he may say is just as good, because he makes a larger profit on it. These Remedies will be sent by express to any locality upon application to the

From the Northern Monthly.

Progress of Native Taste and Industry.

The ever growing appreciation of objects which gratify the eye and taste, and tend to expand the mind—the necessary and pleasing result of increased wealth—as evidently diffused throughout our country, is exhibited in many forms: in the enlarged demand for articles of virtu and adornment; pictures, musical instruments, now found at every family fireside, elaborate furniture, of Parisian make or mould, and costly equipages, public parks and planted cemeteries, as well as in those things of a more practical and household character, which minister to our wants and supply the daily necessities of life. On every hand is seen improvement and expansion. "The old house at home," with plain, unpapered walls, which once sufficed for every family comfort, is superseded by the orange cottage, or even more stately structure. The Elizabethan mansion, Italian villa, with its ambitious tower, or the castellated pile, perchance, rears its head where, in our boyhood days, the log-cabin, or at best the weather-boarded, barn-like farmhouse, innocent of paint or whitewash, with its bucket dangling at the well, and homely worm-fence surroundings, filled the measure of wants in that direction; or if, in some localities of older settlement, the change has not been of so recent date, it is but a generation back, at farthest, when our sturdy forefathers were thus quite content.—These remarks apply with special force in the middle, western and northern sections of the Union, where progress is the emphpatic watchword, amid the incessant hum by night and by day of countless steam-engines, propelling, at American speed the ingenious and intricate machinery, which evolves, as it were, with magic power, far excelling the manipulation of tiny fingers or sinewy hands, the delicate fabrics or mighty works in metal, which, in their varied forms and details, sum up the fancied and real wants of life in this nineteenth century. How much might be said on so interesting a topic as the world-renowned skill, undaunted energy, and perseverance of our people, who, at home, not content with subduing the gigantic forest, bring from their hidden recesses the coal and metals, conquering the stubborn soil, or conjuring from the brain the subtle machine, or it may be one so plain yet powerful that every European wonders he had not made himself the discovery—yet also enters into active competition (crowned with success on many a hard-contested field) with the time-honored skill of the trans-atlantic world. These reflections, so briefly and imperfectly expressed, have been induced in part by a conversation on the subject of garden-seed culture, as pursued by the Messrs. Landreth, of Philadelphia, noted throughout the Union as eminent in their special line of industry; which, though certainly of very limited extent as compared with many other industrial branches that absorb millions or capital and give employment to multitudes of men, is in its history, and to that we would specially invite attention, not without a useful lesson. It may, if studied by the young, point a business moral, stimulate patient industry, and cheer the aspirant for professional reputation. The progress of seed-culture in the United States is one of the many evidences of the rapidity with which our country moves onward. Forty-five or fifty years ago when the elder in the firm to which we have referred was a schoolboy, giving occasional assistance to his father, who was the progenitor in his branch of business in America, and supplied then, as the house does now, much of the demand at home and distant points within the Union, a few, very few acres afforded an ample supply of seeds. With the increase in population, and enlarged clearing of the national domain, this branch of business has kept pace; and the Landreths alone, now have under their immediate personal inspection and control six hundred acres. When it is considered that this large breadth of land is in drill culture, and that on each acre occupied by certain kinds of seed the details are so minute and oft-repeated, before the crop is made, as to equal the labor of ten times the same area in ordinary grain, an intelligible estimate may be formed of the aggregate tillage on the estate of Bloomsdale. Then again, the expenditures for crude manures and fertilizers. What would one of our old time farmers think of a cash outlay within a year of twelve thousand dollars, independent of the large amount home made? Yet such, we are assured, was the sum disbursed on that account within twelve months. Again, a thousand bushels of wheat equals the average product of well-conducted farms in the wheat-growing districts of the Union What may be thought of that quantity of turnip-seed alone, and more than half that quantity of cabbage seed, as among the yearly products of the estate in question! And yet, large as these operations thus personally conducted by the firm therein referred to, they have vast fields outlying, comprising many hundreds of acres, under delegated superintendence, on which are raised thousands of bushels of the coarser seeds, such as peas and beans, which do not demand the same critical care as the more precious crops grown at home, under the proprietors' personal inspection. It may well be questioned whether there is within the compass of our country a more clear and gratifying evidence of the result of persistent industry, directed to the same end from one generation to another, than is presented in the case before us; and here is the point to which we referred in a preceding sentence. What has been accomplished by the Landreths may, with equal energy and industry, be achieved by all. Let the reader, if he be a young man, starting in business life, take courage, and press forward, ever keeping the goal, success in view. It is to be regretted that, in this country, the son is so readily diverted from the business pursuit of the father, and the cases are unfortunately the exceptions where a house, in any branch of trade, can date farther back than the existing generation. In the instance we are discussing, we find the old English rule prevailing, and the third generation treading in the footprints of their progenitors; and, judging from present and bygone progress, it may not be distant when these noted cultivators may have as many hundreds of acres devoted to the growth of seeds, as their remote forefather had of single acres. The acorn which he planted has indeed grown to be a stately tree, its branches extending to many distant ports which American commerce reaches. It is not to gratify professional pride or advance private gain that we indite this article, but to place on record a commendable instance of persistent native industry, for the benefit of our youthful readers.

☞ Three little girls were playing among the sage bushes in the back yard. Two of them were "making believe to keep house" a few yards distant from each other—neighbors as it were. One of them says to the third: "There now, Nelly, you go to Sarah's house, and stop a little while and talk, and then come back and tell me what she says about me; and then I'll talk about her; then you go and tell her all that I say, and then we'll get mad and won't speak to each other, just like our mothers do. O! that'll be such fun!"

☞ After Mr. Frederick Douglass' lecture at Ann Arbor, a short time ago, a son of a United States Senator attending college there, stepping upon the platform, advanced to Mr. Douglass, extended his hand, and remarked: "My name is ——; I am the son of a United States Senator." "Are you?" said Mr. Douglass, "I have reason to believe that I am, too."

☞ The editor of a Western cotemporary remarks that he is glad to receive marriage notices, but requests that they be sent soon after the ceremony, and before the divorce is applied for. He has had several notices spoilded in this way.

For the West Jersey Pioneer.

Andersonville, Ga., March 6, '68.

MR. EDITOR:—You may read descriptions in all the journals you please, of the consumate devilry of the rebels of the South as shown in Libby and other prisons where our soldiers were incarcerated, but none of them I think, will approach the savage, heinous, barbarous crimes committed in Andersonville; I visited this terrible place to-day, and walked over the stockade and the Cemetery; I found buried there over 13,000 soldiers who had died in prison; only think of it! 13,000 men, and all in the prime of life! mostly from eighteen to twenty-five and thirty years of age; is it not awful to think on?

