HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC, PREPARED BY DR. C. M. JACKSON, PHILADELPHIA, PA. The greatest known remedies for

Liver Complaint,

DYSPEPSIA. Nervous Debility, JAUNDICE, Diseases of the Kidneys, ERUPTIONS of the SKIN,

and all Diseases arising from a Dis-ordered Liver, Stomach, or IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD. Read the following symptoms, and if you find that your system is affected by any of them, you may rest assured that disease has commenced its attack on the most important organs of your body, and unless soon checked by the use of powerful remedies, a miserable life, soon terminating in death, will be the result.

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fulness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Diegust for Food. Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.
All these indicate disease of the Liver or Digestive Hoofland's German Bitters is entirely vegetable, and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fiuld Extracts. The Roots, lierbs, and Barks from which these extracts are made are gathered in Germany. All the medicinal virtues are extracted from them by a scientific chemist. These extracts are then forwarded to this country to be used expressly for the manufacture of these Bitters. There is no alcoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters, hence it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stim-

Goofland's German Conic is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with PUBE Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in cases where some pure alcoholic stimulus is required. You will bear in mind that these remedies are entirely different from any others advertised for the cure of the diseases named, these being scientific preparations of medicinal extracts, while the others are mere decoctions of rum in some form. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Its taste is exquisite. It is a pleasure to take it, while its life-giving, exhibitarating, and medicinal qualities have caused it to be known as the orealizet of CONSUMPTION. Thousands of cases, when the pa-tient supposed he was afflicted with this terrible disease, have been cured by the use of these remedies. Extreme consultation, debitty, and cough are the usual attendants upon severe cases of dyspepsia or disease of the digestive organs. Even in cases of genuine Consumption, these remedies will be found of the greatest beneat, strengthening and invigorating DEBILITY. There is no medicine equal to Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic in cases of Debility. They impart a tone and vigor to the whole system, strengthen the appetite, cause an enjoyment of the food, give a good sound, healthy complexion, eradicate the yellow lings from the eye, impart a bloom to the cheeks, and change the patient from a short-breathed, emaciated, weak and nervous invalid, to a full-faced, stout, and vigorous person.

Weak and Delicate Children are made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. In fact, they are Family Medicines. They can be administered with perfect safety to a child three months old, the most delicate female, or a man of ninety. These Remedies are the best Blood Purifiers ever known, and will cure all diseases resulting from bad blood. oad blood.

Keep your blood pure; keep your Liver in order; keep your digestive organs in a sound, healthy condition, by the use of these remedies, and no disease will ever assail you.

THE COMPLEXION. Ladies who wish a fair skin and good complexion, free from a yellow-ish tinge and all other distingurement, should use these remedies occasionally. The Liver in perfect order, and the blood pure, will result in sparkling eyes and blooming checks.

CAUTION. Hoofland's German Remodies are counterfeited. The genuine have the signature of C. M. Jackson on the front of the outside varaper of each bottle, and the name of the article blown in each bottle. All others

Thousands of letters have been received, testifying to the virtue of these

READ THE RECOMMENDATIONS. FROM HON. GEO W. WOODWARD, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania PHILADELPHIA, MARCH 16th, 1867. I find "Hoofland's German Bitters" is bot an intoxicating beverage, but is a good tonic, useful in disorders of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility and want of nervous action in the system.

Yours truly,

GEO. W. WOODWARD.

From REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D.D., Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia Pastor of the Tonth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

DR.JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my oton family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable proparation. Is some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.

Yours, very respectfully,

Yes, the wild roses of the forest, and the flowers of the field, out down by the rude hand of autumn, and trampled beneath the busy feet of men, will return to life and vigor when the spring-time comes again, but the blossoms of our heart will come not back, even though affection's tear may bedew the grassy mound beneath which they repose, and the sun shine never so warm, and kind and loving friends watch for their coming until their eyes grow dim with age. No! the narrow confines of the grave are too cold to renew inanimate humanity, but when the great Spring-time of Eternity shall dawn upon the pale nations of the dead—when the sun's eye shall have a sickly glare, and the moon and stars grow wan with years —when the earth shall cease its revolutions, and the fountains of old ocean are dried upwhen the last rose bud has opened to the gaze of man—then will the gentle beams of Righteousness warm to life our little FLOWERS, and

