INTRODUCED INTO AMERICA FROM GERMANY, in 1835.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

Liver Complaint, DYSPEPSIA, Nervous Debility, JAUNDICE,

IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fulness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh. Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.

Coofland's German Bitters Goodand's Corman Bitters is entirely vegetable, and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts. The Roots, Herbs, and Barks from which these extracts are made are gathered in Germany. All the medicinal virtues are extracted from them by a scientific chemist. These extracts are then forwarded to this country to be used expressly for the manufacture of these Bitters. There is no alcoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters, hence it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable.

hoofland's German Conic is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with Yune Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in cases where some pure absolute stimulus is required. You will bear in mind that these remedies are entirely different from any others advertised for the cure of the diseases named, these being scientife preparations of medicinal extracts, while the others are more diseasions of rums in some form. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever affered to the public. Its taste is exquisite. It is a pleasure to take it, while its life-giving, exhibarating, and medicinal qualities have exused it to be known as the greatest of all tonics.

CONSUMPTION. Thousands of cases, when the patient supposed he was afflicted with this terrible disease, have been cured by the use of these remedies. Extreme emaciation, debility, and cough are the usual attendants upon severe cases of dyspepsia or disease of the digestive organs. Even in cases of granting consumption, there reproduces

READ THE RECOMMENDATIONS. FROM HON. GEO W. WOODWARD, PHILADELPHIA, MARCH 16th, 1867. I find "Hoofland's German Bitters" is not an intonscating become, but is a good tonic, useful in disorders of the digestice organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility and vant of nerrous action in the system.

Fours truly,

GEO. W. WOODWARD.

FROM HON. JAMES THOMPSON, Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania PHILADELPHIA, APELL 28th, 1866.

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspensia. I can certify this from my experience of it.

Yours, with respect,

JAMES THOMPSON.

From REV, JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D.D., Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia. Pastor of the Tenth Bapass Cauch,
DR. JACKSON-DEAR SIR: - I have been frequently re-DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my mane with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere. I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in verticus instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr Honfand's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may full; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.

Yours, very respectfully,

J. H. KENNARD,

IMPEACHMENT FARCE. As we predicted in our last, this proceeding has reached the close to which we stated it must necessarily lead. The vote on the cleventh article was typical of what was to come, and shadowed forth unmistakably the pathway of the rest. -Originally the defaulting senators would fain have put the whole matter into the tomb of the capulets, but their opponents were determined to make them face their record, and so compelled a vote which was decisive in settling the matter, so that the whole affair was given up .-On the question of postponement, Chief Justice Chase gave the casting vote against it, as it was certain that the President would be acquitted, and the Chief Justice was understood to be in sympathy with an acquittal. In the abstract it is of very little consequence whether Mr. Johnson was or was not convicted. because another year of mismanagement cannot destroy the elasticity of the nation, or kill its recuperative power, but it is of great consequence to estimate the results which naturally must flow from this decision of the Senate. One of those natural results is the increase in the assumption of power by whoever may be President. It has been gravely decided that the chief executive of a nation may set up his judgment as to the propriety of executing any law passed by Congress, against the expressed judgment of that Congress itself. The question is not whether the law was or was not a good one, but simply whether the President is or is not obliged to execute it when it has once received the legal forms. This law, which the President avowedly broke, was not only so passed by the Congress, but afterward, when the President attempted its violation, that same authority decided that he must not risk it, and stopped him where he was. In the face of this solemn decision, Mr Johnson violated that precise law, and a sufficient number of the very men who voted for the law, have voted for his acquittal, lation of the law by the President is no crime; and it will be difficult to prevent a yet fuller exercise of despotism in the future. Another sad feature of the case is the accusation of bribery. It is true that there is no direct evidence that any changing of the votes of the seven recusants and none is given. Some of them have attempted a defence, but none of President's acquittal, was held in New York, that at that mooting it was pil posed to buy three Senators, that these three Senators were named, that they did all vote for acquittal, that thirty thousand dollars at least were raised, and that their agent is now confined in a kind of prison, because he will not tell what he did with the money. There may have been no bribery, but it does not look so. But the case is ended and the nation both demoralized and dis- hold one on Friday and Saturday evengraced, and there is nothing to do but to bear it. Mr. Stanton, of course, relinquished his office, and retired to private life, carrying with him the confidence of the nation, for whatever may have been his faults, all concede that it was prin-