I must now describe the stockade: it is an enclosure of about 15 acres, with a little rivulet flowing through it, and surrounded by a double fence, the outside one is about thirty feet further from the centre of the field than the inside one, these fences were about 15 feet high, and made of pine logs driven into the ground and touching each other like "pilings; on the inside fence about every twenty yards was a place fixed on the top to post a guard, while between the fences was filled with the rebel garrison. My informant, who visited the stockade with me, says the field was black with prisoners, and that their rations was a piece of corn bread about the size of a half brick and nearly as hard, made of coarse, unbolted meal.

They kept their own prison record, registering the name, company, regiment, and time of death of nearly every one who died. The dead prisoners were piled up in wagons without coffins or grave clothes, as many as would lay on, hauled away and dropped into trenches without ceremony or regard; and he also states that General Winder would not allow him to take provisions into the hospital which the ladies of America had gathered up. I saw only one from New Jersey, and that was J. Anderson, but I have no doubt there are many more. I picked up a bone and an old knife spring, left by the prisoners, as momentoes of their terrible sufferings. There is no shade in the stockade, and they had no protection from the weather. The ground is still full of holes which the poor fellows dug to escape the burning heat of the sun, and the merciless peltings of the rains.

HONOR YOUR BUSINESS.

It is a good sign when a man is proud of his work or calling. Yet nothing is more common than to hear men finding fault constantly with their particular business, and deeming themselves unfortunate because fastened to it by the necessity of gaining a livelihood. In this spirit men fret and laboriously destroy all their comfort in the work; or they change their business, and go on miserably, shifting from one thing to another, till the grave or the poor-house gives them a fast grip. But, while occasionally a man fails in life because he is not in the place fitted for his peculiar talent, it happens ten times oftener that failure results from neglect, and even contempt of an honest business.

A man should put his heart into everything he does. There is not a profession that has not its peculiar cares and vexations. No man will escape annoyance by changing business. No mechanical business is altogether agreeable. Commerce, in its endless varieties, is affected, like all other human pursuits, with trials, unwelcome duties, and spirit-tiring necessities. It is very wantonness of folly for a man to search out the frets and burdens of his calling, and giving his mind every day to a consideration of them. They belong to human life. They are inevitable.—Brooding, then, only gives strength. On the other hand, a man has power given to him to shed beauty and pleasure upon the homeliest toil, if he is wise. Let a man adopt his business, and identify it with his life, and cover it with pleasant associations; for God has given us imagination, not alone to make some poets, but to enable all men to beautify homely things. Heart-varnish will cover up innumerable evils and defects. Look at the good things. Accept your lot as a man does a piece of rugged ground, and begin to get out the rocks and roots, to deepen and mellow the soil, to enrich and plant it. There is something in the most forbidding avocation around which a man may twine pleasant fancies, out of which he may develope an honest pride—Irish Evangelist.

"Dear Madam—Allow me to present my Bill for your acceptance."

The lady sent the spooney back to his father, with the following reply:

"Dear Sir—Your Bill is vetoed."

☞ The last dog story is that of two canines who fell to fighting in a saw mill. In the course of the tussle, one of the dogs went plump against a saw in rapid motion, which cut him in two instanter. The hind legs got demoralized and ran away, but the fore legs continued to fight, and whipped the other dog.

☞ A Berkshire paper says that a fellow in that vicinity went courting his girl on Monday evening, and wishing to be conversational, observed: "The thermomokron is thirty degreess below zelon this evening." OLD TIME JUSTICE IN ALABAMA.

Somewhere down in Talapoosa county, Alabama, a certain grocery keeper named Thompson, had an account against an Indian of the Cruh tribe for rum and other necessaries of Indian life, and having presented the bill to the noble red man and demanded payment, the gentle savage demurred, avowing that he had already paid the bill, having delivered to the grocery keeper an amount of peltries sufficient to liquidate all obligations, and concluding with a flat refusal to do anything further in the matter. Thereupon Thompson brought suit against the Indian before Squire Mulcher for the recovery of the sum of eleven dollars and a half, and the case was duly set for trial When the appointed day came, the respective parties presented themselves at the bar of justice, Mr. Thompon being seconded by the lawyer (the only one) in the settlement, while the Justice was backed up by his familiar, a constable named Johnson.

The hearing of the cause proceeded.—Thompson testified that the defendant had, at various times during a period extending over more than two years, traded at his store to the amount stated in the bill; that he had never paid anything, and when dunned for the amount declared he did not owe it and would not pay it. He offered his book (in which his accounts were kept in very primitive fashion) in corroboration of his testimony. The Indian had no witness to testify in his behalf, and could only plead a general denial of the debt, averring that it had been discharged by the exchange of sundry furs.

The case was decidedly against the aborigine, when the Squire arose, equal to the emergency, and in the sacred name of justice announced a new code of practice in Alabama. Turning to his constable he said: "H'yer, Mr. Jhhnson, I appint you the court to sarve pro temporary. I'm goin' to take a swar in this case myself." The counsel for the plaintiff was too utterly dumfounded to interpose any objection, and the oath having been administered by the "pro temporary" court, the Justice went on to give his testimony. He deposed that to his certain knowledge the defendant had at divers times left at the store of the plaintiff skins and peltries, which in his judgment, if taken at a fair valuation, would be more than sufficient to balance the accounts. He further testified that in his opinion Thompson was a "darned mean skunk," and that as for himself, he'd a great deal sooner believe the Indian on his bare word than Thompson on his oath, "if he swore to one as long as the Bigbee river;" that even if the Indian had neglected to pay, or even refused, he'd be pardonable from the fact that Thompson's whiskey was mean enough to make a man do anything, and in that case the Indian could not be held responsible.

Having concluded his evidence, he resumed his seat as judge in the case, and proceeded to sum up. By this time, however, the counsel for the plaintiff had recovered sufficiently from his astonishment to interpose an objection to this summary proceedings. He declared his belief that this was all irregular, contrary to law, and very dangerous as a precedent. Besides he wished to argue the case. He was cut short by the Squire assuring him he "didn't care a damn" whether it was or not; it was justice, and that was "a heap" better than all their law; and that he didn't need to hear any argument on the case, as he already understood it thoroughly. But the counsel was unsatisfied, and remonstrated once more, when the Squire assured him that if he didn't "shet up right off" he'd come down and "go through him," and more than that, he'd fine him $10 and commit him for contempt of court. This was a settler. The Squire then rendered his decision to this effect: The Indian was found to owe nothing, while Thompson, who had been found guilty of an attempt to swindle the defendant, would be ordered to give him a receipt in full, besides paying a balance of $5 to the defendant, that being the amount which the Squire believed he would have owed the defendant if he had taken his furs at a fair valuation. Moreover, he would be required to pay all the costs of the suit and stand treat at his grocery for the crowd. He then adjourned the court.

WORKING GIRLS.