It would be idle to deny that that party have been singularly fortunate in the selection of a candidate for the Presidential chair. Just as the people of that party were becoming disheartened by the stupid blundering of their leaders, both on the negro question and impeachment; just as they were tired out with the vascillations and hesitations of their leaders, and preparing to vote for almost any one who could oppose anything better than a weather-cock front; just at this time they have succeeded in obtaining a leader who makes his line and fights it out upon that line till the close of the war. It has been pretty much in their past political campaign, as it was in the earlier part of the war. A class of undecided, hesitating generals, backed with hesitating, undecided councils compelled victory to elude the nation's grasp, until a man so decided in his very nature that no plan could be accepted till its end had been fully considered, and then no resistance either of friends or foes was permitted to obstruct it, was formed in the person of General Grant-Whether Grant will lead the political cohorts to certain victory as he did the military ones, is of course a matter to be tested by the future, but that if any man can retrieve the mistakes of the leaders of his party, it is certain that General Grant is that man. It is certain that he has already learned one grand lesson of success in political life, which is to be silent

Quiet, reticent, and determined, with the prestige both of success and ability to go through with what he undertakes, he is perhaps the only man who at this juncture confidence essential to success. Whether there offering of $325 more in furtherance of the can be enough of it inspired to retain the strong popular majority which four years ago railled so successfully upon Mr. Lincoln, is as we said a question for the future to determine, but as to his personal appreciation by the people, there can, we judge, be no shadow of doubt. We are glad that such a man as Grant has received the nomination, of course the nominee of either of the great political parties stands something of a chance to be elected, and it is impossible that we should not feel an interest in who may be nominated by either one. If we had possessed any indifference upon this subject, the reign of Andrew Johnson would have dissipated it, and we do feel anxious that both the great parties should have upon their tickets the right class of men, and then whoever beats we shall be satisfied. We do not want them to be men who shall occupy the position of the filibusters and the Mormons, in their opposition to each other, of whom it was said, that every well aimed shot on either side would do the country a service, but on the contrary to be men whom the country will delight to honor. Certainly the Republicans have such a man in Grant, and if no better man appears upon the other side we shall be glad to see him elected. His nomination was made upon the first vote, all the delegations without a single exception casting their ballots for him, and that too without any previous thought of any other For the Vice-Presidency there was more

CORNER STONE LAYING.

According to announcement, the corner stone of the new Methodist Episcopal Church, t Deerfield, was laid on Thursday afternoon, of last week. The ceremonies observed were those of their church ritual, and are probably so familiar to our readers as to make it unnecessary to recapitulate them here. The day had been stormy, and the roads were difficult to travel, but still a large congregation assemspeeches. The building is to be of a convenient and architecturally well proportioned size, erected on one of the most beautiful and ligible lots in the entire town. This lot comprises a full acre, and is the generous gift of Mr. H. Danzenbaker, who, though not a member of the church, is still its kindly and genof the war, would be the nominee of the rep- erous friend. The box which is inserted in the corner stone contains copies of the county papers, the church periodicals, some of the smaller currency and coin now in use, the photographs of the clergymen who officiated on the occasion, and such of the subscribers to timents. He would not directly tell the nation | the building as may furnish them, the names that he sympathized with the Congressional of all these subscribers, and other things of similar character, to be taken out and wondered out in such a way as that it could easily be at when, perhaps, half a century to come, the building will give place to another, and the corner stone be removed. How the Physiognomies of the people will compare with the improved race that is to come after us, of course, it is impossible to much against us.

The opening address was made by Rev. Mr. Cann, the pastor who gave a history of the religious work of last winter, which had culminated in this enterprise, and of the enterprise itself, both in its present results and prospective probabilities. He was followed by Rev. Mr. Maddock, who made an address, founded largely upon the idea of this being a work day world, and the people of it, if they were worth invithing to their generation, were to be workers also. The lazy man was deliniated in colors which could not fail to make a likeness, and the speaker closed, by handsomely alluding to the earnest labor of the people, in bringing forward so far their work of faith. The address was characterized by the general humor which seems to be part of the very look and nature of the man, and was appreciated in benefitted by the accumulations or profits of the pleasantest manner by the assembled