THE WAR SECRETARY. Now that the clatter and noise of the political fisticuffing at Washington has subsided into the sullen feeling of co-equal people who are called as witnesses, and defeat, the authorities begin to go to work | the men suspected of disbursing the to loosen the machinery which the unhappy disagreements of the past has to tell what they did with it, upon the clogged. The President has apparently ground that it is their own private affair, become weary of sending in nominations which he was certain would not be confirmed, and then appointing ad interims and sent to the Senate the name of Gen. Schofield for War Secretary. The nom ination was accompanied with a covert sneer, in the statement that he was to take the place of Stanton removed. The Senate resented the sneer, and also refused to recognize the removal as legal, but still felt that it was best for the good of the country to pocket the insult and confirm the man, which they did in the following preamble and resolution: "Whereas, The order of the President re-

General Schofield is still a comparatively young man, and brings to the War Office a record from the war which entitles him to the respect of the country. It is understood also that he possesses the confidence of Gen. Grant, and unless his past history misrepresents him, the President will find no pliant tool in him .-Heretofore he has administered affairs with a respectful independence of action, neither insulting authority nor truckling to it, and if he can escape the seductive influence of his compeers it is likely he the fruit growers of our region are likely will do so still. THE WHISKEY FRAUDS.

Among the reasons why bad men de-office, and why it was easy to afford a large amount of money to keep him

there, was the fact that under his administration the liquor interest is enabled to defraud the government almost with impunity The amount of these frauds can be judged by the fact that all whiskey distillers get rich with unprecedented apidity; that they spend enough money in influencing elections to ruin an ordinary political party, and that they sell their whiskey at from twenty-five to fifty cents a gallon less than even the amount of the tax. The government is cheated by these men out of at least one hundred millions of dollars annually. This estimate is a low one, and the likelihoods are that the actual loss is much sorrow. greater. Under Mr. Johnson, nobody has been punished for this, and it is tacitly understood that nobody will be. the money of these men that defeated his | was delivered by Chas. S. Padgett: impeachment, and that with the amount of cash which he can compel them to command at any time, any attempt to bring him to trial will be worse than useless. It is also asserted that the reason why these men have been allowed to go free so long, is that the President might have such reliance as they can afford of to-day but foreshadow the state and solwhen the hours of trial come. The manner in which these frauds on the revenue is arranged is easy. Once secure in the fact that the government will simple. In fact, almost all that is necessary is to fill up a bogus bond, guarrenteeing that all matters shall be conducted according to the law, and the business can go on. No revenue is paid, of course, and if by any mishap a prosecution is commenced, the persons who gave the onds for them are uniformly found to be worthless, if, indeed, the bonds themselves are not forgeries. In a recent case n New York, half a million dollars worth of these bonds were in the hands of the District Attorney, and shown to be near ly worthless. Putting these facts together, it is not wonderful that the liquor interest was so auxious to secure the acquit al of Mr. Johnson.

STRAWBERRY FESTIVALS.

One of the journals of upper Jersey has complimented the journals of this re gion, by publishing a statement that they are filled with announcements of "strawberry festivals." We should not thus securing the precedent, that a vio- deem it any particular discredit if the gatherings for public uses indicate a state of society, which is both harmonious and pleasant, but unfortunately for the journal, we believe that the announcements of the present week are about the senator received any money, but still, first that have been made. > In our advertising columns of this week, it will be seen that the ladies of the M. E. Church, at Cedarville, are to ngs of June 12th and 13th, in aid of their new church enterprise. It has been our privilege to attend such gatherings of the Cedarville ladies, and we can bear testimony that they understand how to make them attractive.