Happy girls! who cannot love them? with cheeks like roses, bright eyes and elastic step, how cheerfully they go to work. Our reputation for it, such girls will make excellent wives. Blessed indeed will those men be who secure such prizes. Contrast those who do nothing but sigh all day, and live to follow the fashions, who never earn the bread they eat, or the shoes they wear; who are languid and lazy from one week's end to another. Who, but a simpleton and popinjay, would prefer one of the latter if he were looking for a companion? Give us the working girls; they are worth their weight in gold. You never see them mincing along, or jumping a dozen feet to steer clear of a spider or a fly; they have no affection for any airs, and trying to show off to better advantage, and you feel as though you were talking to a human being, and not to a painted automaton or a fallen angel.

THE NEW JERSEY CONFERENCE.

This body which has just closed its session at Lambertville, passed through one of the most harmonious meetings which has distinguished it since it has occupied its position as a conference.—The town in which it was held is one of the most pleasant in the State, and all denominations united in entertaining the one hundred and fifty preachers who were present. It was formally opened on Wednesday of last week by the venerable Bishop Scott, and proceeded at once to the dispatch of the business before it. There was no case in which one of the preachers was charged with any immorality, so no time was consumed by investigation or trials; indeed there has been but one case of immorality alleged against a member since it separated from the Newark conference, some ten years ago. There were no complaints of improper administration of discipline, and so no time was lost in this direction. The representation of the state of the Districts by the presiding Elders disclosed a state of general prosperity. A number of new church enterprises were shown to have been projected, quite a number of church debts had been paid off, several parsonages erected, the preachers had in almost every case received the amount assigned to them as salary, the presiding elders had been paid, and both preachers and presiding elders were said to have faithfully performed their work. The collection for the support of the sick and worn out preachers surpassed that of any previous year and allowed the appropriation of sums ranging from fifty to four hundred dollars to each needy case, as its peculiar circumstances demanded. This is one of the noblest charities of the church and probably does more to make its ministers contented amid the privations of the work than almost anything else. A preacher knows that if he gives his life to this work and dies poor, that his widow and children will receive some little aid from the generosity of the church, to aid them in the battle of life which they must then fight without him, or if he himself becomes disabled and is poor, the funds arising from these collections will be applied in his own behalf; without this, it would be impossible to keep many of those ministers whose incomes do not reach their actual expenses in the labors of the itinerancy. We deem it a wise provision in their discipline that this pledge of the church is held out as a stimulus to its ministers to encourage them in the sacrifices which the nature of their work renders imperative. The collections for Missions showed a very slight decrease from those of last year, but still some sixteen thousand dollars have been donated for the cause, and the other benevolent enterprises had received a fair amount of consideration at the hands of the church. Over four thousand probationers have been added to the church during the last year within the conference bounds, fourteen hundred of whom were from the Bridgeton District. The delegates elected to the general conference which is to be held at Chicago in May, were Rev. J. Winner, F. A. Morrell, S. Vansant and J. S. Hiesler with Rev. J. B. Dobbins and A. E. Ballard as reserves. Of these Mr. Morrell is now stationed at Commerce street in this city, Mr. Hiesler at Salem, Mr. Dobbins was formerly a pastor in Bridgeton, and Mr. Ballard is the present presiding Elder of the district.

Among the business which was done at the Conference, was a resolution requiring that all communications to the Bishop and his council, respecting either the removal or appointment of a preacher to a particular charge, in order to receive any consideration, must come through the quarterly conference, which is the regular church officiary of the society.—This was understood to be a much needed improvement in the mode by which the Bishop reached the needed information, through which the preachers were appointed or removed, and will, no doubt, give general satisfaction to the church.

Another resolution was adopted, strongly deprecating the use of tobacco by the ministers, and urging, especially upon the younger members of the Conference, its entire disuse. Very many Conferences are taking still stronger ground against it, upon the principle that it is an offence to good taste, and also that it impairs, from its associations, the usefulness of a pastor, as the odor is peculiarly offensive to sick persons, among whom so much of a pastor's work must lie.

The educational interests of the denomination received a very considerable share of attention. Pennington Seminary was shown to be in a prosperous condition, overflowing with students, and necessitated to enlarge its buildings, while the projected seminary at Vineland was reported to be in fair prospect of speedy commencement. Rev. R. J. Andrews was appointed the agent for the ensuing year, and it is hoped that the persistent energy displayed by this gentleman in other church enterprises, may find its full reward in this one, so important to the future of Southern New Jersey. The Sabbath School interests were represented to be in a favorable condition, as was also the cause of tract distribution and church extension.

The Conference also avowed its sympathy with the Temperance reform, and passed resolutions accordingly. It was at one time hoped that Rev. Mr. Osborn would consent to take the State Temperance agency, in the place of Mr. Snyder, but he preferred the regular ministerial work and so, as yet, the State Society has selected no agent.

The report of the book concern showed a gratifying increase in its business. This is one of the largest publishing houses in the United States, and has on its list nearly fifteen hundred Sabbath School publications. The church periodicals issued in connexion with it, were shown to be increasing in their subscription lists, and the interest of the entire business increasing. In the appointment of ministers there has not been very many changes. We publish entire the list of appointments for Bridgeton district, and in addition it may be interesting to say that Rev. Mr. Brown, of Salem, formerly of Trinity church in this city, is stationed at Lambertville, while Mr. Cline, formerly of Commerce St, goes to South Street, in Salem. Mr. Graw, who left Trinity church in Bridgeton, to occupy the position of chaplain in the army, was removed from Lambertville and stationed at Long Branch. Mr. Harris is returned to Haddonfield, Mr. Thorne to New Brunswick, Mr. Whitecar to Camden, Mr. Mickle goes to South Amboy, Mr. Hill returns to Red Bank, Mr. King to Trenton, Mr. Osborn goes to Farmingdale. Mr. Perry to Central church in Trenton, Mr. Parker to Pennington, Mr. Margerum to Allentown, Mr. Baker to Freehold, Mr. Manchester to Vincentown, Mr. Williams to Port Republic, Mr. Boyle to Beverly, W. McCowan to West Creek, Mr. Johnson to Berlin, Mr. Hickman to Camden, Mr. Tucker to Barnsboro', Mr. Hutchinson to Clarksboro', Mr. Belting to Mullica Hill, Mr. J. H. Stockton to Cranberry, Mr. Ashbrook to Pennsgrove, while Mr Given continues in the navy, as heretofore.

Of the preachers who have not heretofore been in this region, it is proper to say that Mr. Maddock, who takes the place of Mr. Stockton, at Trinity church, is a gentleman of pleasing address, quite popular as a preacher, and will no doubt accomplish a good work in the church where he is sent to labor.