The next address was delivered by Rev. G. C. Morris, and comprehended principally the thought of the blessing the house of God would be to the town. A higher tone of moral entiment would prevail from the introduction of another house devoted to religion; religion itself would flourish more luxuriantly, and the sons and daughters of the people would be more likely to grow up sons and daughters of God; children would be baptized here, penitents would here bow at the alters, souls would be born again, the gospel would be preached, men and women would be built up in the gospel faith, the bodies of the dead would be carunder abuse. When he was accused obeing ried from here amid the ceremonies of religion a drunkard, he said nothing at all, but left it to their last earthly resting place, and its to the people to judge whether a man could do whole influence would be a blessing to the work as he did and be a drunkard. On the 12th inst., at Haleysvile, near Mauricetown, there deceased a lady named Rachel Lard, aged ninety-five years. Her husband, Samuel Lard, had been a soldier of the Revolution, and she, as his widow, drew the pension up to the time of her decease. Saving Fund and Building Association. These institutions have been of great benefit to the city of Bridgeton. This is one of the first places in the State, where they were organized and successfully continued, until the present time. Several Associations having closed; after running from ten to twelve years in this place, it was thought advisable to start a new one on the perpetual plan, such as had been in successful operation in Salem, for some bled to witness the ceremony, and listen to the time previous. The competent and obliging Secretary of the Salem Association, Mr. Joseph A. Miller, wrote a letter to a gentleman of this city, in which he gave a full explanation of the perpetual plan, and its workings. That letter was read at the first meeting called for the organization of the "Bridgeton Saving Fund and Building Association," and the per petual plan adopted. This Association has been in successful operation two years, and now numbers over sixteen hundred shares, which is more than any other organization o the kind we know of. The receipts average about $2,400 per month, including premiums. This money is sold monthly, in shares of two hundred dollars each, to the highest bidder, who must be a member of the Association .-The premiums range from twenty-five to fifty dollars per share, and no money is loaned without good security. A mortgage on real estate is generally required. The directors and all the officers being men'of known integrity, living in our midst, no one feels any risk in having their money under their supervision. The books are open to investigation by any one interested, and are kept in the most cor> rect manner. As there is to be a third series opened or Monday evening next, and stock will be offered for sale at that time, we have thought it would benefit the association by stating that there need be no hesitancy in taking stock in the third series. If we have a right understanding of it, the first and second series has no special advantage over the third. The capital accumulated by the previous series benefits those series to the same extent that the capital of a firm would benefit the senior partner, who had that much more capital invested than those who might afterwards become associated with him in case they did not put in an equal amount of capital. The interest of the accumulated capital is placed to the credit of the series to which it belongs, and the earnings and profits are equally divided among all the series, so that those taking stock in the third or future series are equally the association. A plan known as the "sinking fund" was originated by Jos. A. Miller, of Salem, which obviates all the difficulty which was apprehended by some in paying off those who had taken stock in the first series when it becomes due. There associations have done when complimented by a screnade upon the occasion of his nomination to the Pre of the Union, which we print below. Long speeches and letters have suffocated the prospects of many a candidate for political honors, and the General evidently does not intend to die from wordy strangulation after the address made by Hon. Mr. Boutwell:

GENTLEMEN: Being entirely unaccustome o public speaking, and without any desire to ultivate that power [laughter], it is impossible for me to find appropriate language to thank you for this demonstration. All that I can say is that to whatever position I may be called by your will, I shall endeavor to discharge its duties with fidedity and honesty of purpose. Of my rectitude in the performance of public duties, you will have to judge for yourselves by my record before you. Three cheers were then given for Gen. Grant and hundreds of the crowd entered the house and congratulated the General. Mr. Colfax was also serenaded, and made a speech in reply, in which he attributed the hopes of success to the nomination of Gen. Grant, and advanced the political views which were to govern the contest of the Republican party in the coming elections. The speech was modest and possessed that admirable qualpeople to whom it was addressed were gentle-

THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

Contrary to expectation, the Republican platform which we publish below, is a most sensible and mod rate document, and does not read out of the party the Senators who voted for the acquittal of Andres Johnson, which we think is eminently sensible on their part, for nothing could make people so easily believe that these Senators were right, as to abuse them, and nothing could so effectually destroy their power for evil, as to sorrowfully pass them by without notice of any kind. The platform, as will be seen, has a plank asserting the inviolability of our national debt, a something which we suppose any honest minded man will approve. The question of universal suffrage is demanded for the Southern States as a political necessity, and an illustration of future policy in the admission of new members of our Union; but in the States already in active existence, the question was to be left entirely to their own wishes and views. The action of Congress is en dorsed in both the general idea of reconstruction and its general policy. We shall take occasion t more minutely analyze and examine the document and present its principles to our readers; but for the resent, simply refer them to the document itself which is as follows:

REASONS WHY.

We are enabled to offer superior inducements to purchasers of clothing, to which your attention is respectfully invited.

We have a business superience of more than 25 years having been longer established than any house in our trade in Philadelphia.