Another is also arranged for the 16th and 17th of June, at Centreton, which will no doubt be socially attractive. The enterprising ladies of Pittstown have one also in process of preparation, which will so overwhelming, that we presume that be announced in due time, and others he will hesitate before again deliberately will no doubt fill the festive strawberry season, which will be noticed by us as

The investigations by the House of Representatives, which insinuate bribery in the case of the Senators who voted against impeachment, do not seem to amount to a great deal. Most of the money for this purpose, absolutely refuse and none of the Congressionals' business. This is a view of the case that even Manager Butler seems incompetent to overcome, and it is not likely that any futher facts will be reached. An investigation of this kind does not often amount to a great deal, because where a man is bad enough either to offer or accept a bribe, he has generally sense enough to cover his tracks, so that they cannot be detected. Still we cannot help thinking that it would have been better for the characters of the suspected senators if the witnesses had manifested disposition to be open in their statements moving Secretary Stanton from office was un- about where the money in question actually DID go.

The Camden and Amboy and West Jersey Railroad Companies have made extensive arrangements to increase the facilities for the transportation of fruit and berries to New York, during the coming season by arranging to put an extra fruit train upon the road at that time. OUR FALLEN SOLDIERS.

On Saturday afternoon of last week, all over the land, there was performed one of the ire the retention of Andrew Johnson in sweetest and most solemn services that it is possible to imagine. Gen. Logan, who is commander-in-chief of the organization known as the Grand Army of the Bepublic, issued orders that upon that afternoon the people should proceed to the graves of the gallant defenders of the Union, and with music and far as we can learn, this order was universally obeyed. The citizens of Bridgeton and also of adjoining towns collected such flowers as the season afforded, and proceeded to the cemeteries, where the noble dead were interred, and strewed the graves, as a memento of their profound regard for the memory of the men who died rather than surrender the life of the nation. The Liberty Cornet band led the procession in our city, and poured the strains of soft, sad music over the ceremonies, touching all hearts with the inspiration of a grateful

Gen. Joseph R. Hawley, of Connecticut, the President of the Convention, delivered an elothe Republic in her crucial tour. Let us quent address, to which Gen. Grant replied as

Mr. President and Gentlemen of the National Union Convention: I will endeavor in a very short time to write you a letter accepting the trust you have imposed upon me. [Applause.] Expressing my gratitude for the confidence you have placed in me, I will now say but little orally, and that is to thank you for the unanimity with which you have selected me as a candidate for the Presidential office. I can say, in addition, I looked on during the progress of the proceedings at Chicago with a great deal of interest, and am gratified with the harmony and unanimity which seem to have governed the deliberations of the tonvention. If chosen to fill the high office for which you have selected me, I will give to its duties the same energy, the same spirit, and the same will that I have given to the performance of all duties which have devolved upon me heretofore. Whether I shall be able to perform these duties to your entire satisfaction, time will determine. You have truly said, in the course of your address, that I shall have no policy of my own to interfere against the will of the people. Mr. President and Gentlemen of the National Union

As the General concluded his speech there was long-continued applause. General Hawley then appropriately address

New M. E. Church at Cedarville.