Mr. Tullis, who comes to Fairton, is a gentleman of sterling ability, and most energetic nature, which will no doubt all be brought into requisition in his work in that place. Mr Waters, on Petersburg circuit, is a man of strong preaching abilities. Mr. Wilson, who takes the place of Mr. Whitecar, on Lower Cape May, is not only a good preacher but a most genial man—a characteristic which will not fail to be appreciated among the social people of that region. Mr. Woolston, who takes the place of Mr. Manchester, at Roadstown, is still a young man, but possesses an amount of earnest devotion to his work, which cannot fail to ensure his acceptability. Mr. Dobbins, who succeeds Mr. Williams, at Cedarville, possesses many of the elements of a popular speaker, and will no doubt lead heartily the church in that place in the direction of a new church edifice, a matter of which there is the greatest need. Mr. Neal, who succeeds Mr. Andrews, at Vineland, is a gentleman of superior abilities, as well as popular address, and is understood to be a very judicious appointment to that youthful church. Mr. Hudson, the successor of Mr. Boyle, at Pennsville, was formerly in this city, a successful pastor and is well adapted to the church he serves. The other pastors on the district are the same as last year, and need no introduction to our readers.

The conference closed amid the most earnest determination of the preachers to be faithful to their great work, and the fullest hope of a successful year. The next session, occurring in March next, is to be held, for the first time, in our sister city of Millville, where all our people who choose will be privileged to attend upon and enjoy its sessions.

JOHN B. GOUGH.

After years of faithful but unsuccessful effort, the Lecture committee of the Young Men's Christian Association have at last secured, for a single night only, the services of the prince of public orators, John B. Gough. Before the lecture season of this winter was half over Mr. Gough declined seven hundred applications, having been engaged every available night until June, when he rests from his labors for the summer. In all probability this will be the last opportunity the citizens of Bridgeton will have of hearing the this inimitable orator. To those who have heard him, no words of ours are needed to sound his praises. Those who have expended from three to five dollars for the sake of hearing him in Philadelphia, will not refuse one dollar to hear him for the first and only time at home, when at the same time they will be aiding the Young Men's Christian Association who, have brought themselves largely in debt thus far in their course of lectures this winter. It is expected that Gough's lecture will bring them through their indebtedness, and leave them with a surplus in their treasury.

If the greenback should stand between the reader and John B. Gough, we would suggest that so much of the dollar as the ticket is estimated to be worth be applied for the same, and the balance be donated to the association for the good of the cause.

RECONSTRUCTION.

Congress has at last put into the forms of legal enactment the only sensible course left to them, and have passed a bill by which a majority of the voters of a state shall decide the adoption of rejection of its constitution.—We never could see any good reason for the absurd idea, that if a man chose to stay away from the polls, he might in this way defeat the law, or, if in any manner he could keep others away, the same object would be accomplished. The old idea of majorities ruling, is the only proper one in cases like these, and we can see no good reason why it should not be applied to the Southern States. It is not certain that the voters of those States will accept the constitutions which may be made by the conventions, but it will compel them to do this in an open and manly manner, and put an end to the present dog in the manger position of the people.

The Southern people pay for their continued acts of folly, for every rejection of the terms offered them, only compels more rigorous ones the next time, and in the meantime, the whole South is being left in chaotic confusion.

NEW JERSEY REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

The Union Republicans of New Jersey, held their State Convention at Taylor's Hall, Trenton, on Thursday of last week, to nominate twenty-eight delegates and alternates (four delegates and four alternates at large, and two alternates from each Congressional district) to the National Republican Convention, to be held in Chicago on the 20 of May next.

At noon precisely, the Convention met, when P. Kingman, Esq., Chairman of the State Republican Executive Committee, called the Convention to order and nominated as President pro tem., Socrates Tuttle, Esq., of Passaic, who was elected by acclamation.

The President said they had met to inaugurate the Grant campaign, and he saw in the faces of those present an indication of determination that boded ill for treason in New Jersey. The ship of State had been and was in a great storm, and would be unable to find relief until the crew had thrown overboard the Jonah whom they discovered among them. (Cheers.) He didn't know whether the Lord had prepared a great fish to swallow him afterward. It had been supposed once that the Democratic whale would do this kind office for him, but if it did he would not hesitate to prophesy that the first prayer for deliverance would come in less than three days, not from the man, but from the fish. (Cheers.) The Republican party was not going back on its record, under which its past triumphs had been won. He was in favor of the party going still further. There could be no doubt that the party would win even in New Jersey, for the record of the Democratic party had been such that the people would never intrust it with power until the last of the men whose sympathies had been given to the public enemy, have passed away. More than this, the record of the Democratic party in the State Legislature had been such during the past session, that the people would never endorse it. The people of this State would never countenance a party which, during the war declared all the measures for the suppression of the rebellion unconstitutional, and even refused not only to give the high sanction of the Constitution to the debt incurred in putting down the rebellion, but refused also to forbid the assumption of the rebel debts.

S. H. Gray, Esq., of Camden, and Wm. H. Barton, Esq., of Mercer, were nominated, and appointed Secretaries of the Convention pro tem

Hon E. A. Stansbury moved that the roll of the counties be called, and that each delegation nominate one delegate as a member of the Committee on Permanent Organization.—The motion was carried.

Motions to appoint committee on rules and credentials were laid on the table, and the Hon. E. A. Stansbury moved that a committee of one from each Congressional District be appointed to prepare resolutions, which was amended by making the number of the committee 21, one from each county.

Mr. Potts then moved that the Convention nominate twenty-eight delegates and twenty-eight alternates, but withdrew the motion in favor of a resolution by Mr. Stratton, to the effect that the delegates of each Congressional district select four alternates to the National Republican Convention, and that the Convention elect four delegates and four alternates at large. After considerable discussion a resolution in favor of adhering to the number alloted to the State by the National Executive Committee was carried, and the Convention then took a recess until two o'clock.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Convention was called to order by the President pro tem at 2½ P. M. The Committee on permanent organization reported as follows: President, Hon. D. S. Gregory, of Hudson.

Vice Presidents and Secretaries were reported for the different counties.

The nominations, being put to the Convention, were adopted by acclamation. Messrs. Baker, of Essex, and Potts, of Morris, were appointed a Committee to conduct the President to the chair.

Mr. Gregory, on taking the chair, was received with loud applause, and said that the nation had come through a very troublous period, during the whole of which time the administration of its affairs had been in the hands of the Republican party. The principles of that party were the same now as then, with such modifications as were demanded by the progress of events. With a united party and thorough organization to advocate those principles before the people, and under the leadership of Gen. Grant they could not fail of success.

The roll of the counties was then called, and each county delegation nominated its candidates for delegates and alternates at large.

The Convention then took a recess of fifteen minutes, and on resuming, a motion was made that the vote for Senatorial and district delegates be taken by counties. An amendment to take the vote by wards and townships was offered, but withdrawn, and the original motion modified so that the vote of those counties which were divided should be taken by wards and townships. The vote was then taken, and stood as follows:

FOR DELEGATES AT LARGE.