We employ sufficient capital to make all purchases for cash, which, together with the lact that our large business enables us to buy in large amounts in first hands, thereby saving all profits of jobbers and middlemen, give us advantages in purchasting at the lowest rates, shared by no source in our trade.

We sell only for each and having no losses from bad debts to provide for, the paying customer is not taxed to help pay the debt of another who does not pay, as is inevitably the case in a business where credit is given.

In the District Court of the United States for the District of New Jersey. In the matter of John E. Getsinger, Bankrupt. he was a consistent member of the First Presbyterian church, of Cedarville, and with alacrity and zeal devoted himself to the interests of the cause of Christ. Every good work found in him a ready mind and a willing heart; he took pleasure in helping forward the Redeemer's kingdom. As a teacher in the Sabbath School, and as a regular attendant upon the meetings for prayer and other means of grace, he evinced his desire to please Him, who, through grace had made him a partaker of spiritual mercies, and God, "who is rich in mercy," and faithful to his covenant promise, remembered him in the hour of sickness and of death, and ministered unto him of divine consolation as he had need. Having witnessed a good confession, he fell asleep in Jeeus.

Safety Oyster Winder. The Proprietor offers for sale a Safety Oyster Winder. This Machine is so constructed that when the drudge strikes any obstruction, causing the drum to run backward, it will not turn the crank so as to injure any one, or take it out of their hands. This Machine is superior to any other for washing oysters when muddy, and is in no way troublesome to have in readiness to heave out or take in. My machine is now in use in the Oyster Business, and has been thoroughly tested, and will recommend itself. It will not part the line or do any damage to the machine. BUY EARLY.

Unsurpassed for all kinds of crops QUALITY WARRANTED UNIFORM. JABRETTOWN, MONTGOMERY COUNTY, PA., Near Fort Washington, N. P. R. R., 9th Month 15th 1867. To William Ellis, Philadelphia:
RESPECTED FRIEND:—I have used Ellis' Fertilizer, Ammoniated Phosphate, on several crops this season and upon all with satisfaction. I consider my use of and upon all with satisfaction. I consider my use of it as establishing in my own mind its superiority.

ON CORN.—I found it is effect on this crop better than good compost, and nearly as good as manure and compost together side by side. On the ground where the Fertilizer was used there was no manure. ON POTATOES.—I found it better than any other Fertil zer used, not excepting barnyard manufe. I had larger and finer potatoes, and more of them.

ON GRASS.—For top-dressing grass I used No. 1 Peruvian Guano and Ellis' Fertilizer side by side, at the rate of 300 ibs each to the acre, and I think that the grass was quite as good, if not better, where the latter was put.

ON STRAWBERRIES.—There was no other manure used, and a finer crop I never saw. They were of the agriculturist variety. I think some hills had near 200 berries on, some of which measured from 5 to 5½ inches in circumference, the largest way round.

way round.

FOR CABBAGE.—I consider it better for this crop than barpard manure, having tried it this summer. I can recommend it as cheaper, its cost per acre being something less than half that of barnyard manure. I am using it on wheat this fall, and recommending it to my neighbors. R. C. SHOEMAKER.

Upper-Merion, Montgomery County, Pa.
August 1-t, 1867. To Mr. William Ellis.

DEAR SIR—I have used your "Ammoniated Phosphate" the present season, on Grass, Corn, and Potatoes, with marked success, and can recommend it to the public as a cheap and valuable Fertilizer. On Peach Trees, I found it equally successful, preventing the grub from attacking the tree.

SEWING MACHINE FINDINGS.—Silk, Cotton Thread, Needles, Oil, Springs, Screws, &c., and for the supply of any make of Saying Machines to those who desire to purchase, reator exchange. Machine Poetry. I sing "The Singer," the best in the land, The pride of all households—useful and grand, "Tis the friend of the poor man, and saught by the Rich, Because it relieves them of many a stitch.

I sing of "The Singer," in beauty and grace it bears off the palm, and holds the first place; It is simple in movement, unerring though swift, and what is essential, it is easy to lift. It does hemming and braiding, will cord, tuck and Bind. In fact it does all things, to suit every mind, You can work in the fines of fabrics with ease, And then on materials as course as you please, If the proof of the pudding, in eating consists, Then give me a trial, examine my list I ask but the trial, I know the result, You'll never again, other agent consult.

There are other machines, very good it is true, That advertise freely, saying what they will do, We do not dispute they will do what they say, But we hold that TAR SINGER is better than they.