For some time past, the people of the aboved named church have been contemplating the erection of a new church edifice. The one in which, for so many years, the society by Hon. John T. Nixon, which reflected credit has worshiped has become untenitable, and the erection of a new edifice was felt to be an absolute necessity. The present site is in the upper part of the town, and in a most attrac tive location, but still a central spot appeared | fair city being laid in ashes should a fire get to be a matter of necessity in order to accomdute the needs of the entire congregation .-Many of the members clung to the site, where they had so long gathered together, and in whose enclosure their dead were buried, whose enclosure their dead were buried, was started in Bridgeton by Mr. John S. while others insisted upon having the edifice Whipple. The demand at that time was so placed where the wants of the congregation generally would be best accommodated. For years it has been impossible to reconcile these were taken toward the erection of a house .-During the past year, however, the question vote, when it was decided in favor of the cen tral location. The question was next submit ted to a vote of the membership, and on Saturday evening last a meeting was held for this purpose, when twenty-four voted for the old location, and forty-two for the one in the central part of the town. A committee was apwere unable to be present, but it is not likely that the majority will be changed; and if this be so, then the question so long a vexing one, as to where the church shall go, will be set at rest. We are glad to learn of this movement, not only on account of its moral and religious aspects, but also because the introduction of asteful public edifices in any place improves it, and also increases the inducements for people from elsewhere to make it their home. We wish the good people of Cedarville all success in the accomplishment of their enterprise.

SHIPPING INTERESTS.

But few people have any idea of how terribly this interest has been crippled, first by the var, and secondly by the unwise legislation of Congress since the war. In 1861, there was but a trifle of difference between us and Britian, who was confessedly the proudest nation of the world in this regard. Both nations had about five and a half millions of tonage, the difference being in favor of the British, though to so small an extent as to make it sure we would soon reach and surpass them. Yet, in 1866, our tonage had gone down to a little over four millions, while that of Britian had advanced to over seven millions. In 1868, the discrimination against us is shown to be still greater, so that instead of hotel of E. Davis and Son, Bridgeton, N. J., recuperating from the effects of the war, we are, under the present policy, actually retrograding still. Our Baltic and North Sea trade salmost gone. The state of the trade with the European ports of the Atlantic may be seen from the fact that in 1860 we had nearly louble the amount of all foreign ships together, and to-day we do not have one-third, and so on through the whole trade of the civ-

He chose the practice of law, and when only twenty-five years of age, defended with distinguished success, a judge who was being tried on articles of impeachment. So successful was he at the bar, that at the age of forty he found himself able to retire from practice which he never resumed except in one single instance, in which he defended the case of noor widow, whose little estate was being unjustly jeopardized. At the age of twentythree he entered public life as a member of nation, performed that duty Friday evening, the Pennsylvania Legislature, and ever after hetween 8 and 9 o'clock, at the residence of in some form or other, labored in public life intil his retirement from the presidency in 1861. He not only served in the councils of the nation at home, but was its honored representative at the courts of the most powerful nations abroad, having filled the posts of minister plenipotentiary Petersburg and London. Mr. Buchanan gradually rose in favor with his party, both as a man of undoubted ability, and purity of private life, until he became their candidate for the presidency, to which he was elected over John C. Fremont. He had been educated in connexion with students from the Southern States, and no doubt had partially imbued with the doctrine of State rights, and his cabinet, who were composed of the tried friends of many years, held those views most fully. In the strife which developed into our civil war, those trusted friends of his were most actively engaged, and no doubt abused his confidence to the furtherance of the object they had in view. Their treachery was not apparent to him until the power of secession sentiment had reached an altitude that appalled him. His mind was not clear as to the right to employ force in order to retain the disaffected States. He was old and shrank from conflict, and in sorroy he tacitly consented to the dissolution of the Union. There is nothing in all the history of the times to show that Mr. Buchanan was n any degree criminal, but all the facts show that, while to use his own words, "he mean well for his country," still he was too aged a man to-stem the torrent be had unwittingly allowed to reach such fearful proportions .-No man in our nation has probab the recipient of stronger condemnation, both from friends and toes, and yet, when his life is all reviewed, it is clear that his errors were more of the head than of the heart. He was a man of unblemished character, of the most thorough gentlemanliness of demeanor, of generous instincts, and unflinching devotion

LAY DELEGATION.