Hon. A. G. Cattell, of Camden	712
Hon. Geo. T. Cobb, of Morris	665
Courtlandt Parker, Esq., of Essex	619
John I. Blair, Esq., of Warren	557
Hon. Marcus L. Ward, of Essex	122
Gen. John I. Irick	88
Ex-Gov. Olden, of Mercer	53

The four first-named gentlemen, having received the highest number of votes, were then declared elected delegates at large.

Messrs. J. I. Irick, Amos Clark, Jr., Gen J. F. Rusling, and Major Z. K. Pangborn, having also received the highest number of votes for alternates, were declared elected alternates at large.

THE DISTRICT DELEGATES AND ALTERNATES were then nominated by the delegations from each district, and confirmed by the Convention as follows:

First District—Delegates, Col. Wm. E Potter, Cumberland; Jno. Wr Hazleton, Gloucester. Alternates, M. Dubois, Cumberland; Thos Beasley, Cape May.

Second District—Delegates, Jarvis E. Bartlett, Burlington; Robt. E. Bellville, Mercer. Alternates, Jno. W. Herbert, Monmouth; Jno. S. Schultz, Ocean.

Third District—Delegates, Levi. T. Gerard, Middlesex, Chas. H. Hillman, Hunterdon.—Alternates, H. M. Gascoyn, Somerset; C. Chetwood, Union.

Fourth District—Delegates, Edward A Walton, Bergen; Martin Ryerson, Sussex. Alternates, Rowland Johnson, Essex; James Nightingale, Passaic.

Fifth District—Delegates, Jas. Gospill, Hudson; Cornelius Walsh, Essex. Alternates, Daniel W. Baker, Newark; Chas. Wehle, Hoboken.

The announcement of the vote was listened to with the closest attention, and the small number of votes received by Gov. Ward elicited both cheers and hisses, on which a number of the Governor's friends rose and protested against any such insult being offered to the Governor, and the manifestations of feeling immediately ceased, though it was evident that the defeat of the Governor had given hearty satisfaction to the majority of the members of the Convention. Judge Shipman, of Warren, then reported the following resolutions from the Committee:

Resolved, That when the victory over rebellion left eleven States unorganized by war and destitute of civil governments, it was the right and duty of the Representatives of the people in Congress assembled —the law making power of this Government—to declare the terms on which such States should be restored to their relations to the Union. They entered upon this duty with a moderation and magnanimity never before exhibited in dealing with rebellion.—Sullenly resisted by conquered rebels at the South, embarrassed by partisan opposition at the North, and thwarted at all points by a faithless Executive, they have advanced, step by step, in the work more difficult than war and are now approaching its successful accomplishment. We honor them for their firmness and wisdom, and we pledge them the support of the Republicans of New Jersey, in their steadfast purpose so to organize the rebel States as to form a more perfect union, establish justice, ensure domestic tranquility, and secure the blessings of liberty" for all American citizens.

Resolved, That when the Democratic Legislature repudiated the deliberate consent of New Jersey to the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, they transcended their powers, and reversed the expressed will of the State; and we appeal from their action to the people at the polls. We promise that New Jersey shall not rest under the stain of repudiating the principles of that amendment, viz: the equal rights and privileges of all the citizens of the United States; the just apportionment of Representatives according to the actual numbers of those whom they are to represent; the exclusion from office under the Government of those who, in violation of their oaths, tried to overthrow it; the unquestioned validity of the public debt; and the absolute extinction of all debts incurred to aid rebellion.

Resolved, That the impeachment of the President before the Senate is the only constitutional method of removing an executive officer who violates the Contitution and laws of the land. As the President of the United States has defied the laws of the country, usurped perogatives not belonging to his office, conspired to use the military to subvert the civil power, and disgrace the country by blasphemous vituperations of co-ordinate branches of the Government, he ought to be convicted and deposed. We desire that he shall have a fair and speedy trial and whatever may be the issue before the Senate, its decision will be acquiesced in and sustained by a free people.

Resolved, That, anticipating and desiring the early reestablishment of the revolted States, upon sound and permanent foundations, and the speedy removal of all obstructions to the will of the people expressed through their representatives, we confidently look to these events to revive and invigorate the industry of the nation; to maintain unquestioned the national credit; to stimulate the development of our vast material wealth, and to enable us to press forward in the grand career of national prosperity open to us, through the trials of civil war and the downfall of slavery.

Resolved, That we are in favor of ULYSSES S. GRANT for President of the United States [great cheers] and we instruct the delegates appointed by this Convention to cast their votes for him. He deserves this highest honor for his services to his country. Firmly maintaining in all his official actions the fundamental principles on which the institutions of this country must hereafter stand, resisting the blandishments and steadily foiling the schemes of a President who sought to use him for purposes of usurpation, he has proved as well by his prudence in peace as by his skill in war, that he is worthy to be the President elected by the people, next after Abraham Lincoln.

Resolved, That, warned by the sad experience of the past and present, we ask that the candidate for Vice Presidency be a man of unblemished character, of incorruptible integrity, of firm devotion to the principles we cherish; and that the candidate possessing these qualities and such personal popularity as would strengthen the ticket, should be selected, without any regard to locality.

After reading the resolutions, the Judge added: "I am further instructed to say, as the voice of the delegation from the Third District, that the delegates from this Convention be instructed to press on the Chicago Convention the claims of Governor Marcus L. Ward to retain his position as chairman of the National Executive Committee."

The resolutions were then put to the Convention and carried unanimously, the whole meeting rising and giving three tremendous cheers and a "tiger" for Gen. Grant.

Mr. C. J. Hoils, of Camden county, then offered the following resolution, which was carried though not unanimously;

Resolved, That we cordially endorse the administration of our worthy Governor, Marcus L. Ward, in which he has proved himself so efficient in administering the affairs of State; that his noble philanthropy exhibited towards our brave soldiers in the field of battle, has more than endeared himself to the people of New Jersey, and we pledge him the continued support of the Republican party.

The Convention then adjourned. A large and enthusiastic Republican meeting was held at the same hall this evening, when speeches were delivered by Gen. Williams, of Indiana, Chas. H. Jay., Major Z. K. Pangborn, and other gentlemen.

NEW JERSEY LEGISLATURE.

TRENTON, March 18.

LIQUOR ON ELECTION DAY.

The bill to repeal the law prohibiting the sale of liquor on election day coming up on its final passage, under a suspension of the rules, Mr. Richey said he had been spoken to by a great many of the best men of both parties, and the unanimous wish of the best citizens was that the law should be allowed to stand. It was not passed as a political bill—it should not be one. The accounts that I have received from all sections of the State show that the law has worked well. Under its op ration persons can go quietly to the polls and vote without any of the noise and confusion caused by an immoderate indulgence in intoxicating drinks. When a man goes to exercise the highest privilege of an American citizen, he should be sober. We should meet this question with moral courage. If I were convinced that 99 out of every 100 of those who would vote for me would thereby be induced to vote against me by my advocacy of a measure which my conscience approved, I should not hesitate.

Mr. Little said he proposed to vote against the repeal of the law, and he would give his reasons sor so doing. He wanted the Senator from Mercer to understand that there was as much moral courage in the Democratic party as in that of the Senator, and this question must be taken entirely outside of all politics. no political capital must be expected to be made out of it by Senators on the other side If the Senator from Mercer had shown a little more moral courage when questions affecting the Constitution of the United States had been before the Senate, his high position now would be more weighty. It was stated in the Central Republican paper in this city that I introduced and voted for the law prohibiting the sale of liquor on election day. Both of these statements, unfortunately for me, were untrue. I presented a petition from citizens of Monmouth asking that the place of election should be held at some place where liquors were not sold. I neither introduced nor voted on the bill, and knew nothing of its passage until I saw it on the statute book. I am, however very certain that had I been present when the bill was on its passage that I should have voted against it. I was not yet educated up to the point to vote for any rude measure.—But now that the law has been enacted and placed upon the statute book and found to work well, I am unwilling to take backward legislation upon it. I do not see any better method of meeting the question, than by allowing the law to stand.

Mr. Winfield suggested that Senator Little failed to mention a very important fact in connection with this subject, which was that when the people are sober they vote the Democratic ticker, as exemplified in the last lection.

Mr. Richey said he hoped the gentlemen would show the consistency of this view by the manner in which he records his vote.

Mr. Hopper thought the Senators were planting themselves on altogether too high moral grounds. He would not hesitate to vote to repeal the law, because he believed it to be too sweeping and unjust. He would favor such a modification of the laws regulating elections as to make it unlawful to hold the election at any place where liquors are sold.

Mr. Winfield said he was satisfied that a large majority of the people of Hudson county were in favor of the repeal, and their wishes should govern his vote.

Mr. Cobb said his constituents were very averse to a repeal of the law. Its effects in Morris county had been most beneficial.

Mr. Horner said, I am decidedly opposed to the repeal of this just and wholesome law. It has worked exceedingly well in my neighborhood. Both parties, so far as I can learn, in my county, are anxious that the law preventing the sale of intoxicating liquor on election days shall remain as it is. It prevents disorder and works well generally.

Mr. Blackman presented a petition from Good Templers and other citizens of Atlantic county, against the repeal of this law.

Mr. Horner called the attention of the Senate to the fact that he had presented during the session some twenty remonstrances against the repeal of the law. Several other Senators called the attention of the Senate to their having presented petitions to the same effect.

Mr. Winfield moved to postpone taking the vote until there was a full house, which motion was lost. The bill was then put upon its final passage and lost—4 ayes to 12 nays, as follows: Ayes, Senators Dater, Hopper, Robins and Winfield—4. Nays, Senators Anderson, Blackman, Bowne, Cobb, Edsall, Hays, Horner, Little, Rice, Richey, Warrich, and Wildrick—12.

The bill was reconsidered the next day, and again lost—ayes, 6—nays 13 The ayes—Dater, Hopper, Robbins, Windfield and Plummer. Mr Hood has now introduced in the House a bill exempting the county of Camden from the operation of the law. It is suggested that if the advocates of this bill are again defeated, they introduce a bill giving themselves the privilege of drinking all the rum they want.

In the House Mr. Whelan introduced a bill relative to the public arms in the State Arsenal. It provides that the Quartermaster-General be, and he is hereby authorized to dispose of at public vendue, or at private sale, such of the old arms and equipments now in the Arsenal as are not fit for service, the proceeds to be appropriated to Arsenal purposes. He is also authorized to alter muskets in the Arsenal to breech loaders as in the United States army, and in such numbers as may be required for the use of the uniformed companies of the State, and the proceeds of the arms shall be applied to the payment of the expenses of the alteration.

The new school bill, repealing the present law, and providing further for public education, was discussed last week in the House.—On the second reading of the bill, on Tuesday Mr. Evans moved its indefinite postponement. It was debated at some length, the friends of the present law claiming that it should have a fair trial, The motion was defeated—19 to 28. Mr. Molony of Gloucester, moved to strike out the 16th section, providing for Schools of religious socities, organized previous to April, 1846, applying almost wholly to Friend's School. This motion to strike out was adopted—23 to 16. On Wednesday, the bill was lost by a vote of 26 yeas to 18 nays—31 being necessary to pass a bill. The vote was reconsidered on Thursday, and after considerable debate the bill was again lost—30 to 23. A motion to reconsider was ruled out of order.

A NEW STRAWBERRY.—Messrs. Tatem & Davenport, Provision Dealers, Basement No. 1, and stalls No. 2 and 4, Delaware Av. market, Phila., advertise the sale of plants of a new strawberry—Stinger's Seedling, which was award the 1st premium by the Pennsylvania Horticultural Society Fair in 1867. It is represented as a very superior and beautiful berry, having the fine flavor of the Triumph de Grand, hardy and more prolific than the Wilson's Albany, and bringing a higher price in the market than the Wilson. Send for circular.

STEAMBOAT.—We are requested to say that the Steamer Swan which was expected here this week, will arrive on Saturday the 4th of next month and commence her regular trips the following Monday, April 6th. The company are not to blame for the disappointment, as the boat was promised them, but unavoidable circumstances prevented them from having her here this week.

THE STUBBS—TYNG CASE.

This celebrated case, which has so largely attracted the attention of the public for a number of months past, has at last reached the point where the ecclesiastical censure, pronounced by their church courts has been executed by the public censure of Dr. Tyng. The crime of the Doctor, it will be remembered, consisted in the fact that he, a preacher of the Protestant Episcopal denomination, had preached in a Methodist church, in the city of New Brunswick, where there was an Episcopal church also. The admonition of the Bishop occupied about three quarters of an hour, and advanced the strongest High Church sentiments, and also insisted upon the idea that the "cure" of an Episcopal preacher was not only his immediate congregation, but the territory adjacent, no matter what might be the denominational preferences of the people. It is not likely that this will be the end of the matter. The whole case, according to the protest, must come before the general Episcopal Convention, and if the finding of this court be there approved, it will be impossible, we think, to prevent a division of the Protestant Episcopal Society, within the bounds of the United States.

Below will be found the protest handed in by the father of Dr. Tyng, together with the subsequent proceedings.

Right Reverend Sir: It has been your pleasure to "approve" of the "findings" of this court of presbyters, and you have now administered the sentence of "admonition," "recommended" by them against the respondent.