The principle of lay delegation was last week sanctioned by an overwhelming vote in the General M. E. Conference at Chicago. The report of the majority on the subject having been discussed at length for a week or more without result, Rev. Dr. Haven reported a plan, substantially the same as that originally introduced, but subject to the approval of both laity and ministry, which was at once adopted by a vote of 226 to 3, amid loud demonstrations Grant made the following speech in response of satisfaction from floor and galleries. This to an address by Col. Alleman, chairman of result will no doubt afford quite as much gratification outside of the Conference among the masses of the church as within it. Fire.-On Wednesday morning last, about eleven o'clock, an alarm of fire was given in this city. Grosscup's Hall bell tolled a short time, and a general rush was made for the scene of disaster. The little Bridgeton engine was on hand ready for action with a few feet of dilapidated bose, but fortunately the fire was extinguished without her services. It originated from a chimney in one of the frame boat landing, and burned a few of the shingles on the roof. It happened in a fortunate time when the fire was immediately discover ed, or the row of buildings could not have been saved. We have so frequently urged the importance of a more effective fire apparratus and organization in this city, that words seem to be of no avail. The only thing which will arouse our citizens is an extensive conflagration, which we hope never to see. There is nothing to prevent a large portion of our fairly under way.

R. J. FITHIAN. ELLIS' FERTILIZER. AMMONIATED PHOSPHATE.

FITHIAN & WARE.

Unsurpassed for all kinds of crops Quality warranted uniform. JARRETTOWN, MONTGOMERY COUNTY, PA, Near-Fort Washington, N. P. R. R., 9th Month 15th 1867.

9th Month 15th 1867.

To William Ellis, Philadelphia:

RESPECTED FRIEND:—I have used Ellis' Fertilizer, Ammoniated Phosphate, on several crops this season and upon all with satisfaction. I consider try use of it as establishing in my own mind its superiority.

ON CORN.—I found its effect on this crop better than good compost, and nearly as good as manure and compost together side by side. On the ground where the Fertilizer was used there was no manure.

ON POTATOES.—I found it better than any other
Fertil zer used, not excepting barnyard manure. LADIES' SPRING CLOAKINGS!

Large stock, cheaper than last year. Look at our stock before buying. Ladies coats ready made or world to grade and fine polatoes, and more of them. ON GRASS.—For top-dressing grass I used No. 1

Peruvian Guano and Ellis' Fertilizer side by side, at the rate of 200 the coal to the coars. the rate of 300 ibs. each to the acre, and I think that the grass was quite as good, if not better, where the latter was put. ON STRAWBERRIES.—There was no other from 5 to 3½ licenes in circumsterence, the largest way round.

FOR CABBAGE.—I consider it better for this crop than baroyard manure, having tried it this summer I can recommend it as cheaver, its cost per acre being something less than half that of baroyard manure. I am using it on wheat this fall, and recommending it to my neighbors. R. C. SHOEMAKER. Upper-Merion, Montgomery County, Pa To Mr. William Ellis.

Dear Sir-1 have used your "Ammoniated Phos

DEAR SIR—I have used your "Ammoniated Phosphate" the present season, on Grass, Corn, and Potatoes, with tuarked success and can recommend it to the public as a cheap and valuable Fertilizer. On Peach Trees, I found it equally successful, preventing the grub from attacking the tree.

REALUS HALL'S VECETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

ITS EFFECT IS MIRACULOUS. ITS EFFECT IS MIRACULOUS.

It is a perfect and wonderful article. Cures baldness. Makes hair grow A better dressing than any "oil" or "pomatum." Softens brash, dry and wiry hair into Beautiful Silken Tresses. But, above all, the great wonder is the rapidity with which it restress Gray Hair To its Original Color.

The whitest and worst looking hair resumes its youthful beauty by its use. It does not dye the hair, but strikes at the root and fills it with new life and coloring matter.

The first application will do good; you will see the Natural Color returning every day, and before you know it, the old, gray, discolored appearance of the hair will be gone, giving place to lustrous, shining and beautiful locks. Ask for Hall's Sicilian Hair Renewer; no other article is at all like it in effect. Stamp over the top of the bottle. All others are imitations.