This is your own act and your own responbility, I, Stephen H. Tyng, D D., a presbyter of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the diocese of New York, and rector of St. George's Church in the city of New York, and one of the counsel for this respondent, do most respectfully but firmly enter my solemn protest against this whole proceeding, now completed, from its commencement to its conclusion, as false in its allegations, unjust in its principles, uncanonical in its form, illegal in its transactions, iniquitous in its purpose, and voluntarily and persistently persecuting in its spirit, process and development.

And I do solemnly appeal from this decision of this court, and from this approval thereof, by the bishop of this diocese, under the most earnest sense of the cruel injustice with which this respondent has been treated, to the supreme and final decision of the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States; to the abiding sense of justice and righteousness in the individual members of this Church; to the conscientious review of the Christian Church throughout this land; to the record of future historic truth; to generations of advancing light and religious purity and power, which may come hereafter; and with the deepest humility, but with confidence unfeigned, to the judgment seat of the Lord Jesus Christ, who is the one Great Head and Ruler of his Church, and whose approval can never be given to the persecution of the innocent or to the oppression of the weak.

Given in the Church of the Transfiguration, in the city of New York, this 14th day of March, A. D. 1868.

STEPHEN H. TYNG, Sen.,
Rector of St. George's Church, in the city of New York.

The friends of Mr. Tyng crowded about the pew occupied by him, and some of them denounced the court which found the verdict, while a few spoke of Bishop Potter in no complimentary terms. The noise and confusion was very great, and it required the utmost efforts of the four or five policemen present to disperse the audience, a large part of whom, it is said, were exceedingly anxious to organize a meeting to sympathize with Mr. Tyng then and there. After retiring from the church, the friends of Mr. Tyng proceeded to another Episcopal church, (or "meeting-house," as Bishop Potter in his "admonition" several times styled the Methodist Episcopl churches) and organized a meeting to give expression to their views of the present condition of the case. At that meeting Mr. F. G. Foster was called to the chair, and Rev. E. Anthon was appointed secretary. Neither Rev. Mr. Tyng nor his father were present. The following gentlemen were appointed a committee to make arrangements for holding a public meeting, and to prepare resolutions for consideration at that time, namely, the Rev. Dr. John Cotton Smith, the Rev. Dr. Dyer, the Rev. Dr. Canfield, and Messrs. Brown, Stern, and Foster. The subjoined resolution, offered by the Rev. Mr. Anthon, was adopted.

Resolved, That we, clergymen and laymen, who were present this morning at the Church of the Transfiguration, on the occasion of the public reprimand of the Rev. S. H. Tyng, Jr., do hereby tender to our brother our deepest sympathy in the late trials to which he has been subjected, and which culminated in a public admonition by the ecclesiastical authority of the diocese, and we trust that divine grace may be given to maintain him in the noble position which he has taken.

After several gentlemen had expressed their opinions on the late proceedings in relation to Rev. Mr. Tyng, the meeting adjourned.

VINELAND RAILWAY.

H. Z. Ellis, Esq., the energetic canvasser for the sale of the stock of the Vineland Railway, is around. The subscriptions will not be called for until the work is ready to commence. This stock is certain to pay as good dividends as any Railroad in the State, on account of the many advantages presented by the route, embracing both a through and a way business. Let all of our farmers, business men and capitalists subscribe. We only want this Railroad, to enjoy the greatest advantages in developing and increasing the population of our section of the State. We give the names of some of the subscribers near Bridgeton, and between Bridgeton and the river:

Let Those Now Laugh, Who Never Laughed Before.

Gough—the unparalled dramatic orator and inimitable mimic, the admiration of the literary and humorous world, will surely be here on Thursday evening, the 2d of April. Let no one fail to hear him. This will probably be the only chance. Those wanting good seats should secure tickets immediately.

Cape Island, N. J., March, 24th, 1868.

MR. EDITOR:—Doubtless the readers of your paper must feel enough interest in events at this place to peruse a brief article. The winter has been unusually severe, and fish and oysters exceedingly scarce. Last week we had some clear, most beautiful days, but on Friday evening, the storm that had begun or swept over Illinois and Ohio, tearing down buildings, overturning Railroad trains, demolishing things generally, culminated here, and filled this part of Jersey full of snow. On Saturday no train, no mail—cut off entirely from mankind, storm still raging. On Sunday clear and beautiful overhead; hundreds out shoveling, and clearing off track. So a train got off in the afternoon. Streets blocked up four and six feet of snow, no sleighs or wagons through them for two days. I called round at all the churches, but "No sound of the church going bells," none were open. Snow banked up as high as the church yard fences. Rev. Mr. Hewitt was at the Conference, and none could be sent from there Saturday. The Presbyterian church has been supplied from Princeton seminary, since Rev. Mr. Hubbard's exit. Rev. Mr. Hewitt preached a great discourse recently from the motto on the five cent piece "In God we trust." He has a beautiful church, and the largest congregation in the Island, and a good instrument and choir. Rev. Mr. Hyde of the Baptist, is a delighful old gentleman, and most excellent preacher.

There is a large Episcopal church nearly finished, also a Roman Catholic of rather imposing pretensions, which has been closed during the winter. At Cold Spring there has been a great revival; there has been an influeuce in the Presbyterian church. These irresistable residents say it has been more lively than usual. Through the winter, more visitors than formerly. This has been mainly in consequence of the building of the Railroad Excursion House. There are scores of men in the various trades engaged, carpenters, bricklayers, painters, plumbers, tinners, plasterers, &c.—The building is 75x240. Two other large out-buildings were enclosed last week, one a two-story cook-house, 24x40, with ranges and all the modern improvements. The verandah is 20 feet out from the main building, and would afford from each story a grand view of old ocean, and within a few feet of it.

Yesterday in walking on the beach and gazing on the angry waves, one was forcibly reminded of holy writ: "The troubled sea which cannot rest, whose waves cast up mire and dirt." Several of the Cape May Packets were wrecked, one is bottom up near Fishing Creek, four lives lost and cargo, but fourteen hundred dollars was got out of it to-day. Reports are reaching here constantly of vessels on the beach more or less damaged. The body of an unknown white sailor was washed ashore to-day. Old Ocean to-day looked very pacific, as though no "wail had come over the deep." I counted over sixty white winged sails at once from the excursion house veranda where we have also a view of the Delaware Breakwater and Cape Henlopen. I spent a pleasant time Saturday in the Office of the Ocean Wave with the young gentlemanly editor, may his shadow which is somewhat lengthly, never grow less. An editors sanctum is rather an interesting place. Report says a new paper is to be started for the boarding season. Mr. Cake of Congress Hall has taken a fifth avenue hotel, New York city, he will however have this position here in the season. Of all the ill managed public affairs here the Post Office excells.

THE LATE STORM.

From all parts of the country we hear of the extent and severity of the late snow storm, which commenced here on last Friday evening, and continued until Saturday afternoon. It was much more extensive along the coast than inland. The cars which were due from Cape Island on Saturday morning, did not arrive there until the following Monday morning.—The snow was banked in some portions of the road, at least six or eight feet high, and it was imp

Machine Poetry.

I sing "The Singer," the best in the land,
The pride of all households—useful and grand,
'Tis the friend of the poor man, and sought by the Rich,
Because it relieves them of many a stitch.

I sing of "The Singer," in beauty and grace
It bears off the palm, and holds the first place:
It is simple in movement, unerring though swift,
And what is essential, it is easy to lift.

It does hemming and braiding, will cord, tuck and Bind.
In fact it does all things, to suit every mind.
You can work in the finest of fabrics with ease,
And then on materials as course as you please,

If the proof of the pudding, in eating consists,
Then give me a trial, examine my lists,
I ask but the trial, I know the result,
You'll never again, other agent consult.

There are other machines, very good it is true,
That advertise freely, saying what they will do,
We do not dispute they will do what they say,
But we hold that THE SINGER is better than they.

COLBY SELF-ADJUSTING SKIRT.

The Colby Vertical Self Adjusting Skirt, is ENTIRELY NEW IN PRINCIPLE, and its improvements and advantages over all others are obvious at a glance. The wires running VERTICALLY render it COMPLETELY SELF-ADJUSTING, requiring NO MANAGEMENT IN WEARING, but conforming itself to the action of the wearer in ALL POSITIONS, occupying NO MORE SPACE, in sitting or lying down, than an ordinary muslin skirt. It will sustain a weight of clothing more than double that of any other, and retain its proper form without in the least affecting the trail. Yet it is lighter, stronger, and more durable than any other in the market, and for elegance of form and comfort of wearing it is unequalled. An extended description is not intended, but as the experience of the wearers is deemed sufficient to demonstrate its value, we add—
What the Ladies say—
"THE COLBY SKIRT IS WITHOUT A RIVAL."
"It possesses more real merit and good qualitities than has ever been claimed for it."
"IT IS THE BEST SKIRT IN THE WORLD."
Every objection that has heretofore been urged against Hoop Skirts is entirely removed by the COLBY SKIRT, and, in proportion as all others are unyielding, difficult to manage, and liable to get out of shape, so the COLBY SKIRT IS PLIABLE, as comfortable as a Muslin Skirt, and retains its shape as long as the steel will last. Pronounced by all A REAL COMFORT AND BLESSING. Manufactured in the latest Parisian Styles, for walking or full dress.
Ladies are invited to call and convince themselves of the entire correctness of the above.
N. B.—Ladies residing at a distance can have Skirts sent per express, by forwarding measurement.
DIRECTIONS FOR MEASURE.
Waist, - - - - - number of inches round
Hips - - - - - (over dress—give full measure).

Between Broadway and Fourth Avenue.
SPECIAL NOTICE.—Ladies purchasing these Skirts should be particular to have the skirts fit moderately loose over the Hips so as to ensure perfect action.
"We are satisfied that any lady giving the Colby Skirt a trial can never be induced to wear any other.—WEEKLY NATIONAL PHENOMENON.

Pectoral Mixture
This is a valuable
COUGH REMEDY,
And is at this Season much in demand for COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, SORE THROAT AND WHOOPING COUGH!
One certificate—from the Rev. Mr. Heward, of Mountainville, N. J.—will show its worth. We will give it in his own words:—
Mr. E. F. BREWSTER—Dear Sir—Will you please send me by express six bottles of your Pectoral Mixture. Your Mixture is the best I can get. It saved me from a premature grave when a boy, and I have often found it invaluable since.
Yours, &c., J. B. HOWARD.
Its sale is increasing, and if it were not an excellent Cough Medicine, this would not be the case. We have on file many other valuable certificates, which will show at once its value. Sold at Thirty-five cents per bottle, all over the State.

These pictures were done in Europe, last Summer, during my stay there, and is THE only PICTORIAL HISTORY of any
NEW JERSEY REGIMENT
THAT EVER WENT TO WAR. They are correct Representations of all the camps, such as CADWALLADER, Beaverly, N. J., INGHAM, Washington; NIXON, near Chainbridge; KEAREY, CUMBERLAND, KNIGHT, ROBERTSON, STOCKTON, Virginia. Important Pickets near Langley's Va., near Fredricksburg, Virginia; FRENCH'S, CARROL'S HEADQUARTERS, POT CREEK HOSPITAL, ACQUIA CREEK, CHAINBRIDGE, and LACY HOUSE.
Battles of FREDERICKSBURG, CHANCELORVILLE, REVIEW under PRESIDENT LINCOLN, Crossing the RAPPAHANNOCK, on Pontoons, Marching HOME, &c. &c.
They are Splendidly colored.
Beautiful MOONLIGHT SCENES ON PICKET,
And SNOW STORMS IN CAMP,
Encamped in the Streets of Baltimore at Night, &c.
TWENTY-FIVE VIEWS IN ALL,
On two large Engravings, and will be sent free to any direction or your Post office, on receipt of TWO DOLLARS, only. There is only a limited number of them, and whoever want any had better send for them at once. Direct to PAINTS for Farmers and Others. The Grafton Mineral Paint Co. are now manufacturing the cheapest, and most durable paint in use; two coats well put on will last five years. Linseed Oil will last 10 or 15 years; it is of a light brown or beautiful chocolate color, and can be changed to green, lead, stone, drab, olive or cream, to suit the taste of the consumer. It is valuable for houses, barns, fences, carriage and car makers, pails and wooden-ware, agricultural implements, canal boats, vessels and ships' bottoms, canvas, metal and shingle roofs (it being fire and water proof), floor oil cloths (one manufacturer saving used 5,000 bbls the past year), and as a paint for any purpose is unsurpassed for body, durability, elasticity, and adhesiveness. Price $9 per bbl. of 300 lbs., which will supply a farmer for years to come.—Warranted in all cases as above. Send for a circular, which gives full particulars. None genuine unless branded in a trade mark Grafton Mineral Paint.

Facts for the People!

FOR BARGAINS IN CLOTHING,

ALL SHOULD GO TO

C. C. GROSSCUP & CO'S,

where you will find the largest and best assorted stock of goods in West Jersey; and the large business done by us enables us to sell at less than ordinary prices. Speaking of the large amount of business, we will not merely ask the public to take our word for this, as by consulting the Revenue Assessor's books all may know that our firm pays by far the largest manufacturers' tax of any Clothing house in this State south of Trenton. In fact, some months our returns are more than all other Clothing establishments put together.

Bridgeton and Salem combined.

This is no blowing, but facts which any one who wishes can prove by examining the records referred to. So the fact so well understood that this establishment turns out the

BEST AND CHEAPEST GOODS

in West Jersey, need remain no longer a mystery to the public, as the above facts will be sufficient to prove to all that the large amount of business done really enables us to defy all competition. Remember the place is C. C. GROSSCUP & CO.,
